APPLICATION FOR A CHARTER.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Indiana County No. 223 June Term, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Court of Common Pleas of Indiana County on Monday, May 22, 1916, at 10:00 o'clock,

A Puzzled Artist.

Achenbach, the German artist, enjoyed a vogue some years ago. A certain collector had bought from an art dealer a seascape represented as a genuine Achenbach. Afterward it was pronounced to be a copy. The buyer brought an action against the dealer, who turned the tables by declaring that his picture was genuine and the other was a copy. Achenbach himself was summoned by the courts to tell which was which. Amazed at the absolute similarity of the two paintings, he gazed at them for a long time, inspected them closely, front and back, sniffed them and then frankly admitted he could not tell which was the original and which the copy.

Wise Precaution.

"Good night, Jinks. What are you stuffing all that raw cotton into your ears for?"
"Well, I was told not to stay out late and I believe in preparedness."—Baltimore American.

Life and Limb.

"I want to insure."
"Yes, fire or life?"
"Both—I've got a wooden leg."

EDUCATION.

Bend all your energies to acquire an education. Nobody ever drifted into an education. Conscious effort to direct one's reading and thinking into the best channels is an absolute requisite. Choice must be made of books, of friends and of pleasures. One cannot read trash and think literature.—Amos R. Wells.
