

OUR NEIGHBORS.

HOLLIDAYSBURG.—The "History of the Juniata Valley," alluded to in our last, will be ready for delivery on the 25th inst. It will be forwarded to any address, after that date, on the receipt of $2, as we learn from the Standard.—Michael Thoni purpusses selling by public outcry, on the 22d inst; twelve acres of ore land adjoining the borough line. A good chance for speculators.—The Standard says:—ART UNION.—A little Art Union project is on foot in town, for the purpose of affording a little relief to the dull times. The intention is to sell 3,500 Engravings at one dollar each, and then give into the hands of a committee for distribution among the shareholders property to the same amount. Among the property is a fine two story brick house and lot of ground in Walnut street. The scheme is an extremely liberal one, and the Engravings will no doubt meet with a ready sale. Particulars next week.

Lewistown.—The revival in the Lutheran church is still progressing.—Mr. C. C. Stangbaragar late proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, has retired, and Mr. Jos. Gruver has assumed the proprietorship. The Democrat says Mr. Gruver "is the very man to keep up its reputation."—Jack Turner was committed to jail on a charge of stealing a sum of money from Mr. George Gibson.

Belleville.—The Democratic Watchman says that the banking House of Humes, Hale, McAllister, & Co., has no connection with any Bank, nor is it a branch of any Bank in Pittsburg or any other part of the county.—They do business on their own responsibility, and are under the control of none.—On Saturday night a week the Smoke house and Wash house of Samuel Linn, Esq., caught fire, and was burned to the ground, destroying a considerable amount of meat belonging to Mr. Linn and his neighbors, who had it there to smoke. There was no water to be had from public hydrants—as by order of the Town Council they were removed.

Down with the Catholics.—In the Louisiana house of representatives the know-nothings voted almost unanimously in favor of electing a Catholic chaplain, and excluding Protestant ministers from opening the proceedings of that body with prayer.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

SALE OF WHEAT, March 15, P. M. Cloverseed is in fair supply, but the demand for it is only moderate—small sales of good quality at $8.25 per 64 lbs. There is no new feature to present in the Flour market. The export demand is limited, but holders are unwilling to accept less than $7 per barrel for standard brands—1000 barrels were disposed of yesterday for future delivery at this figure, and 1000 barrels sold at $8.50.—There is a steady demand for the supply of the retailers and bakers within the range of the same quotations. Rye Flour is held at $5, and Corn Meal at $9 per barrel, but no transactions in either have been reported.

GRAIN.—Prime Wb-at is scarce and wanted, but inferior and sprouted lots are neglected, and command comparatively low figures. Sales of 1000 bushels good Pennsylvania red at $1.75, and 500 bushels white at $1.85 per bushel.—Rye is in demand at $1, but holders will not accept this figure. Corn meets but a limited inquiry, the supplies, however, are filling off—3000 bushels Pennsylvania yellow, in store, sold at 52-60 cents. A small sale of Oats at 38-39 cents per bushel.

MARRIED.

In Johnstown, on the 13th instant, by Rev. R. Stevenson, Mr. JOHN JONES of Pittsburg, and Mrs. MARY MURTY of Huntingdon.

DIED.

In this place on the 9th inst., of consumption, Miss NANCY J. DALRY, aged 19 years and 6 months.

Concerning Music in Huntingdon.

Mr. ALEXANDER, teacher of Singing, Violin and Guitar—has commenced operations here but recently. He has been successful in the formation of a large and respectable class of Lady and Gentleman Singers. The Court House is large, so that there is still room for others who may feel disposed to join. Next appointment will be on Friday night, March 28th. Lessons on Violin and Guitar are given in class form, and also to individuals at their residence privately, if desired. Terms for giving private lessons on Guitar, $10 for twenty lessons. For Violin, twenty lessons for six dollars each, in case the class does not exceed ten members.—Huntingdon, March 19, 1856-21.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

By virtue of sundry writs of Venditioni Exponas and Luvari Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Huntingdon county and to me directed, I will expose to sale by public outcry at the Court House in the borough of Huntingdon, on Monday the 14th day of April next (1856) at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following described real estate, to wit:

A lot of ground situated in Jackson township, containing eleven acres, more or less, bounded by lands of George M. Bell on the west, by Geo. Croil on the north, on the east by James Croil, and on the south by Samuel Hoover, with the following improvements thereon erected: one two story log dwelling house and about one acre cleared. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of John Greer and Sarah Greer.

