BALTIMORE MARKET.

From the Patriot of Saturday last.

FLOUR, How'd-st.—The transactions from store this week appear to have been chiefly confined to parcels of fresh ground flour, sales of which have been made at 4 87½. Sales of some parcels of old but sweet flour have been made at 4 75. For lots of fresh, of favorite brands, holders demand $5 per bbl. The wagon price has been uniform and steady throughout the week, at 4 75 per bbl.

WHEAT.—We are gratified in being able to state that the disastrous reports of the Wheat harvest which we noticed in our last, have not been realized. The wet and warm weather which had prevailed, and from which such serious injury and loss were apprehended, disappeared on Saturday last; and since then it has been clear and cool, and extremely favorable for the operations of the harvest. By accounts from various quarters of the State it appears that the propitious change in the weather has arrested the damage arising from sprouting, and is enabling farmers to gather in their crops in excellent order. Although in some sections the product is short, yet the aggregate crop is expected to amount to a fair average, and is, generally speaking, of good quality.

A small parcel of new red, not prime, was sold this week at 97 cents. Prime would readily command 100 cts. On Saturday last a parcel of 3000 bushels old North Branch Susquehanna wheat was sold on terms equivalent to 1 00 per bushel.

CORN.—We quote both sorts to-day at 60 to 62 cents, with a dull market for yellow.

THE PRESIDENCY.

HON. JOHN M'LEAN, OF OHIO.

That Judge M'LEAN, of Ohio, is, at this time, the most popular man in the Union, no one acquainted with the feelings of the People, will doubt. Gen. Jackson and Mr. Clay have each of them, warm friends and partisans. But it is equally true that each of them has, at this moment, a clear and decided majority of the American people opposed to him. Jackson's popularity had grown to an unnatural height—too tall for the soil from which it sprang. He was unable to sustain it. It has been constantly on the wane since his election. His principles of national policy, as developed; his hostility to the Tariff; the United States Bank, and the Judiciary, have alienated all his judicious and patriotic friends in the Middle, Eastern and Western States. A portion of the South, it is true, still adhere to him, on account of his southern feelings and views. But his real friends are a lean minority. We do not mean to be understood, that they are a minority compared with the friends of Henry Clay. We think otherwise. Of Mr. Clay, we would speak with respect; but we must, nevertheless, speak the truth.—The opponents of Gen. Jackson cannot unite on him. Between the two, the General would still be ascendant.

The Hon. JOHN M'LEAN is the only man, who can save the country from the triumph of principles which threaten to work our ruin. We are aware that the Aristocratic Party have asserted that he is a Mason, or favorable to Masonry. And some of our own friends have feared it. Until now, we were unable to contradict it for, although we disbelieved both assertions, from a knowledge of his character, yet we would make no statements which we had not authority for. We now inform our friends, that Judge M'LEAN never had any connection with Freemasonry; and that he is, and has uniformly been, opposed to Secret Societies. And we have no hesitancy in stating, that if he is nominated by the Baltimore Convention in September next, he will not feel himself at liberty to decline the nomination.—This, in our opinion, ought to satisfy all our friends. This is all that genuine Anti-masonry requires—decided opposition to Secret Societies, and concerted action in their suppression.

From this time, until the meeting of the Anti-masonic Convention, we hope to see a concerted and zealous co-operation among all our friends in favor of that distinguished citizen. His nomination will be the signal of victory, and the certain overthrow of the present administration, and all masonic rivals. Henceforth, until controlled by the United States Antimasonic Convention, we shall support the annexed nomination:

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. JOHN M'LEAN,

OF OHIO.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

HON. RICHARD RUSH,

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The nomination which we make to-day, we doubt not, will be well received by every genuine Republican. We sometime since coupled the name of FRANCIS GRANGER, Esq. of New York, with that of Judge M'LEAN. But having learned that the Republicans of New York wish him to take the place at present occupied by a disciple of Masonry, we place the name of Pennsylvania's greatest son in his stead. M'LEAN and RUSH are great and good men. Such as we want to cleanse the high places of state that have been contaminated by men without principles. We have been, among thousands of others, greatly deceived and disappointed by him whom, as a brave and gallant defender of his country's rights, we "delighted to honor," but who, as one fit to hold the reins of a great Republic, is "found wanting." So then, if those who are hostile to the present administration, and those who are genuine friends of their country, wish to see things restored to their pristine purity, we must all concentrate in one grand aim, and unite upon but two men, as the restorers of our country's purity—and those two men must be JOHN M'LEAN and RICHARD RUSH. The friends of HENRY CLAY will see the necessity of this.—However much the Anti-masons respect the man they must reject his masonic principles. And without the vote of our party, no man can detrone the present ruling tyrant.

MASONRY IS AT ENMITY WITH RELIGION.—An article which appeared in the "Star" the 21st ult. has had its desired effect. We intended to portray in a few words, the wickedness of those who, although aspiring "readers in Israel," are bound by the horrid oaths of Masonry, to aid the institution in persecuting those who attempt to expose its wickedness. One of those "leaders," probably, has seen fit, after a few weeks goading, to tell us that "the Sacred Book warns us, Judge not lest ye be judged."—We know that "the Sacred Book" so teaches—and we know also, that, in order to judge who are "Hypocrites," the same "Book" tells us "Ye shall know them by their fruits." Consequently, when a man has sworn to keep ALL the secrets of an Order, "murder and treason not excepted"—to extricate a brother mason from ALL difficulty "right or wrong"—to give those who secede from their Order, a "bad name," "transfer it after him wherever he goes," and aid in "deranging his business," by persecuting him on all occasions offered—mocking Deity, by personifying Him, and using his name as a pass-word to the Sanctum Sanctorum of their wickedness—when we see men with such obligations, upon them, are we not justified in judging them "by their fruits," when they openly say one thing but secretly aid in carrying portions of those oaths and obligations into effect? This we know to have been done, and that too but a few weeks since, in this Borough. And we really grieve, that men who hold so high and responsible stations in sacred places, should still have on them such horrible oaths and obligations as they know the masonic ones to be. They should remember, that the Great "I AM" has declared, "that the secrets of the heart shall be laid bare"—remembering this, let them ask their own hearts, how they expect to stand in His sight, who, while acting as "shepherds in His spiritual fold," are under horrid oaths to keep and practice Masonry's secrets and precepts? Let them look above, and see the sword suspended by a single hair over their heads—while below, the slippery foundation upon which they stand, and reflect on the end of those who act the part of "Wolves in sheep's clothing!" Pause, we beseech you, ere it be inevitably too late!—You know—we, too, know—your situation.

The Compiler's correspondent says—"There is not a prominent leader of Antimasonry who is of high standing in the Church—not a Clergyman in all this section of the country, who takes part" with Anti-masonry. While we say, we know of one Clergyman in our county who has publicly seceded from the institution, and five or six others who consider the institution too wicked for those who wish to be good Christian "leaders," to continue bound by its blasphemous oaths, let us ask the correspondent to point out one Clergyman who "takes an active part" in favor of Masonry? Come, let us have one.

IMPORTANT—IF TRUE.

The Lexington Observer of the 2d instant contains in a postscript an extract of a letter from a gentleman of high respectability in Illinois, dated on the 20th ult. which states that an express from Gen. GAINES, who had undertaken an expedition against the hostile Indians on Rock river, at the head of 500 regular troops, passed through Jacksonville on the 19th, and stated that an action had taken place in which the Americans had been defeated, with the loss of 300 men, the General being among the wounded. On being informed of this disaster, Gov. REYNOLDS immediately proceeded to the scene of action with 1500 mounted volunteers, and had ordered 3000 more to follow from Illinois, Indiana and Missouri; but it was feared they would be too late.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday evening last, a son of Mr. HENRY CULP, aged about 5 years, had his thigh broken and his bowels considerably injured by being run over by a wagon wheel. He was hanging to the hind end of the coupling pole, when his hold gave away and threw him in the way of a part of a wagon attached thereto.

