

ANTI-MASONIC STAR, AND REPUBLICAN BANNER.

GETTYSBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1831.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

FLOUR, Howard-st.—The market has been dull this week, and we have consequently but few transactions to notice. In the early part of the week, small lots from stores were sold at $5 75. On Wednesday, sales of 600 brls. were made at 5 56, and on the same day 500 brls. were sold at 5 50. A lot of 150 brls. extra brand, was also taken at 5 75. Yesterday it was offered freely from stores at 5 50, and we find that holders who are disposed to sell, ask 5 50 to-day. Until Tuesday inclusive the wagon price was generally 5 50 per brl.; but since then until to-day inclusive it has been uniform at 5 25 per brl. Most of the receipts, however, have been put into store on account of the owners, who are unwilling to take the current rates.

WHEAT.—At the commencement of the week sales of parcels of prime red West Branch Susquehanna were made at $1 21 per bushel, and more recently sales of several cargoes of West Branch, comprising about 10,000 bushels, were made at $1 20. Yesterday a cargo of West Branch, two-thirds white, was taken at $1 20. To-day the market is flat, and offers to sell prime red West Branch at $1 18 have not been taken up. The receipts of Maryland and Virginia wheat are only in very small parcels, and generally of inferior quality—prices may be quoted at about 60 to 100 cents, as in quality. Wagon wheat has been taken this week at $1 10 per bushel, but that price would not be given to-day.

Since the above was written we are advised of the sale of two cargoes of prime red West Branch wheat at $1 16 per bushel.

CORN.—We note a shade of improvement this week. Sales of a number of parcels of good quality have been made throughout the week at 69 cts. and one or two prime white at 70 cents. The fair quotation to-day for good to prime, appears to be 68 to 70 cts. per bushel.

RYE.—A cargo of 1400 bushels Susquehanna, the only parcel in market this week, was taken at 70 cts. Between 3000 and 4000 bush. Maryland Rye have been sold at 65 cts. and a parcel to-day at 66 cents. We quote the range of the market, for both sorts, at 65 to 70 cents.

OATS.—Sales of Maryland Oats have been made at 33 cts. by the cargo.

CLOVER SEED.—We quote at $4 to 4 50 per bushel, as in quality.

FLAX SEED.—A lot of Susquehanna was sold this week at $1 25 per bushel.

FEED.—We advance our rates, and now quote Chop'd Rye at $1 56; Ship Stuff 35 cts.; and Shorts at 20 cts.

HIDES.—A lot of 800 Buenos Ayres was taken this week at 16 1/2 cts. 6 months, to go out of the market. A lot of the same description was sold to-day at 16 1/2 cts.

NOTICE.—We have a letter in our possession directed to ROBERT BRYNS, or BRYAN, from Baltimore City. Should the person deem it of interest to him, by calling at our office he can have it.

TO PRINTERS.—An extensive English and German printing establishment, is offered for sale. It is situated in New Berlin, Union co. Pa. See advertisement in another column.

"THE VICTIM OF TRIFLES," by J. K. Paulding on our first page, is a well written article, and ought especially to be read by those who have not the patience to act patiently.

FRANCE.—The letter of the celebrated correspondent of the London Morning Chronicle, upon the subject of France, &c. will be found on our first page. It is worth a careful perusal.

DISTRESSING.—On Thursday evening last, the dwelling house of Mr. EPHRAIM MCGINLEY, about one mile from Millertown, in this county, together with all his furniture, was consumed by fire; and himself, (in a weak state), and wife, and eleven children, thrown upon the charity of the world with barely sufficient clothing to cover them. To be visited by calamities of any kind, is distressing—but in the present instance it is heart-rending in the extreme. It is with pleasure we learn that some benevolent individuals are endeavoring to collect as much charity from the humane part of the community, as will restore a portion of the loss. All christian hearts will remember that "he that giveth to the poor, but lendeth to the Lord."

TRIUMPH OF TEMPERANCE!

At a meeting of the Temperance Society of Newville, on Monday the second inst. ninety-five new members were added to the Society. It is believed that this is the largest accession which, at any time, has been made to the cause of Temperance, in this part of our country.—Carlisle Expositor.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAIL ROAD.—We learn from the Volunteer, that Books were opened in Carlisle, on Monday week last, for subscriptions of stock to this road, and that 153 shares were taken on the two first days. The books were to have remained opened until last Saturday evening.