Also—All the right, title, interest and claim of the defendant, Thomas Wallace, of, in and to a piece or parcel of meadow land situated on the margin of Stone Creek, in the borough of Huntingdon, adjoining a lot of George Jackson on the north, a lot of William Morris, Sr., on the south, another lot of the defendant in the same inclosure on the west, and said Creek on the east, containing seven acres and sixty-four perches, be the same more or less.—Also, a lot of ground situated at the southeastern corner of Church and St. Clair streets, and extending back from the same two hundred feet to the old line of the said borough and the western boundary of the said above mentioned and described lot, bounded on the north by Church street, and on the south by a lot owned by the widow Hawn—including the whole of Lot No. 173 and part of the Lot No. 172, in the recorded plan of said borough.—Also, four contiguous lots of ground situated in said borough, bounded on the north and west by the Renner farm, on the east by the Worm Spring road, and on the south by a lot of the Hon. James Gwin, Nos. 1, 2 & 3, as recorded on a map of said lots, divided on the 16th day of October, 1855, for the defendant, J. Simpson Africa, County Surveyor—containing each three acres, and No. 4 containing about three acres, be the same more or less.—Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Thomas Wallace.

Also—A certain two-story log building situated in the township of Jackson, Huntingdon county, on a certain piece, parcel or tract of land, belonging to the said Michael Steffy and Alexander Steffy, bounded by lands of Hans Hutchison on the south, by lands of Solomon Hamer on the north and west, and by lands of Joseph Forrest on the east, containing fifteen acres, more or less, the said building being twenty-one feet in front by sixteen feet in the rear. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Michael Steffy and Alexander Steffy.

Also—The interest of Defendant in and to the following tract of land situated in Henderson township, Huntingdon county, Pa., to wit: containing 170 acres, more or less, bounded on the west by David Thompson, north by Samuel Ross, east by Andrew Allison, and south by Peter Swopes, having thereon erected the following improvements, to wit: a two-story log house, a one and one-half story log house, and log barn, with about one hundred and twenty acres cleared and under a state of cultivation. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of James McCartney.

Also—A certain tract of land situated in the town of Alexandria, in the county of Huntingdon, and state of Pennsylvania, on the southerly side of the Turnpike road, and being sixty feet in front and extending back from said road one hundred and eighty feet, adjoining lands of Henry Isenberg and John Piper, having thereon erected a large brick brew-house (the building being the same two lots of ground which Henry Fecker assigned and transferred to Christian H. Christmanson), together with the appurtenances. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Christian H. Christmanson.

Also—The defendant's interest in and to two adjoining lots of ground in the village of Scottsville, Huntingdon county, each fronting 58 feet 6 inches on Hudson street, and extending back 99 feet to an alley—bounded on the north by a lot of Elias Swopes, and east by the road leading to Mount Union, having thereon erected a frame stable, &c. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of William J. Taylor.

Also—All the defendant's right, title, interest and estate in and to the following described tract of land situated in Cass township, Huntingdon county, bounded on the north by lands of James Norris, west by Jacob Barnett, south by Jacob Drake, and containing 196 acres, be the same more or less, with about 80 acres cleared, and having thereon erected a two-story log house and small stable and saw-mill. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of William Crotzley.