ORDINATION.—From the "Regulator" we learn, that the "Presbytery of Baltimore" will meet in the Union Church, in Taneytown, on Wednesday the 20th inst., and that "if the way be opened," on Thursday following, the "Presbytery will proceed to ordain Mr. G. W. Kennedy to the work of the Gospel Ministry." A general invitation is given; the meeting is expected to continue several days.

TO LABORERS.—The contractors on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail-road, in the vicinity of Frederick, have advertised that they will give immediate employment to 1700 Laborers—to whom One Dollar per day, will be punctually paid. And also, that Stone Cutters, and Stone Masons, will find employment and liberal wages, on this work. Inquire at Ridgeville, New Market and Frederick.

CHRISTIAN FRYDINGER.—We learn from the Frederick "Examiner" that this man who had been arrested as a supposed accomplice of Markley, was brought up for further examination on Saturday week last, and after giving prompt answers to the various and sifting questions that were propounded to him, he was discharged upon the clearest manifestation of his innocence.

PENNSYLVANIA BLACKSTONE.—From the Capable papers, we learn the "Pennsylvania Blackstone," by the Hon. JOHN REED, is published and ready for delivery. It is in three volumes—$10 per set.

BADGER'S WEEKLY MESSENGER.—We have received a specimen number of "Badger's Weekly Messenger," a large and beautiful publication, edited and published by the former editor of "Zion's Herald," an interesting and well conducted Methodist journal, which was published in Boston, and more recently an assistant editor of that popular weekly sheet, the "Christian Advocate and Journal." Persons desirous of patronizing it, can have an opportunity of examining it, by calling at our office.

ONE BY ONE THEY FALL.—Speaking of the late celebration at Shepherdstown, Ya. on the 4th inst. the "Virginia Free Press" says—"A melancholy sensation was excited by the fact, that this was the only anniversary ever celebrated there, without a number of the revolutionary patriots being present. On this occasion, not one was there! TIME, had either swept all off into its resistless torrents, or had enfeebled them too much to permit them to join the festive throng."

From the Boston Free Press we learn that the Massachusetts State Committee have received a letter from Mr. RUSH, in reply to one from them, addressed to him in obedience to a resolution of the late Anti-masonic Convention in that State.—The letter gives "further views of the influence of Freemasonry over the Press, and the laws of our country."

A Daily Paper is about to be published in the city of Washington, avowedly to advocate the election of the Hon. JOHN M'LEAN to the Presidency.

For the Star.

"TWENTY-THREE" SURVIVORS.

MR. MIDDLETON.—As you omitted informing the public of the late large and respectable DEMOCRATIC meeting in this borough, will you permit me to give it a passing notice through your paper, so that the people in the country can see who are the staunch leaders of "the Democratic Party."

On Thursday evening, the 7th inst. about the "going down of the sun," the surviving remnant of the famous declaration of the "TWENTY-THREE," headed by a little "Cock Robin," was seen grouping their way to the "abode of Darkness." This little "band of brothers," marched on their way with a firm and steady pace—bearing the determination on their visages to stick to the Harlot as long as she had a button on her coat. That the people may know who these Democratic heroes were, permit me to name their Majesties:

His Most Worshipful Majesty, R. G. HARPER.

His Most Excellency, GEN. T. C. MILLER.

Most Excellent BRIGADE INSPECTOR, J. SANDERS.

Worshipful Sir, J. L. FULLER, Esq. Followed by brothers Boaz, Jackin and Tubalcain; or, Holtzworth, Vanorsdallen, and Geiselman.

So you see, such are the men who join together to out-brave public opinion, and endeavor to prop up the tottering walls of an Institution which all honorable and respectable men are forsaking, and joining in with those who have raised their voices against the blasphemies of Freemasonry. Let them go on. Such men are worthy of such a cause as Masonry. Q.

From the New York Courier of Friday, July 8.

