Democratic Anti-Masonic Nomination ! FOR PRESIDENTS John McLean, of Ohio. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

Richard Rush, of Penn.

From the Patriot of Saturday last.

FLOUR. Howard-st -- Sales of new and fresh ground were made from stores in the early part of the week at $5 50 per brl.; and more recently some lots, entirely of new wheat, at 5 621. Today the store price of fresh ground flour, of new and old wheat or altogether of new, is generally 5 621. The wagon price opened on Monday at 5 371, but since then it has been uniform at 5 50 per brl.

WHEAT.-The parcels of the best new red, some of which were very fine, met with a ready sale at $1 10 per bushel, and ordinary to good parcels at 95 to 105 cts. per bushel. The improvement which these rates indicate is to be attributed to the limited supplies. Of new white wheat very trifling supplies have been received. A sale of a cargo of common was made at 1 11; a lot at - 1 16; and some lots of prime at 1 20 per bushel. A parcel of prime old red Susquehanna was sold Review) that the Hon, Gentleman above alluded from store this week at I 14 per bushel.

CORN.—The supplies are small, and prices remain pretty much as last week. Sales of good rent rates to-duy.

We quote at 61 to 63 cents.

OATS .- A parcel of new, of good quality, was quote new at 25 to 30 ets, and old at 30 to 31 cts.

MR. RUSH'S SECOND LETTER. We present, this week, to our patrons the second Letter of the Hon. RICHARD RUSH. It was written in answer to a communication from the Committee appointed by the late Massachusetts Anti-masonic Convention. The reader will find that he has taken a stand still more bold than the preceding one. No one, unbiassed by Masonry, John McLean, are now only casting about for will lay it aside, after perusing it, without a consciousness of the justness with which he treats the subjects upon which he writes.

Philadelphia Sun-Judge McLean.

The Editor of the "Sun" has taken us to task the public relative to the proper person to be supthink it premature for any one to have an opinion on that subject. It is, no doubt, in his estimation, immodest in the people to think for themselves, or trouble themselves about it, until he and his colleagues direct them what to think. Such doctrine will find no response in the bosoms of the yeomenry of the country. It may fit the minions of Lodges, but is unfit for Anti-masons. The Editor of the "Sun" has more zeal than discretion. He is but a bad judge of the feelings of the people. One thing, however he may undervalue our opinion, he may take our word for: LT If he, and those who are of his faction, prevent the nomination of Judge McLean, they will do more real injury to Anti-masonry than all its enemies could effect .-The great mass of the people are judicious, not bigotted and tatolerant Anti-masons. In the selection of a Chief Magistrate, they will combine the interests of Anti-masonry with the other great interests of the country. And, whatever may be the opinion of a few, success will be with them a desirable object, if it can be attained without a desection of principle. We would advise the "Sun" to follow, rather than attempt to control public opinion.

Falling off!-A protest has been published in the U. S. Gazette, signed by Nathan Jones, John M. Taylor, James Thackara, Stephen Simpson, William Hewitt, and Henry S. Hughes, 'original supporters' of the Grand Master of Tennessee in 1824, announcing their withdrawal from the service of his Grand Worshipful. The protest charges Gen. Jackson with "a total abundonment of the principles which he a- past. That they will gain but little credit for self vowed and the promises which he made prior to his election;" and concludes thus:-"On the same grounds that we first accord? ed him our adhesion, do we hereby withdraw from Andrew Jackson our future support-convinced that time, circumstances, and power, have destroyed that identity of political character that once attracted our admiration, won our confidence, and secured our admiration."

ALBANY DAILY ADVRETISER-JUBGE McLean-Freemasonry.

