On the presentation of this resolution Mr. Smythe remarked that 'one year ago such a resolution would not have been necessary; that until within the last year the common courtesies of life known among men, or the ordinary feelings of self-respect, would have accomplished the object intended him that all these have become powerless in preventing men, claiming to be gentlemen, from doing what no honorable man would have dared to do one year ago. #### California California

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writing from California says the State is burdened with plenty. The population is so small that they consume but little; and must either ship the surplus or allow it to go to waste. The writer further says that they can produce for exportation, but that farming lands are held so high, on account of taxes, interest and labor, that farming is not very profitable at the present time; The great fluctuations which have taken place during the past three years have been unfavorable to the true welfare of the country. All habits of industry and economy have been discarded, and the end to all these wild and extravagant notions has been bankruptey: A large number of the men who were called wealthy where "Liberty was first proclaimed through- There rests not up on the statue book of our pended money as if it could always be had for the mere asking. The profits of the Alta California newspaper exceeded: $1,000 per day for more than a year, and yet this office has been sold within the last six months for less than $20,000, and these thousand-dollars-per-day-proprietors are now poor. There are other remarkable instances of wealth and poverty almost in juxtaposition.

Every candid reader of the Huntingdon Journal must admit that since Gabe, Jr., has had control of its columns, it has been mer-in" for the Know-Nothings Whigs who are not of the dark lantern gentry, can not expect their claims to be favorably considered in that quarter during the coming campaign. Gabe is one of them, and is bound by oath to oppose all applicants for office who have not taken a like oath. Have body knows, Gabe does, as he belongs to the the Whigs of old Huntingdon, those who continue to stand out against Know-Nothingism, an organ in the county? Can they expect justice from a sworn enemy?

CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY. -The Democratic Jubilee in Philadelphia on Thursday night last in honor of the great victory in Virginia over Know-Nothingism, was one of the largest and most enthusiastic political gatherings ever witnessed in the City of Brotherly Love.

After several speeches had been made, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the Democrat party of the Union have within the past year been called upon to encounter a new organization, oath-bound and secret in its operations, professing prin ciples anti-American, anti-Christian, and subversive of the whole theory of our institutions as established by our forefathers; and whereas, the patriotic people of the ancient Commonwealth of Virginia have met this foe, flushed with a succession of victories. and certain of prostrating them, and have not only triumphed in the contest, but have under sworn obligation to a political organi- prostrated in the dust their new enemy to ample and come out and expose the corruphuman rights; the Democratic citizens of Philadelphia have thought it meet and prop- to make known their own guilt. Of this This state of things demands the passage of extend to their brethren in Virginia and the Union their warm congratulations on the result. Therefore, Resolved, That we the Democratic citizens of Philadelphia give our hearty thanks to the citizens of the land of Washington, Jefferson, Henry, Madison and Monroe, "the conscientious and conservative men of all parties and the indomitable Democracy, whom, in the language of their gallant leader, the Hoa. Henry A. Wise, we are indebtted for the recent signal victory over the "dark lantern oligarchy" and midnight conto nominate a party ticket for the fall elec- spirators against the peace and happiness of tion, but instructed the appointment of a the people, the union of States, and free toler-

Resolved, That in the order of Know-Nothings pledged to secreey and bound by oaths to proscribe American citizens because of their place of birth or their religious sentiments, we recognize as an organization at war with the letter and spirit of the American constitution, and dangerous to the liberty of the people of this country; and that, in its late defeat in Virginia, we have just cause to congratulate all who love civel and religious liberty:

Resolved; That while this is peculiarly a Democratic triumph, yet in the language of Washington, in a crisis of like danger, "to every description of citizens let praise be given, but let them persevere in their affectionate vigilance over that depository of American happiness-the Constitution of the United States-let them cherish it, too, for the sake of those who, from every clime, are daily seeking a dwelling in our land, and thus verify the anticipations of the Government being a safeguard of human rights." Resolved, That here, on the sacred spot ut the land, and to all the inhabitants there-was given to the world, inviting the oppressed and down-trodden of every clime to a participation in the benefits of republican freedom, we pledge ourselves, as did our sires, to sleepless vigilance and untiring energy in the sacred cause in which we are engaged, until Pennsylvania, the home of Rush, Rittenhouse, Muhlenberg, Franklin, Morris and Thompson shall be redeemed and stand by the side of her sister Virginia. Early in the evening the following telegraphic despatch had been sent to a mass meeting of the Democracy at Tamany Hall.

in New York: -Риплетения, Мау, 31, 1855.

