F. S. BOND, OF ERIE. Many inquiries from all parts of Pennsylvania as to the purpose of the acts. Pennsylvania State Chamber of Cemmerce prove the general interest. among all classes of citizens in the Patriot.

The headquarters of the chamber are on the ground floor front of the Telegraph building, Harrisburg, but the board of directors meet in different parts of the state from time to time so as to keep in touch with local conditions. The requirements for membership are such that any one may become a member of the State Chamber. A campaign among individuals and business firms for membership is being conducted by the committee on membership. The chairman of this committee is Mr. F. S. Bond, who is the president of the Erie Board of Commerce. Mr. Bond, although in active business in Erie, is greatly interested in all civic movements of benefit to his city and state. He devotes several hours a day to the affairs of his local Board and finds time to attend the meetings of the directors of the State Chamber and visit the headquarters in Harrisburg on his committee business. It is such men as Mr. Bond that have made the State Chamber a possibility. Mr. Bond, when in the state capital recently, said: "The State Chamber of Commerce is organized for the purpose of fostering a spirit of co-opera tion between the Chambers of Commerce. Boards of Trade, the various civic. agricultural, commercial and industrial institutions, and also individuals, firms and corporations, to advance the welfare of the people and their agricultural and business pros-

Women Are Eager to Aid Country; Proclamation Sent to Legislature

Eager to serve their country, the executive board of the Penusylvania Woman Suffrage Association has issued a proclamation calling on members of the legislature to pass the suffrage amendment resolution as soon as possible to enable them to concentrate upon national patriotic work. The organization already has offered its services to the State and this offer has been accepted. In addition the national suffrage body has offered all its units, one of which is the Pennsylvania association, to the Federal government and President Wilson. Secretary of War Newton D. Baker has accepted for the President.

The proclamation follows:

Harrisburg, Pa., April 10. By the Executive Board of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association:

A proclamation: WHEREAS, members of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association are vitally and directly interested in those events and that which must follow those events which have moved the President of the United States before Congress to declare a state of war;

WHEREAS, We already through our state and national organizations have offered our services to the State of Pennsylvania, the Governor thereof, the Federal Government and the Chief Executive

WHEREAS, The Secretary of War has accepted our offer-To establish employment bureaus for women, To increase the food supply by the training of women for agricultural work and the elimination of waste. To co-operate with the Red Cross Society, and

To assist in the Americanization of aliens. Now, therefore, we, members of the Executive Board of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association, do call upon the members of the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and each of them, to pass as quickly as possible the measure extending the franchise to the women of the State of Pennsylvania, known as "Joint Resolution No. 117," and thus enable us to concentrate upon the work to which we are pledged in the service of our government. Given under our hand this tenth day of April in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventeen, and of the organization of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association, the Forty-
