

THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE.

Huntingdon, March 5, 1856.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

See New Advertisements. Millwood Academy, by W. H. Woods, Principal. Proposals, by Theo. Franks. New Arrival of Boots and Shoes, by Levi Westbrook.

SALES OF HOTEL FURNITURE.—Mrs. Emeline Bradley, at Mill Creek, will sell Household and Kitchen Furniture on Thursday the 20th day of March, inst.

Grafton, Miller, at the Exchange Hotel, Huntingdon, will sell Household and Kitchen Furniture on Friday the 28th March.

A CARD.

Mr. Lewis.—Will you be so kind as to give the following an insertion in the Globe? It is a statement of monies received and expended by me in the Church building enterprise in this place the past year.

I have received from all sources one hundred and thirty-five dollars ($135). The several items may be seen by reference to the subscribers book which will be left in the hands of my successors.

This amount has been disbursed as follows: To loss on lot for building, purchased from Hon. James Gwin, by order of an official meeting, and afterwards repudiated by a majority of the men who first authorized the purchase, and as an indemnity to me against loss, $75; To interest on purchase money, $12; To two trips to Hollidaysburg on church business, $4.20; Other incidental expenses, $1.85; Paid over to John M. Cunningham, one of the Building Committee $30; and to Owen Boat, another member of Building Committee, $12; leaving a balance in my favor of the "just and full sum" of five cents.

I make this simple statement for the satisfaction of the public (as well as the Building Committee), before whom I have been misrepresented, and placed in a false position.

N. S. BUCKINGHAM, Huntingdon, Pa., March 3, 1856.

The Salary of the County Superintendent.—Agreeably to a notice published by order of the State Superintendent of Common Schools, the School Directors of the School Districts of this county met in Convention at the Court House on Thursday last.

After organizing, a resolution was offered to increase the salary of J. S. BARR, Esq., County Superintendent, which was voted down, and the Convention adjourned. Mr. BARR receives $300 per annum.

THE SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—We had not the pleasure of being present at the exhibition of the Schools of this place in charge of Miss C. M. SHAW and Mr. ALBERT OWENS, on the evening of the 22nd ult., but we learn from our neighbors and the public generally, that all present were well pleased with the performance.

Mr. OWENS and Miss SHAW have few equals, as Common School teachers, in the State.

Alex. McKibbin, the colored man injured by a locomotive running into a passenger car at this place on Thursday a week, died on Saturday last. He was 75 years of age, and had lived for a number of years about the iron works on Spruce Creek.

On the day of the accident, the Penn'a. R. R. Company gave him a check for $1250, damages.

A VETERAN HUNTER.—A venerable old man, aged seventy-five years, who has resided more than fifty years of that time on Broad Top Mountain in this county, last week paid us a visit.

During his residence on the Mountain he killed about two hundred deer, thirty wolves, twenty bears, one hundred foxes and twenty-five or thirty wild cats. He killed six wild turkeys at three single shots and two deers at one shot with a bullet.

MILWOOD ACADEMY.—We have on former occasions invited attention to this Institution as a favorable one, in every respect for young men desiring a thorough academic instruction.

It is at the present time in a highly flourishing condition—its location, for the purpose, is one of the best in the State—its Principal, and his assistants are men of acknowledged literary attainments and superior qualifications for teaching.

We earnestly recommend Millwood Academy to the attention and patronage of Parents and Guardians. For particulars, we refer the reader to the advertisement in another column.

Who is General WILLIAMSON?—We have been repeatedly asked the question, "Who is General Williamson of Huntingdon?" There is no General of that name in Huntingdon, to "the best of our knowledge and belief."

There is General Wilson and John Williamson; Esquire; but as for the "General Williamson of Huntingdon," whose name we see in the city papers, we suspect is like the one whose epaulettes were torn from his shoulders by General Richard White—a "General existing only in imagination—a myth, a fable, a mere papier mache General."

