

Knives and Forks, Carvers, Nut Pics, &c., to come and examine. We will sell at such prices as will defy competition. Also, a large assortment of Table Farks, which will be sold separately. Don't, forget to examine the stock at FAHNESTOCKS.

Country Merchants can be supplied at small advance. May 18. a small advance.

Ladies, This Way! YOBEAN & PAXTON have always on band a large and well selected stock of Ladies', Misses', and Children's SHORE, GAITERS AND SLIPPERS, OCAL kinds, and at all prices. No trouble to show Goods. May 18.

Scythes ! Scythes ! Scythes ! RAIINESTOCKS have just received the largest lot of SCYTHES ever offered in the county. They comprise a variety of makes, including SILVER STEEL, STEEL BACKS, dc., to which the attention of Farmers and others is invited, assuring them that we will self them cheaper than elsewhere. [May 18.]

JUST FROM THE CITY,

With a Larger Stock than Ever! ACOB NORBECK has just received from the city a large stock of GROCERIES, his new location, Kerr's Corger, on Baltimore street. Give him a call ! You will find his

Coffee: Sugar. Molasses, Salt, Teas,

Sanctity from forms of sorrow-All in vain your incease rises. Bring no more your vain oblations; Of your feasts my soul is weary: Raise aloft your supplications-They are but abominations-Pray! the Heavens shall not hear you.

Wherefore croaks she silly raven,

And brave souls wax weak like water-Where frowns an angry heaven? Why? your hearts are false and craven

Whyf your hands are red with slaughter

And you must carb your evil passions-Suith the Lord, come, let us reason, Learn good, cease you wrongs, oppressions Then not vain your intercessions.

Then your souls are treed from treason.

FISH, &..., the largest he has yet offered to Thirteen Votes, or the Wager. A TRUE STORY.

In a town in the interior of the Grancuriosity of the thing, I am willing to lady.

bet you the price of a dinner for your-when a woman is injured, or thinks self and horse, that you cannot repeat she is injured, by the one she loves, she without making some egregious blan-there without making some egregious ders.'

joiced at the idea of paying the land- newed his proposals and was accepted the use of the plow in the cornfield, af- tinker. lord's charges so easily—"and I will within a week after her old lover had ter the corn is up, entirely, I can be in an ten you, reported the generation of advantage in plowing corn. I would zier; "you told me you were weary, be marked for the South. On reaching add that in my opinion, it is very bad hungry and penniless. I knew the lord's charges so easily-" and I will within a week after her old lover had ter the corn is up, entirely; I can see planting himself firmly against the wall, instead of weakening his attachment, policy to work corn when the ground with his face towards the door, he as only made the lady dearer, and he besamed a look of great determination, as came melancholy and low spirited. thing to see corn tilled too much, but and started a leak in every tin utensil I if he had undertaken an unpleasant job. The first letter he received from New | quite frequently it can be seen half till- | could get hold of." but was resolved to go through with it | York from a friend of his, announced | ed ; and then we hear complaints of bud at all hazards-and, commenced pro-that his old flame was shortly to be crops. May 8, 1857. nouncing in a loud clear voice, with due married to another. His course was emphasis and discretion, the cabalistic quickly taken-the next morning saw words, "thirteen votes I thirteen votes I him on board a packet-ship bound for thirteen votes!"

Gotham. In the meantime, Mr. Martyn, not The passage unfortunately was long, dreaming of the insult that awaited him, and the poor fellow chafed and fretted bent his steps, as he was wont, towards so much that the passengers began to the tavern., As he reached the thres- think him deranged or else a fugitive not a moment in his recitation, but con- more of one hair of your head than standy it; pass such a harrow each way close to the hills, and with a careful

"Done," said the traveller—who re-iced at the idea of paving the land.

