

THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE.

Huntingdon, May 21, 1856.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Lecture on Kansas.

By invitation of a number of our citizens, MAXWELL GREEN, Esq., will lecture in the Court House in Huntingdon on Monday evening next, 26th inst.

Much has been said and written of Kansas that has been vague and contradictory—it has been represented by some as "a land flowing with milk and honey," by others "a bleak and barren desert"—but those wishing to hear the truth in regard to that beautiful territory—which is, or may yet be the home of many of their friends and relatives, and thus interested in it, will be amply satisfied and repaid by turning out to hear the lecture of Mr. GREEN, who, being an educated and talented young man, and having traversed the whole extent of the territory and made himself well acquainted with its soil, scenery, climate, and productions, is well qualified to give them "a pleasing and interesting" account of it.

We append the following brief notice from the Hollidaysburg Register:

MAX GREEN, Esq., lectured in the Court House in this place on Friday evening last to a very respectable audience. His subject was "Kansas," and in a very pleasing and interesting way he discoursed of its soil, scenery, climate, productions, &c. for some two hours, relating, as he passed along, some thrilling incidents in western life. His lecture in matter and style was good, and his elocution excellent.

PICNIC.—The first male school under the charge of Mr. S. S. SAUL, and the first female school under the charge of Miss C. T. BENE-DICT, had a pleasant picnic on Weanesday last. They passed our office en route to their chosen grounds in the woods, and we could not refrain from remarking their neat, clean and gay appearance—their orderly promenade, and above all, the happy looks which beamed from their youthful but intelligent countenances. Both schools were under the immediate superintendence of their accomplished teachers. The day was exceedingly fine and the picnic came off to the delight and satisfaction of teachers and scholars.—May they all live to enjoy many such happy days!

BEAUTIFUL—Our town. The many and varied improvements which have been made and are now progressing, are bringing up the "ancient borough," in business and enterprise, to the mark reached by more modern towns, with indications that it will go ahead. But the silver, sugar maple, and other shade and ornamental trees, which line the streets and yards in many portions of the town give it a truly beautiful appearance; second to none in the Valley of the Juniata. There are several locations however that do not look so well for the want of them, and we wonder that the property holders do not procure them. Remember, "a thing of beauty is a joy forever," and it only needs a little of the spirit of enterprise, a little courage, and a little cash, to procure from Messrs. CREMER & TAYLOR enough "joy" of that kind to last a whole life time.

JONES' JUNIATA VALLEY.—This highly interesting historical work meets with a rapid sale wherever it is introduced. It should be well patronized in the region of the Juniata by the descendants of those whose patriotic deeds it records and whose history it illustrates in language at once beautiful and true. The book is receiving the highest praise from the press in all directions. Let the work be well patronized and our "Home Author" encouraged.

It can be obtained of Mr. WM. COLON, in Huntingdon, or of Mr. JOHN McCULLOUGH, travelling Agent for the sale of the work.—Mr. McCullough will call at the principal towns in Huntingdon county during this and next week. Price $2.00.

A SOUND SERMON.—A sound sermon was preached in the Baptist Church in this place on Sunday a week, by the Pastor, Rev. Mr. STILL. The great principle of "equality," or democracy, as taught by the Bible, was beautifully and logically delineated. The self-righteous and presumptuous were also measured by the "Gospel rule," and altho' Know-Nothingism was not named, the application of the christian principles enunciated, to its doctrines and practices, was, in the opinion of more than one, absolutely scorching. It was an instance in which the Gospel proved "sharper than any two-edged sword." Such sermons are truly refreshing and encouraging in these days, and cannot fail to be effective in "banishing bigotry back to its native hell."

