BALTIMORE MARKET.

FLOUR.—The transactions from store appear to be confined to lots of 100 to 200 bbls. and in this way sales have been made at $1 75, 1 81 1/2, 1 85, and 1 87 1/2 per bbl.

WHEAT.—A sale of a large parcel of primo West Branch Susquehanna wheat, from 8000 to 10,000 bushels, was made this week from store for grinding, on terms which have not transpired.

RYE.—We note the sale of a cargo of heavy Susquehanna Rye this week, at 69 cts. per bush.

CORN.—White corn averaged from 63 to 65 cts. per bush. Yellow corn has been in fair demand, and sales made at 66 to 67 cts. for good parcels.

OATS.—Remains as per last report; we quote Bay at 33 to 34 cts. per bushel.

HIDES.—The cargo of the schooner Fern from Africa, consisting of about 5000 hides, was sold this week on terms which have not transpired.

WHISKY.—The wagon price of brls. is 33 cents per gallon exclusive of the brl. and the store price from 36 to 37 cents.

WOOL.—Sales of Wool in parcels, at prices within the range of quotations. This article has become an important one in our market, and growers find a ready sale at full prices.

THE EXECUTION.—Markley was executed on Friday last in Frederick. We understand he made no confession, but asserted his innocence to the last moment.

THE ADDRESS.—On our last page will be found the very able and interesting Address to the People of Pennsylvania, adopted at the late Anti-masonic State Convention.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

On Monday next commences the fifth year since our forefathers declared themselves free from British bondage and pledged their lives, their property, and sacred honors in support of the declaration.

For the sake of information we merely state, that Wm. S. COLEMAN, Esq., High Sheriff, and JAMES BOWEN, Esq., High Constable, have been authorized to answer the "Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Hagerstown," which was published last week in the "Republican Compiler."

SCENES AT WASHINGTON.

That our subscribers may "take a peep" at the transactions of our Rulers, we publish, in another column, the Correspondence between the Ex-members of the Cabinet. An AMERICAN, we feel humiliated at the scene which it presents to the World. That a Chief Magistrate of a Republic, proud of its intelligence & dignified demeanor, should take into his counsels, and cherish as his bosom friends, men who are capable of such ribald, and indecent, and lawless conduct, must be mortifying to the feelings of every citizen who is alive to the honor of his country.

The people little thought that they were electing a Chief Magistrate for no higher purposes than this. They imagined that the Head of their Government was placed there for lug and important purposes. To guard the rights and liberties of a great nation. Not to arbitrate the private quarrels of a neighborhood; not to wield the powers of office to establish or destroy the character and standing of Matrons, or of Maids; of old Women and little Children.

With regard to the controversy between the Ex-secretaries, we feel no partiality for either. We have ever held in detestation, the tortuous politics of both. But we cannot avoid perceiving that, in the present controversy, Mr. Ingham appears to less disadvantage than his adversary. He is called on to disavow the facts stated, Editorially in the "Telegraph." These facts were notorious.

UNITED STATES BANK.—In another column will be found an article from the American Sentinel, defending the integrity of our Legislature and the U. S. Bank against the foul charge of bribery, by the New Hampshire Patriot.

TRUE MASONRY.—We are met in the last Compiler, in the true spirit of Masonry by a "healing" who assumes the mask of "A member of the Beneficial Society."

SLANDER.—The robber may filch from us our gold—the midnight assassin assail us, and fail in the attempt to stab us to the vitals—and the incendiary be caught in the act of firing our shelters—but who, or what, is it that can defend us from the tongue of SLANDER?

MR. EATON TO MR. INGHAM.

Sir: I have studied to disregard the abusive slanders which have arisen through so debased a source as the columns of the U. S. Telegraph. I have been content to wait for the full development of what he had to say, and until persons of responsible character should be brought forth to endorse his vile abuse of me and my family.

REPLY.

Washington, 18th June, 1831. Sir: I have not been able to ascertain, from your note of last evening, whether it is the publication referred to by you, or the fact stated in the Telegraph, which you desire to know whether I have sanctioned or will disavow.

MR. EATON TO MR. INGHAM.

Sir: I have received your letter of to-day, and regret to find that to a frank and candid inquiry brought before you, an answer impudent and insolent is returned.