THANKS.—To the little girl who entered our office on Saturday last bearing a plate well laden with the choicest cake, of which all hands partook with a hearty zest. These "small, sweet courtesies of life" form the bright-spots in the bleak wilderness of printers' troubles and misfortunes, and are accordingly appreciated. Who'll do it next?

MUSICAL CONCERT.—Mr. J. W. ALEXANDER gave a vocal and instrumental musical concert in the Court House, in this borough, on Friday evening last. It was a free concert and was well attended. Judging from the evidences given on the occasion, we would say that Mr. Alexander understands music and is competent to teach it. He proposes to open a school for that purpose—will teach a quarter consisting of thirteen evenings. His terms are exceedingly moderate—gentlemen, $1; ladies and children 50 cents. The children will be taught in the afternoon from four till six o'clock. Those wishing to become members should attend at his next appointment on Friday evening. The children will meet at the Court House at 4 o'clock.

FAREWELL SERMON.—The Rev. N. S. BUCKINGHAM, late pastor of the Methodist congregation of this place, preached his farewell sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, 24th inst. He was listened to with marked attention by a large congregation. He carries with him the good wishes of the generality of our people to whatever portion of the Lord's pasture fields he may go.

THE HUNTINGDON FOUNDRY.—This Foundry is now being rebuilt by John M. Cunningham and brother, and will soon be ready to accommodate the public.

FROM KANSAS.—The Settlers of Kansas Territory in Response to the President's Special Message.

Message.—Judge Vager, Dr. Gagan, Mr. Jordan, Mr. T. Hoof, Mr. W. A. M. Vaughan, and Mr. Newsom, severally spoke upon the condition of affairs, and heartily approved of the policy indicated by the President, declaring themselves ready whenever summoned by the United States authorities, to make good their approval by their acts.

The meeting then adjourned, with nine enthusiastic cheers for President Pierce and his Special Message.

Mr. FILLMORE'S NOMINATION AND THE WHIGS.—The Whig General Committee in New York have held an informal meeting, to consider the nomination at Philadelphia of Millard Fillmore for the Presidency.

A Frank Admission.—The Louisville Courier, an old-line whig paper in Kentucky, while advocating the reorganization of the whig party, very frankly says:

"We do not, for a moment, suppose that the whigs can have a hope for their own success in the next campaign. We believe that it is written down in the book of fate that the democracy will sweep the whole country at the presidential election in November next. We do not entertain the shadow of a doubt but they will carry Kentucky by a sweeping majority. Would it not be much better, then, for those whigs who have principle, and not self-interest, in view, to support their own men and measures, especially when they know that in doing so they more certainly secure the present success of the democracy, which they regard as so necessary?"

IS VIRGINIA A CIVILIZED STATE?—The Petersburg Express has the following particulars of a bloody tragedy that occurred in Jerusalem, Southampton county, on the 15th inst.:

"On the night previous to the perpetration of the deed, at a party or a ball given in Jerusalem, Capt. George Newsom, a highly esteemed and respectable citizen, and late representative of his county in the State Legislature, gave some offence to a young lady, which a relative of hers, a young medical student under the instruction of Dr. Parker of that place, named Calhoun Barrett, resented, by telling him not to speak to her again, or if he did he would shoot him. Newsom, being somewhat intoxicated, after rd asked the young lady to dance with him, upon which Barrett shot at him, the ball passing through some part of his coat. Newsom then left, and sent word to Barrett that he must prepare to die, for he intended to shoot him.

"On the next day Barrett saw Newsom coming along the road in a buggy with a double-barrelled gun, a black man driving him. When Newsom perceived him he raised the gun as if to fire, but Barrett being also provided with a gun fired first; the contents striking Newsom somewhere about the breast, causing him to fall forward over the spittle board. Barrett then advanced and discharged the second barrel into the head of Newsom, killing him almost instantly."