CARRIAGE AND WAGON MANUFACTORY.—The Carriage and Wagon manufactory of OWEN BOAT, deserves to be liberally patronized. It is one of the best establishments of the kind out of the city. He is a first rate mechanic and an examination of his carriages, buggys and rockaways—several of which are now finished and ready for sale—will convince you that they are as handsome, as neat, and more durable than those brought from the city. And he can make you a substantial wagon, of any size required, and repair your old ones, at short notice, and on accommodating terms. In patronizing this establishment you will be "encouraging home industry," and will also stand a very fair chance of getting the worth of your money! Call at his establishment on Washington street, between Bath and Montgomery.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Love & McDivitt have just opened a splendid assortment of fresh Groceries. Give him a call. Mr. Ginter is taking some very handsome Ambrotype likenesses. See his advertisement.

Eclaris Thomas will be on hand to accommodate families and parties.

MUSIC!—We are pleased to learn that several of our young men have organized themselves into a class, and with the assistance and instruction of a teacher from Philadelphia, will ere long be able to make their appearance as members of the "Huntingdon Brass Band." They are making rapid progress and will soon be able to discourse sweet music for our citizens.

BRIDGE CONTRACTS.—The County Commissioners have awarded the contract for rebuilding the bridge across the Juniata which was lately destroyed by the storm, to one Mr. Lamp, of Porter township for $2,944.

A. S. HARRISON, Esq., of this borough, has received the contract for building a new bridge over Stone Creek, immediately below town, at $875.

The License Court met yesterday and granted all the licenses applied for, with the exception of one at Alexandria.

"BLAIR COUNTY ART UNION."—It is confidently expected that the first distribution will take place on or about the 20th of June. We would therefore advise all who intend to invest in the enterprise to do so at once, as delays are dangerous. See advertisement in the columns of this paper.

ANECDOTE OF JACKSON.—The Western Christian Advocate records the following interesting anecdote of Jackson. The scene of it was in the Tennessee Annual Conference, held at Nashville, and to which he had been invited by a vote of the brethren, that they might have the pleasure of an introduction to him:

"The committee was appointed, and the General fixed the time for nine o'clock on Monday morning. The conference room being too small to accommodate the hundreds who wished to witness the introduction, one of the churches was substituted, and an hour before the time filled to overflowing. Front seats were reserved for the members of the conference, which was called to order by the bishop, seated in a large chair in the altar, just before the pulpit. After prayers, the committee retired; and a minute afterwards entered, conducting the man whom all delighted to honor. They led him to the bishop's chair, which was made vacant for him, the bishop meanwhile occupying another place within the altar.

"The secretary was directed to call the names of the members of the conference, which he did in alphabetical order, each coming forward and receiving from the bishop a personal introduction to the ex-President, and immediately retired to give place to the next. The ceremony had nearly been completed when the secretary read the name of Rev. James T. An elderly gentleman with a weather beaten face, clad in a suit of jeans, arose and came forward. Few seemed to know him. He had always been on a circuit, on the frontier; and though always at conference, he never troubled it with long speeches, but kept his seat, and said but little—that little, however, was always to the purpose. Mr. T. came forward, and was introduced to Gen. Jackson. He turned his face towards the General, who said 'It seems to me that we have met before.' The preacher, apparently embarrassed, said, 'I was with you through the Creek campaign—one of your bodyguards at the battle of the Horse Shoe—and fought under your command at New Orleans.' The general arose slowly from his seat, and throwing his long, withered, bony arms around the preacher's neck, exclaimed, 'We'll soon meet where there's no war—where the smoke of battle never rolls up its sulphurous incense!'

Never before, or since have I seen so many tears shed as then flowed forth from the eyes of that vast assembly. Every eye was moist with weeping.

Eleven years have passed away since that day. The old hero has been more than ten in his silent and narrow home. The voice that cheered the drooping fight, and thundered in the rear of routed armies, is silent forever. The old preacher, too, has fought his last battle, laid his armor by, and gone home to his eternal rest."

