

THE DEPARTED HEROES.

DEATH OF BOLIVAR.

By the arrival of the British brig Eclipse, capt. Randall, from Montego bay, we have the following details respecting the death and obsequies of BOLIVAR:

Address of the General commanding the armies De La Plaza y Provincia, to the troops:

SOLDIERS! The Sun of Colombia is set! Its beneficent rays have ceased to alumnate this unhappy land! The father of his country!! The illustrious Bolivar is no more!!! One hundred years of mourning are not sufficient to demonstrate to his precious remains all our gratitude—all our love—all our regret!!

Soldiers!—You well know what a severe loss Colombia has sustained in the death of Bolivar—a loving father—a faithful soldier—a wise magistrate, and the best protector of humanity!

Soldiers—Our Liberator, confiding always in your patriotism, your virtues, and the affection you always showed him, has made but one request, which you will find in his dying speech:—You cannot possibly refuse it; honour his death, for in fulfilling this last sacred duty, your country will reap a thousand benefits from your submission. Beseech you to it, and will be the first to subject myself blindly to the last wishes of the benefactor of Colombia.

IGNACIO DE LAQUE.

Carthagena, Dec. 21, 1830.

THE LATE GENERAL BOLIVAR.

The Liberator expired on the 17th ult. at San Pedro Alejandino, a country seat, about a league from Santa Martha, in a calm, collected manner, confessing and receiving the sacrament at the same time. He made his will, and in every respect, evinced such greatness of soul, that he neither spoke against his enemies nor recommended any of his friends. His body was embalmed, and laid in state for three days at the Custom House, the front of which appeared, in magnificent mourning, with a monument therein. It is almost impossible to imagine the anxiety that was manifested to get a view of the remains of their Liberator, the staircases being often impassable from the numbers ascending and descending. His funeral took place on the 20th, and so splendidly, and with so much order was it conducted, that the inhabitants of Santa Martha, in the midst of the grief which overwhelmed them for their irreparable loss, were pleased to see so much love and gratitude manifested to so worthy a personage. The ceremony lasted four hours, and in the Holy Cathedral Church a magnificent and tasteful funeral decoration was prepared, which added greatly to solemnize the scene. The populace flocked there in crowds to see the last of their lamented leader. The militia behaved with so much discipline, that no regiment of the line could exceed it. The band played two funeral marches, and the Moro fortress fired a cannon every half hour, the bells responding with double force. Such is a faint description of what Santa Martha has done on the occasion of the irreparable loss of the "Immortal Founder of Colombia."—Kingston Chron. Jan. 8.

The Jamaica Courant of the 6th of January, quoted in the Norfolk papers of Wednesday, contains certain intelligence of the death of Bolivar, which took place at Hacienda, near Santa Martha, on the 17th of last December. A week before his death he issued this address:

The Liberator to the citizens of Colombia. COLOMBIANS—You have aided me in concentrating my forces to cherish liberty where tyranny had fixed its abode. I have unceasingly and disinterestedly exerted my best energies for your welfare. I have even abandoned my fortune and my personal tranquillity in your cause. My enemies abuse your credulity, and endeavour to destroy my reputation by questioning my love of liberty; and fellow citizens, I grieve to say it, that I am the victim of my persecutors, who have now conducted me almost to my grave;—but I pardon them. My affection for my country will not permit me to sanction any extraordinary funeral obsequies. My last desire is, and my last hope is—to see the consolidation of my beloved country. Let all unite for the good of the union—let the people confide in the actual government, to save them from anarchy—let the Priests offer up their orisons to Heaven, and the soldier regard his sword as the best guarantee for preserving the institutions of his country.

COLOMBIANS—I leave you; but my last prayers are offered up for the tranquillity of Colombia: and if my death will contribute to this desirable end by a discontinuance of party feeling, and consolidate the union, I shall descend with feelings of contentment into the tomb, which will soon be prepared for me.

SIMON BOLIVAR.

EXECUTIONS—There have been 24 public executions in Massachusetts, since January 1, 1830, viz: 14 for murder, 6 for rape, 3 for robbery, and 1 for arson. Two persons convicted for murder committed suicide.

A Mr. Donaldson, late editor of the Edinburgh Advertiser, has left property worth $220,000, the whole of which is to found a hospital for orphan and destitute children.

