AN ORDINANCE

For the regulation of the Market, in Gettysburg.

SECT. 1. Be it Ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of Gettysburg, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That Wednesday and Saturday of every week be the days for Market, as hereinafter described. That no person, or persons shall be admitted to buy any article of provision, (groceries, bread and grain only excepted) between the hours of sunset of the evenings of the days preceding the Market days, and eight o'clock in the morning of the said Market days, except in the public Market house. And that all persons shall be prohibited from retailing in shops or houses within the said Borough, all and every article or articles of provision, (groceries, all kinds of grain, and bread only excepted) without having first obtained a license for that purpose from the Burgess of the said Borough for the time being, which license the said Burgess is hereby authorized to issue, and to make an entry of such license in a book kept for the purpose.

And if any person or persons shall purchase any articles of provision, except as before excepted, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, every person so offending, and being thereof legally convicted, shall forfeit and pay to the use of the corporation, the sum of Two Dollars. And if any person or persons shall, after this act shall be legally in force, sell or expose to sale any articles of provision in shops or houses within the Borough, which provisions had been bought for the purpose of sale, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, without having obtained a license as aforesaid, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay to the use of the borough the sum of Five Dollars. And all such persons as shall have obtained license as aforesaid, shall be prohibited, and they are hereby prohibited and restrained, from purchasing all and every article of provision as aforesaid, within the market hours aforesaid, above the quantity herein limited, to wit: two dozen of Eggs, four pounds of Butter, one peck of Potatoes, one peck of Fruit, twenty pounds of smoked or dried Beef, Bacon, or other meat, (except a single piece should exceed twenty pounds.) And if any person or persons having obtained such license, shall purchase any provisions exceeding the quantity above stated, he, she or they, so offending and being thereof legally convicted, shall forfeit and pay to the use of the borough the sum of Five Dollars, for every such offence. And that all persons are hereby prohibited and restrained from purchasing within the market hours herein limited, any greater number than three fresh slaughtered hogs; and if any person or persons shall purchase any greater quantity of fresh slaughtered hogs, against the provisions of this act, and being thereof legally convicted, shall forfeit and pay for the use of the corporation the sum of Ten Dollars.

And it shall be the duty of the High Constable, Town Clerk, Clerk of the Market, and all other officers and good citizens of the said borough, to inform of and prosecute to conviction all persons so offending against the provisions of this act; and the several officers before whom such conviction shall be made, shall cause the several fines so incurred, to be levied agreeably to the charter, and paid into the hands of the Treasurer. (And all persons obtaining such licenses as aforesaid shall pay therefor to the Treasurer for the use of the borough the sum of Four Dollars per annum.)

SECT. 2. And be it further ordained, That if any person shall hereafter sell, or offer for sale, any Butter, which shall be found not to be of full weight, such Butter shall be forfeited for the use of the borough, to be sold by the Clerk of the Market, and the proceeds paid over into the hands of the Treasurer.

SECT. 3. And be it further ordained, That if any person shall bring to market for sale, unwholesome, bad or unmarketable provisions, he, she, or they, shall, for every such offence, pay a fine of Five Dollars, to be recovered for the use of the borough, and that the said provisions shall be removed by the Clerk of the Market, at the expense of the owner, or person offering the same for sale.

SECT. 4. And be it further ordained, That the Town Clerk be directed to record in the Town Book, the occupant and number of all the Stalls in the Market house, and that he deliver a copy of the same to the Treasurer, and that no butcher or victualer be permitted, from and after the first day of May next, to occupy any stall or stalls therein, unless he obtain every year, or every quarter, license or written permission therefor, to be signed by the Chief Burgess or Assistant, and countersigned by the Treasurer, which same shall not be countersigned by the Treasurer before the payment in advance, for the term of said occupation, by the said butcher or victualer, to the Treasurer, at the rate of Five Dollars per annum for each stall he shall so occupy, nor until the full payment of all arrearages if any such there be. And if any butcher or victualer shall occupy any of said stalls, without having first obtained such license or permission, signed and countersigned as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay to the use of the borough the sum of One Dollar for each Market day he shall so occupy the same.

SECT. 5. And be it further ordained, That to secure fairness in buying and selling, and to preserve peace and good order in market, that any person using any fraud, force or violence, in the act of purchasing any article or articles of provision, or who shall remove or attempt to remove the same without the consent of the owner, he, or she, shall be obliged by the Clerk of the Market, upon the complaint of the owner or any other person, to restore the same, and shall moreover pay for every such offence the sum of One Dollar.

SECT. 6. And be it further ordained, That if any person or persons shall use any other fraudulent or dishonest practice, either in buying or selling during market hours, in the market place, (not herein specially provided for) and being thereof legally convicted, shall forfeit and pay the sum of One Dollar for every such offence.