Also—All the defendant's right and interest in and to a tract of land in Brady township, Huntingdon county, containing one hundred acres, more or less, with about 25 cleared, a small log house and log barn thereon erected, bounded by James McCauley on the south, east, north, lands of John McCauley on the south-east, Thomas Sticall and others. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Thomas Ross.

Also—All that certain plantation, tract, piece or parcel of land situated in Shirley township, Huntingdon county, east of Drake's Ferry, adjoining the lands of John Shaver, Andrew Pollock's heirs and others, containing 176 acres or thereabouts, on part of which the town of Mt. Union is laid out, excepting and excluding from the said land the ground now in possession of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the following town lots in the recorded plan of the said town of Mt. Union, to wit: Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 1, 2, 7, 10, 13, 16, 23, 8, 9, 14, 17, 33, 74, and the lot of ground in possession of the Methodist Episcopal church and on which the meeting house stands, and the following lots which were sold by Wm. B. Zeigler, Esq., viz: Nos. 58, 59, 60, 69, 84, 95, 96. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of John Dougherty.

MILWOOD ACADEMY,

Shade Gap, Huntingdon County Pa. W. H. WOODS, A. M., Proprietor and Principal. SAMUEL CAMPBELL, Assistant. JOHN MCCAUSLAND, Teacher in preparatory Department. REV. W. S. MORRISON, Lecturer on Evidences of Christianity. REV. JAMES CAMPBELL, Lecturer on General Literature. J. A. SHADE, M. D., Lecturer on Anatomy and Hygeana.

The semi annual Exhibition of this Institution will take place on the 1st Wednesday of April. An address will be delivered before the societies in the fore part of the day, the Exhibition will come off in the evening; the examinations the week previous. These exercises the friends of Education are respectfully invited to attend.—The next session will open the 1st Wednesday of May. This Institution holds out peculiar inducements to young men seeking an education. The Board of Instructors is composed of Gentlemen of high Literary merit and skilled in their profession. The location is very healthy, having the fine mountain air and free from all noxious vapors arising from stagnant water and marshy grounds. Those subject to ague could not find a more desirable place. The Temptations to vice, idleness and dissipation are few.—There is nothing to draw the minds of the student from his books, no liquor is allowed to be sold in the place nearer than Mount Union 17 miles off; it is just such a situation as a young man desirous of improvement would seek.—The societies are in a flourishing condition and each has a fine library of choice works. The buildings are large and commodious, capable of accommodating some fifty students. Shade Gap is a quiet and retired place, situated on the main road between Chambersburg and the Mount Union station on the Pennsylvania R. Road.

TERMS.—For session of five months, for board, tuition and room rent, $32.50. Washing, light and fuel extra. Students are charged from time of entering until the close of the session.—Payments quarterly in advance. For catalogue and further particulars, address W. H. WOODS, Shade Gap, Huntingdon County, Pa. March 5, 1856.

CAUTION.

ALL persons are cautioned not to purchase a judgment recorded on the Docket at Huntingdon against me, favor of John R. Gosnell, unless and until I can get a final settlement with him. JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jackstown, March 12, 1856.

PROSPECTUS of a Monthly Periodical, to be regularly issued from and after April, 1856, entitled, A COLLECTION OF THIRTY THOUSAND NAMES, &c., &c. In compliance with the Laws of Pennsylvania, Masters of Ships importing emigrants from the continent of Europe, furnished, on their arrival at the port of Philadelphia, each List of all imported foreigners. The original Lists are still preserved in the State Department, at Harrisburg, and, but for these, comparatively few of living millions would now scarce be able to determine with certainty the time of their ancestors' arrival. Those who can appreciate motives, and sacrifices made, feel a laudable curiosity to know the names of all who were "in perils in the sea," with their progenitors.—This curiosity, the Editor has attempted to satisfy, by the plan of arrangement adopted—grouping the names of a band of co-adventurers; thus investing them with additional interest.—Its utility has done more. This Collection may lead to the recovery of rights to inheritances that might otherwise remain unestablished. It is not, however,
