Democratic Anti-Masonic Nominations
FOR PRESIDENT,
John McLean, of Ohio.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
Richard Rush, of Penn.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

From the Patriot of Saturday last.

FLOUR.—How'd-st.—In the early part of the week the sales from stores were generally made at $5 62 1/2 per brl. but since Wednesday parcels of 100 and 200 brls. have been taken at 5 75 per brl.—The store price to-day is 5 75. The wagon price was generally 5 50 until Thursday morning; since then the dealers appear to be all paying 5 62 1/2.

WHEAT.—The supplies have been plentiful since our last, and we have a further decline in prices to note this week of about four cts. per bush. Since Tuesday last the sales of parcels very prime, or best, reds have been made at 1 05 per bushel—the sales of good parcels at 1 00—and fair to ordinary and inferior from 95 to 85 cts. and downwards. To-day the weather is unfavorable for delivery, and as purchasers show but little inclination to operate, the market is heavy and flat, particularly for the common descriptions. Large parcels of the best red would command 1 05, and for a parcel of that description 1 06 was offered this morning. Prime parcels of white wheat continue in good demand, and have not declined proportionally with the reds. A sale of prime white was made this week at 1 20 per bushel, and yesterday a parcel of good quality was sold at 1 18. We quote fair to prime white, as in quality, at 1 15 to 1 20.

CORN.—A material decline has taken place in Corn since our last. From Tuesday to Thursday there was no demand whatever, and on Thursday sales of white were made at 56 to 57 cents for very prime parcels. A parcel of white was sold to-day at 55 cents, and others would be sold at that, but there are no buyers. A parcel of yellow was sold to-day at 56 cents.

RYE.—We quote, as in quality, at 67 to 70 cts.

OATS.—We quote at 33 to 34 cents per bush.

The readers of the Star, are referred to the letter of JOHN QUINCY ADAMS on the first page—also, to the article headed "Taxes" on the second page. Both are worthy of attention.

To-day the Delegates from Adams and York counties, meet at Hanover, to select a candidate for Senator, to be supported by the Anti-Masonic Republicans.

The German Anti-Masonic Almanac published at Lancaster, can be had at the Stores of Messrs. Smith, Fahnestock, Comfort, and Cooper, and at the Star Office.

The Lady's Book for September was received yesterday.

The proceedings of the National Republican meeting will be inserted next week.

The U. S. Convention will meet next Monday, at 12 o'clock precisely, in the Saloon of the Baltimore Athenaeum, situated on Lexington and St. Paul's streets.

EDITORIAL CHANGES.—THEO. PENN, Esq. the able and efficient editor of the Lancaster Herald, has purchased the establishment of the Harrisburg Statesman from JOHN McCORM, Esq. JOHN McCORM, Jr. Esq. has become sole Editor and Proprietor of the Huntingdon Courier, and has given his life to that useful sheet.

Large Anti-Masonic Meeting at Dayton, O. From the Republican we learn that a large and respectable meeting of the Anti-Masons, from FOUR to FIVE HUNDRED, was held at Dayton, Ohio, on the 3d inst. After the meeting was organized, the "Throne of Grace" was addressed by the Rev. THOMAS BEACHAMP; after which he delivered a very appropriate and impressive address; and was followed by JAMES A. SHEEN, Esq. and the Rev. Mr. BURGESS, of Cincinnati. Spirited resolutions were also passed.

So we find, that at home in our own State, and in those of our sister States, the "blessed spirit," as Gov. Throop, of New York, terms Anti-Masonry, is doing well. Let it go on. And it will spread throughout the whole Union, until the black flag of Masonry shall be struck, and its followers disrobed of their aristocratic crowns and mitres.

The Baltimore Patriot says:—The general election for State Officers took place in Vermont on Tuesday last. The contest is three sided—National Republican, Anti-Masonic, & "Jackson." As in Massachusetts, a majority of the whole number of votes polled, is necessary to a choice. For Governor, there has probably been no choice by the people. The returns from fourteen towns exhibit the following results:—ALLEN, (National Republican) 1359; PALMER, (Anti-Masonic) 1483; MEECH, (Jackson) 484. The following in reference to the Vermont Election is from the Boston Gazette:—

"A gentleman from Vermont, who left since the election took place, is of opinion that the cause of the Anti-Masons has prevailed in that State, against the National Republicans and the friends of the administration. A majority of the members of the Legislature, it is believed, are avowed Anti-Masons. There was no choice of a Governor by the people."

Another Convict turned loose on Society!