To the Chairman of the Democratic, Meeting in Tanany Hall, New York.
The Democracy of Philadelphia assembled this evening to the mamber of 20,000; in Independence Square, within sound of the tocsin of American Liberty, desire to interchange congratulations with their fellow Democrats of New. York, on the recent glorious achievement of their brethren in Virginia, and pledge the Keystone, in her next contest, to stand by the side of the Old Dominion, and as the meeting at Tamany Hall is of the united Democracy, in the language of St. Paul, the united Democracy of Philadelphia say to them, in fraternal spirit, "Let Brotherly, Love continue."

Before the close of the meeting the follow ing despatch from New York was received

NEW YORK, May 31, 1855. Your despatch is received. There are thousands assembled in front of Tamany Hall. One hundred guns have been ordered in honor of ingdon co. your meeting. The Democracy of the Empirc State greet their brethren of the Keystone State, and pledge themselves to stand side by with them in 1856. Isaian Rynders,
Chairman, Tamany Hally

Three hearty cheers were given for the "Unterrified" of New York.

ROBT. TYLER, one of the speakers said: There is one topic on which I desire to say a single word. We are indebted for the result in Virginia not alone to the Democratic party. Mr. Wise has himself declared, that thousands on thousands of Whigs-men of honor and principle filled the places of those who were once Democrats, but who "left their party for their party's good," as in the late Municipal Election here, thousands of bonorable Whigs, who were Whigs at least when there was a Whig party, stood shoulder to shoulder with the Democrats and voted a common ticket; so in Virginia they acted from the same motive and on the same principle. (Lioud cheering.) It is in reference to this fact that, with the permission of the President and the Meeting, I will conclude by offering the resolution I hold in my ity.

The resolution passed with an enthusiastic unanimity?

Another Renunciation.

Mr. J. G. Hale, of Cooperstown, Venango co.: published in last week's Spectator a renunciation of his connection with the Dark Lantern party. He says he was induced through the entrigue of Dr. J. M. Dille, of Cooperstown, to become a member, about the last of September, 1854. The Dr. told him viz: that he himself would be initiated the same night; but this was false, as he had been in- situate in Penn township aforesaid, in the counitiated before by Dr. Gillet, of Franklin. Mr. Wm. Raymond, of Franklin, was the Chief Instructor. Mr. Hale adds:

"Thus I became a member of the first degree, which was as far into their misteries as I ever got, and I deeply regret that I ever allowed myself to be induced by designing demagogues to know as much as I do of their secret and corrupt schemes. There are many others who would willingly follow my extions of the cable, were it not that they fear er to assemble in Independence Square and fact I am well convinced, for since it was known in this place that I had resolved to expose the order as far as I knew, some of he members have appealed to me not to expose their names, but not expressing the least bjection to my disclosing anything belonging to the order.

One point of the Know-Nothing creed which struck me with indescribable force was, the instruction that I might with propriety, under oath, deny being a Know-Nothing, as that was not the true name of the order, but gave me no other. Thus I was bound by oath to perjure myself by denying what I could not conceive to be the truth. The more I reflected upon this point, the more I became disgusted with the order and fixed in the opinion that with my present convictions of what constituted an honest' npright man, I could no longer refrain from acknowledging my sin and making atonement, so far as possible, by a public exposition.

The meetings were held, when I was a member, in different places: sometimes in an old unoccupied building half a mile from town, and others in the academy, in a grocey and dry goods store, or in the room occupied by the temperance watchers. The members would approach the place of meet ing in the dead hour of night, each member generally alone and by some obscure way if possible. It was no uncommon thing to meet ministers of the Gospel at these midnight conclaves! And, all this I was informed was necessary for the protection of American institutions! The glowing pictures of the danger of Catholicism and for eigners, drawn by demagogues, were mere ruses for the purpose of enticing the credulous into the order. This fact is well understood by the leaders.

A number of the citizens of Cooperstown certify to the credibility and good character of Mr. Hale.

The True American Party.

Some of the Democrats of New Orleans wrote to Robert C. Wickliff, asking for the use of his name as a candidate for Governor of Louisiana at the ensuing election. He declines and in his reply remarks that-54The true American party in this land is the Democratic party. It proscribes no man on account of his birth or of his religion, it adopts as its own principles contained in the Declaration of American Independence. dded to its greatness tha of,? and where that immortal declaration has not the stamp and impress of Democracy. Under Democratic rule and policy we have grown from infancy to vigorous manhood. Ours is the greatest, the happiest, and the best country God has given to man. Democracy has made it such, and the Democratic party will continue it so."