CARLISLE AND HANOVER TURNPIKE ROAD.—We also learn from the Volunteer that, on Monday week last, Messrs. SAMUEL WOODBURN, DANIEL SHEPPER, JOHN BROUGH, ISAAC WEARLEY, and RICHARD CRAIGHEAD, were elected managers for the ensuing year. The three first named gentlemen were elected by the Commissioners of Camberland and Adams Counties, and the two last, by the Stockholders of the Company.

THE LETTER WRITER.—The Baltimore Patriot says—The notorious JOHN HENRY, who made disclosures in 1812, of the designs of the British government to effect a dissolution of the Union, and for which he received $50,000, is stated to be the writer of the celebrated letters from Paris, (Signed O. P. Q.) to the London Morning Chronicle.

POSTAGE OF LEGISLATORS.—Commenting upon a "view of the postage accounts of the members of our Legislature," the Carlisle Volunteer says:—"We did not sum up the whole amount, but guess it to be, at least 6 thousand dollars. At any rate, it cannot be denied that the members of our Legislative bodies are all—more or less—literary characters. Messrs. McSNEERY and MARSHALL, of Adams county, L. PAID THEIR OWN POSTAGE, AS ALL GENTLEMEN WHO RECEIVE GOOD PAY FOR THEIR SERVICES, OUGHT TO DO."

"DYING AWAY," IS IT!—From the New York Pilot we learn that the new DAILY ANTI-MASONIC paper, entitled "The New York Whig," "is now ready to come out. Never (says the Pilot,) was there a time when the prospects of the ANTI-MASONIC CAUSE WERE MORE BRIGHT. On all sides the light of truth bursts forth with healing beams. Our hearts are cheered with news from the East and the West, and from the North. We echo back the animating shout from the South—from the Atlantic, from the City of New York."

THE MERCER OUTRAGE.

We have hardly ever heard of an outrage so unparalleled as the one committed upon the Anti-Masonic Republicans of Mercer county. We had prepared an article upon the subject, but prefer giving the following from the Harrisburg Statesman:—

An outrage was committed on the liberties of the people in Mercer county on the 19th ult. which gives a full demonstration of the intolerance of Free-Masonry.

A meeting was advertised in the Antimasonic paper of that county, calling for those opposed to secret societies to meet in the court house, to appoint a delegate to the State Convention to be held in this place on the 25th of May. At the hour appointed the advocates of secret societies rushed into the court-house in a disorderly manner, took possession, read the antimasonic call and proceeded to pass resolutions disapproving of the spirit of Antimasonry, disapproving of their measures in holding a convention, and approving of the administration of Gov. Wolf, &c. &c.

We might perhaps be disposed to let this outrage pass without a notice, but one of the government papers at this place, (the Chronicle,) has published the affair as a triumph over Anti-masonry, and we will give our views on the subject.

It has never been denied that the people have a right to assemble together in a peaceable manner, to consult on any matter relative to government, and the band of men who would prevent such a meeting, or such a consultation, would, if they had the power, prevent all expression of opinion contrary to their own on any subject—they would without doubt deprive the opposers of George Wolf of a vote. Yes, they only want the power, not the disposition, to deprive their opposers of all the liberties of freemen!!! How is the name of republican prostituted when such men assume it!!! How is the Press, that once glorious paladium of liberty degraded, when such conduct is published in the columns of government newspapers, with an approval!!! It has we believe remained for the Masonic party to descend first to such a degrading act. No party ever before in our American Republic attempted to prevent their opposers in politics from assembling together to prepare for, and to hold whatever conventions they might think proper, and we hope for the sake of the republic, that such a spirit of Despotism or Mobocracy if you please, will die with the Masonic Institution. The heart of a freeman sickens at the thought of such conduct. Those desperadoes hold much power, and they show a disposition to tyrannize far past their present power. But let republicans be true to themselves, let them peaceably act together and vote together, and they will soon break down this degrading intolerance which now really threatens to sap the very foundation of republican liberties.

HEAR!!!—A Mason of the high degrees, living in the city of Hudson, said without reserve, "THAT THERE WERE ELEVEN THOUSAND MEN IN THIS STATE, ALL ARMED AND EQUIPPED, AND READY TO TAKE FIELD, AT A MOMENT'S WARNING, IN DEFENCE OF MASONRY." The editor of the Antimasonic Envoy says, if any man will deny it, he will give the name and time.