4TH OF JULY.

The Gettysburg Guards intend dining at Mr. Gourley's Tavern on MONDAY NEXT, the 4th July. Those citizens who may feel disposed to dine with the Guards, are requested to hand in their names to either John Cross, James Perry, or Wm. Wiegler, D. C. Kissel, or Samuel Gilbert.

Mr. Woodbury has issued an order, from the Navy Department, directing that all persons in the service, entitled to rations, and relinquishing ardent spirits, shall be paid at the rate of six cents per ration.

MERCER, June 23.

Gov. Wolf and suit arrived here on last Thursday evening, and departed next morning, on his way to Erie. There was NOTHING REMARKABLE HAPPENED IN CONSEQUENCE OF IT!!!

Many years ago, when Democracy first raised her head in the land, she was abused and vilified, and all who took part with her denounced, and unnumbered curses poured out upon their heads.

"A Post of Honor, is a Private Station."

From the United States Telegraph. ANOTHER ATTACK UPON THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

The following correspondence speaks for itself; and is further confirmation of what we have said relative to the cause which dissolved the late cabinet. We reserve, for a subsequent notice, our comment upon this extraordinary attempt to silence this press, by holding others responsible for our statement of a fact which, so far as Mr. Ingham was concerned, had been stated in the Philadelphia Inquirer, several weeks ago.

MR. EATON TO MR. INGHAM.

Friday night, 17th June, 1831. Sir: I have studied to disregard the abusive slanders which have arisen through so debased a source as the columns of the U. S. Telegraph.

REPLY.

4TH OF JULY.

The Gettysburg Guards intend dining at Mr. Gourley's Tavern on MONDAY NEXT, the 4th July. Those citizens who may feel disposed to dine with the Guards, are requested to hand in their names to either John Cross, James Perry, or Wm. Wiegler, D. C. Kissel, or Samuel Gilbert.

THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE OF FASHION.

The first number of the above work is this day published, and the succeeding numbers will be issued every other month. The literary contents will be selections from Foreign Magazines, similar to those of the Athenaeum.

SIX CENTS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in Franklin township, Adams county, Pa. on the 28th inst. an indentured apprentice to the Tanning business, named WASHINGTON HARRIS.

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP.

Franklin township, June 7, 1831.

that spirit I demand of you satisfaction for the wrong and injury you done me.

Your answer must determine whether you are so farrentitled to the name and character of a gentleman as to be able to act like one.

S. H. EATON.

S. D. INGHAM, Esq.

REPLY.

Washington, 20th June, 1831.

Sir: Your note of Saturday, purporting to be a demand of satisfaction for injury done to you, was received on that day; company prevented me from sending an immediate answer.

MR. EATON TO MR. INGHAM.

20th June, 1831.

Sir: Your note of this morning is received. It proves to me that you are quite brave enough to do a mean action, but too great a coward to repair it.

Intemperate Physician.

The Christian Advocate mentions the death of a young man, which was supposed to be occasioned by an unskillful operation of bleeding, performed by a Physician under the influence of ardent spirits.

The United States Telegraph publishes a list of sixty-six Steam boats built at Pittsburg in 1830, and furnished with their entire outfit at that port.

In Owego county, N. Y. Giles Bartley, of Grenley, was accidentally shot dead by his son, with whom he was hunting deer, his rifle having gone off by a jolt.

Mr. Webster.—A letter from New York informs that "Col. S. L. Knapp has just finished a Life of the Hon. Daniel Webster, which will shortly be put to the press.

George Washington Bassett, in a communication in the Virginia Enquirer, says that the relations of the mother of Washington will not consent to the removal of her remains; and proposes a subscription for a monument at or contiguous to the spot where her relics now are.

In noticing the general health of Schuylkill county, the editor of the Miner's Journal remarks—"A highly respectable physician of our acquaintance assures us, that in the course of eleven years practice in and about this coal region, he has never been called to attend a single case of consumption that originated in Schuylkill county."

In men there is a lump upon the windpipe formed by the thyroid cartilage, which is not to be seen in women. An Arabian fable says, this is part of the original apple that stuck in the man's throat by the way—but the woman swallowed her part of it down.

