

1,000 NAMES ON B. R.& P. HONOR ROLL

That recognition and commendation of efficient service is of as great importance as condemnation of rule violation, is the belief of Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Railway officials.

When service of more than ordinary merit is performed by an employe, a letter of commendation is placed with his record, and, in addition, his name is placed upon the Roll of Honor which appears in each issue of the company's Employes Magazine. During the past four years over 1,000 names have been placed on this roll.

To be given a place on this Honor Roll stamps an employe as alert, observing and interested. Men who report defects which might lead to serious accidents and men who observe and report improper conditions and suggest changes which will make for the betterment of service, have their names placed on the Roll of Honor.
