

THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE.

Huntingdon, June 4, 1856.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Mr. Editor: Allow me, through the columns of your paper, to call the attention of the public to the nucleus of a female institution of learning which has sprung up quietly in our county. I allude to a school started lately by Mrs. Haughwout, at Manor Hill. The situation is very beautiful, healthy, and quite eligible. Its preceptress is a lady of high educational qualifications, and of the very best governmental ability—having those essential requisites of the parent and teacher, kindness and firmness, beautifully blended, and an excellent judgment to direct both.

There are now in this school about fifty scholars, a number of them from a distance. The very best of home accommodations are offered on the most liberal terms, to those coming from other localities; no place can excel; few, if any equal it in this respect. Much more might be said in praise of this Institution—its locality, and the community by which it is surrounded—but an unwillingness to transgress your limits deterr.

Very Respy Yours, BARRE.

Among the numerous calls of strangers at our sanctuary during this week, was that of Edward McHUGH, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, a gentleman and a scholar of the first cloth. He was on his way to the region of Coalmont, where he intends to take up his residence as chief clerk or manager for Messrs. SAXTON & POWELL. Mac is great on figures and measurement, while he himself, on all occasions, fills the perfect measure of a man. He has our best wishes.

Good Crops.—From every part of Huntingdon county we hear the very gratifying intelligence that the crops look well, and promise a heavier yield than those of last season. The grain speculation will not be a money-making one in this region during the coming summer. Thank God for that!

Improvements.—Fisher & McMurtre are now busily engaged taking down the old 'Huntingdon Mill.' A new three story brick well soon occupy its place. The old rock-horse tavern is being converted into a warehouse by the Broad Top R. R. Company. In every direction new dwellings are going up. Mechanics and laborers are wanted at good wages.

GETTING WARM.—Our yesterday morning two prominent candidates in the Know Nothing and Black Republican ranks came in collision in the neighborhood of the Court House. The cow-catcher of each received but slight injuries.

Henry Murris, from a too free indulgence of ardent spirits became, somewhat elated on Saturday, and not having the fear of the constable before his eyes, was rather boisterous and pugilistic. With the assistance of two or three others, High Constable Long succeeded in bringing him up before Esquire Snare, who committed him to jail.—We have heard nothing of him since.

Death of Gen. Wm. Ayres.—With regret we announce the death of Gen. Wm. Ayres, of Harrisburg. He died after a somewhat protracted illness, on Monday the 26th inst., in the 67th year of his age. Few men, if any, made themselves as useful to the citizens of Harrisburg as Gen. Ayres—and to him the citizens of our borough and of the county, are indebted for the early commencement of the Huntingdon and Broad Top Rail Road.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at a meeting of the Bar in the Court House at Harrisburg on Friday the 27th ult:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Divine Providence to remove from our midst one of our most active and esteemed citizens; and whereas it is fit and proper for us to express our sentiments on an occasion like the present; therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of WILLIAM AYRES, Esq., as fellow members of the same profession, of which he was a useful and respected practitioner, we have experienced a loss which we deeply regret.

Resolved, That the deceased was a citizen of indomitable enterprise—untiring industry—and an unwavering perseverance; that to these enviable traits of character the citizens of Harrisburg are to a great extent indebted for the establishment of the Water Works, as well as for the introduction of Gas—that it was mainly through his disinterested efforts that these and other valuable improvements have been secured to us—and that these efforts together with the many fine, honorable and social qualities of his heart, command and deserve our gratitude and our respect.

Resolved, That we deeply and keenly feel for the bereaved family of the deceased in this their hour of affliction, and extend to them our sincere sympathy and condolence.

NOT DEAD.—We have been informed since we notified the death of Mrs. Cox that she is not dead. Her death had been reported in the neighborhood, but she still lives, much distressed in body and mind.

BLAIR COUNTY ART UNION.—It is confidently expected that the first distribution will take place about the 20th of June. We would therefore advise all who intend to invest in the enterprise to do so at once, as delays are dangerous. See advertisement in this paper.

Collector Redfield, of New York, received a letter through the Post Office, last Thursday morning, without any signature, $1,500, which the writer said is due the Government—probably for duties, out of which Uncle Sam had been defrauded.

