Facts Versus Fallacies

FACT is a real state of things. FALLACY is an apparently genuine but really illogical statement or argument.

A FAVORITE FALLACY of the Prohibitionist, that the opportunity to indulge in alcoholic beverages is always followed by excess, is met by the FACTS presented by a Boston writer, C. B. Smith, in an article in the Boston Herald. Writes Mr. Smith:

"THE cafe is a part of the life of the French people. It would be just as strange in France to see a town, no matter how small, without its cafes as it would in this country to see towns without churches. There is no village in France so small but what has one or more. . . ."

"WHEN the French people want a drink they do not go behind a screen to take it. There is nothing wrong in drinking there, because drinking is not abused. Everybody drinks in France, but all are temperate. There is practically no drunkenness anywhere in France. I have been to Paris and other French cities many times, and I have yet to see a Frenchman drunk. . . ."

"FRANCE will in all probability never adopt prohibition or pass any stringent restrictive laws against liquor. Practically all of Southern France and the lower western part of France are planted with vines. A large area of the war in France at the present time is in the champagne district, where the wine of that name is made. A very considerable part of all France is given over to the industry of the vine. In France, just before the war, there were 480,000 families dependent upon the sale of those products.

"THE French people rightly consider themselves the most temperate people in the world. While they are a nation of universal drinkers, from childhood to old age, no one appears to drink to excess. There are some prohibition agitators there as elsewhere, but very little was heard of them before the war and less will be heard from them after the war."

THE FALLACY that the opportunity to drink is invariably followed by excess, is here met, according to Mr. Smith's article, by the significant FACT that, although "a nation of universal drinkers," yet "the French people rightly consider themselves the most temperate people in the world."

Offer Services Free of Charge

The United Doctors Specialist, licensed by the State of Pennsylvania for the treatment of all diseases, chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this trip consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of treatment. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the result obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and locality, that at last treatments have been discovered that are reasonably sure and certain in their effect.

The United Doctors are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, rheumatism, sciatica, tapeworm, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep-seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physician, should not fail to call. Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

According to their system no more operation for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter, piles, etc., as all cases accepted will be treated without operation or hypodermic injection, as they were among the first in America to earn the name of "Bloodless Surgeons" by doing away with the knife, with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

No matter what our ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit at this time may help you.

Worn-out and run down men or women, no matter what your ailment may be, call it costs you nothing. Remember, this free offer is for this visit only. Married ladies come with their husbands and minors with their parents. Laboratories, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
