

THE OLIO.

From the National Intelligencer. INVOCATION TO POLAND. (Lines occasioned by the recent intelligence of Revolutionary movements in that part of Europe.)

VARIETY.

William Penn on marriage.—Never marry but for love; but see that thou lovest what is lovely. If love be not thy chief motive, thou wilt soon grow weary of a marriage state, and stray from thy promise, to search out pleasure in forbidden places.

A HANDSOME DISCLAIMER. A lady while tripping down our streets the other day most graceful, and balancing her neck a la mode, found to her inexpressible confusion that all her hair was dropping from her head.

Breach of Promise of Marriage.—The case of Rebecca Hoffman, vs. Rev'd. George Heim, for breach of the marriage promise, was tried last week, and a verdict given for $490, in favor of plaintiff.

The Cincinnati American says.—We understand that there are twenty-five thousand barrels of flour at one point on the Miami Canal, waiting for the opening of navigation.

Preparations are about making, says the Norristown-Herald, by Mr. Savage, to put in operation another large cotton factory this spring on the banks of Schuylkill, in this borough.

Cocktail Powders.—A composition with this fancy name has recently been invented, for the use of those who wish to "steam it" without being observed. It is said to possess all the intoxicating properties of a "gin cocktail," and being made up into sugar-plumbs and lozenges, is capable of a very easy transportation, and beautifully adapted to the wants of the age.

We have heard of a traveller who put up at an inn, but who being too long for any room in the house, was compelled to raise a window immediately at the foot of his bed through which he thrust his feet. In the morning, (as the tale goes,) a flock of turkeys were found quietly roosting on his legs.

THE CONSTELLATION. A paper devoted to light Literature, Entertaining Miscellany, and the Spirit of the Times. PUBLISHED WEEKLY, IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, AT THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

THIS Publication has now been established more than a year, and the objects proposed and the course pursued are too well known to require a word from us on that subject. Our only design at present is to solicit that increase of patronage which we trust our work deserves, and which we shall continue our endeavors to merit. Testimonials in favor of the CONSTELLATION are daily returning upon us, in the shape of numberless requests for exchange from our brothers of the press, in flattering notices of its quality, and copious extracts from its pages. But with all these demonstrations of regard which delight the ear and please the eye, some more tangible proof of admiration—a proof which especially commends itself to the sense of feeling, in the shape of silver dollars or bank bills, accompanying the command—"SEND ME YOUR PAPER!"—would be most acceptable.

In saying this, we would not be understood to complaining of a want of patronage. On the contrary, we are bound to say it is very flattering, and is steadily on the increase. But, like a man who impatiently watches the growth of a young and thrifty elm, which is as afford him shelter and comfort, we wish it to increase faster. The form of the CONSTELLATION was changed at the commencement of the present volume, from the folio to the quarto, which renders it convenient for preservation and binding. It is also printed on a larger sheet than during the first year. With these improvements and the engagement of an additional Editor of acknowledged talent, we cannot help thinking our paper at the low price of three dollars, as well worthy of patronage as any other now before the public. LORD & BARTLETT. NEW-YORK, March 16, 1831. Subscriptions received at this Office.