MORGAN'S ILLUSTRATIONS.—A few weeks ago, it will be recollected, we held forth a proposition to the lodge or any of its advocates in this or other places, who might think proper to accept it, to prove the truth or falsity of Morgan's disclosures. Knowing that there are persons so wrapped up in the belief, that if Masonry was an absurd and unchristian institution, that many of its members who pretend christianity, would renounce their connexion with it, we were induced to make the proposition. We done it not for the sake of personal gain—but for the sincere purpose of convincing the people that what has been laid to the charge of Masonry, was not without foundation. The inquiry has been frequently made of us whether our proposition had been accepted. We have answered them in the negative. Although there are those who will say, and write long communications to prove, that we have published none of the Secrets of Masonry, and that Morgan's book was only a catelponny work, yet none of those braze defolders of the Harlot have had the confidence to come forward and convince the people, by OPEN ACTS, that the "disclosures," were untrue. To show that we are sincere, and that the disclosures, as given by Captain Morgan, are substantially correct and true, we offer the same proposition again to the Lodge, or any of its advocates. Should they still persist in their dread of accepting it, the people will know who to believe. They will then see who are the impostors, and who are not.

JUDGE McLEAN.—It is really gratifying to notice the growing popularity of the Honorable JONN McLEAN, of Ohio. Many of our exchange papers either have an original or selected tribute to his worth, and all unite in the opinion that he is "JUST THE MAN" and the ONLY man that can dethrone the present monarchical aristocracy that sways the destiny of the union—being a true Republican—an upright, good man, and an uncompromising Statesman—one that is able to fill the highest office in the gift of a free people, without the aid of wily "magicians" or flattering, fawning demagogues—and one, too, who has never worn the crown and robes of a mystic faction.

The following "precious morsel" is from the Republican Compiler, of this borough, published yesterday:—

MR. MIDDLETON'S LETTER.

All who know Mr. Middleton, that is, all who are acquainted with his epistolary talents, will certainly admit that he wrote every sentence of it. Milton's daughters wrote Paradise Lost!!!! "Mr. M. will receive equal credit for the truth of its contents. I feel satisfied that nine tenths of the population of Adams county will think, as he does—that the Antimasonic Star is the only free press—that we, the inhabitants, have been gullied for years—that the Compiler and Sentinel have ever been the slaves of a select set of scoundrels—perhaps the mere instruments of a kernel of Shavers, disappointed Gamblers, &c. &c.; hence a large majority of us must feel particularly obliged to this gentlemanly Editor, who has so very kindly relieved us from the dominion of slaves, and who, in the generosity of his disposition, continues to live among such a slave-ridden pack of numskulls—especially when his brilliant talents would warrant him a competency in the neighborhood of spirited and sensible people.

"Amiable man! Disinterested Mr. Middleton! Who will dare accuse you of lying—or of impudence? You who, during your life, have sacrificed every worldly consideration to your virtuous principles, which as we well know, have ever remained unchanged. You are not one of those who "with hypocritical professions for the well being of a favorite party—save over their vicious designs, and steal away the hearts of many honest men!" Oh, no! You are not such a contemptible reptile! Far from it! You are the Editor of the Star—the shining light of Antimasonic Freedom. But, alas! you have "the misfortune to be—poor!" and, as you say, the expenses of a Free Press, "at its commencement, are necessarily heavy," all of which you were obliged to bear. And then, again although "the Star has obtained a larger circulation than any of the oldest establishments in the county," "the profits are small." Do you really send your papers gratis—or how are your profits so small? You say your circulation is larger. Ah! benevolent man—your feeling kindness will ruin you; but your "cause will flourish just in proportion to the information diffused." Would that your means were more ample.

"You complain, too, of every means of opposition being resorted to by your opponents. This, my good friend, is natural. But Oh! how ungrateful are your Antimasonic friends, who, neglecting to yield their aid, are feeling your enemies by patronising their papers." "Oh! the Varlets! A Manchester mob has more spirit; they give effectual aid at once—but these Antimasonic friends of yours, they take care of their FARMS and LITTLE OXEN, and leave you to sink or swim! Thoughtless DOGS! like Newton's, they little know what damage they are doing—and many of them do not like to change their Printer, on account of personal friendship and old associations." Now, ought they not to be kicked. "Oh! the CRIMINALS—to recollect old friendships when they ought to be remembering Antimasonry. Out upon them! "These things should no longer be."