SIMON.

ing. Upon reaching the outside of height of about 50 feet, "der mersheene house, he found the glazier, who was suddenly seized with a backward' the half-drowned Professor and his "I am sure I cannot tell," replied the "mersheene" were safely landed on terra firms. Whether or not the "ducking" the Professor received, cooled his ardor for an grial flight from that locality we have not been informed. A Dear Shot .- During the last winter a farmer in the upper part of the county was solely annoyed by the in-The tinker, with many thanks and a cursions of a neighbor's cattle on bis heart fall of gratitude, resumed his shocks of fodder. Forbearing from journey, but he had not proceeded ma- time to time, he was at length thorough. Cure for Bots in Horses.—Drew's Rural Intelligencer says, an intelligent gentleman of our acquaintance, who best for wars hour begins in the glazier had befriended him best for wars hour begins an intelligent in the glazier. The times before—that Mr. — 's cattle' has for years been largely concerned in church, he thought, could afford to bear were eating up all his fodder. Without the management of horses, called at the a slight loss in a good cause, so taking taking any thought, our incensed flar-Rural Office a few weeks ago, to say a position where he could not be seen, mer seized his "rifle, powder and shot," the tavern. As he reached the thres-hold of the door, he heard the offensive words, "thirteen votes! thirteen votes!" pronounced—and with frame trembling with passion, and with fury strongly imprinted on his rabicund fury strongly imprinted fury Confer, Sugar. Molasse, Salt, Tes, in a town in the interfor of the of an- is state, not many years since, a q- is state, not many wears since, a q- is state ther Clerical Delinguent.—The Boe his tail, and giving it a peculiar motion. | "and you will, of course, be employed ton Bee states that a committee appoint-Thore is no such appearance in cases of to put them in again." ed by the New England Conference of The glazier's jaw fell, and his face as- the Methodist Episcopal Church report sumed a blank expression, as he said in that the Rev. D. L. Gear, of Lynn, has, a tremulous tonein their opinion, been proved guilty of "You don't mean that, do you?" lying, fornication, and forgery. This "Certainly," refurned the tinker; is a deplorable state of things, when aling as his views upon these two diseas- "there isn't a whole pane of glass in the most every day brings to us intelligence es to which cattle are frequently sub- building. One good turn deserves anoth- that this or that member of the clerical er, you know." profession in New England has forgot-"Yes," answered the glasier, in a same disorder in very cold weather, es-tone of utter despair, "but, you scoun- his Maker, and has been treading the ten his duty to himself, his people, and . drel, you have ruined me, for I keep the dark path of infamy and shame. Is it and are not in good roasting order. church windows in repair by the year !" not time that those of our clergy who are jealous of the fuir fame and efficienno. The Chicago papers expose a ing diet, and provided with a warm heartless piece of extortion, practiced themselves to purge from their ranks bed in very cold weather, hoof-ail or by a man named Moore, landlord of the those lecherous wolves in sheep's clothcy of the Gospel ministry should exert hollow-horn is very apt to overtake Merchants' Hotel, Chicago, upon a poor ing, who are doing such incalculable inthem .- Sometimes the freezing in the and friendless woman, who was on her The stranger thought the rage of unsuspecting bridegroom the instant he feet or horns is so alight that it is not way, with three little chikiren, from zeal to point out the follies and sins in discoverable for some weeks or even Hudson, N. Y., to Fond du Lac, Wis-Martyn was conneriened, and is rescaled in a cab to watch the house. Smith's to win' the wager; and the an-swer to his question, shouted out in a About ten minutes before eleven, as the is as much as I can give. Martyn was conneriened, and is coverable for some weeks or even thousen, N. 1., to roll during in consin. For the privilege of sitting in the world around them, is it not proba-ble that they may have overlooked the is as much as I can give. The cause and preventive the public room of his house, without "indiscretions" of their own class! We fire of refreshment, a few hours, while suggest that in future it would be in waiting for the Milwaukie train to start. good taste for them to rebuke the "inthis Shylock charged and extorted four Homestead, that twin heifers are barren, dollars-all she had left. Complaint, dividual sins" of clerical delinguents, a well as to preach against every other however, was made to the Police, and form of vice.-Springfield Argus. the landlord reluctantly restored the money. It is safe to avoid a house Another Political Parson.-It would seem,(says the Detroit Free Press,)that the Black Republicans are not to enjoy "The 'local' of the Westfield Republican is in the pursuit of knowledge under all the "honors" reflected by the parsoit politicians of the Kalloch stripe. Rev." Cad. Lewis, Grand Chaplain of the No The stranger felt somewhat indignant friend of his who sat in the cab wrap seen a statement in the Massachusetts | doubt of it-and so is his party !"- Eric Know Nothing order in Kentucky, was last year charged with grievous miscon-frequent cause of smut in wheat is the Just wait and see-if you doubt it .-courts, and the Chief Justice, Thomas A. To which the Observer puts in this Marshall, (himself a Know Nothin rather spicy rejoinder:-Your first sup-position may be correct-at least, we cided against the reverend politician it shall not dispute it but we are not so all points, and decreeing that he shall sure of the latter. We are taught in the pay all the costs. Good Book,-Revelations, 10th Chapter, Won't Pay .- The Buffalo Commercial The little I have seen of the world and 3d verse-that his satanic majesty is says, while it is universally conceded and known of the history of mankind to "be loosened for a little while," onlythat slavery can never exist, except temporarily, in Kansas, intelligent others in sorrow, not in anger. When commenced with the rise of the Repubsouthern men who have visited the terfican party, it seems to us very clear that ritory, are coming to the conclusion that it is of no use to attempt introducing it there at all .- A Virginia gentle. Wonders of Noture .- There is a tree | man who was in Cincinnati a day or two called the Mandhancel, in the West since, and had just returned from Kantude of hope and fear; the pressure of Indies; its appearance is very attractive | sas, expressed the opinion of all intelliwant; the desertion of friends; the and the wood of it peculiarly beautiful; gent southern gentlemen, that the terriscorn of the world that has little chari- it bears a kind of apple resembling a tory is not adapted to slave labor, as there' out of the room, and as he closed the and being made acquainted with the ty; the desolation of the soul's sanctus- golden pippin. The first looks very is not fuel enough in Kansas to keep the ry and threatening vices within; health tempting, and smell very fragrant, but negroes from freezing. In his own hanto eat of it is instant death, and its sap guage, if five hundred negroes were mor juice is so poisonous that if a few drops | troduced into the territory, it would ! of it fall on the skin, it raises blisters, take at least two hundred and fifty of and occasions great pain. The Indians them to procure wood to keep the othdip their arrows in this juice to poison | ers warm. This conclusion is the result States shows that we have two millions their enemies when they wound them. of the gentleman's observations during, Providence has so appointed it, that | the past winter.

