

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS.

PREMIUMS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS!!

L. SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continued to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

- 1. The London Quarterly (Conservative).
- 2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
- 3. The North British Review (Free Church).
- 4. The Westminster Review (Liberal).
- 5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

The great and important events—Religious, Political, and Military—now agitating the nations of the Old World, give to these Publications an interest and value never before possessed. They occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the newspaper, and the ponderous Tomes of the historian, written long after the living interest in the facts he records shall have passed away. The progress of the War in the East occupies a large space in their pages. Every movement is closely criticised, whether of friend or of foe, and all short-comings fearlessly pointed out. The letters from the Crimea and from the Baltic in Blackwood's Magazine, from two of its most popular contributors, give a more intelligible and reliable account of the movements of the great belligerents than can elsewhere be found.

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.
The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, especially during the present exciting state of European affairs, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

MILWOOD ACADEMY.

The present session of this Institution will close on Wednesday, October 3d. The exhibition will take place in the evening. The examination the week previous. These exercises the public generally are invited to attend. The next session will commence the last Wednesday of October. The institution is located at Shade Gap, a quiet and retired place, free from all temptation to vice, idleness or dissipation. The location is a healthy one, being situated among the mountains. It is entirely free from the nuisances so common along our rivers, and also destructive to health.

The course of instruction is such as has been found by experience most suitable for expanding and developing the powers of the mind. The student is early taught to rely upon himself, to think, to reason, and to investigate the different subjects which are brought him. The government is strict but mild, only requiring what is for the student's highest good. Around him is thrown, as far as practicable, the restraints and comforts of a well regulated Christian home.

Shade Gap, is situated 17 miles from the Mount Union station on the Pennsylvania Railroad, from which place there will be a daily line of stages.

TERMS—$50 per session of five months, this includes tuition, room, eat and board, Washing, light and fuel, extra. For further particulars address

MESSRS. EVANS & WATSON, No. 29 South FOURTH St., Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c. from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets. The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building; from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The safe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least one thousand persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents.—Will you please have the Safe and Locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire-proof qualities.
Yours, Respectfully,
LACY & PHILLIPS.
