The Philadelphia Chronicle of Thursday says: "The deep interest felt throughout the United States in every thing which concerns Chief Justice MARSHALL, induces us to mention, for the information of his distant friends, that the operation (of lithotomy) to which it has been generally known that he was about to submit, was performed this morning, successfully and satisfactorily, in the presence of several eminent professional gentlemen."

JOHN McLEAN.—The Lexington Observer asks "Is not Judge McLean a Jackson-man? Did he not assist and most powerfully, by means of post-office influence, in elevating Gen. Jackson to the Presidency? Did not Gen. Jackson reward him by appointing him supreme judge?"

A letter from Washington says.—The opinion is every day becoming more and more prevalent, that from great public considerations, the nomination of Mr. VAN BUREN as Minister to England, will be rejected by the Senate, and this too, by a considerable majority of that body.

Mechanical Ingenuity.—We were shown yesterday, a lock and key, manufactured by Mr. Richard Noke, the foreman of the Smith-shop belonging to Messrs. Gross & Hickley, in the rear of their Iron store, situated on Gay-street.

PHILADELPHIA, October 15. On Tuesday last a general election was held throughout this Commonwealth, for the choice of Members of the Senate and House of Representatives of this State, and of all the local officers elected by the people.

The editor of the Sporting Magazine, in his last number, gives the following advice, which may not be considered ill-timed, as on many large estates, not a single Partridge survived the great snow of last winter:—

A Newspaper Patron.—The editor of the Guernsey (Ohio) Times, extracts the subjoined running account from his books, for the benefit of his editorial brethren abroad:—

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT. G. A. MOUNTAIN, to be Surveyor and Inspector of the Revenue for the Port of Bayou St. John, in the State of Louisiana, vice C. Levaqueur, resigned.

The Baltimore Chronicle of Thursday, says: The venerable Judge DONE is no more! He died in Annapolis on Sunday last.

There are at this time several spurious mixtures in circulation, and some vended in this city, assuming to possess the same, or equal virtues, of Potter's Catholicon. It is to be hoped that the unsuspecting will be placed on their guard against such impostures, much mischief has resulted from their use.

LYNCHBURG, Va. May 5th, 1828. At the request of D.—, I here give a statement of the effect of Potter's Catholicon in the restoration of my health. My constitution had been in a declining state for more than eighteen months.

PHILADELPHIA, March 28th, 1831. Dear Sir—After many but ineffectual trials to relieve myself from a most severe and distressing attack of dyspepsia, I have been completely cured by the use of, to me, your invaluable Catholicon, and I think it my duty thus publicly to state my case, and in order that others may profit thereby.

NORFOLK, Va. May 1st, 1828. Dear Sir—I will shortly state my former case. I labored for six years under a violent Liver Complaint. It first manifested itself in the summer of 1821, and rendered frequent application to an eminent family physician necessary, by whose prescriptions I could obtain only a temporary relief.

An eminent physician says, "I have known several cures performed by the use of your Catholicon, which had previously resisted the ordinary prescriptions of the faculty, and I have never known it to produce INJURIOUS EFFECTS!"