Miscellaneons.

the

landlord was well off and doing a good is wet ; it is seldom too dry ; it is a rare business, so Lwatched the opportunity,

SAMSON'S. city, call at April 13, 1857.

TWO DAILY LINES TO HANOVER.

EXTRA ACCOMMODATIONS. - The on de. signed returns his thanks to the publi for the encouragement heretofore extended to him, and takes-pleasure in announcing that he bast completed arrangements by which TWO DAILY LINES of Conches will run between Gettys. burg and flanover, to connect with the trains Philadelphia. &c. Persons desiring tickets or his dereliction of moral duty-and the in this way !" information will call on the undersigned, or on ('MABLES TATE, Ticket Agent, at the Eagle Hotel, in Chambersburg street. DrSpecial attention given to all packages, ed to.

rangements by which he will be able to supply Conches. Singes, &c., for Funerals and other occasions, at moderate charges. NICHOLAS WEAVER.

Gettysburg, April 13, 1857.

Bonnets: Bonnets! MISS MCCREARY has just returned from the city with a new and beautiful assortment of Bonnets & Pancy Goods. of the most fashionable styles, which she invites the ladies to call and examine, confident that they will be pleased with her selections. Miss McCreary will carry on the MILLI-NERY business, in all its branches, and hopes by her superior work and reasonable prices, to merit the patronage of her friends. Gettysburg, April 20, 1857. 3m

Bringman & Aughinbaugh. STILL AHEAD!

WE are just receiving a new lot of Hats, Caps, Boots & Shoen P -of the very latest Spring styles, and intend selling at small profits. Call and see them before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the place, Paxton's old stand, Chambersburg street. March 23.

