United States Senator.

This question seems to be creating considerable excitement at Harrisburg, just now, and throughout the State. The election was postponed until next Tuesday—Gen. Cameron, of Dauphin, the nominee of the so-called Americans, only failed of an election by a few votes on Tuesday week last, and doubtless would have been elected if another ballot had been taken.

It is useless for the regular line Democracy to hope for success, and with them it becomes a question of choice of men merely. We observe that our Senator Col. CRESSWELL voted for Mr. CAMERON on the two ballots had. In this, we think he was right, and is sustained by the feelings of a majority of the people of all parties in this region. As a man, whatever his enemies may say to the contrary, Gen. CAMERON is a gentleman of ability, noble and kind hearted in his character. He has raised himself from the humble station of a printer's boy, without any of the adventitious aids of social accidents, to the high position he occupies; and no man in Pennsylvania has done more to encourage and assist young men by substantial help, to rise to usefulness in society than he. As a Senator, although not a debator of eminence, his great industry, knowledge and perseverance, made him amongst the most influential members of that body, and no one there succeeded in representing the interests of his State, or the claims of her children better than he.

As a choice, then, we cannot see what better course could be adopted, than that done by Mr. CRESSWELL. We cannot carry an old line Democrat. It is the merest vagary to hope it, and no sensible man has any such hope. It is not even possible in the chapter of accidents. And what then? Throw away abstractions, and elect a man who will make a good Senator, and a gentleman whose history, through unaided struggles from childhood to age—from poverty and obscurity to competence and fame, are the best commentaries on the Democracy we profess.

ALTOONA REGISTER AND RAILROAD JOURNAL.—This is the name of the new paper just commenced at Altoona by W. H. SNYDER, a practical and good printer. The first number is before us—the size of the Globe—and is as neat a weekly paper as there is any published in the State. The "Register" is designed to be an impartial vehicle of general useful intelligence, local, foreign, and domestic, avoiding partizan discussion, as much as possible. The editor has our best wishes for abundant success.

The official return of the special election for Senator in Philadelphia county, held on Tuesday of last week is as follows: Henry C. Pratt, (K. N. Whig,) 15,876, J. Murry Rush, (Democrat,) 13,893. We see it stated that Mayor Conrad's hosts of police officers took possession of each poll, and by their disorderly conduct kept hundreds of Democrats from voting.

IMPORTANT FROM CUBA.—Havana dates to the 15th inst., brings the intelligence that the city is in a great state of excitement. New military companies are forming, and the whole Island is declared in a state of siege and the ports in a state of blockade. A proclamation has been made, ordering the enlistment of all volunteers between the ages of 18 and 50, capable of bearing arms.

The Poor.

To the Editor of the Globe:—Permit me to make a few suggestions touching the wants of the poor and needy that may be in this borough and vicinity. That as the spiritual agents of the Great Shepherd of us all are nourishing patient believers with spiritual food—philanthropists should not be remiss in endeavoring to provide some way to ameliorate suffering humanity—although many may be unworthy objects of charity—but that is not our business to judge. Our Heavenly Father leteth the sun rise upon the just and the unjust, and to rain upon the righteous and wicked. Would it not be proper to call a public meeting at the Town Hall as early as convenient and after deliberation upon the subject, devise ways and means and appoint a committee of two or more faithful agents, and after ascertaining objects of charity, distribute at stated times to the needy without distinction of color, party or creed. It might be the means (through the interposition of Providence,) to win many from the error of their ways, and the prevention of crime, which the inclement season, and want of labor and high prices of provisions, might induce. For if we say to the naked and hungry, be ye clothed and be ye fed, what availeth it, unless we provide means. May all who are able, act upon the principle of universal charity and benevolence.

FROM MEXICO.—From statements which appear in the Vera Cruz and city of Mexico papers, it is evident that the revolutionary party was gaining strength.

VETOED.—President Pierce has vetoed the French Spoliation Bill.

We have nothing of interest from Harrisburg. The members are fixing up for the election of U. S. Senator on Tuesday next.

Sleighting has been good for three or four weeks, but this morning threatens a heavy thaw.