JACOB LEFEVER, convicted of the most atrocious Libel ever published in Pennsylvania, has been pardoned by George Wolf, before he served out one-fourth part of his sentence. Verily, the law is a nullity with regard to Masonic offenders! George Wolf has sworn to "extricate his brother from all difficulties, whether right or wrong," and he has kept his Oath to the letter. Let fools doubt—Honest men will awake, and act!

The following just and appropriate remarks, are from the Uniontown, Pa. Democrat:—

Jacob Lefever, editor of the Republican Compiler, published at Gettysburg, in this state, has been convicted of publishing a libel on T. Stephens, and sentenced to three months imprisonment in the jail of Adams county, to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs of prosecution. The editor of the Gettysburg Star complains that the Prosecuting Attorney, visited the convict in jail, and on two different occasions during the night after his conviction; was found there in close consultation. When Bruce, the Sheriff of Niagara county, N. Y. was convicted and imprisoned for assisting in the abduction of Morgan, the masons converted his prison into a palace, and supplied him with every convenience and luxury which his heart could desire. In every instance where a masonic juror was impelled to try a conspirator he has refused to convict. Here are practical effects of the Royal Arch obligation "to assist a brother when engaged in any difficulty so far as to extricate him, if possible, whether right or wrong." To prevent conviction is a first object. If this fails the next resort is to a reprieve, and in case of failure, in both, the sentence of the law is evaded by allowing the sufferings of the culprit. These are circumstances which, as Mr. Rush observes "have marked the progress of that mastery over the law which masonry has gained in the whole case of Morgan, whose blood shed by masons, and concealed by masons, still cries for vengeance."

THE MASONIC TICKET.—This is, perhaps, the weakest ticket, so far as popularity and public usefulness are concerned, which was ever settled in this county. It is needless to say any thing of the individuals composing it, for very few think of voting for them.

HOW TO SETTLE A TICKET ACCORDING TO MASONIC RULES.—The Masonic Convention of this county had proceeded to vote for a candidate for Commissioner, and had selected David White, a Federal Jack. After he was fixed on, Martin Clunk, one of the Delegates, thought the appointment not a good one, and that it would be better to select one from the same neighborhood with the Republican candidate, JOHN L. GUBERNATOR, Esq. After considerable canvassing, it was agreed to let Mr. White down to the Auditor's post and make a Commissioner out of MARTIN CLUNK!! How judicious! Martin Clunk is such a genius!!!

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN MEETING.—Last Saturday was the day fixed for the National Republicans to assemble in County meeting. Brother Boaz of the Sentinel had sounded his horn for the meeting of the clans, and exhorted them to turn out strong, and look down Anti-Masonry. The day rolled on and every face of Clay in town, to wit SIX, was moved with anxious expectation. At high noon, while they were looking East, West, North and South, for the thronging multitude, their eyes were gladdened indeed, for lo! in rode two gallant Nationals. Yes, gentle reader, it is no fiction, but sober history, but two men from the country attended this meeting: the one a Mason, and the other—the Lord knows what. Both clever men, but queer politicians. These tied, with the aforesaid six in town, tells their whole strength. But the friends of Clay deserve some credit:—They attempt impossibilities with as much zeal as if they had hope!

RENOVATION OF CLAYISM.—We recommend the following "Card," from the York Republican, to the notice of those of our friends who think the prospects of Mr. Clay bright in Pennsylvania:—Numerous other instances of the kind occur daily, but as this is near home, we think it in place to mention it. However flattering the friends of Mr. Clay may think his cause in this State, they will find that, in the end, he will do but a poor business at the approaching presidential canvass Pennsylvania and New York will be Anti-Masonic at the contest in 1832, and no man can receive votes sufficient to put down the present ruling Masonic dynasty, without the Antimasonic votes—therefore, JOHN McLEAN, or whoever else will be nominated next week, will have two chances of success, where Mr. Clay will have one. So, in our humble opinion, the opponents of the present administration could do their country no greater service than by uniting with the Antimasons in support of their Candidate, and thereby put an end to the present misrule of our government.

THE CLAY TICKET.

The undersigned, whose name has been used by an assemblage of persons calling themselves "the Clay party," without consultation with him, takes this method of informing the public, that he disapproves of this unauthorized act, and declines the nomination made by them.

WM. NELSON, Monaghan Township, August 15th 1831.