Spouting!

April 18, 1853. 11

J. Palmer & Co., -MARKET STREET WUARF. PHILADELPHIA, Dealers in Fish and Provisions.

HAVE constantly on hand an assortment of Mackerel. Shad, Horrings, Codfish, Beef, Pork, Lard, Shoulders, liams, Sides, Cheese, Rice, &c. March 23, 1857. 3m

ABBIAGE Trimminge can always be booght lower, and a larger assortment than elsewhere is always to be had, at -FAHNESTOCKS'

FIRRADS, Pins, Needles, Thimbles, Ladies' and other Combs, Buttons, Hooks and Eyes, Tooth Brushes, Lead Pencils, NORBBCK'S. Matches, sheap at CHILDREN'S Shoes of every variety and

-mine, at BRINGHAN & ADGRINBADOR'S successors to W. W. Paxton

FACT .- MONEY SAVED by buying A FAUT.-MUNEI SAVED by our your Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes at Bringman'd Aughinbaugh's.

THE attention of the LADIES is particu-larly invited to the Targe assortment of MARCUS SAMSON I AS just received at his Ready-made Clo-thing Store, on York street, nearly op-posite the Bank, the best assortment of haps, the very existence of his party de-mer wear, ever opened in this place. If you mer wear, ever opened in this place. If you haps, the tell of the bank is a so carried away by his mer wear, ever opened in this place. If you haps, the tell of the bank is a so carried away by his mer wear, ever opened in this place. If you haps, the tell of the bank is a so carried to the posite thirteen haps, the tell of the bank is place. If you haps, the tell of the bank is place. If you haps, the tell of the bank is place. If you haps, the tell of the bank is place. If you haps mer wear, ever opened in this pace. If you want a well-made Coat, Vest, Pants, or any-thing in the line of Realy-made Clothing, at in the ballot box, in defiance of the law less cost than they can be had outside of the which provides that no man, to which-city, call at SAMSON'S.

ever party he may happen to belong, or this, sir," said he in a voice of thunder. coming of however worthy may be his favorite But the only reply he received was from o'clock ?" candidate, shall deposite more than one the mouth of the stranger, who, with ballot for any one individual for any one the most irritating pertinacy, continoffice!

tected in this equivocal act-and al- votes !" though no legal action was had in relation to the subject, yet there were those stranger, his frame absolutely quivering be mine."

in the town in which he resided, who with rage. "Who are you, scoundrel?" were unwilling to admit the excess of demanded he in the most imperious and promised to carry on the matter. simple act of depositing thirteen votes for one candidate, at one time in the + ballot box, although palliated and ex-&c., or other business entrusted to the under- cused by some of his warm political conversation among the worthy citizens | votes !" of the town for several weeks-at the away, but was not forgetten. Poor Mr. and putting himself in an attitude. end of which time it gradually died Martyn was doomed to hear the words his political focs in the most indignant the top of his lungs. manner-evidently with the design of

In this they, succeeded but too well.-These words, so harmless in themselves. desperation. or when applied to others, if addressed of a magic cabala, so wonderful, and so termined to win the wager, and raising er can imagine who this person was. instantaneous was the effect which they his voice, bawled out with the lungs of Eleven o'clock came, but still no controvert it. produced on the appearance and con- a steator, "thirteen votes! thirteen bridegroom. The guests were staring duct of that gentleman. The moment | votes! thirteen votes!" thirteen potes reached his ear, his features

ly grasped the nearest weapon of offence | trate on the floor. within his reach, and his voice, naturaly clear and sonorous, was changed into deen and unearthly mutterings, resembling the sound of distant thunder, or the rumblings of the pent up volcano. Indeed the effect produced on Sir Piercie