What was to have been Expected.—The Lancaster (Pa.) Intelligencer gives the following brief sketch of the rise, and fall of a know-nothing parson:

"Many of our readers will recollect Keys, the know-nothing preacher, who several times held forth to mixed audiences of men and boys, in the public square of this city, during the summer of 1854, he being then a resident of Lancaster, and high in the know-nothing councils. Subsequently he became editor of a know-nothing sheet published at Tyrone city, in this State, in which he characterized himself as one of the most vindictive and scurrilous defamers of the democratic party and its principles anywhere to be found. After some time, it was said by the know-nothing papers that he had withdrawn from the United-Brethren connexion; but the Tyrone Democrat says that he was 'thrown overboard, Bishop Glossbrenner, the head of that church, thinking his case too scandalous to investigate.'"

TEXT FOR "SAM'S" FUNERAL SERMON.—Job, 8th chap, 9th verse—"For we are but of yesterday, and know-nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow."

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.—SATURDAY, March 3, P. M.—About 100 bushels fair Cloverseed sold at $8.50 per 64 lbs., at which figure it is in good demand, but supplies come in very slowly. No Flaxseed offering.—Timothy ranges from $3.50 to $4 per bushel. The inactive market has been the prevailing feature of the Flour market for some time past. Flour continues, and shipping brands are offered at $6.75 per barrel, without finding buyers—means of 200 barrels, choice brand, sold at $7.25. Small sales for home consumption within the range of $7.85, as in quality. Rye Flour is dull and nominally held at $5. Corn Meal is but little inquired after—500 barrels Pennsylvania sold yesterday at $3 per barrel. GRAIN.—Wheat remains without change, the supply and demand being about equal. 300 bushels good Pennsylvania red sold at $1.62 1/2 per bushel—we quote white at $1.65 1/2. Rye is steady at $1; at which figure further sales have been effected. Corn is in better demand, and 15,000 bushels yellow were disposed of for 60 cents for prime dry, and 50 1/2 cents for damp, including 5000 bushels of the former description, deliverable April 1st, at 60 cents. Oats range from 37 to 40 cents per bushel, with sales of 2000 bushels at the latter rate.

MARRIED.—In Canton, Ohio, on the 26th inst., by Rev. E. Buckingham, Mr. JOHN A. CANNON, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., and Miss SARAH M. FOGLE, daughter of the late Lewis Fogle, Esq., of the former place.

We recognize in the bridegroom an esteemed friend and acquaintance. Here's our congratulations to you and your bride. May the happiness which now fills your hearts never be diminished—may no cloud of sorrow ever cast its dark shadow upon your conjugal journey, through life—may Providence crown you with peace and plenty—and, finally, may your "children rise up and call you blessed."

On the 13th of February, by Rev. Joseph Mahon, at McAlevy's Fort, Mr. WM. J. MATTEN of Tyrone city and Miss SARAH M. CONRAD of the former place. On February 26th, in this borough, by Rev. A. B. SULL, Mr. WM. DEAN Jr., and Miss SOPHIA RIDENHOUR, both of Huntingdon county.

On the 2nd inst, at Mr. William Couch's, on Stone Creek, by Rev. J. B. Williams, Mr. SOLOMON SILKKNITTER, and Miss CAROLINE C. CODER.

DIED.—AT his residence in West township, on Saturday, the 23d inst., OSBORN KEMP, aged 75 years, 11 months and 3 days.

The deceased had resided near Round Nob, in West township, for about thirty five years prior to his death, and was a member of the Lutheran Church.

At the residence of his father, near Barree Forge, WILLIAM A. HARDEY, of consumption, aged 25 years, 6 months and 12 days.

MILWOOD ACADEMY, Shade Gap, Huntingdon County Pa. W. H. WOODS, A. M., Proprietor and Principal.

SAMUEL CAMPBELL, Assistant. JOHN McCAUSLAND, Teacher in preparatory Department.

REV. W. S. MORRISON, Lecturer on Evidences of Christianity. REV. JAMES CAMPBELL, Lecturer on General Literature.

J. A. SHADE, M. D., Lecturer on Anatomy and Hygiene.

The semi-annual Exhibition of this Institution will take place on the 1st Wednesday of April. An address will be delivered before the societies in the fore part of the day, the Exhibition will come off in the evening; the examinations the week previous.

