FELLOW CITIZENS OF HUNTINGDON COUNTY.—In looking over the "Huntingdon Globe" of last week, I was very much surprised to see that I was nominated a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. I would therefore announce to the citizens of the County of Huntingdon, that through bodily infirmities and other good reasons, it is impossible for me to accept the nomination, as I had previously formed a determined resolution not to serve in any public office of any kind, but live a retired life, as much as my circumstances and business will admit of. I also declare that I am as much opposed to Know Nothingism and its principles, as any other true Democrat in Huntingdon county. Respectfully Yours, GEORGE EBY, Sr. Aughwick Mills, September 3, 1855.

The Committees of the Whig and Democratic Conventions having notified that GEORGE EBY, Sr., Esq., declined the nomination for County Commissioner, re-assembled at the Hotel of Col. Grafius Miller, in the Borough of Huntingdon, on Tuesday the 18th inst., and the letter of GEORGE EBY, Sr., Esq., declining the aforesaid nomination, having been laid before them, it was upon motion unanimously voted that JOHN LONG, Esq., of Shirley township, be put in nomination, as the candidate instead of GEORGE EBY, Sr., Esq., who had declined to accept the same.

THOMAS F. STEWART, Pres't. JOHN W. MATTERN, Sec'y. Shirleyburg Herald will please copy.

Certain Know Nothing leaders made the assertion in our town until the rumor became a general belief, that the Whigs in and about Petersburg, with but very few exceptions, had joined the Know Nothings—all belonged to the secret order, was the expression.—(They had not the audacity to say that the Democrats belonged.) It happens that a secret correspondence from that quarter with the editors of the Journal, show that the Whig party almost entire are in favor of the "Fusion Ticket." Whigs in that section of the highest character of various religious denominations, with a singular unanimity, have forewarned the public against the demoralizing proscriptive oath bound combination. See the correspondence.

The brag game is the one the Know Nothings depend upon for success. Those idle reports of their numerical strength, bold and unqualified assertions that they will carry the elections by large majorities, etc., are all made for effect. They know better.

DAN RICE, the Clown king, and his great show, will be in town soon. Notice of time will be given by advertisement as soon as received.

STILL THEY COME.—We have received from Mr. THOS. J. SANKEY, of Henderson township, a basketful of very fine peaches and tomatoes. Also, from Mrs. R. McFARLANE, a mess of very fine tomatoes.

The Journal and the Whig Party—an 'organ' without a party, and a party without an 'organ.'

Our Ticket.

The Democratic and Whig parties, who abhor secret political cabals, and midnight conspiracies, have placed in nomination a fusion ticket to be supported by all freemen in the county. We shall notice the candidates in order.

Dr. JOHN McCULLOCH for Assembly, is a gentleman of character and ability—and formerly represented this district in Congress, to the satisfaction of his constituents. For a quarter of a century, he has lived in our midst, and time and acquaintance has only added to his reputation as a man and a citizen. In politics he has always been honest; and now, in common with all true men, repels a political scheme, which would bind the consciences of men by fearful and blasphemous oaths and underhanded stratagem, to the will and schemes of a few leaders. In connexion with Dr. McCULLOCH, the opposition to know-nothingism will support DAVID HOFIUS, Esq., for Assembly—nominated by our friends in Blair county. Mr. HOFIUS, is also a gentleman of decided ability,—a ripe scholar—and served his country in the late war with Mexico. He was a Lieut. in Capt. Taylor's company of Pennsylvania Volunteers.

Col. GRAFIUS MILLER, of this place, formerly of Barree township, that land of independent and honest men, is our candidate for Treasurer. In addition to his acknowledged fitness, and superior claims, all who have the happiness of his acquaintance, and they are many, will bear us out in saying that a more pleasing, courteous, and gentlemanly man does not reside in our county.

JOHN LONG, of Shirleyburg, our candidate for Commissioner, is one of nature's noblemen. Thoroughly acquainted with the details of business, the affairs and interests of our county, an honest man does not live. Nor will any be hardy enough to say that he would not make one of the best County Commissioners we have ever had.

WILLIAM McNITE, of Shirley township, the candidate for Director of the Poor, is a gentleman of fine qualifications—a firm, honest, energetic man. No better officer could be selected; and besides, the interests of the county in that department demands the election of a Director on the ground—near the Poor House, and within immediate reach of its operations.

GEORGE BELL, for Coroner, is a firm and energetic son of Barree,—a gentleman of character and intelligence, and well fitted for an office.

DAVID F. TUSSEY, of Porter, tp., for Auditor. A man of the first respectability. For probity, integrity, and general worth, he has no superior in this or any other county. He is intelligent, amply qualified, and deeply interested in our county affairs.

This, citizens of the county, is the ticket presented to you, in opposition to the ticket produced by the hidden alchemy of the corrupt sharks, who lead the secret order. Its nomination is not the fruit of midnight schemes or secret fraud—but the free, open, and manly choice of the untrammelled freemen of the county. Give it your undivided support. The opposition scattered among you, educated in duplicity, will ask you to vote their ticket. They hope to succeed only by deceiving outside voters. They have not strength enough of their own—and if the opponents of Know Nothingism are but true to themselves, a noble victory is certain. They are opposed to fusion, because, their own defeat is written in the word. Why should any man who is not a member of that order ally himself with its corrupt purposes? What return will it ever give, but sneers at your credulity? Who ever heard of a Know Nothing voting for any man out of the order? He dare not do it. "With what judgment they mete, let it be meted to them again."

Know Nothing Ticket.

The various Councils of this county were brought to bed and labor upon the several nights of last week, and brought forth a bantering which from head to foot we are informed presents the following features: Assembly—Dr. John H. Winthrope, of Penn. Treasurer—Alfred B. Crewitt, of Huntingdon. Commissioner—Jacob Baker, of Springfield. Director of the Poor—Kenzie L. Green, of Clay. Coroner—Silas Lang, of Walker. Auditor—Wm. Moore, of West.

We have not time to say much about this ticket at present. The candidate for Assembly we are informed was born somewhere in Adams or York county, and the light of his eyes and countenance first shone upon Huntingdon county four or five years ago. When fairly settled down, he saw something of a speculation in being a candidate for Senator, got speculating conferees appointed, who have the credit of having sold him out pretty well, and of quarrelling with him about the division of the price he brought in market: such are the traditions presented among the relics of the unbriar Whig party.

Last year he got the Whig tickets sent to him as a leading Whig, and destroyed them; then went upon the election ground and represented to the voters that the ticket he was giving them was the "regular Whig ticket," when it was the Know Nothing ticket. This latter evidence of how he understood the mission of his party, we suppose secured him his nomination. The vote from Penn was here in time this year; and sends its greetings to Warriorsmark!! How THESE BROTHERN LOVE ONE ANOTHER. Mr. Crewitt, our townsman, is a gentleman of leisure, who has been putting in his time since his advent amongst us from Mifflin county two or three years ago, in laying the wires for this office, and in private shaving. The private razor has got dull, and he wants the use of the County's big safe to whet it on, and give it a little oil if need be.

The County Commissioner and Director of the Poor having both been Whigs, it was found necessary to throw a small crumb of comfort to the betrayed Democrats, and they finished out the tail of the ticket with Maj. Moore. We suppose the Major's efforts at making Know Nothings at the Alexandria Camp Meeting last year, are considered as having raised a storm that has done rather more harm than good, and therefore he only deserved a small office worth about four dollars a year. More anon.

The "Wild hunt after Office."

The "wild hunt after office" in the Know-Nothing Councils, has ever and anon, for the past few weeks broken upon the ear of the outside world; and however little we may know of the "mosses, waters, slaps and styles" they have had to encounter in the chase, we know that chase has been a warm one, and those who are considered as having held the game are now abandoned.

What biting satire upon this new and professedly pure party, its National Council uttered when it denounced the "wild hunt after office." The whole pack has been in full cry for the past few weeks, all over the State for office! office! and in our county where there are but six offices to be filled this year, and most of them of minor importance, the names of over forty aspirants have been communicated to the public by some means, and how many more were inside, the light of the dark lantern only can reveal.

One feature of the Know Nothing ticket gratifies us. The Democrats who have forsaken their old faith, and gone into this new political family, can now see what kind of a seat they are to have at the family table—a back seat. They have asked for a fish, they have got a stone. A quondam Democrat for Auditor; quondam Whigs take all the rest. Oh, ye poor miserable dupes, who have been led into this quagmire by your old enemies; how joyously you can sit and suck your thumbs during the coming winter of your discontent! Oh yes, you were candidates and were voted for; ye voted for just enough to defeat you; and lay you back for three years under the rule, to be heavers of wood and drawers of water for the elder brothers of your fraternity. You are step-children in the family; and you have to step back. What golden prizes do you see at the end of the three years that will pay for the toil? "Work horse and you'll get oats," must be your comfort.

The Know-Nothing Nominations.

The heading of this ticket is a suitable one for the phansagars—and will, ironically speaking, commend itself to the support of honest men. Of course it makes no difference that the Doctor has but lately become a resident in our county—and that he is equally ready to leave it when circumstances shall warrant; the party whose candidate he is being itself but an adventure, it cannot be blamed if adventurers use it for their own selfish purposes. We may expect now, to have that Senatorial matter, and those two thousand dollar transactions, explained to the satisfaction of the public. Of course those members of the Order, who spoke freely on the subject during the canvass for nomination, will be anxious to clear the matter up, so that their own consistency may be made beautiful and transparent, and worthy of imitation.

The Dr was an old Whig, Mr. Crewitt was an old Whig, Mr. Baker was an old Whig, Mr. Green was an old Whig, Maj. Moore was an old Democrat, who has been elevated to the tail of the ticket, as a compliment we suppose to that wing of the new party. Do the honest and cajoled, and cheated members of the order, begin to see into the tricks of their corrupt leaders? Or are the scales yet upon their eyes?

The Circus was a great institution. Said to be good by some, and no better than it should be by others. The crowd in attendance was large. The Broad Top train of three cars, all filled to running over, was to us the most interesting sight seen. Woodcock Valley is now out of the woods—and as soon as the road is completed to Broad Top, the crowd that will come down to see the sights will astonish all who have supposed the country through which the road passes, to be nothing more than a wilderness.

Rich—the music the "organs" are making just now. It will keep the Professor busy to get ahead of Gabe's variations last week. Richer—the contest for office in the dark lantern party. Those who have heretofore been Democrats are to do the labor, and those who have been the "old party hacks" of the Whig party are to receive the offices—if they can be elected.

Richest—the expose of Know Nothingism on locust corner on Monday night last, by one who knows. Found, on Thursday the 13th inst., on the ridge road leading from Huntingdon to Stonerstown, a purse containing some money.—The owner by paying for this notice and proving property can have it and the money it contains by calling at this office.

The Blair County Whig of yesterday speaks of the fusion nominations for the Legislative as follows: "The ticket we have placed at the head of our columns for the Legislature, is one of the very best ever put up in the district. Col. HOFIUS, the nominee of this county, is a lawyer of the highest respectability in his profession, possessing natural and acquired talents to a high degree, such as will compare favorably with the brightest geniuses of the State. He is just the man for the position. The peculiar interests of this section of the State would find in him an able defender, as his judgement is sound, and his power in debate could not be excelled by any man representing any other portion of the State.—With such a candidate, we may well feel proud; both Whigs and Democrats. The people in voting for him would be sure of having their interests protected against any opposition that might arise. How widely he differs from J. M. GIBBONEY, in every essential qualification, his opponent. It cannot be possible that the people of the district will be so blind as to select him over such a man as Col. HOFIUS, who has never yet played Tweedledee and Tweedledum to all parties for the sake of getting petty offices. Let the citizens of Blair and the whole district, think seriously, before they cast their suffrages for JOHN M. GIBBONEY. Hon. JOHN McCULLOUGH, the candidate selected by Huntingdon county, is well and favorably known to the people of the whole district. He was twice the candidate of the Whig party for Congress, which shows that the people have confidence in him as a man, and in his fitness to represent them. He is a gentleman of the highest respectability, loved by his neighbors and acquaintances, without an enemy, and deservedly popular.—JOHN McCULLOUGH has always been a favorite of the people of Huntingdon county, where he has resided for years. He will make a faithful representative, honest and worthy. No man, be he Whig, Democrat, or Know Nothing, need be ashamed if he casts his vote for JOHN McCULLOUGH. Such, fellow citizens, are the gentlemen selected as candidates for Assembly. Have we said a word in regard to the men or their qualifications, which is not strictly correct? Can you vote for better men at the coming election? We answer that no such candidates as these have been selected by the opposition, either in point of capacity or ability to make good legislators. Citizens of the district, think seriously in regard to the matter, and we are satisfied that you will elect Col. HOFIUS and Dr. McCULLOUGH by tremendous majorities."

The State Agricultural Fair.

The fifth annual fair of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will open at Harrisburg on the 26th inst., and continue four days. The experience and ability of the Managers, and thorough devotion to the interests of the Society, induces us to anticipate a much more than usually interesting exhibition. Over $7,000 in money and medals will be distributed in premiums, and the various Railroad companies, centering at Harrisburg, are offering every facility to exhibitors. The Fair Grounds compose twenty-one acres, located adjoining Harrisburg. Comfortable and convenient sheds and stalls have been arranged for a thousand head of stock, and large frame buildings erected for the display of the Mechanic Arts, Farm and Garden Implements, Fruits, Flowers, Plants and Designs; and large tents have been secured for the display of Household and Domestic manufactures. Vegetable seeds, the products of the Dairy, &c., &c.; also a building six hundred feet long for the display of Poultry. The horse course has been pronounced the best laid out at any State Fair. The distance around it is one-third of a mile. A fine carriage drive is laid out in the enclosure. Steam power will be furnished for the running of machinery. The exhibition will be mechanical as well as agricultural, and the manufacturers and mechanics of Pennsylvania are invited to send in specimens of the productions of their manufactures and workshops. The competition being thrown open to the citizens of all the States, it may be expected that many of them will compete with Pennsylvania for the prizes. Distinguished agricultural and scientific gentlemen have been invited, and will deliver lectures during the evenings of the fair, in the hall of the House of Representatives.—On Tuesday the grounds will be thrown open to the public, and continue open four days. The judges will commence their examinations on Wednesday morning the 28th. The Plowing Match will come off on Friday morning, at 9 o'clock. The annual address will be delivered by the Hon. Frederick Watts. After the address the reports of the judges will be made known. The books are now open at the office of the Society in Harrisburg, where articles and stock may be entered until the first day of the Exhibition; during that day they will open at the grounds. Goods will be received on the grounds on Friday, the 21st inst., and until noon of Tuesday, the 25th. Articles and stock intended for the State Fair, will be transported both ways over all railroads, centering at Harrisburg, free of charge, and the companies will also issue excursion tickets during the Fair.

Our Legislative Candidates.
