

THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE.

Huntingdon, June 11, 1856.

"Is a man who weekly advertises himself as a 'RAT' worthy the high and honorable position of an editor, and should he not be scorned from the society and fellowship of honorable men?"—Huntingdon American.

Why ask that question? Don't you know that the honorable fraternity everywhere has an established rule despise and condemn a ratting individual as unworthy the "society and fellowship," the countenance and support of honorable men? The editor of the "Journal" is a RAT, he rats in his advertising, and he rats in his job work, such as it is, and would you believe it, he glories in his shame. In the most conspicuous places of our town he has posted bills upon which are printed in large but scarcely legible characters the astounding information that job work can be done "20 per cent. cheaper than at any other office," and upon which are also displayed the pictures of a monstrous big rat! We therefore say he is not "worthy the high and honorable position of an editor;" he should be spurned from the society and fellowship of honorable men.

There is no law (among printers) forbidding the destruction of "rats," and if the editors of the American have no conscientious scruples about engaging in the business, we will cheerfully furnish them with an excellent receipt for that purpose. We have tried it on the varmints in our cellar. It works well.

COMMUNICATIONS.

MR. EDITOR: It will be necessary for the Democratic party in a short time to select, among other candidates, one in this District for Congress, and the attention of the voters should be turned to the very best men in our midst for that office and to none others. It is time to wipe out the disgrace of being represented by men who are intellectually and morally the inferiors of nine tenths of their constituents.

I now respectfully bring to the notice of the Democratic party in this county and district a worthy man and a good democrat who has never intruded himself upon public notice, THADDEUS BANKS, Esq., of Hollidaysburg. He has the qualities which are needed to make a good representative, ability and integrity; both manifested by his success and standing in his own profession. It may be that it would require a personal sacrifice by Mr. BANKS to accept any political office, but that is just the reason why he should be elected. Men who seek office because their own merits cannot secure success in any thing else, have disgraced the people long enough. Let us select those who do not seek it, but attend diligently and successfully to their own business. Such a man is Mr. BANKS, and it would afford his numerous friends in Huntingdon county pleasure to have the opportunity of supporting him for Congress.

HUNTINGDON, June 9, 1856.

VERITAS.

TRAPPE, PA., June 1855.

MY DEAR SIR:—I spent a short time at Pottstown, your native place—the scene of your youthful sports, and pranks of halcyon days. Anxious to visit The Trappe, which is easily accessible by daily stages, I came here. There is much of interest that clusters around this place. There is the old Lutheran Church, "venerable with age." The tombs, that hold the remains of great and good men, are here—of such as the Muhlenbergs, of "Honest Frank," once governor of Pennsylvania. The scenery, as far as eye can carry, is of the most imposing kind. The people are enterprising, moral, intelligent, courteous—the stranger feels at home amidst these sternly honest Germans. The facilities for education are unsurpassed. Three of the very best educational establishments within a distance of one mile and a half—all well attended. Each deserving a special notice. The first in order, is The Trappe Washington Hall, commenced March 7th, 1830, now conducted by ABEL RAMBO, A. B., a graduate of Pennsylvania College. He has been here seven years. His accommodations are ample. The course of instruction liberal and thorough. The terms reasonable. There is one thing peculiar and worthy of remark: the Principal, though assisted by that widely known teacher of music, Professor BLAKEFUS, imparts instruction in vocal and instrumental music himself once or twice each week.

So well known is this HALL, because of its thorough English, Classical, Lingual, Mathematical and Musical course, that pupils flock to it from every part of the country. A visit to the place—a personal interview with Mr. RAMBO, will convince the most sceptical and parsimonious that this is the place to have his son prepared for a Teacher, of a school of advanced standing—for college—for business in general. The charges, per annum, including board and tuition, about $125.

Catalogues giving particulars, will be sent, I believe, by addressing ABEL RAMBO, A. B., Trappe, Pa.

Fearful that I may prove too tedious, I must close now, and hereafter notice FREE-LAND SEMINARY of which Rev. HENRY A. HUNSICKER, is Principal; and, THE PENNSYLVANIA FEMALE COLLEGE, at Perkiomer Bridge, Montgomery county, Pa., established 1851 and chartered 1853. J. W. SUNDERLAND, L. L. D. is Principal of the latter.

PEZOS.

Lame—The reply to the Journal to the letter of A. W. Benedict. That's so, entirely.

Contemptible.

Is anything more contemptible, more pusillanimous than the cringing of Kansas to men they despise, because forth they may answer their purposes. Such is the present feeling between Lewis of the Globe, and his stool-pigeon, little A. W. Benedict. Lewis despises him, but Lewis is incapable of writing; A. W. can blackguard, therefore A. W. answers Lewis' purpose.—Huntingdon Journal.

It is but necessary for us to say in reply to the above, that it comes from the hand of the "juvenile associate" alluded to in the letter of A. W. BENEDICT, Esq., published in the Globe and American two weeks ago, and which we may hereafter re-publish for his especial benefit and consolation. "Without a tremor on the tongue, the lie was boldly said," but the ipse dixit of a self-convicted perjurer can be of little account. Adieu! auf wiedersehen!