Mr. Rush, (says the Newark N. J. Monitor), in his last letter says:—"The public evils, real or alleged, of this administration, are as nothing, in my right, the sum of them, to those which may spring from masonry." And he might have added—to those which do spring from masonry.—This is the prevailing sentiment of political anti-masons; they, therefore, will never consent to support Clay—his masonry and immorality stand in the way—no more than Jackson. Mr. Rush, maugre the assertions of Clay men, goes with the anti masons. He alludes to Clay very handsomely, and expresses his determination to go against him. He says "I go with you (anti-mason), in your cause from my genuine conviction of its deeper and broader foundations." "Other evils have their day and are gone, but this (masonry) is permanent, this will be fastened upon us forever, unless we resolutely determine to remove it by our votes." "I place your cause foremost then of all at the coming (presidential) election in its principles, its objects and its character; foremost in its elevation and range; foremost beyond compare, in its direct aim, even foremost in the incidental good that it may have the opportunity of accomplishing. In this decision, I perform what I believe to be my highest duty to my country."

CUMBERLAND.—The Antimasonic Republicans of this county have settled the following ticket:—
Assembly—WILLIAM LINE,
JOHN McKEEHAN,
Commissioner—JACOB RUPP,
Director—JACOB HENDEL,
Auditor—JOSEPH CLARK,
Coroners—ABRAHAM BOWMAN,
BENJAMIN McKEEHAN.

CHESTER.—At a late meeting of the Antimasonic Republicans of this county, the following ticket was settled:—
Assembly—THOS. ASHBRIDGE,
ARTHUR ANDREWS, Jr.,
Dr. BENJ. GRIFFITH,
E. J. PENNYPACKER,
Sheriff—PETER OSBORNE,
Commissioner—EVAN EVANS, Esq.,
Director—ALEXANDER CORY,
Auditor—MORGAN J. THOMAS.

ERIE COUNTY TICKET.
Assembly—JOHN RIBBLE,
Sheriff—WILLIAM FLEMING,
Commissioner—THOS. R. MILLER,
Auditor—JAMES SMEDLEY.

INDIANA COUNTY TICKET.
Assembly—WILLIAM HOUSTON,
Commissioner—WILLIAM LEARD,
Auditor—GEORGE TRIMBLE.

DELAWARE COUNTY.—The following is the ticket settled by the Antimasonic Republicans of this county:—
Assembly—GEORGE SMITH,
Sheriff—WILLIAM LUGREN,
Commissioner—JOHN EVANS,
Director—JAMES OGDEN,
Auditor—LUKE CASSIN.

STICK TO THE TICKET.—The Aristocrats are using all their arts to divide the Antimasons.—They wish to split the ticket, and thus elect some of the bantlings of the Lodge. But they underestimate the discernment of the Antimasons. Whatever may be their feelings towards individuals on the ticket, they will be made to give way to the interest of the party. Our party is founded on the love of PRINCIPLES, and not Men. We have no doubt, that every genuine friend of his country would vote for his worst enemy, if necessary to secure the success of the Republican ticket. The Masonic party will act in solid mass. Let the Antimasons do likewise.

Freemen! Go to the Poles. The coming election is an important one. A Senator is to be elected. The Masonic party have fixed on a high MASON as their candidate. The people will have a plain REPUBLICAN. Let no honest man stay from the election. The country looks for salvation to the Farmers, Mechanics, & Laborers. The Aristocrats and Demagogues are in league against us. To the Poles, then, one and all!

"NOT I."—The Bedford Enquirer, a devotee of the Grand Master of Kentucky, after publishing JOHN QUINCY ADAMS' letter, says it would be very wrong for the public to infer that he has enlisted in the ranks of Anti-Masonry!!! "Go 'way dere, I burn you mit a chunk!"

THE NEW CABINET.

President Jackson's Cabinet now consists of the following gentlemen:
EDWARD LIVINGSTON, Secretary of State
LOUIS McLANE, Secretary of the Treasury,
LOUIS CASS, Secretary of War,
LEVI WOODBURY, Secretary of the Navy
R. B. TANEY, Attorney General.
Four, at least, of these gentlemen are Masons—and three of them "old school federalists."

JUDGE McLEAN.—Speaking of the nomination of this gentleman, the Niagara Courier, Lockport, N. York, says:—"The propriety of nominating this gentleman as the Anti-Masonic candidate, is still strenuously urged by many Anti-Masonic prints. The only objections that we ever entertained to this measure, have grown out of the uncertainty in which we were left, as to the sentiments of the Judge upon the subject of Freemasonry. Within a short time, however, we have become convinced that he is not only no mason, but that he has ever entertained unfavorable sentiments towards the order.

Again the Editor of the Courier says—"We should have no hesitancy in entering heart and hand into his support, should he be nominated by the Baltimore Convention to head our ticket"—and in the event of his being nominated, Judge McLEAN will receive the hearty and united support of the entire Antimasonic Republican party." "This is as it should be. Judge McLEAN, known as the firm friend of Republicanism, and a decided enemy of Masonry, stands high and deserves the attention of the American people. With such a man, we would rather be defeated, than gain a thousand victories with a crowned Aristocrat.