"I would, if I had time, point out many excellent remarks in your letter. It pleases me to hear you say—"You will never support any man or measures, which you believe injurious to the public weal;" hence you will altogether discountenance Gamblers: for what class of knaves are more injurious to the public welfare, or more destructive to social happiness? "You will, under no circumstances, aid in exalting to office an adhering member or advocate of Free Masonry;" which means, that, if any man will dare to think differently from yourself, you will not only consider him a blockhead; but you will endeavor to deter your fellow citizens from showing him the favor and friendship due, and given, in all civilized countries, to honest men! Admirable man! who will deny that you are liberal and amiable? none but old men, whose political creeds were established in the early days of the Republic. But you need not fear their disapprobation—'tis of no consequence that their hairs are grey, or that their blood was spilt in defence of their principles. A fig for such principles—they are not similar to yours. Again, you declare, nothing shall tempt you to prostitute your press. A laudable resolution, and, if strictly adhered to, will gain you many friends. And equally deserving of praise is your determination "to ally the fury of the passions—and to assuage the evils of the conflict." In this last sentence we read the language of the heart: And already have you commenced carrying it into effect, by offering a wage of Five Hundred Dollars! That a trifling bid should do more than excite a little interest, is not possible. No one will allow that this is one means of inflaming, instead of allaying the passions. And why not bet upon the cause? Is it not a good one? Is it not as you say, "the Holy cause of Virtue and Religion?" "O! tempora, O! mores!"

The celebrated Horne Tooke once made the following just remark:—"Nothing is gained in a controversy with an ignorant, low-lived, low-bred, vulgar fool. You get the better of him in the contest, and the fellow (although he may himself be a riper, rib-nosed baboon, or a real monkey, in appearance) will immediately, as the dernier resort of means, enter into personalities. This is with him a capital virtue; and such a creature would not scruple to run a hen-roost, were he certain of being screened from the cow-hide and whipping post." That's all!

From the New York Courier & Enquirer

ANTI-MASONRY—EIGHTH WARD. A few days since Mr. Tucker called at the shop of Mr. Seth Geer; who, in the presence of Mr. George W. Geer and others, said to him, "IS IT TRUE THAT YOU ARE AN ANTI-MASON OR OPPOSED TO MASONRY?" Mr. Tucker replied, "I AM, AN'T YOU?" to which Mr. Geer answered, "No, I know nothing about it." Some conversation then ensued about the MORGAN abduction, when Mr. Tucker said, "You can as easily bring  from Heaven, as procure justice from MASON'S!"

To which we add—'tis a fact; every crook and turn in the Morgan trials, proves it. That one juror Wilson, a mason, who stood out against eleven at Lockport, is a blast that must sweep among masons, like a whirlwind of fire.

BALTIMORE, May 5.

Mr. Livingston, the new Secretary of State, arrived in Baltimore last evening and left this morning for Washington, to receive Mr. Van Buren.

We learn from the Globe that Amos Kendall, 4th Auditor, Major Lewis, the 2d, and Major Barry, the Post Master General have all left Washington on a Northern tour. The last advices left Mr. Berrien, the Attorney General, at Savannah. Pat.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday evening last, by the Rev. Charles G. McLean, Mr. PERRY J. ODELL, of Cumberland county, (formerly of this place) to Miss MARIAN HORNOR, of this borough.

On Tuesday week last, Mr. NELSON HAGEN to Miss JANE McCRDY—both of Cumberland township.

DIED.

On Sunday evening last, Mrs. RENEEA STARR, wife of Mr. John N. Starr, of this borough. Her remains were conveyed yesterday to Taneytown, Md. In the death of this truly amiable lady, society has lost an useful member—a husband been deprived of an affectionate and beloved wife—and a young infant bereft of a tender and dutiful mother. While we condole with the partner of her bosom and her friends in the irreparable loss, let us hope that with her "to die is gain"—and that she has only exchanged the sorrows of an earthly existence for an heavenly inheritance—that she has winged her flight to that abode,

"Where joys immortal reign."

GETTYSBURG FEMALE ACADEMY.

The public is respectfully informed that the next session of this Institution will commence on MONDAY, the 16th of May instant.

In making this announcement, the Trustees are happy to have it in their power to state, that they have succeeded in making such arrangements and providing such accommodations, as promise not only to sustain, but materially to increase, the reputation of the School. A brick edifice has been purposely erected, in an elevated and healthy situation, and comfortably provided with the necessary furniture and accommodations. Measures have also been adopted, to make considerable additions to the Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; by which the course of instruction in the experimental Sciences, will be rendered no less interesting than instructive to the pupils. But the circumstance on which the Board chiefly rest their anticipations of the prosperity of the Institution, is the fact, that they have succeeded in making a permanent engagement with the Rev. J. H. MARSDEN, to retain charge of the School. The well known reputation of this gentleman, for amenity of manners, ample Literary and Scientific attainments, success as a practical Teacher, and assiduous regard to the morals and personal habits of the young Ladies committed to his care, afford the best testimony in favor of his principles of instruction and discipline, and render superfluous any farther statements on this subject. English Grammar, Ancient, Modern and Sacred Geography, Ancient and Modern History, Natural Philosophy and Chemistry, with Experiments, Botany, Elements of Mineralogy, and Geology, Algebra, Geometry, Elements of Astronomy with use of the Globes and Atlas of the Stars, Rhetoric, Moral Philosophy, Political Economy, Evidence of Christianity, History of the Christian Church, Holy Scriptures, at $4 PER QUARTER.