The following incident is said to have occurred at New Orleans during the invasion of that quarter by the British. After the battle of the 23d Dec., 1814, in which both armies received nearly the same injury, a subaltern British officer was sent over to the American lines with a flag of truce. Being detained a little he began to converse with a corporal in our service respecting the probable issue of events there. He said "it was folly for the Americans to resist any longer as they must eventually be beaten—that the troops opposed to them were the flower of the British army, who had repeatedly vanquished the best veterans on the Continent of Europe, and were commanded by Lord Pakenham, Lord Picton, Lord Cochran, Lord Keane and many more of the ablest generals in Europe." To this, the Corporal replied indignantly: "On our side we have the Lord God Almighty, the Lord Jesus Christ, the hero, Andrew Jackson, and I'll be d—d if we don't whip you."

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. SATURDAY, May 17, M.—There is more inquiry for Flour for shipment, and the market is decidedly firmer. Sales of 6800 barrels mixed brands at $6 per barrel, and most holders now refuse this rate for straight brands. The demand for home consumption is increasing, and the transactions have been to a fair extent within the range of $6,12, and 75 for common and fancy lots. Rye Flour is very quiet at $3,62. Corn Meal is in better demand, and 800 barrels Pennsylvania sold at $2,50 per barrel. Grain.—The market is nearly bare of prime Wheat, and it is wanted, while poor lots are in moderate supply and dull. 500 bushels prime red sold at a price kept private, and small lots from $1 for very inferior up to $1,45 per bushel for good; 1000 bushels fair red at $1,42, and 2300 bushels grown white at $1,40. Rye is steady—sales of 3000 bushels at 75 cents, afloat. Corn is in steady demand without change in prices—sales of 67000 bushels yellow at 54 cents for Southern, afloat, and 50 cents for Pennsylvania, in store, including some white at 50 cents, and damaged at 27 1/2 cents. Oats are dull at our last quotations.

ARRIVAL OF THE GEORGE LAW.

$1,700,000 IN SPECIE.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE PANAMA RAILROAD.

ANUMBER KILLED AND WOUNDED Damage to a Philadelphia Ship. THE OREGON INDIAN WAR.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The George Law arrived at the dock at 11 o'clock, with California dates to the 21st ult. She sailed from Aspinwall on the 7th inst;

She has on board $1,700,000 in specie. A dreadful accident occurred on the Panama Railroad to the train carrying the George Law's mails and passengers. The entire train was thrown from the track and completely wrecked.

A large number were killed and wounded, but a correct list had not been ascertained when the steamer sailed from Aspinwall.

The steamer Sonora, which left San Francisco on the 21st ult. brought down over $2,000,000 in treasure, $1,670,000 of which were on New York account.

The steamer Golden Gate, with the passengers and mails of the 20th of March, arrived at San Francisco April 13th.

A steamer, supposed to be the America, from Panama, for San Francisco, was passed on the 1st of May.

No further disturbances had occurred at Panama.

The ship Isaac Jeanes, from Philadelphia, had arrived at San Francisco. On the night of Dec 6th she struck a sunken wreck, causing her to leak at the rate of eighteen hundred strokes an hour.

The principal consignees of the treasure on the George Law were as follows:

W. T. Coleman,	$764,000
Drexel & Co.,	350,000
Wm. Hoge & Co.,	100,000
Metropolitan Bank,	220,000
Thos. Watson & Sons,	12,000
Wells, Fargo & Co.,	268,000

From the Isthmus The Isthmus papers are filled with official documents concerning the Panama riot, but no new facts have been elicited, nor any additional names of the killed and wounded furnished.

The citizens of Panama had formed a guard for the protection of property, and the authorities had placed a force at the disposal of the Railroad Company, so that no further violence was anticipated.

The correspondence between the Governor of Panama and Commander Bailey, of the U. S. sloop-of-war St. Mary's is published in full. The closing note of the latter is exceedingly sharp. He tells the Governor that his answer was not satisfactory, and afforded no assurance of the safety of transit passengers for the future, and that until he hears from his own Government in the matter, he will take all the means in his power to avert further danger.

The accident on the Panama Railroad occurred on the Obispo bridge, 15 miles from Panama. The train that was wrecked, consisted of nine cars, containing 900 passengers.

