THE British Periodicals.
PREMIUMS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS!!
L. SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continued to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

- The London Quarterly (Conservative).
- The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
- The North British Review (Free Church).
- The Westminster Review (Liberal).
- Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Fory).

The great and important events—Religious, Political, and Military—now agitating the nations of the Old World, give to these Publications an interest and value they never before possessed. They occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the newspaper, and the ponderous Treatise of the historian, written long after the living interest in the facts he records shall have passed away. The progress of the War in the East occupies a large space in their pages. Every movement is closely criticised, whether of friend or foe, and all short comings fearlessly pointed out. The letters from the Crimea and from the Baltic in Blackwood's Magazine, from two of its most popular contributors, give a more intelligible and reliable account of the movements of the great belligerents than can elsewhere be found.

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.
The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, especially during the present exciting state of European affairs, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers as soon as the original editions.

GREAT FIRE. CHEST-NUT & FIFTH STREETS, Friday morning, December 5th, 1854. Evans & Watson's Salamander SAFES triumphed, as they always are when put to the test.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15, 1854.
Messrs. EVANS & WATSON, No. 29 South FOURTH St., Philadelphia.
GENTLEMEN—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c. from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets.

The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The safe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least one thousand persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents.—Will you please have the Safe and Lock repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire proof qualities.

Yours, Respectfully,
LACY & PHILLIPS.