AGENCY IN PHILADELPHIA.

Office of THE LADY'S BOOK, 112 Chestnut Street. L. A. GODEY & CO.

OFFER their services to collect for their city and country friends, and all others, having claims against individuals and others in Philadelphia. They have determined to devote a considerable portion of their time to this new branch, and are well convinced that their exertions will give satisfaction to their employers. There are no doubt many persons at a distance having claims that might be collected, were they aware of responsible persons to address. The great expense in many instances paid for Lawyer's fees, and where there has been no necessity for such a proceeding, prevents many lawful accounts from being adjusted. They will receive bills & accounts from any part of the country, which will be immediately attended to, & the proceeds applied in this city, or forwarded by mail as may be directed. No charge in any case will be made unless the money is actually collected. The commission in every instance, to be charged on collections, will be 10 per cent. Postage must be paid or all letters will be re-enclosed and returned to the person sending. May 11.

ENGLISH AND GERMAN Printing Establishment.

Worthy the attention of an active and industrious Printer, or any other Person who wishes to engage in a large and profitable establishment of the kind.

THE subscriber offers for Sale, on very reasonable terms, the large and extensive English and German Printing establishment of the Union Anti-Masonic Telegraph, AND THE

German Anti-Masonic Advocate, of New Berlin, Union County, Pa. together with a LOT OF GROUND, whereon is erected a building which said establishment is in, situated in Market square of said town opposite the public buildings. If the purchaser will advance from 300 to 500 dollars, by taking possession of the Office, the remainder will be left to his own specified time for payment, with good security.

Or, he will sell separate, either the English or the German establishment.

Or, if no sale will be made—the subscriber is willing to take into Partnership, any active and industrious Printer, of good and moral habits, who can be well recommended as such, and who is capable to conduct the whole management of the office, will meet with good encouragement and taken as co-partner on reasonable terms.

Or, if no Sale nor Partnership will take place, he will RENT the said establishment to any Printer who understands the business or to such a person who pledges himself to employ capable hands to execute the work in the office, and who knows how to take charge of an office—for the term of 2 or more years; on the most reasonable terms.

This Establishment is one of the largest and extensive Printing Offices, in the western part of the State.—The subscription to both papers have been larger than any other western paper in the State—upwards of 2000 papers where issued, before the office was left in charge of Mr. Hachenberg, the present Editor, who is no printer himself, and involved in other large and extensive business, who has therefore no time to conduct the Establishment to its great advantage. By some exertion the number of subscribers could be increased to 2500 or 3000 as this is the only Anti-masonic Press in Union, Northumberland, Columbia, Centre, Clearfield, and other surrounding Counties, and the only GERMAN Anti-masonic paper, west of the Susquehanna, in which Counties it has an extensive increase and will still increase, as the majority of the people are becoming Anti-masonic.—All the printing of bills, tickets, &c. for the Antimasonic party of those Counties are executed in this office, as well as all the public printing of the county of Union, and the Job-work is extensive; the Office executed work in 1830 for upwards of 6000 dollars, which it will produce yearly, and indeed more if business is properly managed.

The Office is composed of every necessary materials as a complete Book and Job Office; a good Ramage Press; the assortment of Type are good—the Job and all the German, as well as part of the English Types are all but new, and every thing in good order to execute any kind of work.

The reason for offering the establishment on the above favorable conditions, is, because I have established another Office at Lebanon Pa. which requires my presence and whole attention, and having given the charge of the office at New Berlin, to Mr. Hachenberg, who from reasons above stated, has no time to attend to the business, as it should be attended; and the subscriber wishing to settle a large outstanding business in Union and the adjoining counties, which cannot be done, to the advantage of the Office, as long as he has any interest in the same.

Letters addressed to the subscriber at Lebanon Pa. will be promptly attended to. JOSEPH MILLER.

Lebanon, April 23, 1831.

N. B. The Applicant must be a decided Anti-mason, and well recommended as such—and pledge himself to conduct the two papers on their principles—us only read at ply