THE FUNERAL.—Yesterday the remains of JAMES MONROE were committed to the earth with a feeling becoming his talents, his services, and his virtues. All ranks and degrees, all denominations, and all parties united in doing the last offices to the honest man, the virtuous, experienced, and able statesman; the soldier of the revolution; who gave the blood of his youth, the vigor of his manhood, and the wisdom of his age to his country. The ancient soldiers of the revolution; the gray-haired remnants of patriotism and glory; their young successors of the army and navy; the citizens soldiers, and the citizens themselves, followed him to the last depository of honor, glory, and greatness; and united in one sentiment and one voice; in one testimony, to his having lived and died a good man, a good soldier, and a good patriot.

The body of the deceased patriot was deposited in a leaden coffin soon after the decease, and this is encased in a very highly finished mahogany coffin, which bears on a plate of silver the following simple inscription:

JAMES MONROE, OF VIRGINIA,

Died 4th of July, 1831, aged 74 years.

Presidents of the United States.—There have been (including the present) seven Presidents. The names of four of them ended in the letters ON. The names of three of them ended in a son. All of them were married; but three of them were childless. The son of the only one, that had a son was one of the seven. Four of the seven are dead; and three of them died on the fourth of July!

BALTIMORE, July 14.

Death of Gov. Martin.—By the steamboat last evening from the Eastern Shore, we have the melancholy intelligence that His Excellency DANIEL MARTIN, Governor of Maryland, died at his residence in Talbot County, on Monday last, after a few days of severe illness. Gov. Martin, was a high minded, honorable man, possessing great integrity of character, which secured to him the highest respect and confidence of his fellow-citizens generally, both in his private and public character.

By this unwelcome event, the President of the Executive Council, GEORGE HOWARD, Esq. of Anne Arundel county, will be the Acting Governor of the State until the next Session of the Legislature, when a new collection will take place, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution.—Patriot

CLOSING SCENE OF LIFE.

The last words of THOMAS JEFFERSON were, "I resign my soul to my God, and my Daughter to my Country." JOHN ADAMS, near his end, roused by the firing of cannon, and being told the people were rejoicing for the 4th of July, said, "It is a great and glorious day"—and expired with the words "Independence forever!" on his lips. The Commercial Advertiser states that when the noise of the firing began at midnight, the dying MONROE "opened his eyes inquiringly; and when the cause was communicated to him, a look of intelligence indicated that he understood what the occasion was." We know not if there be upon record more striking instances than these, of the "ruling passion strong in death."

OPINIONS ABROAD.—The Quebec Gazette says "We have extracted, for to-day's paper a correspondence between Messrs. Ing-ham and Eaton, two persons who have just left the American ministry. It is lamentable we think to see so striking a departure from all the rules of educated Society, by men holding such offices as those of Secretaries of the Treasury and of War of the United States. This conduct must tend to throw discredit on the nation and its public press among foreigners."

OMINOUS!—It is cited as a strange coincidence, (says the Lynchburg Virginian,) that the same paper which announced AMOS KENDALL's arrival in New York, on his return from Massachusetts to Washington, city, also notified the arrival in the same place of an OURANG OUTANG from Calcutta. This singular conjunction of a physical and a moral caricature of humanity, it is thought, bodes no good to the country.

Dr. P. G. Randolph has resigned the office of first clerk in the War Department. The duties of Secretary of War will be assigned to one of the members of the Cabinet, who will discharge them until the arrival of Gov. Cass. [Globe]

HAGERSTOWN, July 12.

Death by drowning.—On Thursday evening last, between 5 and 6 o'clock, Mrs. Mary Ann Knode, wife of Mr. Israel Knode, was upset from a boat in the Antietam creek, near Mr. Gerard Stonebraker's saw-mill, about a mile and a half from this town, whilst in the act of crossing for the purpose of obtaining water at the spring. Her body was not found until next morning, between 9 and 10 o'clock, when it was taken up about 250 yards from the place at which she fell out of the boat. She has left a husband and two young children. A Coroner's Inquest was held, which brought in a verdict, as follows: "That she came to her death by accidental drowning, in consequence of the upsetting of a boat in Antietam creek."—Her.

