Wounds of the Heart.

In wounds of the heart itself the escape of blood is never in large quantity, and the lethal consequences are due to the fact that the escape of blood from within its cavity of cavities into the surrounding sac of the pericardium mechanically interrupts the alternate contraction and expansion by which its pumping action is maintained. Accordingly the results of the wound of the heart are usually identical with those of gradual suffocation. — Exchange.

Morocco.

Morocco, in spite of its close proximity to Europe, is the most fanatical of the Mohammedan countries.

No Pity There.

Undutiful boys may see themselves held up as before a mirror in the following anecdote: A young Irish girl in giving testimony in a court of justice, when asked some questions in reference to the prisoner, replied, "Ar rah, sir, I'm sure he never made his mother smile." There is a biography of unkindness in that simple sentence. — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

His Threat.

Creditor (to tailor)—I'll have no more dunning. If you don't stop it I'll order another suit.—Fleegende Blaetter.

Enthusiasm.

Enthusiasm either makes money or costs money. Take your choice.—Atchison Globe.

Father of Astronomy.

Hipparchus, the father of astronomy, established the fact of the precession of the equinoxes—that is, that the sun crosses the equator about one minute farther westward each year—150 years before Christ was born, and it is consequently believed that he knew the earth was spherical in form. He catalogued 1,000 stars and invented an instrument for calculating latitude and longitude.

As Good as New.

The Browns were always on the outs. High words were heard coming from their flat one day, and a neighbor said: "Oh, dear, have the Browns had a new quarrel?" "No," answered another neighbor, "but they've patched up the old one till it's as good as new."

By Way of Introduction.

Officer (to Tommy, who has been using the whip freely on a restive horse)—Don't beat him; talk to him, man—talk to him! Tommy (to horse, by way of opening the conversation)—I come from Manchester.—London Punch.

Precaution.

"Would you say that Blank is honest?" "Well, I wouldn't say that he is dishonest, but I'll tell you, Mr. Lawyer, whenever he wanted to borrow money from me I always managed to be just out of funds."—Detroit Free Press.

A Judicial Opinion.

"Why do you dislike your teacher so, Willie?" "I don't exactly dislike her, but it's perfectly plain to me why she never got married."—Detroit Free Press.

Making Himself at Home.

The Diner—Say, of all the vile, nauseous messes ever set before a man to eat— The Waiter—Sh! You seem to think we're your wife.—Boston Globe.

Hard on the Proofreader.

Getting typographical errors out of dictionaries is a task beside which that little Augean stable affair of Hercules was an afternoon snap. When the Oxford edition of the Bible was published the proofs were read and reread ten times. Then a reward of $250 was offered to any one who should find a typographical blunder. One was found in the first chapter of Genesis. Dictionary proofreading is even more difficult than Bible proofreading. There is a tradition that a man who read proofs of the Lord's Prayer for that Oxford edition went insane out of fear lest he made a blunder in it.—Philadelphia Ledger.
