INDIAN Motocycle is the BEST Motorcycle

WHEN a stock motor shows its ability day after day in all sorts of tough tests, you get the true angle on a quality motorcycle.

Stock models of the New Indian Powerplus Motor perform brilliantly every time they have an opportunity of proving their superiority. For power, speed, climbing, cleanliness, noiseless action and endurance they are mechanical marvels.

You don't have to "tune up" a Powerplus Motor or "coax" it to make good. Any stock Powerplus, selected at random, will do around 70 miles an hour.

Yet the 1916 Powerplus Indian operates at the lowest cost.

Come in and see this master motor. Get a line on its supreme merit points. Let us show you what the 1916 Indian is made of—and how. Don't take our say-so for it—find out from an actual demonstration why it's absolutely the BEST.

England's Roman Amphitheater.

Dorchester possesses the best preserved Roman amphitheater in England, in which over 10,000 people gathered in 1705 to witness the burning of a woman who had murdered her husband. Dorchester was a place of importance as early as the Roman occupation, and at a later date it had an unenviable association with Judge Jeffreys and his bloody assize.

Early Irish Kings.

Beginning from A. D. 4, seven successive kings of Ireland were all slain four of them by their successors.

Know What a Mole Is?

How dull the dictionary It says "a mole is a permanent dark brown spot on the human skin." A California poetess refers to a mole as "a teardrop petrified by its own audacity."—Toledo Blade.

The Devil's Sonata.

Tartini, the great violinist, after dining indiscreetly dreamed that he had made a bargain with the devil for his soul. To prove his powers the evil one seized a violin and played a sonata of exquisite beauty. Tartini awoke with the ringing in his ears, committed the music to paper and published it as "The Devil's Sonata."