These exercises the friends of Education are respectfully invited to attend. The next session will open the 1st Wednesday of May. This Institution holds out peculiar inducements to young men seeking an education. The Board of Instructors is composed of Gentlemen of high literary merit and skilled in their profession. The location is very healthy, having the fine mountain air and free from all noxious vapors arising from stagnant water and marshy grounds.

Those subjects to argue could not find a more desirable place. The temptations to vice, idleness and dissipation are few. There is nothing to draw the minds of the student from his books, no liquor is allowed to be sold in the place nearer than Mount Union 17 miles off; it is just such a situation as a young man desirous of improvement would seek. The societies are in a flourishing condition and each has a fine library of choice works. The buildings are large and commodious, capable of accommodating some fifty students. Shade Gap is a quiet and retired place, situated on the main road between Chambersburg and the Mount Union station on the Pennsylvania R. Road.

100 Tons of RAGS wanted for cash! February 27, 1856. PROSPECTUS of a Monthly Periodical, to be regularly issued from and after April, 1856, entitled:

A COLLECTION OF THIRTY THOUSAND NAMES, &c., &c. In compliance with the Laws of Pennsylvania, Masters of Ships importing emigrants from the continent of Europe, furnished, on their arrival at the port of Philadelphia, exact Lists of all imported foreigners. The original Lists are still preserved in the State Department, at Harrisburg, and but for these, comparatively few of living millions would now scarce be able to determine with certainty the time of their ancestors' arrival. Those who can appreciate motives, and sacrifices made, feel a laudable curiosity to know the names of all, who were "in perils in the sea," with their progenitors.

This curiosity, the Editor has attempted to satisfy; by the plan of arrangement adopted—grouping the names of a band of co-adventurers; thus investing them with additional interest. He may have done more. This Collection may lead to the recovery of rights of inheritance, that might otherwise remain unestablished. It is not, however, presumed that this, in itself, is judicial evidence; but may suggest modes of proof. One of the main objects, among others, of this publication, is to preserve names, which indifference or accident might forever place beyond recall. Now is the time to subscribe, for a source of satisfaction to the descendants of those whose names are thus preserved, than a collection of this kind, and by this means hand names down to millions of a living progeny? If an old newspaper, with a grandfather's name, is carefully preserved, as a memento, why not value this proposed collection of thirty thousand names? Why not procure a copy at once, at a price within the reach of thousands? Hereafter, no opportunity may present itself. To afford those, who desire copies, an idea of the plan of arrangement, size of type, page and quantity of paper, a specimen has been issued. The volume will make nearly 600 pages. An Introduction, embracing general remarks, a complete catalogue of all the baptismal names that occur, with their significations, will be prefixed.

As soon as a thousand subscribers have been secured, this periodical will be issued monthly, each number to contain from 48 to 60 pages; otherwise, 24 pages will be issued monthly, till completed. To afford many an opportunity to subscribe, and to supply back numbers, at the least expense, the publishers have determined to pursue this course. Now is the time to subscribe, if you wish a copy. The edition will be limited. Terms—One dollar per copy in advance or $1.50 on the completion of the volume. Any one who will send us ten subscribers with $10, shall receive one copy gratis.

Persons wishing copies, will please forward their names, address, Post Office, and the cash, to THEO. F. SCHEFFEL, Book Publisher, No. 18, Market Street, Harrisburg.

Post Masters, and others, are requested to act as Agents, who will be allowed the usual percentage. Specimens will be sent, if requested. Address, RUPP WINGERT & CO. Publishers; Harrisburg; Pa.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. Harrisburg, Jan. 31, 1856. J. D. RUPP.—Dear Sir: Having examined the arrangement of The Collection of Thirty Thousand Names, &c., proposed to be published by you, I feel free to recommend the same to the descendants of those ancestors whose names have been carefully copied from the original. It will be a valuable and interesting pamphlet. Yours, very truly, JAMES POLLOCK. February 27, 1856.
