VERSO LA SOLUZIONE DELLA CRISI MINISTERIALE TEDESCA
LONDRA.—In seguito ai negoziati tra Karl Trimborn, capo del partito Centrista tedesco e la maggioranza socialista, la crisi ministeriale in Germania sembra risolta. Così dice un dispaccio da Berlino.

Il nuovo Gabinetto sarà composto di rappresentanti del partito centrista, del partito tedesco popolare e dei democratici, con "una benevole neutralità" della maggioranza socialista.

Herr Trimborn, continua il dispaccio ha chiesto a Konstantin Fehren-bach, Presidente del Reichstag, di accettare la carica di Cancelliere di Stato.

L'elenco dei ministri verrà sottoposto oggi al Presidente Ebert da Fehrenbach.

Il Reichstag sarà, per conseguenza, riaperto, il 24 corrente mese.

Il dottore Karl Helfferich, già Vice Cancelliere, è stato eletto per tre volte, durante le recenti elezioni, membro della nuova Camera tedesca.

L'ex primo ministro Hoffman della Baviera, ha accettato la carica di maestro di scuola a Kaiserlautern.

AUSTRIAN DESPOT IN ITALY

Excellent Reasons Why Commandant in Town of Buje Was Feared and Detested.

During the war, Austria, fearing and hating the Italians of Istria, placed every town under drastic military control.

It was the chief task of Colonel Vogelhuber, commander of Buje, to make the Italians feel his presence. They had felt it one day. Incensed by his latest decrees, they had come in crowds below his windows, discussing, gesticulating, angrily demanding an audience, until his troops had rammed them in the stomach with the butts of rifles and driven them off—off to their homes where they would find that during their absence a few more objects had mysteriously disappeared, woolen clothing, perhaps, or some pieces of furniture or a cherished picture. Not stolen, of course, but "requisitioned." It was neat.

He had had a good day but he would have a better evening. They had wanted an audience. Very well. That evening he would grant an audience to their leading citizens. More than that—he would dine them!

The leading citizens of Buje will not soon forget that dinner. The meal itself was excellent—infinitely better than any that they had had for months. It consisted of meats "requisitioned" from their own herds and flocks, grains from their own fields, wine from their own cellars. The host, Colonel Vogelhuber, sat at the head of the table, all smiles and benignity. He was solicitous that every one should have plenty. When the repast was finished, he rose.

He called the attention of the Italians of Buje to the fact that he had sent very few of them to Austrian internment camps. He emphasized his tolerance and liberality in this matter. His action, however, had been guided by a definite purpose. It might please them to be informed as to the purpose which he had had in mind.

"I do not care to intern you," he said, in a smiling climax, "because I prefer to execute you!"

"The troops of Italy are at present making some advance. I wish simply to announce to you now that before they ever reach Buje I shall have the pleasure of seeing every man of you shot. Good night, gentlemen. The pleasure has been mine."

Then, showing the yellow streak always present in such natures, he hastily summoned his soldiers, and every guest was escorted to the street at the point of a bayonet.

A gay, dashing wag was Vogelhuber. Dashing he was certainly, a few weeks later, when the Italian Bersagliere swept into Buje so suddenly that he did not have time to make good his promise, but found it prudent to run to save his own skin, even leaving a precious carload of stolen treasures behind him.—Willard Price, in World Outlook.