The N.Y. Whig says-Freemasons boast alike the art of finding out, and the art of keeping secret. They conceal both arts, the former "for their own profit and honor;" and the latter "that so the world may conceal nothing from them." But the whole Mystery is a falschood, and its arts are false. The Albany Daily Advertiser is the head 28th ch. 18th v.

and front of political masonry in New York; well known for supporting Mesers. Clay and the Regency last Autumn, to the great "edification and amusement" of Mr. Van Buren and others. We find in the New York Standard of this morning as follows:-

"We have known," says the Albany Daily Advertiser of Monday, "for some weeks part, that the Antimasons had addressed a letter to Judge McLean of Ohio; and we have good reason to believe, for the purpose of ascertaining whether he would consent, if nominated, to serve as their candidate for President. Whether this letter was addressed to him "by authority," or as the mere suggestion of particular individuals, we pretend nut to know, nor do we care. It has drawn forth from him, however, an answer, which the Antimasonic Journals will experience no great pleasure in publishing: for their edification and amusement, however, we take leave to state, that Judge McLean has explicitly declared that he would not denounce masonry, if he was certain that such denunciation would elevate him to the Presidency."

We give (says the New York Whig) the extract entire that all may have the case perfectly in view. We are wholly ignorant of the mode, by which the Albany Daily Advertiser becomes possessed of Judge Mc-Lean's private correspondence, whether by a sign from a brother at Cincinnati, or grip from some worthy brother in the Post Office; but it is due to Judge McLean and to the public, if it be published at all, that it be published correctly. The Albany Daily Advertiser is very positive in this matter, and its paragraph is industriously quoted in the Evening Post, in the Albany Argus, the Troy Sentinel, &c. &c. It is desirable that Judge McLean should himself remove alldoubt on this point; for ourselves, we can say we should be very glad to see him do so. Knowing as we do (says the Ohio Register and to, has ever been oposed to secret societies, and is now and ever has been free and unreserved in condemning their principles, we hesitate not to white have been made at 64 to 65 cts,; and of say that the language attributed to him is false. vellow at 63 to 64 cts. We give them as the cur- The whole corps of masonic editors, whether Clay men or Jackson men, stand more in fear of RYE .- Sales of new, to day, at 62 to 63 cents. John McLean than any other man. They are aware of the character which he bears, that he has never manifested a disposition to ride upon sold this morning at 30 cents per bushel. We the storm; or to exalt himself by resorting to party hobbies; in short that he desires only to be udged by his actions, by the whole course of his life, by the consistency of character which he has ever exhibited and the talents which he has displayed in the regular routine of his duty, as the people's servant.

The Albany Daily Advertiser, and the horde who obey its wink, aware of these things, and jealous of the rapidly increasing popularity of something whereupon to hang a hope of successfully opposing him. With this in view they at one time hold forth that he is a mason, at another that he approves of masonry, and condemns Antimasonry, in short any thing and every thing is for transferring to our columns the opinions of resorted to which it is supposed will destroy the this premium, must be addressed to Wood. confidence of the people in his integrity. One ported for the next Presidency. He seems to main object is to draw him out in such away as to nable them to impeach his motives.

How he may look upon the attempt we know not, but we shall be much mistaken in his character if the plot succeeds. For our own part we are satisfied respecting his character, talents and principles, and if he should possess the confidence of the convention which is to assemble at Baltimore, we should with the greatest pleasure render him our feeble support.

THE PRESIDENCY—We regrettly course pursued by many of our contemporaries with regard to the Presidential question. They maintain a cautious reserve, as if it were an unapproachable subject. Some of them even go so far as to reprimand those who venture to express their preference, before the word is given by the Baltimore Convention. Such conduct we deem impolitic and reprehensible. How are the Convention to ascertain public opinion except as expressed through the public press? We do not deem it the province of the Convention to control or thwart public opinion; but to nominate the man who is indicated by the voice of the people. Any other course, will meet but little success, and ruin the prospects of the party which they represent. The great mass of Anti-masons—the disinterested and intelligent, have two objects in view: The destruction of Masonry, and the support and protection of National Industry-of the Tariff, Internal Improvement, the United States Bank, and the Judiciary. Nor will they entirely forget these latter important objects, in their zeal for the former. They will reconcile both. But some of our brethren seem to court defeat. They seem Messrs. Ingham and Bernien; and thus, by every ambitious to play the part of martyrs. But they should remember that the days of bigotry are immolation. They would do well to take "wit in their anger." Let the man of the PEOPLE be nominated-the consistent and rational Anti-ma_ son, JOHN M'LEAN—for such he is—and he will be elected, and Masonry will henceforth be clog to aspiring ambition. It will be surrendered by the good and reasonable, at the shrine of patriotism-And it will be sacrificed by the corrupt and intriguing on the altar of cupidity. From one motive or the other, it will become extinct. That is all that Anti-masonry aspires to.

