Conferee Meeting.

The Democratic Senatorial Conferees of this Senatorial District, will meet at Hollidaysburg on Saturday the 12th day of May, inst. Col. T. P. Campbell, Dr. A. B. Lee and F. Connor, are the Conferees to represent the Democracy of this county.

The "Huntingdon Mill" with three or four acres of ground, has again changed owners. Messrs. Fisher & M'Murtrie are the purchasers, for the handsome sum of $14,500. Speculators and business men have their eyes open. Huntingdon property is going up.

The Crops.

We receive the most gratifying intelligence from every part of our county in regard to the favorable appearance of the grain crop and vegetation in general. The effects of a severe winter are rapidly disappearing, and every countenance gives evidence of a prosperous and happy future...

We learn from the Shirleysburg Horald that during the storm on Tuesday of last | this delicate compliment to the "Model Leweek the house of Allen Buckly on the road islature," have given notice that they will be from Shirleysburg to Mt. Have the Old Line Whigs an Organ in "Old Huntingdon."

The Whigs of "Old Huntingdon" have been badly treated by the "Huntingson Journal," a press they built up by bestowing upon it a liberal support for many years. It is no longer the organ of those who have grown gray in the support of Whig principles and and that the sober second thought would Whig men. .. has sold itself to unprincipled, bigoted office seekers. Our Legislature.

Our Legislature has been in session for more than three months-and what has it done?-What, but pass bank charters, and acts taking the revenue from the Commonthe public improvements, as it passed the wealth and bestowing it upon mammoth monopolies, upon greedy corporations? And shall they go on, unrebuked, in their wholesale recklessness? The press, we trust, has still some power, and it should speak out boldly and unhesitatingly.

The appellation of Legislator is fast becoming a by-word and a reproach. Let a stranger go up on Capitol Hill, expecting to see the assembled wisdom of the State, gravely deliberating upon what concerns the welfare of their constituents, and what will be his surprise to find some of those savans industriously engaged in the intellectual operation of throwing paper balls at each other and tickling the ears of the drowsy with feathers.—Harrisburg Patriot.

Can I Get Out?

Date it, sign it, and send it to one of the officers, and keep away, and you are a free man again. It is of no consequence what action the Council may take in your case.-Having done as prescribed, you are absolved from all obligation to the Order. There need be no fear of the oath. It is illegal and expressly forbidden by the statute of the State, and the man who administered it is a candidate for the State prison. Such an oath has no binding legal, or moral force, and the man who repudiates it, in no sense compromises himself as a gentleman or man of hon-or.—Harrisburg Union.

SAM ON EXHIBITION.—The mysterious "Sam" of Know-Nothing paternity, has been on exhibition, in the Hall of the House of Representatives for a number of nights during the present month. He is one of the most ill-shaped, ill-behaved bantlings that was ever presented for the inspection of the public. Those wishing to form a correct idea of the animal should visit the House during one of its evening sessions. Parents will find the exhibition a pleasing recreation for their small children. Cautions in Visiting Sick Rooms.

Never venture into a sick-room if you are in a violent prespiration (if circumstances require your continuence there), for, the moment your body becomes cold, it is in a state likely to absorb the infection, and give you the disease. Nor visit a sick person (especially if the complaint be of a contagious nature; with an empty stomach; as this disposes the system more readily to conceive the contagion. In attending a sick person, place yourself where the air passes from the door or window to the bed of the diseased, not betwixt the diseased person and any fire that is in the room, as the heat of the fire will draw the infectious vapor in that direction, and you would run much danger from breathing in it.