POSTAGE ON LETTERS.—It seems that there are a great many people who will not understand that pre-payment of postage is, in all cases required by the law—and that unless the postage is paid upon their letters, when put into the office, they must be detained by the Postmaster. If persons or parties wish their letters to reach correspondents—they must, in all cases, pay the postage.

THE BROAD TOP PICNIC.—The excursion party composed of ladies and gentlemen from Philadelphia, Lewistown, Millifort, Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon, with an excellent brass band from Altoona, which left this place for Broad Top on yesterday morning, had a most delightful time of it. Mr. Watson, President of the Company, and Mr. Boon, Superintendent of the Road, took charge of the train, and with the assistance of several of their careful employees, the party arrived at a beautiful grove at the town of Barnett, some thirty miles up the road, and returned in the evening without the slightest accident occurring.

The extensive collation, prepared by Mr. Eclair Thomas, cannot be beat.

THAT CONVENTION!—The Republican County Convention which assembled in this place on Saturday 31st ultimo, was a decided failure, more than one delegate from the county being in attendance. The "Convention," however, we understand, was "organized," and appointed Wm. E. McMurtrie and Wm. Brewster delegates to attend another Convention somewhere else. The Williamson party is "growing small by degrees and beautifully less."

BLAIR COUNTY ART UNION!—It is confidently expected that the first distribution will take place about the 20th of June. We would therefore advise all who intend to invest in the enterprise to do so at once, as delays are dangerous. See advertisement in this paper.

MISS E. McCURE, teacher of one of the public schools in Uwechlan township, Chester county, was recently dismissed by the board of directors, for refusing to open and sweep out the school house, and make the fires every morning, as they demanded of her. For the purpose of ascertaining whether the directors had any authority to exact such service from her, in addition to the duties they employed her to perform, she addressed a letter of inquiry to the School Department, and received the following prompt reply:

MADAM:—Your letter of the 18th, just received, discloses an almost incredible amount of stupidity and perversity on the part of your directors. The services they require of you in the way of making fires &c., are no part of your professional duties, and do not enter into your contract—and if the directors continue to refuse to make provision for the schools in this matter, we shall withhold the State appropriation for that district for the current year, in which case they will become individually liable for the amount thus lost through their delinquency.

Please give me the names and post office address of the President of the Board, so that I can write to them on the subject. Very respectfully yours,

H. B. HICKOK, Deputy Supt.

MURDER.—Saturday evening last, several soldiers were coming up East Louthier street, when one of them named Richard M'Greavy, drew a knife and stabbed another named Thomas M'Gary, in the side, inflicting a wound from which M'Gary died on Monday morning. They were not quarrelling at the time, but we understand that there has been a "grudge" between the assassin and his victim for some time. The perpetrator of the deed is now in our jail awaiting his trial for murder, at the August term. An inquest was held on the body by coroner Thompson, and the fact was clearly proved, that the death was caused by the wound inflicted by the prisoner.—The following is the statement made on oath by M'Gary, shortly after the occurrence:

"On Saturday evening the 31st of May, between 7 and 8 o'clock, I met Richard M'Greavy and asked him why he called me a son of a b—h, and I drew back to strike him and he left and I went up street. I spoke to him again and then he turned round and stabbed me."

While we cannot but regret the commission of the deed in our borough, we are glad that it was not done by any of our citizens, and we hope that it will prove a warning to those valorous persons who carry weapons, for the laudable purpose of resenting insult, and flatter themselves that they mean only to use them in self-defence.—Carlisle Democrat of June 5th.

MARRIED.

On the 3d inst., by Rev. D. Shoaff, Mr. ALFRED POTTER and Miss MARY JANE NUMER, all of Huntingdon, Pa.

With the above notice we received a handsome share of the cake, for which the happy couple have our thanks. May their days be many, prosperous and happy.

On Tuesday, May 27, at the residence of John Anderson, Esq., in Penn township, by Rev. J. B. Strain, Mr. DAVID F. TUSSEY and Miss RHODA A. ANDERSON, all of this county.

From the Kansas City Enterprise. STILL LATER FROM KANSAS!!

EIGHT MEN KILLED!!

Outrages by the Abolitionists!! KANSAS CITY, May 27.

The following highly interesting and authentic letter we take from the Independence Dispatch, Extra. The rumors collated of this foul and bloody massacre are so untinging that there is but little space, if any, to doubt its correctness—however, much we hope to hear it reliably contradicted. If true, there is an indignation which will be avenged against each who so cowardly participated in the INHUMAN deed! Inhuman, we say, because these hireling Free State murderers fled from the face of their foe—a foe that had met them at their own solicitation, to the settlements of peaceable citizens, and there committed the most dastardly outrages, ever chronicled. The following pro-slavery men are known to have been killed—three by the name of Doyle, three Shermans, a Mr. Whitaker and Wilkerson. The messenger who brought the information to Franklin, K. T., states that he saw the party who were murdered; they were cut to pieces and horribly mangled.