OH DEAR!—The Masonic prints in this quarter which considered Morgan's murder of no consequence at all, are quite shocked at the idea of nominating a Judge for the Presidency. Disinterested and consistent patriots—they fear such a nomination will unsettle the bonds of the Union. Never mind—the people are determined to put down Masonry, and they will not consult the whims of the craft in the course which they adopt for the purpose.—Boston Free Press.

From the Baltimore Gazette of Friday last. We stop the press to insert the following letter received by Mr. Barnum, City Hotel, conveying the unpleasant information of the insurrection of the blacks.

RALEIGH, N. C. 13th Sept. 1831. Dear Brother—I came to Raleigh last night on business, at the same time expecting to find a letter in the office from you. I stayed in town all night, but was aroused from my sleep by the alarm that the Negroes were advancing towards this place.—Expresses arrived during the night stating that WILMINGTON WAS IN THE HANDS OF THE BLACKS & BURNT! The town of Raleigh was under arms all night, and this morning presents a dreary aspect—women running in every direction almost-distracted.

The leading men of the town are at this moment assembled at the Court-house examining a number of Negroes. All business is stopped, and arms collecting from all parts of the country. I have just been with a party of gentlemen to examine all the ammunition in the stores. P. S. While writing the above, a man has arrived in express from Jonson county, and killed his horse on the road, and begs assistance for arms and ammunition.

For the Star. To JACOB CASSATT, Esq. Foreman of the Grand Jury of Adams county, at August Term, 1831.

SIR—As you are before the public for the highest office in the gift of the people of this county, I wish you to answer a plain question, viz:

Were you, or were you not, tampered with, when out of the Jury Room, by an Ex-Commissioner of this county, two years past a Federalist, and now a Democrat—Jack dyed in the wool, on a certain bill of indictment then before your honorable body, or to be presented to the Jury—and by such tampering, whether you did not exercise authority inconsistent with the honorable station you held at that time.

This is a plain question, and the public ought to know the truth, before they elevate you to the station you are nominated for.
AN ANTI-MASON.

For the Star. Mr. Editor.—On looking over your paper of last week, I find that Henry M'Divitt has again been taken up, by the Aristocratic party, for the Assembly. I really wish the good citizens of Adams would give the gentleman some office or other, to satisfy himself and friends—No matter whether he is capable or not, so that a thirst for office may be, in some measure, appeased. I, among others of my neighbors, think Mr. M'Divitt would do very well to attend to the important duties within his calling.—If there were the "least shade of a shadow," (as Gov. Wolf's protegee would say,) of the possibility that the intelligent people of Adams would send such a man to the Legislature, I should be constrained to ask them to "look before they leaped"—but there's no danger—no need of warning those of our township against voting for any of the Aristocratic faction—we go for measures, not men—consequently, shall vote the ticket, IN FULL that is headed with such men as ANDREW MARSHALL AND JACOB CASSATT.

LIBERTY. For the Star. Mr. MIDDLETON.—Our wily opponents wish the people to think that the ticket formed by the Anti-Masonic Convention will not be supported throughout, and that the Aristocrats will succeed in electing one at least. We wish them to lay not such flattering unctious to their souls—we are antimasons from principle—we will show them at the poles, that we think not of opposing a ticket of our party, because one member of it may not be the favorite of a few of his fellow-citizens. But intend voting the ticket—the WHOLE ticket. So, away with their falsehoods; we want no followers of the "handmaid" to dictate to us.—We have Measures, not Men, inscribed on our banner, and round it we will rally on the second Tuesday of October next, to the sore discomfort of the devotees of the Lodge.—ANDREW MARSHALL and JACOB CASSATT, heads the ticket which will receive the undivided support of all true Anti-masons in

LATIMORE. For the Star. MR. PRINTER.—I would merely let you know that the ticket settled last Saturday week, by the Aristocracy opposed to the genuine principles of Anti-Masonry, "does not take" in our township. Even the few who were heretofore opposed to us show a readiness of "turning from the evil tenor of their ways," and of joining in with those who follow the advice of him who warned us with his dying breath to "Beware of Secret Societies." Even the Chairman of the meeting that formed the Masonic ticket, very prudently forgot to vote for the Assembly nominations. And others among us, intimate that they prefer the ticket of the people to that of the worshippers of the Lodge. The second Tuesday in October will count the votes, FOR THE PEOPLE'S TICKET, of every genuine republican that resides in

MENALLEN.
