' GETTYSBURG PEWALE ACADEMY

The public is respectfully informed that the next Session of this Institution will commence On MONDAY, the 16th of May instant.

In making this announcement, the Trustees are happy to have it in their power to state, that they have succeeded in making such arrangements and providing such accommodations, as promise not only to sustain, but materially to increase, the reputation of the School. A brick edifice has been purposely erected, in an elevated and healthy situation, and comfortably provided with the necessary furniture and accommodations. Measures have also been adopted, to make considerable additions to the Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; by which the course of instruction in the experimental Sciences, will be rendered no less interesting than instructive to the pupils. But the circumstance on which the Board chiefly rest their anticipations of the prosperity of the Institution, is the fact, that they have succeeded in making a permapent engagement with the Rev. J. H. MARSDEN, to retain charge of the School. Baltimore, with an The well known reputation of this gentleman, for amenity of manners, ample Literary and Scientific attainments, success as a practical Teacher, and assiduous regard to the morals and personal habits of the young Ladies committed to his care, afford the best testimony in favor of his principles of instruction and discipline, and render superfluous any farther statements on this subject. MASONICS,

R "the art of finding out new arts," embracing the art of 'wunderwerkynge, "the art of foresaying things to come," "the faculty of abracadabra," "the skill of becoming perfect without the excitement of either hope or fear," the mystery of "demonstrating moral truths by geometrical problems," and "the transmutation of metals," so as from the dross of lead to extract virgin silver, and from old iron to manufacture bars of gold.

With modest puffing we, may add that Science furnishes no parallel to Masonics The clixir of life and the Philosopher's stone are both in the depths of its profound mysteries. Crowns are resolved by it into silver pieces for the pocket, or golden orna ments for the head. Proficients equally love the Koran and the Bible, and combine in their apparel the apron of a servant with he spurs of a cavalier.

Pupils received into this mystery at the Gothic Temple in Broadway, under the charge of experienced masters, $25 admission fee and one dollar per quarter. 3w

ELISHA ADAMS, concerned in robbing a freeman of his liberty, contrived to elude indictment and trial for four years & upwards; and when his guilt was proved incontestibly, escaped by the fraternal aid of WILLIAM WILSON, of Lewistown, a Master Mason, who had managed to retain a place on the jury.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY. 667 ME long lost word of a Master Mason:

JAH-BUH-LUN" is now found. When the Grand Master fell at the door of the Temple, "struck dead with the gavel of a fellow-craft," this sublime word was lost, to the order of Master Masons. None sould regain it except "by weary travel" through four degrees to the recesses of "the Royal Arch," where it ever beams with ry materials as a complete Book and Job radiance, "inscribed on the golden triangle, Office; a good Ramage Press; the assortvhich deposited by Methuselah, the son of Enoch, in his subterranean temple, excavated and prepared before the flood."

We congratulate all Master Masons on and "burying" a man, and "raising him to a recent discovery, that puts them at once life from the grave, m which he had lain in possession of this invaluable word, which thousands have heretofore sought with the same zeal that possesses those who follow after "a Jack o'lantern."

ENGLISH AND GERMAN.

Printing Establishment, Worthy the attention of an active and industrion Printer, or any other Person who wishes to engage in a large and profitable estab lishment of the kind.

THE subscriber offers for Sale, on very reasonable terms, the large and extensive English and German Printing establish. ment of the Union Anti-Masonic Telegraph.

AND THE German Anti-Masonic Advocate.

of New Berlin, Union County, Pa. together with a LOT OF GROUND, whereon is arected a building which said establishment is in, situated in Market square of said town pposite the public buildings. If the purchaser will advance from 300 to 500 dollars, by taking possession of the Office, the remainder will be left to his own specified time for payment, with good security.

OR, he will Sell separate, either the English or the German establishment.

On, if no sale will be made-the subscriber is willing to take into Partnership, any active and industrious Printer, of good and moral habits, who can be well recommended as such, and who is capable to conduct the whole management of the office, will meet with good encouragement and taken as copartner on reasonable terms.

OR, if no Sale nor Partnership will take place, he will RENT the said establishment to any Printer who understands the business or to such a person who pledges himself to employ capable hands to execute the work in the office, and who knows how to take charge of an office—for the term of 2 or more years; on the most reasonable terms.

This Establishment is one of the largest and extensive Printing Offices, in the western part of the State. The subscription to both papers have been larger than any other western paper in the State-upwards of 2000 papers were issued, before the office was left in charge of Mr. Hachenberg, the present Editor, who is no printer himself, and involved in other large and extensive business, who has therefore no time to conduct the Establishment to its great advantage. By some exertion the number of subscribers could be increased to 2500 or 3000 as this is the only Anti-masonic Press in Union, Northumberland, Columbia, Centre, Clearfield, and other surrounding Counties, and the only GERMAN Anti-masonic paper, west of the Susquehanna, in which Counties it has an extensive increase and will still increase, as the majority of the people are becoming Auti-masonic .-- All the printing of bills, tickets, &c. for the Antimasonic party of those Counties are executed in this office, as well as all the public printing of the county of Union, and the Joh-work is extensive; the Office executed work in 1830 for upwards of 6000 dollars, which it will produce yearly, and indeed more if business is properly managed. The Office is composed of every necessaments of Type are good—the Job and all the German, as well as part of the English Types are all but new, and every thing in good order to execute any kind of work.

The reason for offering the establishment on the above favorable conditions, js because I have established another Office at Lebanon Pa. which requires my presenge and whole attention, and having given the charge of the office at New Berlin, to Mr. Hachenberg, who from reasons above stated, has no time to attend to the business, as it should be attended; and the subscriber wishing to settle a large outstanding business in Union and the adjoining counties, which cannot be done, to the advantage of the Office, as long as he has any interest in the same.

OF Letters addressed to the subscriber at Lebanon Pa. will be promptly attended to, JOSEPH MILLER.

Lebanon, April 23, 1831. N. B. The Applicant must be a decided Anti-mason, and well recommended as such -and pledge himself to conduct the two papers on them principles—no other need apply. THE SATURDAY COURTER

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 23, 1831.

It is gratifying to learn that the "Courier" has met with very general favour among our patrons in the neighborhouring country, and also in distant states. Many gentlemen, not personally known to us, have forwarded their orders for the paper, and some have kindly offered to become our Agents. We have in all cases cheerfully acceded to their wishes-and feel ourselves under particular obligations to them for the interest they have expressed for our success. Wherever an igency is not already established for the counter. it may be proper to obtain one, and we shall offer such liberal terms to gentlemen who are disposed to act in this capacity for us as we have no doubt will be perfectly satisfactory.

REMOVAL.

THE PRINTING OFFICE of the subscriber has been removed to the new building in Chambersburg street, a few doors West of Mr. Ferry's