Shafton, by the sight of the bodkin, as of the village, now a very worthy and and bellowing out between every blow, respectable legal practitioner in the city of Boston, once made Martyn's infirmity the means of playing off a mischievous and cruel practical joke, to the great amusement of the bystanders. . Mr. Smith, the young gentleman to village tavern, entered into conversation with a genteel looking stranger, while the landlady was preparing some refresh-ment, with which to refresh the exhausted frame and spirits of her guest. The conversation turned on the difficulty of pronouncing some of the names of places of Indian origin, which are so often met with in the New England States. In the midst of the colloquy, Mr. Smith saw his political opponent, Wattie Martyn, coming down the road. He was certain that Wattie would pop into the tavern, and in the spur of the moment, laid his plans accordingly. "What you say, sir," said Mr. Smith, respecting those jaw-breaking names, is perfectly correct-I agree with you into the garden in search of her daugh- and the directors have scandalously Toronto, who plays on eight instruments entirely, and am much gratified to make ter, on being told that the young lady abused their trust. Let this sentence at once, and is thus a band of music in been re-elected mayor of Petersbarg, plain and fancy thatters, latest style, just entirely, and am much gratified to make ter, on being told that the you reserved by Bringman & Aughinbaugh. the acquaintance of a gentleman of so had gone there with a "ruke."

yes, I will have it. Have you any case coming on in either of the courts at 11

"Yes." "Then fill up a subprena with the ued to bawl, even louder than before. bridegroom's name. Don't stop-to ask Wattie Martyn was unfortunately de- "thirteen votes! thirteen votes! thirteen any questions. It matters not whether he knows anything about the parties Martyn then advanced towards the in the suit. By Heavens! Julia shall

His friend saw the object at once.

to and from Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, party zeal was a sufficient apology for manner, "and how dare you insult me The subpena was made out and placed in the hands of the clerk to serve on the Martyn was counterfeited, and a resc of should leave his residence, and was dissigned between Gettysburg and Hanover, friends, was severely censured by others. still louder voice than before, was "thir-1 soon-to-be happy man was about enter-which will be promptly and carefully attend- This occurrence furnished a subject of teen votes ! thirteen votes ! thirteen ing a coach before the door of his residence, he was served with a sub-

"I will not put up with this insult." pœna. screamed Martyn, doubling up his fist

"Can't help it," said the clerk, in re-"Thirteen votes ! thirteen votes ! thir- knowing the parties, going to be mar-Martyn was doomed to hear the words money. It is safe to avoid a nouse thirteen rotes occasionally repeated by teen votes." vociferated the stranger at ried," &c. "We shan't reach the Hall is known to many. A subscriber in kept by such an unconscionable landlord. before eleven-imprisonment for eon-

"If you repeat those words again I tempt," &c. disturbing the equanimity of his feelings. will knock you down, you ruscal," said The bridegroom, who was rather of a the infuriated Martyn, with a howl of timid nature, finally consented, partic- mals, worth at least $75 apiece; each of difficulties, and as a last resort, says he ularly as the clerk promised to send a

"Take that for your insolence," shriek- grow impatient-and the bride that in were clouded with a frown of indigna- ed Martyn, suiting the action to the was to be, looked pale and agitated, heating of the seed in the mow. One Springfield Nonpareil. tion-his eyes were lighted up with a word, and giving the luckless traveller when a carriage drove up and the bell who has tried, recommends to let wheat most unboly fire-his hands involuntari- a box on the car which laid him pros- rung, "There he is ! There he is ! murmured many voices. But as the stranger fell, his yell of surprise, anger and agony, took the sound of "thirteen votes ! thirteen votes ! thirteen votes l"

Highly iszasperated at what he con- marriage of Lucy Ashton, in Scott's seived to be a base and anfair contriv- "Brige of Lammermoor." The larly stranger rose in high dudgeon, still ex- between the parents and the real lover, claiming in a voice which a boatswain and the result was that, in ten minutes teen votes I' and fell pell mell upon poor the satisfaction of all. Martyn, pounding him without meroy,

'thirteen votes!" The traveller finally kicked Martyn door upon the unlucky illegal voter, he condition of affairs, was really tragiclooked at his watch eaw that the fif-teen minutes had already expired gave The st whom we allude, being one day at the a loud and exulting shout of "thirteen terwards leaked out, and has created so village tayern, entered into conversation votes! THIRTEEN votes! THIRTEEN much amusement, that the pour follow YOTES " which made the welkin ring doclares he will sue the lawyer for ten again-sank exhausted in a chair and thousand dollars damages in subprenaclaimed the wager. When Fencion was almoner to Louis XIV., his Majesty was astonish-if he should do so.—New York Paper. ed to find one Sunday instead of a numerous congregation only him and the priest. "What is the reason of this?" asked the king. "I caused it to be given out, sire," returned Fenelon, that your Majesty did not attend chapel to-day, that you might know who came to worship God, and who to flatter the king."