AMERICAN SYSTEM.—STATISTICS OF LANCASTER COUNTY, PA. According to a statement recently published, this flourishing and wealthy county contains at this time: seven furnaces, fourteen forges, one hundred and eighty-three distilleries, forty-five tanyards, twenty-two fulling-mills one hundred and sixty-four grist-mills, eighty-seven saw-mills, nine breweries, eight hemp-mills, five oil-mills, five clover-mills, three factories, three potteries, six carding machines, three paper-mills, two snuff-mills, seven tilt hammers, and six rolling-mills.

ANOTHER MURDER.—The New-York Gazette states that on Saturday, two boys, each about eight years old, playing marbles in Orange street, quarrelled about their winnings. The mother of one of them ran out, struck the other on the head with a broom, and he died in a few minutes.

MOTHER OF WASHINGTON.—The Treasurer of the Monumental Committee acknowledges, in the Fredericksburgh Herald of the 6th inst., the receipt of $775, towards erecting a monument to Mrs. Washington, on or near the spot where her ashes repose. Of this sum $550 was collected in New-Orleans.

DIED.

On Sunday the 26th ult. in Berwick township, Mr. EDWARD SMITH, a Soldier of the Revolution, aged 74 years.

On the night of the 28th ult. at the residence of his son, Judge Hostetter, near Canton, Stark county, Ohio, the Hon. JACOB HOSTETTER, formerly a Judge of the court of common pleas of York county, Pa. and a member of Congress of the United States.

On Thursday the 7th inst. near this place, WILLIAM GILLILAND, Esq. in the 79th year of his age. He was a patriot of '76. He has filled the office of a Justice of the Peace; was for several years, a Senator in the Legislature of this State; and, as an Associate Judge, for a considerable time assisted in the administration of justice in this county.

$20 REWARD.

JACOB CULP, an indentured apprentice to the Cabinet-making business, had my leave to go out one week harvesting—he left me on the 2d instant, and was to have returned on the Monday week following.—Having not yet returned, I am induced to think that he has absconded. I will give the above reward if said apprentice is taken at any time within 30 days from the 11th inst. and brought home. I hereby caution all persons from harboring or employing said apprentice, for, as he absents himself from me without any just cause, I will positively prosecute all those who may harbor or employ him in defiance of this notice. DAVID HEAGY.

On Sunday the 26th ult. by the Rev. S. Gutelius, Mr. DAVID BOWER, to Miss ELIZA BURKMAN, both of Germany township.

On Sunday the 3d inst. by PRINTER John Herbst, Mr. JACOB HOLLEBAUGH, to Miss HANNA STEFFY, both of Frederick county, Md.

[TO THE PUBLIC.—As it has become fashionable for PRINTERS to marry folks, as well as print for them, we respectfully request those disposed to join in "holy wedlock," not to be in a hurry, as we intend committing the forms and ceremonies to memory, and shall be able in a short time to wait on them. It should be any recommendation, we would barely state that we will not only ask half price but conduct ourselves with a steady eye towards the Temperance Society's Constitution—So, a great saving probably, by employing little printers instead of big printers, may be obtained.]

$75 REWARD.

RANAWY from the subscriber, living near Taneytown, Frederick co. Md. on the 21st of May last, a negro man named JOHN HOWARD.

Between 30 and 40 years of age; skin not very dark; about six feet high; tolerably slender; curly countenance; round chin, and shows his teeth very much when laughing; he has a very large scar on one of his legs, between the ankle and knee, occasioned by the cut of a scythe—I think it is on the right leg; he is tolerably fond of whiskey, and has some pretensions to the Shoe-making business. He went away with a negro who has had one of his hands taken off, belonging to Maj. Jno. McKalub of Taneytown—no doubt they will be in the same neighborhood.

Should any person give information, through the medium of a letter, respecting the above negro, and the subscriber be successful in having him taken; he shall receive the above reward, without his name being disclosed if he wishes.
