Our Daily Special.
A poor liar makes a poor diplomat.

Luke McLuke Says:

Any old mutt can steal kisses from a girl. But it takes nerve to steal candy from a baby.

If a man would devote as much energy to hard work as he does to cussing his luck he wouldn't have anything to cuss about.

It doesn't do a married man any good to know it all. He never gets a chance to tell it.

The photograph that a girl's own mother wouldn't be able to recognize is always the one that a girl thinks looks most like her.

Some people seem to imagine that a man who confesses that he likes the efforts of Honus Wagner better than those of Wagner, the composer, is a low brow.

Father's idea of disciplining the children is to bawl mother out every time one of the kids does anything wrong.

One reason why the woman who kisses and nurses her Fido wouldn't like to have a baby around the house is because Fido might catch something from the baby.

When a man remembers that there are nearly 2,000,000,000 people in the world he wonders why trouble happens to pick him out and make him the goat. Any fat head can make hay while the sun is shining. But the fellow who can make hay when there isn't any sun always gets the kale.

We are all inclined to be very careful when it is too late.

A jolly will get more out of a woman than will a threat or a club.

If some of the June brides had to do it all over again they would select April 1 as a more appropriate wedding date than June 1.

Another difference between genius and talent is that talent gets a hair cut once a month.

A man goes to school and to college and thinks he has completed his education. Then he gets married and finds that he has only begun his education.

The man who is killing time is also assassinating his opportunities.

If a man has four or five needy heirs it is a cinch that he is going to live to be at least a hundred years old.

The Only Chance.

"Hurry, George, or we will be late to the picture show."

"Oh, we don't want to get there before it starts."

"Yes, we do, too—if we don't I can't see what the other women are wearing."—Exchange.

The Simple Life.

Many persons trying to live the simple life find a lot of fault with the bill of fare.—Judge.

Ripening Fruits.

Fruits undergo marked changes in chemical composition as they grow to their full size and ripen. In some fruits ripening increases the sugar content and decreases the acid, whereas in some others both sugar and acid content decrease in the ripening process.

Unforeseen.

"Didn't you guarantee that mattress for six months?"

"Yes, sir, but you didn't tell me it was for a boy's boarding school."—New York Times.

A good inflow makes a good outflow; he who takes in much can and must give much.—Sturke.

Three Rivers.

Nansemond, the name of a river in Virginia, is from the Indian word Nawnschmound, "the place from which we were driven away." The Flint, in Michigan, was called by the Indians Perwonigo, "the river of the flint," from the abundance of this stone on its banks. Humboldt river, in Nevada, was named by Fremont in honor of Baron Humboldt.

Hen Trickery.

Since Australia is at the antipodes from us the hens there naturally lay best from May to November, contrary to the habit of hens here. It is now suggested that if a hen after her annual laying period in the southern hemisphere were rushed across the equator to the United States she might lay during the rest of the year at the same rate and thus establish a new "record" for a year's production. Still, it looks like a mean trick to play on a poor hen.—Youth's Companion.

Animal Etiquette.

No one who is at all observant of the ways of animals can have failed to notice how gentle large dogs, like the St. Bernard and the Great Dane, are to their smaller canine fellows. It is rare that a big dog turns upon one of the little fellows, no matter how aggravating and snappy the latter may be. Instead, he invariably treats the small dog's antics with unruffled and dignified tolerance. For there is a recognized code of etiquette among animals, if you please, quite as much as there is among human beings. In truth, there are not a few respects in which the animals can give points on politeness and good behavior to man himself.

DO IT NOW.

Decision never becomes easier by postponement, while habit grows stronger every day. Common sense as well as conscience says, "Choose this day."

Accidentally cutting himself in the right foot with an ax while chopping timber at Oneida, Michael Ambrose has died of blood poisoning.

For the third time in his fifteen years of life, John Kugle, Jr., of Marietta, is nursing a broken arm—all three breaks at the same place.

Experiments conducted by former Judge W. F. Sader have given rise to a movement for cultivation of sugar maple trees in the Carlisle region.

The Sons of Veterans of Allentown Easton and Bethlehem have completed arrangements to camp for one week, starting July 4, at Weatherly.

For a circus to have a parade in Norristown a license of $10 must be obtained, while other parades cost the paraders only twenty-five cents.

The Board of Construction company, of Reading, was awarded the contract to erect a new high school building at Schuylkill Haven, for $54,600.

James H. Graham, Jr., of Butler was appointed a factory inspector for the department of labor and industry and will specialize in building inspections.

The tax rate of Robesonia, near Reading, has been reduced to 7 from 6½ mills because of the decrease in the assessed valuation of property in that borough.