The Sunday Liquor Law.

The following is Mr. Foust's bill as it passed the House on Friday last, by a vote of 73 yeas to 6 nays. There is no doubt of the bill becoming a law:

An Act to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the first day of April next it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to sell, trade or barter in any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or for the keeper or keepers of any hotel, inn, tavern, ale-house, beer-house or other public house or place, knowingly to allow or permit any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, to be drunk on or within the premises or house occupied or kept by such keeper or keepers, his, her or their agents or servants, on the said first day of the week.

SECT. 2. That any person or persons violating the provisions of the foregoing section, shall for each and every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, one half of which shall be paid to the prosecutor, and the other half to the guardians of the poor of the city or county in which suit is brought, or in counties having no guardians of the poor, then to the overseers of the poor of the township, ward, or borough, in which the offence was committed, to be recovered as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable in any action of debt brought in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as well for the use of the guardians of the poor, or for the overseers of the poor of the township, ward, or borough, as the case may be, as for the person suing: Provided, That when any prosecutor is himself a witness on any trial under the provisions of this section, then the whole penalty or forfeiture shall be paid to the guardians or overseers as aforesaid.

SECT. 3. That in addition to the civil penalties imposed by the last preceding section, for a violation of the provisions of the first section of this act, every person who shall violate the provisions of that section, shall be deemed and held to have committed a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof, in any criminal court in this Commonwealth, be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not less than ten days nor more than sixty days, at the discretion of the court; and upon being twice convicted, as aforesaid, he shall forfeit any license he may have for selling the aforesaid liquors.

The Know-Nothings defeated in Hollidaysburg.

We find the following letter in the Pittsburg Daily Union, of Saturday:

HOLLIDAYSBURG, PA., Feb. 17, 1855. Dear Yesterday:—Our borough election passed off yesterday. The "Cayennes" met at the regular Whig head-quarters, on Saturday evening last, and nominated what they were pleased to call a regular Whig ticket. The bait would not draw.

Those citizens, who are opposed to secret societies for political purposes, met pursuant to call at the Democratic head quarters, on Wednesday night last, and placed in nomination a full ticket—this interfered with the plans of the "Cayennes." A special meeting of this Council was then called for Thursday night—they met at their council room, second story "Old Fellows Hall," formerly "Sons of Temperance room," when it was put to vote and carried, to place in nomination a new ticket, and by this means deceive those few Whigs who could not be deceived by the sham nominations made, the Saturday previous—(It would not do, however, as there are traitors in all their councils.) They were sanguine of success offered to bet him on the result, claimed three to one, &c. The result shows quite a different calculation, and that they realized their expectations "over the left slightly." The regulars or old liners have carried all the important offices—Councilmen, school directors, Justices, &c. The "Cayennes" have achieved a tremendous victory however, in the election of their candidate for constable by one vote. I understand from undoubted authority that he is an Irishman born, although "not a gentleman from Ireland," unnaturalized, and of course incapable of holding the high and responsible office. I wish them joy of their bargain.

GOVERNOR FOLLOCK'S APPOINTMENTS FOR PHILADELPHIA. The following appointments for Philadelphia were announced on Friday last: George R. Graham, Harbor Master. Abraham Myers, Sealer of weights and Measures for the old city of Philadelphia. Samuel D. Abbott, Sealer of Weights and Measures for the old county. William D. Baker, Bark Inspector. Henry Pleasant, Lazzaretto Physician. Howard Taylor, Chester county, Port Physician. Jacob Pepper of Delaware County, Quarantine Master. J. W. T. McAllister, Health Officer. Joseph E. Harned, Master Warden. Andrew McLean, Keeper of the powder Magazine. Stephen Miller, of Dauphin county, Flour Inspector. John W. Crowell, of Bucks county, and John H. Seltzer, of Berks county, Whiskey Inspectors. Thomas E. Pollock, Grain Measurer. George Metzger, Butter and lard inspector. John I. Austin of Northumberland, Lumber Inspector. Wm. A. Ott, Salted Beef and Pork Inspector. Isaac B. Garrigue, Marble Measurer. All the above appointees are residents of Philadelphia except those otherwise stated.