Here is the letter:

FRANKLIN COUNTY, K. T., Sunday Morning, May 26, 1856. To the Hon. Governor of Kansas Territory, or the Hon. Daniel Woodson Secretary of the Territory:

GENTLEMEN:—I will inform your Honors that there is a mob of the Yankees in this part of the Territory, committing dreadful outrages—of the most savage character.

An Express arrived this morning at my place of residence, from Potawatomi Creek, with information that an organized band of Abolitionists, at a very late hour at night, attacked the houses of the Pro-Slavery men and tore them from their families and murdered them in a most savage manner.

The informer states that he believes nearly all the Pro-Slavery men on Potawatomi Creek were murdered last night.

This is to inform you that it is now high time to send troops, without delay. Send immediate relief until other arrangements can be made, and further information can be had.

Yours in haste, SAM'L M. ROBERTSON, County Commissioner of Franklin Co.

Pro-Slavery Families Driven Away

Since the above was in type, we have just learned that two Pro-Slavery families were roughly driven from their homes on Hickory Point by a mob of Abolitionists. They were not permitted to take with them any of their stock (about 200 head) of cattle or negroes. The negroes, though afterwards made their escape and followed their masters to this place and crossed with them into Clay county. The names of the Pro-Slavery men are Feelan and Jones.—These families were the last to leave Hickory Point, the balance having been driven away previously.

The Abolitionists went to their houses about 12 o'clock at night, ordered them to leave immediately without making any preparations whatever. They then gathered around a negro man and woman, and told them to remain in the Territory—that they should be free &c.—to which the two consented; a young negro girl refused to remain with them, and was, after great hesitation permitted to accompany her master.

From the Kansas City Enterprise of May 31. Kansas—Further Particulars.

We are permitted by Jos. C. RANSOM, Esq., of this City, to make the following extracts from a private letter addressed to him by Mr. SHARKEY, of Oswatimie. The statements of Mr. S. are entirely reliable and fully confirm the horrid murders spoken of in our extra of the 27th. This letter as will be seen shows the number of persons murdered to be five instead of eight as reported:

"OSWATIMIE, K. T., May 28.

* * * There is quite an excitement in this place and all the country is in an uproar in regard to the murder of five pro-slavery men. There was a party of persons who went to their houses last Saturday night and called the parties out and then killed them.—Mr. SHERMAN had his head split open and was otherwise mutilated, and then thrown into Potawatimie creek. Mr. DOYLE was called out and stabbed in several places—his head split open and cut across the face and his ears both cut off. His two sons were killed at the same time, by being stabbed in several places and cut all to pieces. Mr. WILKERSON was used in the same manner; his head was cut open and body cut in several places. It is one of the most horrible outrages that has been committed in Kansas. There are hard times ahead and we do not know what will come to pass."

In addition to this, we are informed by Mr. SPOTT, who left Oswatimie on the 28th that the citizens of that place were highly inflamed at the perpetration of these diabolical murders, and had arrested one and perhaps three of the murderers, and were using every exertion to bring the others to punishment, who, he informs us are known and number sixteen, well armed and mounted, and very desperate. Mr. SPOTT further informs us that while passing in the woods near Oswatimie, on Tuesday last, he met one of these desperadoes, who presented a gun to his face and demanded to know if he was a Free State man, and upon being answered in the affirmative, the dastard brand permitted him to pass without further molestation. Such are the legitimate fruits of Beecher Bibles, and the rebellion instigated by the British emissaries to whom REEDER, RONNIXON, BROWN & CO., have been playing second fiddle, in instigating this wicked insurrection.

HARRISBURG, May 10, 1856.

To School Directors: Decision No. 11, on page 56 of the Pamphlet copy of the "School Law and Decisions," does not correspond with the general practice over the State, and is also found to be erroneous to some extent as a matter of law, inasmuch as it improperly exempts "trades, occupations and professions," of a less value than two hundred dollars, from taxation for School purposes. It was so regulated to correspond with the State tax on occupations, but the 29th and 30th sections of the School Law adjust the School tax to the County as well as State tax; and as occupations under two hundred dollars are not exempt from taxation for County purposes, it follows as a necessary consequence that they are liable to taxation for School purposes. The various acts of Assembly, with regard to County tax are exceedingly obscure and unintelligible with regard to the manner of assessing the tax on occupations; but the soundest rule of practice to be gathered from them will be for Directors to assess "occupations" for School purposes at such rate per cent., as the necessities of the District may require, not exceeding thirteen mills on the dollar, except where the tax at the rate thus fixed would not amount to fifty cents, in which case it should be fixed at that specific sum, according to the proviso to the 30th section of the School Law.

Where the duplicate has already been made out, Directors can recall and amend it according to the instructions contained in this circular. The other tax decisions in the Pamphlet copy of the School Law conform to the acts of Assembly and decisions of the courts, and are to be received as authority by Directors.

Very Respectfully, H. C. HICKOK, May 28, 1856. Deputy Superintendent.
