These exercises the public generally are invited to attend. The next session will commence the last Wednesday of October. It is entirely free from the nuisances so common along our rivers, and so destructive to health.

The course of instruction is such as has been found by experience most suitable for expanding and developing the powers of the mind. The student is early taught to rely upon himself, to think, to reason, and to investigate the different subjects which are brought him. The government is strict but mild, only requiring what is for the student's highest good. Around him is thrown, as far as practicable, the restraints and comforts of a well-regulated Christian home.

 Messrs. EVANS & WATSON, No. 29. South Fourth St., Philadelphia.
 GENTLEMEN:—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c., from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets. The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The safe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least one thousand persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents.—Will you please have the safe and locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire proof qualities.
 Yours, Respectfully,