MARYLAND—According to the official returns made by the Marshal of Maryland, the population of that State consists of 472,515 free white males, and 143,778 free white females; 53,420 males, and 49,449 female slaves; and 24,020 male, and 28,022 female free colored persons—making a total of 446,913 inhabitants.

TO THE PUBLIC.

A CHILD, supposed to have been stolen, was brought to the U. S. Arsenal, near Pittsburg on Monday, the 10th inst. by an old man and his wife, (the latter about 45 years of age of dark complexion, and ungainly in features.) They were in a very destitute condition, and begging for food. The child is a beautiful boy of the age of three or four years; of very fair complexion, black eyes, and rather light hair; and, from his language and manners, evidently far more genteelly raised than his nominal parentage can justify. The woman gave contradictory accounts of their route, and of the child's age; and the latter, in reply to inquiries from a lady residing at the Arsenal, said, with much naivete, and distinctly, that his name was GEORGE WASHINGTON MYERS; that his mamma was a great way off; that the woman he was with, was his mamma; he also called her Peggy.—The woman said they had come from New Orleans in a steam boat, and were going to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. She also said that they had been one night and part of two days on board the steam boat. Upon being questioned closely about the child, she seemed alarmed, had some private conversation with her husband, when they started off in great haste with the child, taking the Philadelphia turnpike. From many little circumstances, too numerous for publication, there is but little doubt that this interesting boy has been basely decoyed from his home, probably for the purpose of exciting charity. This advertisement is made in the hope that it will meet the anxious eye of his bereaved friends, and lead to a more strict and formal scrutiny into the matter, than was practicable at the Arsenal at the time.

PROSPECTUS BY L. O. HARN & CO.

FOR PUBLISHING, IN HAGERSTOWN, MD., A WEEKLY NEWS-PAPER, TO BE CALLED

THE FREE PRESS.

THE FREE PRESS will be decidedly opposed to Masonry, and will attempt to promote a candid and dignified examination of the nature and effect of Secret Societies. Whether good or evil, their influence on social, moral, and political rights, is a fit subject for investigation, in order that the community may award either due approbation or merited judgment.

It will be devoted to Passing Events, Politics, and Literature—it will give a brief and condensed history of the times, showing the principal changes which take place on the earth, whether in governments, war, or morals. It will advocate the march of Improvement in commerce, manufactures and the arts—Temperance, Free Schools, and the cause of the poor and oppressed.—It will record valuable documents, renunciations, historical facts, resolutions of conventions, proceedings of churches, and trials in courts of Law relating to Free-masonry, so far as the limits of the sheet will allow.

TERMS.

THE FREE PRESS will be printed on an imperial sheet at TWO DOLLARS AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per annum, payable half yearly in advance.

To distant subscribers it will be carefully enclosed in strong paper, and sent to them by the first mail.

BICKNELLS COUNTERFEIT DETECTOR, AND PENNSYLVANIA REPORTER OF BANK NOTES, BROKEN BANKS, BANK AND INSURANCE STOCKS, GOLD, PRICES CURRENT, &c. &c. &c.

The first volume of this publication having been concluded, the publisher respectfully tenders his thanks to his numerous patrons for their kind encouragement, and trusts, by renewed and persevering efforts, to render the "Detector" a still more useful and valuable work. Since its commencement it has received a most liberal share of public favor, the subscription to the work being such, at this time, as to guarantee its permanent establishment, and license the editor in more extensive arrangements in the prosecution of his labors.

The "Counterfeit Detector" is designed principally as a useful auxiliary to store-keepers and men of business generally—every number contains a carefully corrected Bank Note-List, Prices Current, List of Broken Banks, Prices of Gold, Prices of Bank and Insurance Stock, &c.; and every other number gives (in addition to the above) a description of all COUNTERFEIT and ALTERED NOTES, in circulation throughout the United States, and all such information as is likely to throw light upon the subjects embraced in the design of this Journal. In furnishing for these various departments correct information, the editor has established a correspondence with several of the most intelligent men of commercial pursuits in Boston, New York, Baltimore and other large cities, so that whatever information may be circulated through the "Detector," may, in all cases, be relied upon as correct.

The literary department of this Journal will embrace the most racy and spirited selections from foreign magazines of merit, as well as such original articles as the events of the times and the progress of literature require. The latest foreign news, and all domestic items of importance, will be given as early as possible; and the entire conduct of the work will be regulated by an effort to render the "Detector" at once one of the cheapest and most useful publications of the country.

With the commencement of the next number the "Detector" will be enlarged and otherwise improved, and it is therefore desirable that all those who feel a disposition to encourage the work, will forward their names immediately.

The terms will remain as heretofore, two DOLLARS per annum.

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

$20 REWARD.

Including that which I have offered in hand-bills, will be given for the apprehension of

but sometimes calls himself GOOD IN-HAND, who broke out of the jail of the county of Lancaster, on the morning of the 12th inst. confined on a charge of ROBBERY. On the previous night he broke his hobbles, armed himself with two hickory cudgels, a butcher knife and an iron poker, laid injunctions of secrecy on the other prisoners under pain of death, swore that he had broke four jails, and he would break this one also that night or die in the attempt; said he was a highway robber, and had $1000 buried not 15 miles from Lancaster. He attempted putting his threats into execution by breaking through the front wall of the prison, and would have succeeded had it not been for one heavy stone. After failing here he frothed and foamed, said he would be chained to the floor if he did not get out, swore he would kill the jailer and sheriff, or any man that opposed him, and commenced pounding and breaking stones in order to alarm the keepers of the prison that they might come up. The next morning he succeeded in making his escape by scaling the wall of the back yard, while the keepers was unlocking the doors of the other prisoners. Said robber is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, stout made, ruddy complexion, slightly peok marked, short flat nose, with a scar on the right nostril extending to the corner of the eye, leaving a nick on the point of the nose—had on a blue coat, grey cassinet pantaloons and half worn hat. The above reward will be given for the securing said robber in any jail in the U. States.

NEW-YORK AMULET,

AND Ladies' Literary and Religious Chronicle.

We scarcely know whether, in commenting a Second Volume of the New York Amulet, it is necessary to present our Readers with a new Prospectus. On the further consideration, however, that our readers will have a new Editor, and that the Editor hopes to have many new readers, it may be proper to speak briefly of the character and intention of our Work.

It is our wish, and to the extent of our humble powers, will be our constant endeavour, to promote those two great essentials of human happiness, love towards God and good-will towards man; where the first, indeed, is found in sincerity, the latter cannot be absent.

Thus far our work will be entitled to the appellation of religious; but it is not our purpose to make it theological, or to enter into any of those controversies in which, it is much to be regretted, there is, too frequently, more of the spirit of party than of piety.

It is the triumph of unbelievers that the religious world have divided among themselves; we would unfurl the standard of union, and show the scoffer that the principles of religion are throughout the same, pure and immutable.

As a literary work, we shall endeavour to combine in its columns instruction and amusement—availing ourselves of the services of fiction only for the promotion of truth, and the cultivation of those feelings which may be beneficial to ourselves and others. When we conduct our readers into the regions of imagination, it shall not be for the purpose of unfiting them for, or disgusting them with, those of reality, but for the enjoyment of a glorious, a noble faculty, which an all-good Creator has enhanced man's earthly happiness.

Original Tales, of feeling or fancy, will from a prominent feature in the present, as in the past Volume. Nor will the spirit of chastened humour be frowned austere from our columns. We think with Solomon—"there is a time to laugh," and, in season, we shall be glad to have our readers laugh with us.

Poetry, in all its variety—Criticism, as far as we dare venture on such dangerous ground—Interesting Anecdotes, Extraneous, &c. &c., will hold their due stations and importance in our Work.

The claims which the Amulet has put forth to Originality, will be very much augmented. In addition to the distinguished names already inscribed on our list of Contributors, and which the Editor fondly hopes will not be lessened, he is enabled to confidently, that the second volume of Amulet will contain articles from several distinguished Authors on the other side of the Atlantic—the former literary associates of the Editor.

Persons forwarding five subscriptions will receive a sixth copy for their trouble.

The only cause of complaint, as far as we are aware, which has been found in the first Volume, shall be removed. The Amulet will be published and mailed punctually on the 7th and 21st of every month.

TERMS—To City Subscribers, supplied by a Carrier, and in handsome printed Covers, One Dollar and Twenty-five cents.—Subscribers supplied by mail, One Dollar. Subscriptions payable in advance.