Brooks and Wilson.

General Lane, of Oregon, was the bearer of a challenge from Mr. Brooks to Mr. Wilson on Thursday. Wilson, it is said, replied that he used the language complained of because he at the time believed and now believes it was strictly true, and demanded by the character of the assault upon Mr. Sumner, that he will use whatever language he thinks proper in debate, and if assailed for doing so knows how to defend himself.

The following are the main features of the correspondence between Messrs. Brooks and Wilson:

Mr. Brooks complains that Mr. Wilson spoke of his attack on Mr. Sumner as cowardly and says:

"I therefore hold myself at liberty, by this note, to request that you will inform me, without delay, where and when, outside of this District, a further note will reach you."

Mr. Wilson replies:

"I characterized, on the floor of the Senate, the assault on my colleague as brutal, murderous and cowardly. I thought so then; I think so now, and have no qualifications whatever to make with regard to those words. I have always regarded dueling as a relic of barbarous civilization, which the law of the country has branded as crime.

While, therefore, I religiously believe in the right of self-defense, in the broadest sense, the law of my country and the convictions of my whole life alike forbid me to meet you for the purpose indicated in your letter."

The Massachusetts Legislature and the Know-Nothing Council of Worcester.

Boston, May 30.—In the House of Representatives, to-day, the following resolution was offered by Mr. C. Hale, of the Boston Advertiser, member from Boston, and was referred to a Committee:

Resolved, That the sum of ten thousand dollars be allowed and paid out of the Treasury of the Commonwealth to His Excellency the Governor, to be by him applied in whole or part in such manner not repugnant to the Constitution and laws, as shall most effectually aid the people of Kansas, who were represented in the Convention assembled at Topeka, in October 1855, in maintaining the rights as men and citizens under the Constitution of the United States, and that the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Council, have authority to appoint such agents to discharge the said sum as may be necessary, and the agents so appointed, shall account only to him for the money by them expended, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant accordingly.

The Know-Nothing Council, No. 432, of Worcester, have resolved that in consequence of personal outrage and violence being threatened to Mr. Sumner's colleague and others, representing the old Bay State in Congress, we agree to hold ourselves prepared to depart at an hour's notice for the Capitol of our country, if the demand is necessary, to defend the delegation from this State in Congress, against personal attack from Southern assassins.

Mr. Marcy's Letter of Dismissal to Mr. Crampton.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1856.

SIR.—The President of the United States has directed me to announce to you his determination to discontinue further intercourse with you as Her Majesty's diplomatic representative to the Government of the United States. The reasons which have compelled him to take this step at this time have been communicated to your Government. I avail myself of this occasion to add, that due attention will be cheerfully given to any communications addressed to this Department from Her Majesty's Government affecting the relations between Great Britain and the United States which may be forwarded to this Government through any other channel. Should it be your pleasure to retire from the United States, the President directs me to furnish you with the usual facilities for that purpose. I consequently enclose the passport in such cases. I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to you, sir, the assurance of my respectful consideration.

W. L. MARCY.

JOHN F. CRAMPTON, Esq., &c., &c.

The Dutch Minister.—Foreign Ministers in Washington lead a very quiet life; but a general thing, and it is very rare that they are ever heard of again after their credentials have been delivered. But M. Dubois, the Ambassador of his Majesty of the Netherlands, has scarcely set his foot upon our shores when he has become famous. It must shock the nerves of even so phlegmatic a gentleman as the Dutch Ambassador to find himself a notoriety so suddenly without any effort on his part. M. Dubois, it will be remembered, came passenger in the Arago, in company with Mr. Buchanan, and he was eating his first breakfast in Washington, at Willard's Hotel, when the terrible affair occurred in which one of the waiters of the house was killed by a member of Congress. The newly-arrived Ambassador looked quietly on and made no attempt to interfere, for the whole scene was perhaps so perfectly in accordance with the travellers' stories he had read of life in America that he regarded it as an ordinary occurrence. He finished his coffee, and ascertaining that the man who had been shot was dead, walked out of the breakfast parlor, and meeting a gentleman whom he knew, the minister exclaimed, "What a people! If they do such things at breakfast, what want they do at dinner?"