The other day an old lady rushed by word.' Well, the sum is not raised,

Theory of Hoof-Ail and Hollow Horn. -Mr. M. J. Johnson, in a late number of the Ohio Cultivator, gives the follow-> weather. Chickens are subject to the Hollow-horn proceeds from the same cause. If cattle are not fed on nourishmere bellvache.

Twin Heifer Calves not Barren .- The impression is very common, says The and many of them are, as calves, conply to his gesticulating about "not signed to the butcher in consequence. That this impression is quite unfounded Westfield, Mr. Alvan Fowler, communicates the fact that he has a pair of twin cows, twelvo years old, very fine anithem has had eight calves. He has is 'going down to the Cemetery.' to Mr. Martyn, or even attered in his at being addressed in this rude and un-bet he was deal ped up in a large cloak, explaining Ploughman, confirming the false ideal Observer. hearing, seemed to possess the power ceremonious manner, but he was de- the reasons of his absence. The read- that people should never -raise twin Becent experiments prove that for seed mand until quite rive before cutting, and then put it on a scaffold A gentleman did enter, whose ap- until fully cured. The wheat raised pearance created almost as much aston- from seed thus treated, was not injured

I take the history of the poor heart

The bridegroom that-was-to-have- puluation of joy ; the feverish inquierbeen, afterwards made his appearance puffing and blowing. What he said and what he did, on beholding his rival, rone-I would fain have the erring soul of my fellow man with him from whose The story of the subpœna shortly af-hands it came.

Interesting .- The consus of the United and a half of farmers, one hundred ing him as a witness in a case of which thousand morchants, sixty-four thoushe knew nothing, and by which he lost and masons, and nearly two hundred thousand carpenters. We have four-

A Just Sentence Pronounced.-The by the ear; forty thousand doctors to kill or cure, and fifteen hundred editors "When the Know Nothings seized ton monument, they proclaimed thus: | trolled and manufactured through the land, near the city of Lausing, where the 'The sum (1,000,000) must be raised by press. the councils of our order, or we must pronounced in advance be executed." himself.

A Washington letter says that samples of sugar from the Chinese cane. and alcohol distilled from the juice, have been shown at the Agricultural bareau of the Patent Office, which places the question of its capability of crystilization beyond all doubt.

Beanty and wit will die-Hearning it and wealth will varish away-all the liams, late editor of the Toledo Blade, is arts of life will be forgotten-bat virtue will remain forever. Planted on carvhyin a cold ungenial clingditt will bloom W. W. Townes, Democrat, has and blossom in heave

We Vegetation has got ion a hast

one of these is never found, but near it grows a white-ash, or fig tree, the juice of either, if applied in time, is a remody teen thousand bakers to bake our broad; for the danger produced by the mandtwenty-four thousand lawyers to set us hancel. The State of Michigan has estab-

State Capitol is located .- Joseph R. Wil-

Virginia.

to keep this motley mass in order by lished a College of Agriculture, on a with unboly hands upon the Washing- the potent power of public opinion con- farm of seven hundred acres of fertile

There is a colored man, of the name President. suffer indelible disgrace and become a of Williams, at present performing in ishment as that of Edgar Ravenswood by smut. in the Hall of Ashton Castle at the ance to cheat him out of his wager, the fainted; private explanations ensued teaches me to look upon the errors of and as that "little while" undoubtedly in a harricane might have envied, after, the two real lovers were joined in that has sinned and saffered, and repre- when it expires, the party will be non thirteen votes! thirteen votes! thir the sacred bonds of matrimony, much to sent to myself the straggles and temptations it has passed through ; the bright

Louisville Democrat says: