RURAL REPOSITORY. OR BOWER OF LITERATURE, (EIGHTH VOLUME.) Embellished Quarterly, with a Fine Engraving.

Devoted exclusively to Polite Literature, comprised in the following subjects: Original and Selected Tales, Essays, American and Foreign Biography, Travels, Notices of New Publications, Summary of News, Original and Select Poetry, Amusing, Miscellaneous, Humorous and Historical Anecdotes, &c. &c. On commencing a new volume the publisher pledges himself to his patrons that his unremitting endeavours shall be exerted to meet their expectations. The Repository will continue to be conducted on the same plan and afforded at the same convenient rate, which he has reason to believe has hitherto given it so wide a circulation; and such a durable & flattering popularity as had rendered it a favorite and amusing visitor during the seven years of its publication. As its correspondents are daily increasing & several highly talented individuals with the benefit of whose literary labours he has not heretofore been favored, and whose writings would reflect honour upon any periodical, have engaged to contribute to its columns, he flatters himself that their communications and the prizes offered below, together with the best periodicals of the day, which he is regularly supplied, will furnish him with ample materials for enlivening its pages with that variety expected in works of this nature. It must be acknowledged that the Repository is one of the cheapest journals extant. Arrangements have been made to have the engraving executed by the best artists. A fine review of the City of Hudson, the River and surrounding Scenery will accompany the first number.

CONDITIONS. The Rural Repository will be published every other Saturday, on Super Royal paper of a superior quality, and will contain twenty-six numbers, of eight pages each, besides four plates, a title page and index to the volume, making in the whole, 212 pages, Octavo. It shall be printed in handsome style, on a good and fair type, making a neat and tasteful volume at the end of the year, containing matter that will be instructive and profitable for youth in future years. The Eighth Volume (Fourth Volume New Series) will commence on the 4th of June next, at the low rate of One Dollar per annum, payable in all cases in advance. Those who will forward us Five Dollars free of postage, shall receive six copies, and all persons who will remit us Sixteen Dollars, shall receive twenty copies for one year—reducing the price to Eighty Cents per volume; and any person who will remit Twenty dollars, shall receive Twenty-five copies and a set of Sturm's Reflections for every Day in the year, handsomely bound.—All the previous volumes, except the first and second, will be furnished to those who obtain subscribers, at the same rate. No subscription received for less than one year. Names of the Subscribers with the amount of the subscriptions to be sent by the 15th of June, or as soon after as convenient, to the publisher, William B. Stoddard, corner of Warren and Third Streets, Hudson, N. Y. April 13, 1831.
