Bay Rum.

Bay rum is manufactured from the dried leaves of Pimento acris. Bay rum is procured by distillation, and this in a very simple manner. The leaves are picked from the trees and then dried. In this state they are placed in the retort, which is then filled with water, and the process of distillation is carried on. The vapor is then condensed in the usual way and forms what is known as "bay oil," a very small quantity of which is required for each puncheon of rum.

The Prettiest Feet.

A Swiss professor states that not one woman in a score has a perfect foot, owing to the wearing of high heeled boots and pointed toe shoes. Russian, German, American, Austrian and Dutch women, he says, have broad feet, while those of Englishwomen are too narrow to fulfill classical and healthy conditions. The women of the Latin races, excluding Frenchwomen, have the best formed and therefore the prettiest feet, the professor says.—London Mail.

Love For an Hour.

What is it that makes people so much better company at a masquerade than under any other circumstance?

In the circle of the black mask and the domino we have no name, no past, no future, no self to live up to or down to and the mood that is uppermost need never impose itself upon a later mood.

We can be spontaneous and genuine. No wonder we are good company!

For on the whole our spontaneous impulses are kindly and gay.

We are almost ready to love our fellow men for an hour if we are not thereby committing ourselves to loving them for a lifetime.—Pittsburgh Press.

Time.

Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.—Benjamin Franklin.

Two of a Kind.

Father—What do you think of a boy who throws orange skins on the pavement? Son—I don't know. What do you think of an orange skin that throws a man on the pavement?—Philadelphia Ledger.

Jealousy.

Jealousy is a consumption bred within the structured house of love when all its windows are sealed. When we are jealous we try to shut ourselves up in a shadowed privacy or timid miserliness. We want some one all to our selves. We fear that if we open the doors and let in the current of others' affection or the winds of impersonal interest our own share of love may be swept away. A woman may be jealous not only of her husband's friends, but of his work and even of his religion. This means she has kept her windows closed and shuttered, so that she looks always at the walls of her house of love, never through and beyond them.—Dr. R. C. Cabot.

Royal Nicknames.

William I. of England was William the Conqueror. He conquered Harold and became king of the first Norman dynasty that gave England four rulers. His father was Robert the Devil.

Leopold I. of Germany was called the Little Man in Red Stockings. Juana, widow of Philip the Fair, was the Mad Queen.

James II. of Scotland was the Just. James IV. of the same country was called King of the Iron Belt.

Charles the Great of France, son of Pepin the Short, extended the limits of the empire from the Baltic to the Mediterranean and from the bay of Biscay to the coast of Illyria. His son was known as Louis the Pious.

Very Moving Pictures.

"Say, old chap, are you fond of moving pictures?"

"I should say so!"

"Then come round to our house next Tuesday and give a hand. We're moving that day."—Chicago Herald.

Pedagogue.

The word "pedagogue," as applied to schoolteachers, is from a Greek word, paidagogos, compounded of pais, boy and agogos, leader; hence paidagogos, leader of boys. In ancient Greece the paidagogos was not strictly an instructor, but a domestic slave who looked after the boys of a family, took them to and from school and kept them off the streets. The boys were put in his charge at the age of six, and he probably sat with them in school. Although his position was simply that of a trusted servant, it came in time to be applied to the teacher, though always with a slurring or contemptuous significance.

Rain Hats in Korea.

Korea is a country of strange head-dresses, but perhaps the most curious headgear of all are the immense rain hats worn by the farmers' wives while working in the fields during the rainy season. These extraordinary coverings are often as much as seven feet long and five feet broad and protect the body as effectively as any umbrella could do.

Daylight Darkness.

There are a number of daylight dark-nesses recorded in history, among them being those in B. C. 295, A. D. 746 and 775. There was a dark day in England in January, 1807 and another on Oct. 21, 1816. There was also a dark day in Detroit on Oct. 19, 1762. On May 19, 1780, there was such atmospheric gloom over Hartford, Conn., that the legislature adjourned for the day.

HOPEFULNESS.

Hope means the trimming of the lamps and the girding of the loins and the resolute attitude of strife. It is help and comfort, hope and inspiration, that we want even more than knowledge.