Mr. Rush ought not to suffer himself to be candidate for the Presidency at present. Nor will he. His good sense, and devotion to his country, will forbid it. Great and good as he is, he cannot now succeed. And we shudder at the thought of prolonging the reign of the present disgraceful dynasty. We hope there will be no show of dissention in our ranks. 'JOHN M'LEAN seems worthy of the highest office, and worthy the sa cred cause in which we are engaged.

As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people .- Proverbs now for me to do so?

ANOTHER MASONIC FORGERY. From the Butler Repository.

Mesers. Editors .- I observe in the last Butler Sentinel, that the Antimasonic State Convention have appointed me one of the Committee for Butler county. This was done without my knowledge or consent. I now through the medium of your paper pub. licly decline the appointment. I am not a Freemason nor am I a political Antimason. I have always been a Republican, but selected for my candidate the man who I believe best qualified to fill the office, without regard to the party name that might be given. JACOB RRINKER.

Butler, July 9, 1831.

IT Upon the authority of Colonel Brinker him. self, (says the Butler Sentinel,) we pronounce the above to be a BASE MISREPRESENTATION, and published without his knowledge or consent.

A Sign!-The "Perry Forester," has hauled the Jackson colors from his editorial head. It was only a few months since, that the enchanting name was placed there-but recent events, no doubt, have broken the spell-for the charm has fled!

Of all the Toasts drank on the 4th ult. which have thronged the papers, we have seen none that hit the nail more directly on the head, than the fol. lowing, delivered at Watertown, N. Y.

Cure for the Bots, Flatulency and Cholic in Horses.

Take a piece of Allum about the size of a hen egg, or something larger if the case should be seemingly dangerous, and dissolve it in about a quart of water a little warm and give it to the diseased horse. Should it not relieve him, a second dose can with safety be given.

I have tried the above anodyne in the cases of flatulency and cholic, as well as the bots, repeatedly, and always found it to be a sure remedy. As the horse is a valuable animal and sometimes, individuals are subjected to considerable loss and inconvenience, and for the benefit of the public generally, I am induced to make the above communication. MR. BRANCH'S TESTIMONY. From the Frederick Examiner.

The Hon. John Branch has addressed the following letter to the editor of the Telegraph, by which it will be seen that he explicitly and pointedly concurs with Mr. Berrien and Mr. Ingham, in their "interpretation of the meaning of the mystical expression-want of harmony"-in the Cabinet. He also boldly places himself at issue with the President, upon the assertion of the latter that he had read a certain paper to him and rule of evidence, stamps upon the President the charge of wilful mendacity or senile forgetfulness. ENFIELD, August 1st, 1831.

SIR: I have observed in the Globe, which came to hand by the last mail, the following paragraph in Mr. Blair's letter of the 21st of July to Judge Berrien. "When the statement which I made, predicated upon Col. Johnson's letter, was impeached in your second note, I made the application to the President which you seem to think I ought now to make. He immediately put into my hands the original memorandum which he Ingham, and yourself, &c." I cannot believe that Gen. Jackson has ever read or made known to me, by Gen. miles an hour. Jackson, to the best of my knowledge and belief. I have as yet prepared no narrative of the circumstances connected with the dismissal of Mr. Ingham, Judge Berrien, and myself; and, in truth, where is the necessity ham, Judge Berrien; and myself says, that "the want of karmony in the Cabinet." &c. words: for his reorganization; and Judge Berrien and Mr. Ingliam, I know, have truly interpreted the meaning of the mystical expression-want of harmony.

I have too much respect for the intelligence of the American people to believe that they will be at any loss to arrive at an accurate conclusion from the facts already placed in their possession.

If, however, it becomes necessary hereafter, for me to appear before the public, I trust that I shall unhesitatingly do so. Respectfully, yours, &c, JNO. BRANCH. To the editor of the U.S. Telegraph.

A New Indian Treaty. Messrs. J. B. Gardiner, Special Commissioner, and John M'Elvain, of this town, Indian Agent, for this State, signed a treaty with the chiefs and warriors of the Seneca and Shawnee bands of Indians, on the Lewistown Reserve in the county of Logan, on Wednesday, the 20th instant. Forty thousand acres of land are acquired to the United States' Government by this treaty, and the county of Logan of her age. is cleared of Indian title. The Indians receive a tract of land of some greater extent west of Missouri and Arkansas, together with some other presents, and the expense of their removal, which it is expected the government will perform for them next summer It appears that these Indians have examined the tract of country which they are to receive, and are well pleased with it. Like the white pioneers, the first who remove will have the choice .- Ohio Monitor.

From the Cumberland (Md.) Civilian. To Wm. T. Barry,

Post Master General of the U. S. Sir-As you have addressed a circular to the different Postmasters, Mail contractors, &c. in which you use the following language-

"There is cause to apprehend, that the revenue of the Department suffers much, by abuses of the franking privilege. Your attention was called to this subject two years since, with good effect. But there is reason to fear that in many instances, the unremitted vigilance which the interest of the Department exacts, is not generally continued. Your special attention is called to the subject. Let no elevation of character, or of office, deter you from bringing to the test of legal investigation, any person against whom evidence of this offence may be procured. It is of essential importance to the Department; and in no case, when the fact can be established, must the offender be permitted to escape with impunity.' Permit me to mention a case in which the franking privilege has been abused by one high in authority, even the "greatest and best," the Hero of two wars, President Jack. son. A letter to the late editor of the Advocate, written by J. Donaldson, and announcing President Jackson a candidate for of Poland, with a sketch of its highly interesting at this office. Now, sir, I call upon you to you from bringing to the test of legal investigation any person against whom evidence of this offence may be procured." I will endorsed, and franked. Now, sir, as "it is of essential importance to the department, and in no case, when the fact can be established, must the offender be permitted to escape with impunity," we will see how far you are the respector of persons-whether you will not connive at the acts of those on whom you are dependent for office, and attempt to bring to justice others whom you may deem less important than the "Greatest and Best."

WEST-UNION, (O.) July 30. Hon. John McLean .- This gentleman appears conspicuous with those who are expected to be candidates for President. Of the Antimasonic papers which we have pe-rused, some have given him a favorable notice merely, while others have liberally bestowed upon him, the highest praise. The last Gettysburg (Pa.) Star nominates Mr. McLean for President and Richard Rush for Vice President. To this nomination the Star will adhere, "until controled by the United States Antimasonic Convention." For ourselves, we would say, that Mr. Mc Lean, or any other gentleman of talents and integrity, would, in this region, receive the support of the majority, should he be found opposed to masonry, and should be nominated by the United States Antimasonic Convention.—Courier.

There is now no doubt that if John Mc-Lean is nominated at the Baltimore Convention, he will have the votes of Vermont, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. -- Rochester (New York,) Inquirer.

The facilities of the Mohawk and Hudson rail-road and indeed of rail-roads generally, wrote, and which he read to Messrs. Branch, may be understood, from the fact, that on Saturday a coach, with 18 passengers, was drawn over the entire route by one horse, authorized any person to say that he ever in one hour and 43 minutes; and that for read, or made known to me, the paper or the last two miles, two coaches and one memorandum mentioned.