The passengers were principally those landed at Aspinwall by the George Law, and mostly those in the steerage.

Owing to the accident the passage through could not be effected, and the passengers were sent back to Aspinwall. Over fifty wounded had arrived, two of whom died after reaching Aspinwall. The next morning there was a further arrival of the wounded and uninjured.

At the latest advices brought by the George Law, the wreck had not been wholly cleared from the road, but thirty bodies had been recovered. Very few ladies or children were injured. Among the wounded and killed were a number of brakemen employed on the road.

The only name given is that of Mr. Dalpouse, a clerk at Aspinwall, who was killed. There had been heavy rains throughout the State during the past fortnight, which had given mining operations a new start.

The grain crops promise a most abundant harvest.

The Governor had signed the bill consolidating the city and county of San Francisco. The Democrats had carried the municipal ticket at the recent election in Sacramento. The Republicans attempted to hold a mass meeting at the same place, but were driven from the ground with violence.

A powder vessel at Sacramento, was sunk in the river on election day. Loss $70,000. A large fire occurred at Placerville on the 16th. Loss, $50,000.

Business at San Francisco was dull.

The Indian War in Oregon.

The following is a list of the persons killed and wounded and the houses burned, by the Indian depredations, at Cascades in Oregon: KILLED.—B. M. Brown and wife; James Watkins, (a boy); Henry Hager, (a German); George Griswold; Jacob Kyle, (a German boy); Jacob White, (German); Bourbon, (a half breed); James Sinclair, of the Hudson's Bay Company; Dick Turpin, (colored).

WOUNDED.—George Watkins, severely; Jacob Rouse, mortally; Martin Bailey, James Lindsay, John Chance, Jesse James, Algin, slightly; James Snooks, Mr. Moffat, Fletcher Murphy, Henry Kyle, two soldiers, and Mr. Hendricks.

HOUSES BURNED.—Johnson's, Hamilton's, Williams', Bishop's, Chenoweth's, Palmer's, Bradford's new store, Sheppard's house, Watkins', Brown's, Bradford's, Burh's saw mill and out house, McNatt's and Vanderpool's.

in a style which he flatters himself will give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with a call. Having an excellent apparatus for operating, and several years' experience in the art, he is enabled to give to his pictures a life-like appearance rarely seen, which cannot fail to satisfy the most fastidious. When we consider what pleasure it affords us to have a good Likeness of a departed or far distant relative or friend, it at once impresses us with the importance of securing the "Shadow ere the substance fade;" and how often do we hear visitors exclaim, "Oh! I would give any thing if I had a Likeness of my departed Father, Mother, &c. Delay then no longer while the opportunity is presented; to-morrow may be too late. His prices are so low that all can afford to have their Likenesses taken. Pictures taken as low as seventy-five cents. Pictures of sick or deceased persons can be taken at their residences. Miniatures neatly inserted in Lockets, Bracelets, Breast-Pins, Finger-Rings, &c.

No charges made for taking impressions unless perfect satisfaction is given.

Instructions given in the Art at moderate prices, which cannot fail to give satisfaction, and Apparatus furnished on reasonable terms if desired. D. GINTER. Huntingdon, May 21, 1856.

Foundry and Machine Shop for Sale.

The advertiser offers at private sale the concern known as the "Keystone Maching Works," in Harrisburg, Pa.

This property consists of a corner lot of 78x 105 feet, situated near the breast of the town.—On the premises are a Machine shop, Foundry, Blacksmith shop, and Brass Furnace. The buildings were all erected expressly for their present use. The machinery, tools and fixtures are of the best description and in good repair.

The location is one of the best in the town, and is well adapted for carrying on a general foundry and machine business, and would also be a first rate point for agricultural maching building.

The ground and buildings will be sold with the machinery, or leased, as parties may desire. A sale will be made on liberal terms, and to enterprising men this is a rare opportunity to embark in a well established business.