It is not at all wonderful that the diplomat should be at a loss what to do when he was requested by the Secretary of State to appear before a coroner's jury and give his testimony, nor that he should deem it necessary to consult with some of the senior members of the corps before giving an answer.—New York Times.

The Boston Post states that a young man, who was convicted of bigamy at Newburyport last Spring, upon serving out his term of punishment, was met at the railroad station by his first wife, took him to a clothing store, gave him a new rig, then presented to him $300 she had earned since he deserted her, they departed for their former home in New Hampshire. If he isn't faithful to her for the rest of his life, he ought not to live. It is only the women that furnish such instances of constant and forgiving love.

Wagon Road to California.—Petitions have been forwarded from all parts of California, signed by upwards of 80,000 people, praying Congress to give an immigrant post road from some point in the Valley of the Mississippi, to the Valley of the Sacramento. A Pacific railroad is something for our children, but a wagon road is what we want for our own generation.

Umbrellas and Parasols, of a new style, just received, and for sale by apl16 J. & W. SAXTON.

Important from Central America.

The steamship Granada, at New Orleans, on the 27th, from Havana, brings highly interesting advices from Central America, and dates from California to the 5th inst. The steamer Illinois left Aspinwall, for New York, with $1,300,000 in gold. In Miraposa county, the Americans had murdered twenty Mexicans and Chilians, the pretext being that an American had been killed by the Chilians. The Americans have also ordered all the Chinese, Mexicans, Peruvians and Chilians to leave the country. The San Francisco markets are unchanged. The Indian war in Washington Territory is prosecuted with vigor, and the Indians have been defeated several times. The volunteers complain of the neglect of the Commissaries, in failing to provide rations.

The news from Nicaragua is to the effect that the Costa Rican army had evacuated the Nicaraguan territory, retreating by land across the boundary. They shipped three hundred wounded at San Juan del Sur. The Costa Ricans express much dissatisfaction at the misrepresentations made with regard to the state of feeling in Nicaragua towards Gen. Walker. They expected to be received with open arms. Baron Bulow is very bitter, at the deception to which he was subjected.—The killed and wounded of the force, under Gen. Rivas, was only one hundred, while the Costa Ricans lost 650.

The Negro Worshipers.—In the course of an ably written article on the pending struggle for self government, the Albany Atlas and Argus thus speaks of the ends and aims of the negro worshippers:

"The accusation at present so freely put forth against the democratic party of a purpose to extend slavery are but an additional development of this characteristic of the enemies of popular rights. They seek, under profuse professions of philanthropy for the colored man, to rob the white man of American citizenship. They falsely charge upon democrats the design to enslave the negro, while they are striving to rivet chains upon the limbs of the Anglo-Saxon. With canting phrases about extending liberty to the blacks in Kansas, they struggle to withhold from white citizens of the same region the right of self government, and to impose upon them institutions not dictated by themselves. It is the old contest of democracy doing battle for the prerogatives of the people, and its antagonism resisting them with specious excuses and under ingenious disguises."

SPRBD OF WESTERN TRAVELING.—A gentleman of Johnstown, a couple of weeks since, made a trip directly West, to the distance of twelve hundred miles, in seventy-two hours. He left Johnstown, Pa., on Thursday evening at nine o'clock, and arrived at St. Paul, Minnesota, on Sunday evening at the same hour. He was detained five hours in Pittsburg.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—The Flour market is dull to-day. There is little or no export demand, and mixed and good brands are offered at $6 1/2, 1 1/2 per barrel, without finding buyers, except to the extent of $4,500 bbls., and in small lots for home consumption, and better brands and extra from $6 25 to $7, according to quality. Rye Flour is dull, at $3 50. Corn Meal remains without change—300 barrels Pa. sold at $2 50 per barrel.

There is very little demand for Wheat and prices favor buyers. Sales of $2,300 bushels fair and good red at $1 42 1/2 per bushel, 1200 bushels fair white at $1 42, good at $1 55. Rye is steady—sales of 2500 bushels at 73 cts.—The market is poorly supplied with Corn and it is in demand for shipment at a slight improvement on Saturday's quotations—sales of 6000 bushels Southern yellow at 53 cts, affoot. Oats are unchanged—we quote. Southern at 53, and Pennsylvania at 54 cents per bushel.