In court at Mifflintown Judge Seibert fined William S. Musser, of Port Royal, and Edward R. Beers, of Mifflin, each $75 and costs for operating slot machines.

A Lancaster jury awarded Rose Hergenrother, a nurse, $4812 damages against Dr. N. E. Bitzer for improper treatment, which she claims rendered her a cripple.

Captain James N. Lightner, of Company K, Fourth Regiment, Lancaster says he can have his company of sixty-five men ready to start for Mexico in ten hours.

George Terwitszi lost a foot and John Tarsel, Shamokin, an arm, when the former was caught under a mine car, and the latter in a fall of coal in Shamokin mines.

At the monthly luncheon of the Rotary club in Reading no forks were provided. There was a great exhibition of "sword swallowing" by the city's business men.

Resenting an attack on the Mexican policy of President Wilson, Marcus Ageris, a Greek, of Canonsburg, shot and killed Gustave Sellis, also a Greek in East Canonsburg.

A large doe deer spent a week on an island in the Juniata river near Mifflintown, and had to be chased back into the forest for fear dogs would run her down.

All the embargoed shipments of hay for the allies from western points have been released from the yards of the Lehigh Valley railroad, at Hartz's Curve, near Hazleton.

Secretaries of chambers commerce throughout the state will study factory organization, cost of accounting and scientific management at a summer school at State college.

Mrs. Robert Nuss, of West Berwick, was rescued in her bathroom in an unconscious condition with a gas tube in her mouth, just after a quarrel between her husband and a boarder.

Oscar Denny, receiver of the Mercer County Brewing company, petitioned court in Mercer to permit the sale of the brewery, stating it was impossible to run the concern at a profit.

Lebanon is to have a third public playground through the liberality of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway company in providing a plot of ground in the northeast section of the city.

To pay for the erection of a new eight-room school building and to double the capacity of the Penn building the school board of Bethlehem has authorized the sale of $65,000 worth of bonds.

Umpire Charles P. Neill will clear the calendar of anthracite mine disputes, in Hazleton, when he hands down decisions in the two remaining cases before the anthracite conciliation board.

Mrs. Margaret Fuessner, Hazleton, sued the Wilkes-Barre & Hazleton railway for $20,000 for the death of her husband, Adam Fuessner, killed by a freighted barrel of whiskey falling on him.

When a celluloid comb in her hair ignited from the heat of a stove by which she was sitting, eleven-year-old Grace Tohe's hair was singed and she was scorched about the face and hands, at Mt. Wolf.

Miss Elizabeth Reese, of Scranton, resigned as matron of the Home of the United Charities, at West Hazleton, and Miss Katherine Knoebel, of the State hospital, at Warren, was elected her successor.

Residents and property owners in Doylestown are aroused over the alleged unjust charges of the water company. In some cases sixty-seven per cent more water is charged for than used, it is asserted.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company has given an order in Pittsburgh, for five new bridge spans calling for 1450 tons of fabricated steel. This is part of a plan to reconstruct bridges over the entire system.

Teams representing St. Paul's Reformed church, in Northampton, have made good their efforts to raise $12,400 in a month and wipe out the church debt. The final accounting shows that $16,134.50 has been pledged.

The Reading Railway company has ordered the erection of ten switch engines at the locomotive shop in Reading. They will be of a new type, six wheeled, and are to be completed during the summer. Work has been started on five Pacific type passenger locomotives and it is expected that they will be ready for service early this coming summer.

FOR STATE SENATE DR. JOHN W. MORROW, Marchand, Pa.

For some years I have had, I trust, a laudable ambition to represent the 37th Senatorial District in the Senate. I now announce my name as a Republican candidate for the Senate of the coming primary. I have had many friendly encouragements to do so—yet not compelled, by well wishers, to announce, and I trust my enemies, if I have any, will not object.

I am quite well-known in the two counties, but you will pardon me for reminding the voters that in the legislative sessions of 1891 and 1897 I had the honor to represent my county, in part, and have had the opportunity to learn the procedure or "modus operandi" of that body. As a physician, I have been closely associated with many voters, taxpayers, farmers and others. I will mention some subjects of legislation that are of interest to many, such as taxation, agriculture, stock raising, public schools, etc. Besides, as a district, we are much interested in railroads, coal, hospitals and Normal schools. I pledge my honor, if elected, to endeavor faithfully, in all cited interests, as well as upon all moral and financial interests, to do my level best. I wish to say, as did one of the well-known Republicans of the state a few years ago, "I decry the use of money in politics."

I do sincerely and respectfully solicit the support and vote of all citizens of whatever nationality, race, color or creed, who are entitled to vote for me at the said Primary. I will try and see as many voters before the election as possible.

Yours sincerely,

JOHN W. MORROW

Marchand, Pa., February 10, 1916.