Profitable Penitentiary.—The State prison of Connecticut, after paying all the expenses of the prisoners, &c. yields a clear revenue to the State of nearly $8000. The whole number of prisoners is 182.

We understand that the private disclosures made by Joffers, alias Gibbs, the pirate, with regard to his confederates, were communicated to the President of the United States some time since by the two individuals to whom they were made, being advised by several respectable gentlemen to proceed to Washington for that purpose.

Beasley, who was charged with the murder of a man named Hart, under circumstances of unusual atrocity, had his trial at the May term of the Superior Court in Patrick county, Va. and was acquitted.

A Whirlwind destroyed a large stone barn in West Pennsboro, Pa. and killed seven horses.

An injunction has been granted by Judge Gardiner, Vice Chancellor, to stay the proceedings of the Buffalo Bank. The Buffalo Patriot tells us of unequal and fraudulent distribution of Stock by the Commissioners.

SLANDER.—The following extract from the Boston Masonic Mirror is inserted to show the spirit in which Mr. Rush's letter is received by the fraternity, but more particularly to exemplify the anasonic mode of warfare:

We peruse by the Anti-masonic papers, that the ex-secretary of the treasury—John Randolph's "Master Sleuder" alias Shakespeare's "Bransbury cheese"—has sold himself to Anti-masonry. The result will be to SEND HIM DOWN TO THE GRAVE, COVERED WITH DISGRACE AND INFAMY."

A domestic, who was fond of expressing her ideas in pompous language, ran in one day from the kitchen to her mistress, with—"O mam! what shall I do? the superfluity of the butter has superannated the potatoes and rendered the fish quite obnoxious."

In the Insolvent Debtor's Court, England, one of the prisoners, felt quite indignant at being termed a shoemaker, and said, "A Cordwainer is a person who makes shoes for ladies and gentlemen; but a shoemaker is one who makes shoes for a horse!"

The Gettysburg Guards intend dining at Mr. Gourley's Tavern on MONDAY NEXT, the 4th July. Those citizens who may feel disposed to dine with the Guards, are requested to hand in their names to either John Cross, James Perry, or Wm. Wiegler, D. C. Kissel, or Samuel Gilbert.

GETTYSBURG MARKET

AN ORDINANCE,

Supplementary to an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance for the regulation of the Market in Gettysburg," passed the 7th day of March, 1831:

SECTION 1st.—Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of Gettysburg, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the hour of closing the Market shall be SEVEN O'CLOCK in the morning of each Market Day during the months of May, June, July, and August—any thing contained in the ordinance to which this is supplementary to the contrary, notwithstanding.

SECTION 2d.—And be it further ordained, That if any person or persons, other than those who rent stalls in the public Market House, shall sell or expose to sale, at any place within the limits of the Borough of Gettysburg, and at any time within Market Hours, any kind of meat other than salted and dried meat, by a less quantity than One Quarter of a Carcase—be, she, or they, so offending, and being thereof legally convicted, shall forfeit and pay, for each and every offence, the sum of One Dollar, for the use of the corporation.

Enacted and Ordained in Town Council, June 20, 1831.

T. STEVENS, President pro tem. Attest—D. HORNER, Clerk. Gettysburg, June 28, 1831. 4t-12

THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE OF FASHION.

The first number of the above work is this day published, and the succeeding numbers will be issued every other month. The literary contents will be selections from Foreign Magazines, similar to those of the Athenaeum.

Each number of the Gentleman's Magazine of Fashion will contain 48 royal duodecimo pages (two sheets), embellished with two elegant colored Plates of the Latest Gentlemen's Fashions, and occasionally EXTRA Plates, each Plate comprising two or more whole-length Portraits.

Merchant Tailors will find a great advantage from this work, as the Proprietors will not publish any Fashions except the very latest.

The Plates which we designed for the Models are considered unnecessary. Their omission shall be amply compensated by additional Plates of the Spring and Autumn Fashions.

The price will be $3 a year if paid in advance, or $4 if not paid within six months. Booksellers and Postmasters are allowed 12 1/2 per cent for collecting responsible subscribers. Published by KANE & CO., over 184 Washington Street, Boston.

Subscriptions received at this Office. June 28, 1831. 4t-12