SECT. 7. And be it further ordained, That the Clerk of the Market shall keep always for the use of the corporation, exact standard weights and measures, as at present fixed by the laws of Pennsylvania, and that it shall be his duty once in every three months, or oftener if he shall be thereto required, to try the weights and measures of all the inhabitants of the said borough, who buy or sell by weight or measure, and all and every weight or measure used in the said borough either for selling or buying, which shall be found either greater or less than the standard weight or measure, shall be taken into the custody of the said Clerk, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Burgess or either of them, to reduce or to increase the same to the true standard, and the expense of doing the same shall be paid by the person owning or occupying the said weights or measures, and if any person or persons within the said borough shall knowingly sell any article by weight or measure under the just standard so to be kept, or shall buy by any weight or measure above such standard, he, she or they, on being thereof duly convicted, for every such offence shall forfeit and pay for the use of the corporation the sum of ten dollars, and shall also forfeit the said weights or measures. And if any inhabitant within the said borough, using any weights or measures for the purpose of buying or selling, shall refuse, on demand being made in the day time by the said Clerk of the Market, to produce or deliver the said weights or measures by which he either buys or sells, to the said Clerk, for the purpose of being tested by the said standard weights and measures, and being thereof legally convicted, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay to the use of the said corporation the sum of twenty dollars. And it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Market to attend every market morning in the Market-house, where the said standard weights and measures shall be kept, in the house provided for keeping the same, and all articles offered for sale (other than butter, put up in precise quantity) the price of which shall depend upon weight or measure, shall, if brought to the said house, be by him justly weighed and measured, and he shall be paid by the seller for weighing each draft not exceeding ten pounds, one cent; and if over ten and not exceeding twenty pounds, two cents; and if exceeding twenty and not exceeding fifty pounds, three cents; and if more than fifty and not exceeding one hundred pounds, four cents; and if more than one hundred pounds six cents; and for measuring all kinds of articles sold by the bushel, or less quantity, he shall receive under half a bushel, one cent for each measure; if above half a bushel and not more than one bushel, two cents; and two cents for every bushel he shall have so measured in addition. And if the said Clerk shall be called upon by any person or persons buying or selling any articles by weight or measure, to weigh or measure the same at any other time than on the morning of the prescribed market days and within market hours, the seller shall pay to the said Clerk double the rates above mentioned. (And the said Clerk of the Market shall be paid out of the borough stock, twenty five cents for each Market day that he shall duly and faithfully attend the said Market and perform the duties herein prescribed, besides the fees allowed by this act for weighing and measuring.—And the said Clerk shall be allowed out of the fines and forfeitures incurred under the provisions of this act, the further sum of five dollars per annum, as a full compensation for testing all weights and measures, as herein prescribed. And it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Market to cause the Market house to be swept clean on the day preceding each Market day, for which he shall be allowed the sum of five dollars per annum.)

SECT. 8. And be it further ordained, That no butcher's blocks or benches shall be suffered to remain in the Market-house except in market hours, unless the same shall be so fixed under the stalls of the Market; that no filth or uncleanness can be attached to them. And no person shall bring within the Market-house, or within the lines of the posts or foot pavements set round the same, any carts, drays, cars, or other carriages; and every person offending in the premises, shall, on information being made to the Clerk of the Market or on view of the said Clerk, forfeit and pay the sum of two dollars. And all wheel-barrow shall, as soon as the burthen carried on them into the Market shall be discharged, shall be removed to some place without the said lines of posts and foot pavements, under the penalty of one dollar. And if any person or persons shall bring into and leave within the said Market-place or the Public square, any head, set or other offal of any animal, he or she, so offending, shall forfeit and pay for each offence the sum of five dollars.

SECT. 9. And be it further ordained, That no huckster or seller of cakes, shall be permitted to occupy any stall, or sit within the said line of posts and foot pavements put round the Market-house, with intention to sell during the market hours, under the penalty of one dollar, to be paid forthwith to the Clerk of the Market.

THE CONSTELLATION,

A paper devoted to light Literature, Entertaining Miscellany, and the Spirit of the Times. PUBLISHED WEEKLY, IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, AT THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

THIS Publication has now been established more than a year, and the objects proposed and the course pursued are too well known to require a word from us on that subject. Our only design at present is to solicit that increase of patronage which we trust our work deserves, and which we shall continue our endeavors to merit.

Testimonials in favor of the CONSTELLATION are daily returning upon us, in the shape of numberless requests for exchange from our brothers of the press, in flattering notices of its quality, and copious extracts from its pages. But with all these demonstrations of regard which delight the ear and please the eye, some more tangible proof of admiration—a proof which especially commends itself to the sense of feeling, in the shape of silver dollars or bank bills, accompanying the command—"SEND ME YOUR PAPER!"—would be most acceptable.

In saying this, we would not be understood to complaining of a want of patronage. On the contrary, we are bound to say it is very flattering, and is steadily on the increase. But, like a man who impatiently watches the growth of a young and thrifty elm, which is as afford him shelter and comfort, we wish it to increase faster.

The form of the CONSTELLATION was changed at the commencement of the present volume, from the folio to the quarto, which renders it convenient for preservation and binding. It is also printed on a larger sheet than during the first year. With these improvements and the engagement of an additional Editor of acknowledged talent, we cannot help thinking, our paper at the low price of three dollars, as well worthy of patronage as any other now before the public.