THE LEWISTOWN RAILROAD BRIDGE REBUILT.—The bridge over the Juniata, at Lewistown, which was burned down some two weeks since, has been rebuilt, and the trains commenced passing over it on yesterday.

FROM MEXICO.—From statements which appear in the Vera Cruz and city of Mexico papers, it is evident that the revolutionary party was gaining strength.

VETOED.—President Pierce has vetoed the French Spoliation Bill.

We have nothing of interest from Harrisburg. The members are fixing up for the election of U. S. Senator on Tuesday next.

Sleighting has been good for three or four weeks, but this morning threatens a heavy thaw.

New York Politics.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—The Know-Nothings who were elected to the Legislature, not to vote for Seward, but who nevertheless "sold out," to that distinguished demagogue, are getting pretty well roasted by their constituents here. Mr. Leigh, the leading advocate of the Main Liquor Law it seems, was one of the "traitors," of whom there are in all some thirty. An indignation meeting, to denounce them, was held at the Tabernacle last night, and it is intended to burn the whole party in effigy, on Friday evening next, in Madison Square.

Rev. Sam May, who makes his boast of cursing the Constitution every time he says his prayers, delivers a lecture on Slavery at the Broadway Tabernacle this evening.—Time was, when a New York public would not have listened to such a scamp, but after sending Seward back to the Senate, and giving up the Capitol to Fred Douglas, we are ready for anything.

Col. Eli SLIFER, the new State Treasurer of Pennsylvania, was arrested at Pottstown, last week, on a charge of stealing a valuable gold watch; The Reading Gazette gives the following account of the arrest:—

THE STATE TREASURER ARRESTED!—A GOOD JOKE.—On Monday morning last an affair occurred in the Railroad cars, while stopping at Pottstown, which is entirely too good to be lost. It appears that a short time since, a person who lodged there over night had carried away with him a valuable gold watch, the property of another. On the morning above named, as the passenger train was passing through the town, a person answering the description of the culprit was discovered sitting in one of the cars by that indefatigable officer M. B. Missimer. He thereupon immediately arrested him. The gentleman remonstrated, but in vain.—He was taken to one of the hotels, where a search was about being instituted, when some one happening to drop in, recognized in the supposed thief, the newly chosen State Treasurer, Mr. Slifer! It is needless to say, that the officer was profuse in explanation and apologies, which Mr. S. took in good part, and consented to consider the arrest a "good joke," although too practical and personal to bear repetition.

GEN. SCOTT'S RECEPTION OF HIS NEW HONOR.—The passage of the joint resolution, authorizing the creation of the office of Lieut. General, as a special honor to Major-General Scott, has been the cause of great rejoicing. Col. Preston's house is crowded to-night by the friends of the commander in-Chief. Gen. Shields and Judge Douglas both electioneered in the House in favor of conferring the title. Upon ascertaining the vote, Col. Preston drove to the War-Department, where he announced the intelligence to Scott. The General dropped his head for a moment, and tears were seen trickling down his cheek. His reply was worthy of his fame, and was precisely as follows: "Let no man say, hereafter, that his country is ungrateful to one who has served her faithfully."

The bill has been approved by President Pierce, and gives Gen. Scott some $40,000 back pay, and about $10,000 per annum hereafter. One day last week a lady, with an infant child in her arms, and a little boy of some half dozen years by her side, took her seat in the cars at Elmira, N. Y. and paid her fare through to Canandaigua. As the train approached the latter place, the conductor discovered that she was weeping, and immediately inquired the cause of her distress, but received no reply. Soon, however, perceiving that the little boy was also weeping, he inquired again the cause of their trouble.—Unable to speak, the lady could only point to her infant child—dead in its mother's arms.

The Lebanon Courier, heretofore a rampant Whig Know-Nothing sheet in speaking of secret political organizations uses the following sensible language:—"For our part, we have no sympathy for secrecy in political action, and we hope soon to see the day when all secret political societies will be disbanded, and the motives and principles of every party hung on the banner on the outer wall, challenging the public scrutiny and judgment."

