The LARGEST Newspaper printed in Philadelphia, and the CHEAPEST in the U. States Terms, only $2 per ann. half yearly in advance DUBLIC ATTENTION is respectfully invited to this popular weekly publication-furnishing, as it certainly does, one of the most acceptable vehicles of information to persons whose occupations will not permit them to enjoy the advantages of perusing the daily Journals, and also for those who reside out of the city, and desire (for a moderate equivalent) an acquaintance with the earliest and current News. The SATURDAY COURIER is print ed on the patent NAPIER PRESS and comprises Twenty-eight columns of the largest class, which is RENEWED every week, and includes Light Reading, in all its departments. Internal Improvements. Commerce, Agriculture, Domestic Manufactures. Prices Current of Stocks, The Grain and Flour Market, Public Sales of Groveries, &c. &c. Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, re ceived during the week, OF And all other subjects of an interest ing nature. The publishers have already received the most flattering assurances of complete success-and it is their intention to keep up corresponding efforts to make their Journal deserving the popular character it has ob-

The publishers have the advantage of very extensive facilities of obtaining information at HOME and ABROAD-which is afforded by an abundant exchange with all the principal papers in the Union-besides, which their office is furnished with the best LONDON and LIVERPOOL papers and Magazines of the earliest dates.

The publishers intend to devote annually a portion of the profits of their work, to the promotion of the cause of LITERATURE. As soon as proper arrangements can be effected, a premium of

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS CAME to the enclosures of the subscriber, living in Cumberland township,

THE LADY'S BOOK, FOR MAY, 1831.

THIS number has just been issued from the press, and forms the last but one of the present volume. A GREATER VARIETY of Literary Subjects have been collected together in the edition for this month, than is usual, and the Embellishments are equally suited to the character of the work, and as well engraved as any former ones-they

The June number will be published at an early period ,and completes the second volume of the work. In the short space of one year, we have, by unremitted exertions, procured for the LADY'S BOOK, an enviable station among the Literary publications of our country. This has not been accomplished without very considerable expense—the fact is, upwards of THREE have been so extensively approved. A large amount of dues on subscriptions remains uncollected. We respectfully request agents and others whose accounts are still unclosed, to forward the balances due us, in their hands, at once, that no mistakes may occur hereafter in furnishing the work promptly to those who settle their arrears. The ENORMOUS EXPENSES which are necessarily incurred in publishing a work on the extensive scale we have adopted, does not admit of an apology for thus seasonably soliciting from all a compliance with our terms.

A few of the numbers from the first of January, are still on hand, and can be obtained by persons who wish to subscribe. All orders (enclosing the price of subscription) must be addressed to
