

To Our Mothers!

A TOAST

A. M. Taylor

TO those, who, through the intervention of the hand of fate, ne'er knew a Mother's care and love, our deepest sympathy. Great has been their loss.

Favored of God are they who, even in the early afternoon of life, are still allowed to greet her living presence, caress the furrowed brow and toil-worn hands, or lend support to tottering footsteps from out their own abundant strength. Long may they be so blessed.

And others of us, who, with aching heart and tear-dimmed eye have watched her dear form laid away to well-earned rest, still pause the while to worship at the shrine of memory, brushing aside the dust of years, and care and strife of living, to wander once again in the paths of childhood days, recalling joyous hours at Mother's knee.

Friends---

To Our Mothers!

SELF DENIAL.

By persisting in a habit of self denial we shall increase the inward powers of the mind and produce such cheerfulness and greatness of spirit as will fit us for all good purposes and shall not have lost pleasure, but changed it, the soul being then filled with its own intrinsic pleasures.—Henry Moore.

The Barber's Query.

There is always something interesting in a barber shop. For instance, we always get a sly grin when a customer wearing on his face what is very plainly a six days' growth of beard is asked by the barber whose chair he approaches, "Shave, sir?" One can't help wondering what the barber thinks he might have come in to have done.—Detroit Free Press.

OBEDIENCE.

Obedience is good and indispensable, but if it be obedience to what is wrong there is no name for such a depth of human cowardice and calamity, spurned everlastingly by the godal.—Thomas Carlyle.

Preparedness.

"Mamma, I wish I had a crutch," complained little Johnnie.
"What in the world does a boy with two good straight legs want with a crutch?"
"Well, mamma, it's a good thing to practice on in case you get hurt and have to use it some time."—Philadelphia Ledger.

NOBLE THOUGHTS.

If instead of a gem or even a flower we would cast the gift of a lovely thought into the heart of a friend, that would be giving as the angels give.—George MacDonald.

BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS IS COMING

GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH WILL SOON EXHIBIT IN THIS VICINITY

Once again the glad tidings are being spread broadcast telling of the coming of Barnum & Bailey's circus. The greatest show on Earth, it is announced, will positively be exhibited within easy traveling distance this season and, as usual, a large percentage of the population will declare a holiday to visit the show.

The big circus will exhibit in Johnstown on May 24.

It is promised that nothing to compare with the present Barnum & Bailey performance has ever before been seen under canvas. New and novel features have been imported from abroad and a program of events, thrilling, educational and screamingly funny, will occupy every instant in three rings, four stages, the riggings above and the hippodrome surrounding for more than three hours.

There is a new and gorgeous pageant entitled, "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" in which nearly 1,400 persons and one thousand animals appear in magnificent costumes rivaling the dress of the people of the famous "Arabian Nights" story. This will be followed by a host of acts in all parts of the great enclosure. There will be sixty clowns, a greatly increased menagerie of wild and untamed animals, four great herds of elephants, several caravans of camels and many recently born baby animals.

The free street parade, which will start from the circus lot at 10 o'clock on the morning of circus day, is entirely different from anything of the kind ever shown before. It will be three miles in length and there will be bands on foot, on horseback, and riding on top of wagons of red and gold. There will be six bands in all and they will be assisted by three steam calliopes and an electric piano.

With the largest tent in the history of all circuses, the Barnum & Bailey circus promises this season to make good again its boast that it is the Greatest Show on Earth. Five railroad trains comprising 89 railroad cars, will be required to transport its paraphernalia, and more than 750 horses will be used to transfer its wagons from the railroad yards to the show lot.

Pershing May Lead U. S. Army In France.

MAJOR GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING

Washington, May 9.—Orders summarily Major General John J. Pershing, commanding the Southern Department to Washington, have aroused much speculation here. Officials have declined to give any explanation or comment on reports that the general's visit is connected with the subject of selecting a commander for a military expedition to France.

General Pershing is known to have the confidence of administration officials because of his record as commander of the punitive expedition in Mexico. Since the bulk of the regular army is now under his command, however, and since several of the big army mobilization camps are to be established in his territory, it was pointed out that his trip here might have to do only with organization work.

There are indications that the general was summoned here at the personal request of Secretary Baker, but the secretary refused to comment tonight and said movements of army officers were not proper subjects for speculation.
