A Worth While Thought.

"I have found that the best retort to an unkind or a witty remark of any description is a laugh. Try it."—Selected.

Faith?

"It's a mistake," said Uncle Eben, "to imagine that faith consists of looking at work and trustin' to luck."—Washington Star.

The Necessary Inclosure.

"It is not easy to inclose stamps?" "It is not," replied the necessary even "but it is necessary even to inclose stamps," responded the necessary even.

Bargain Sale.

A small boy had a bicycle which he wished to sell, so he placed a sign in the basement window, which read: "Bicycle for sale. Five or seven dollars."

More Precious Than Gold.

Platinum, which is much more valuable than gold in weight, is being increasingly produced in Columbia.

Turned White Overnight.

A black cat which was accidentally locked in a safe at Athens, Ga., duplicated the feat of Marie Antoinette and a few other celebrities, if a dispatch to the Buffalo Express may be believed. When the safe was opened next morning the cat walked out, unharmed, but perfectly white.

Not For Him.

Mrs. Newlywed—"Henry, do you remember Jack Watson? Well, he has just been married, and to a girl of absolutely no family at all." Mr. Newlywed (looking sadly around at the collection of his wife's relatives)—"A-a-a-h-h me! Some men do have good luck!"

Gratitude.

A bereaved widow thus thanks an insurance company for the prompt payment of her claim: "April 20th my husband took out an accident policy and in less than a month he was accidentally drowned. I consider it a good investment."

Game in Mexico.

Mexico cannot be said to offer a field for hunters of big game, and the term, "a sportsman's paradise," which is sometimes applied to it, is an exaggeration. Among animals may be enumerated the peccaries or javelines, deer, rabbits, hares. The reptiles include alligators, turtles and iguanas. Whales, seals and sea lions are encountered on the Pacific coast.—New York Telegram.

Mendoza Is Old City.

Mendoza is the metropolis of western Argentina. It is a city of some size carefully planned and able to stand comparison with any town in the new world or the old one the point of municipal beauty. It looks distinctly new, but as a matter of fact it is one of the oldest towns in the western hemisphere. It was founded fifty years before the well-known settlement of Jamestown in Virginia, while the fathers and mothers of the Pilgrims were still living peacefully in England.

Not Always Happy.

It is customary but I think it is a mistake, to speak of "happy" childhood. Children are often overanxious and acutely sensitive. Man ought to be man and master of his fate; but children are at the mercy of those around them. Mr. Rarey, the great horse-tamer, has told us that he has known an angry word to raise the pulse of a horse ten beats in a minute. Think then how it must affect a child!—Lord Avebury.

More Recruits.

"My stomach's gone back on me. I can't go to banquets any more." "Cheer up, old chap. You're only sixty-five. You can still have a lot of fun dancing."

Financial Outlook.

Simpkins—"You are looking rather delicate, old man." Timkins—"Yes, and I'm feeling rather delicate financially. It wouldn't take much of a touch to break me."

Words of Wisdom.

"A man should inure himself to voluntary labor, and should not give up to indulgence and pleasure, as they beget no good constitution of body nor knowledge of the mind."—Socrates.

Caustic.

"I tell you, hearing those star opera singers on the phonograph is almost as good as hearing them on the stage." "Far better. You can shut them off whenever you like on the phonograph."

Different Things.

The fast life was ever at odds with the life of fasting.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Machine Sews Filled Bag.

A machine has been invented by a German that sews the open end or side of a filled bag and knots the thread automatically.

How to Remove Cinders.

A medicine dropper may be used with good effect in removing cinders from the eyelids by drawing them out by suction along with the fluids that have formed. A little pointed roll of soft paper also may prove useful.

Went Him One Better.

"I love you very much, papa," said four-year-old Edna, as she climbed on her father's knee. "I love you, dear," when you are a good girl," replied her father. "But, papa," said Edna, "I love you even when you ain't no good."

Youthful Diplomacy.

Pretty Teacher (severely)—"Johnny! Johnny Stubbs! You are whispering again." Johnny (a smart boy)—"Please, I am only telling Winnie Winkles what nice things all the gentlemen said about you when you walked along the street."

Wind Carries Bacteria.

Tests made by Irish scientists have shown that the wind will carry disease bacteria 200 feet and as high as 60 feet into the air.

Equipped.

"Do you think your wife would excel in statesmanship if she had an opportunity?" "Yes," replied Mr. Meekton. "Henrietta is not only a powerful hand in a regular argument, but she has gifts for prolonged discourse that would make her a wonder at filibustering."

Only One Danger.

"Are all these beautiful flowers for me?" asked the teacher when small Jimmy presented her with a bouquet. "Oh, yes, ma'am," said Jimmy, "unless the girl I swiped 'em from sees 'em."

Gloomy Assumption.

"How do you get on for peace at any price?" "I don't want any such thing. Even if I were willing to bargain on that point, sooner or later you'd get into a row about the price."

Love and Potatoes.

A member of a well-known club, on being asked to define "love," compared it to a potato—first, "because it shoots from the eyes," and secondly, "because it becomes less by paring."

What is Genius?

Genius is a handsome name frequently given to hard-working men after they have finished a tough job.—The American Magazine.

Test of Civilization.

The true test of civilization is, not the census, nor the size of cities, nor the crops, but the kind of man that the country turns out.—Emerson.

To Clean Brass.

Wet a cloth with ammonia and sprinkle cleaning powder on the ammonia and rub the brass with it. It will clean beautifully.

Sicily to Produce Acids.

Crude, tartaric and sulphuric acids are to be manufactured at Messina, Sicily. Sicilian fruit growers are financing the venture.

Crankis Are Obsolete.

The most successful self-made men are self-starters.—Deseret News.

Nor That Little Long.

"Man wants but little here below," remarked the new arrival in Hades, as he hurriedly removed his overcoat.

Magnet Lifts Great Weight.

A seven-pound electro magnet that will lift 15 times its own weight has been invented for many uses about machine shops.

Our Sawed-Off Sermon.

It is sometimes better for a young man to get the marble heart than to marry the girl and have to eat her marble cake.

Age of Women.

This is said to be a woman's age, yet women have little to say about their age.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

The Inept.

Some people would try to dodge a flood by hiding in the cellar.—Lafayette Courier.

Safe Bet.

A woman in Pottsville, Pa., laughed herself to death, but we are willing to wager that it wasn't over one of her husband's jokes.—Detroit Times.

THE TANGLED DOTS.

By Clifford Leon Sherman.

"When I was on my uncle's farm," said Robert, "I caught something that long." "Pooh, pooh," said Hazel, "if that is supposed to be a fish that you caught, let me tell you that no fish has a tail like a —" (198) (Copyright, 1918, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