COUNTERFEITING ON A LARGE SCALE IN OHIO.—IMPLICATION OF WELL KNOWN CITIZENS.—A regular counterfeiting league, composed of gangs located in Cleveland, Cincinnati and other portions of Ohio, has been discovered by the Police, through a stool pigeon. Many well known citizens, including three police officers, are said to be actively engaged in the nefarious business. The Cincinnati Gazette, of the 14th says:—"The names of the gangs and their principal places or congregation were named, as well as the method of obtaining 'coveys,' and becoming an adept in this species of crime. It was stated that gangs were in Columbus and Sandusky, in both of which cities arrests, upon information received from Young, have been made, and the parties committed to jail, for their final trial in the criminal courts. In this city, no arrests have yet been made, but we learn that the necessary steps are being taken to make an extensive haul. Officer Williams and his 'stool pigeon,' upon what had been told the latter by Young and others, went to an old wooden water station house on the L. M. Railroad, this side of Polktown, and there found boxed up sheets of signed and unsigned counterfeit bills, cut and uncut, of denominations ranging from $1 to $20, on the Northern Bank of Kentucky, State Bank of Ohio, Bank of Kentucky, State Bank of Indiana, and Banks in New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Virginia. The total amount found was not far from thirty thousand dollars. There was also two plates to print the $1's Northern Bank of Kentucky, and the 2's, State Bank of Indiana. The money is well executed and well calculated to deceive."

REVIVALS.—A revival has commenced in the M. E. Church of this place. Several persons were baptized by the Rev. Still, on Sunday last.

SUICIDE INSTIGATED BY WANT.—An unknown middle aged man committed suicide in Philadelphia on Monday evening last.—His pockets contained nothing but the following:—

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17th, 1855. This is for the purpose of informing the person or persons who may find my body that I, Henry HATHAN BARCLAY, belonging to the city of New York, have committed suicide, by taking Laudnum, considering death preferable to want and poverty. HENRY HATHAN BARCLAY.

INDIANA LEGISLATURE.—A bill has been introduced in the Senate of Indiana to break up the Know-nothing lodges in that State.—It declares it a conspiracy for person to band themselves under solemn oaths for the purpose of depriving any citizens of the State of political rights under the constitution.

For the Globe.

On the Death of Miss Margaret Couts.

She has gone—her freed spirit has taken its flight, To the mansions of glory on high! The angel of death, from the realms of light, Has beckoned her home to the sky.

The parents she left on this sin-stained earth, Though they weep for a daughter so dear, Will not mourn as they would, had she not left the hope That her passport to Heaven was clear.

Oh, they have been called from their loved one to part, For the life-path of earth is uneven; Yet the stroke which has reft them of one gentle heart Has but added an angel to Heaven.

Now we may not regret that her soul is at rest, Tho' we weep for the friends that are lone; For her head now reclines upon Jesus' soft breast, And a Saviour's redemption 's her own.

She fled there for refuge—found mercy in Him, The spirit-spoke peace to her soul; Then called her away, before sorrow or sin Had tarnished what he had made whole.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

MONDAY, Feb. 19, P. M. Cloverseed comes in slowly, but the supply is about equal to the demand—sales of 100 bushels prime at $6.50, 6.62 1/2 per 64 lbs, and from wagons at $6.25, 6.37 1/2. The flour market is exceedingly dull. Standard and good brands are held $8.75, 9 per barrel, but there is no export demand, and the only sales making at these figures are small lots for home consumption, and better brands and extra from $9.12 1/2 up to $9.75. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are very quiet, and no sales of either have been reported.

Grain.—The demands for Wheat continues limited, but prices are unchanged. Sales of 1200 bushels prime Pennsylvania red at $2.11 1/2, 2.12 per bushel, in store; 350 bushels poor white at $2.13, and 100 bushels prime at $2.18, 2.22. Rye is scarce and worth $1.32. Corn comes in slowly, and meets a limited inquiry.—2000 bushels yellow, in store sold at 92 cents. Oats are unchanged—1000 bushels Pennsylvania sold at 53 cents per bushel, and 800 bushels dark Virginia at 53 1/2 cents.

MARRIED.
