1.4

39TH YEAR.

GETTYSBURG. PENN'A.: MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1857.

Phone Or only a sa Medition of the countie State Convention.

TERMS OF THIS PAPER.

The Republican Compiler in published every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STARLE, at $1,75 per annum if paid in advance. So subscription discontinued, unless at the option of the publisher, until all arrearages are said, i head-quarters, at Fort Jackson, humbly this in cold blood, would not the stopped late one night at an inn in torical incident:—"During the negotihe should be the centre. This actor

Let Distinct the stopped late one night at an inn in the picture presented the should be the centre. This actor

Let Distinct the stopped late one night at an inn in the picture presented the should be the centre. This actor

Let Distinct the stopped late one night at an inn in the picture presented the should be the centre. This actor rates. Job Printing done neatly, cheaply, and with disputch.

Office in South Baltimore street, direct-

The Conflict for Truth.

The willing mind will ever Deem heavy bardens light, The noble spirit will never Couse struggling for the right. Though the conflict may increase And might should brave the strife, Right's champions shall release

The striaum bars of life. On, on the Banner speedeth, The buttle cry of Right. No blood-stained-fields it needeth, (Whence red-eyed tury dusties His storm of deadly rain,) No cities laid in ashes

No mangled heaps of slain. But dauntless minds that fail not To strive in fadeless youth, . That falsehood may prevail not Against the cause of Truth, Lead on, the darkness breaking,

Their beacon light to spread, Unnumbered hearts awaking, From mingling with the dead. On, on, the war cry speedeth,

"Soldiers of Truth arise!"
The simple peasant heedeth,
And error's ranks defies.
The veteran gray and heavy,
The terran gray and heavy, The beardless, noble youth, Swell back that shout of glory, And arm, and strike for Truth.

Fiercely the conflict raiges. For soul is matched with soul The "lattle fields" are "pages," And "thoughts" the "artillery's roll." Oppression, crime, and terror, Marshall'd in added might,

Strike on, yet shrink with terror, When met by Truth and Right. Still is the conflict raging,

But yet shall victory grace These arms good are waging, Bur Imitics to the race. Strike, then, thou beardless youth Strike, true men, all for glory, For Justice, Right and Truth!

Miscellaucous.

To walk abroad among rural scenery loud denance at his foes, plunged into a the Victory. The above facts (says being aware any more than the rest, of for a week or two, in a friendly way, in the temple of the Deity, and witness has given name to the bluff where it the creative process. Every day, almost was performed, and ever since it has by an agail gentleman, who received the, lest when he touched it the crowing portion of your existence in an example of the thief, had kept along trouble of the thief. every hour, witnesses some change; been known throughout Alabama as buds, blossoms, leaves and flowers are "Weatherford's Leap." woven by unseen hands, painted by in- Descried by his men, alone, amid the visible artists, and perfumed from solitudes of nature. Weatherford roam-" vials full of odors of sweet,"-we look ed the forest unsubdued and undaunted. upon them in the morning with surprise Hearing that General Jackson had of the west the other evening to "meet touch the old brass kettle, and that he halls to laboring in your fields; and and pleasure, while the first dew and fered a large reward for his capture, and it," where they sung old hymns to was the thief. sun-beam are visiting them. What an | that many, seem of his old followers, new fangled tungs, describes the peradmirable and perfect taste must He were on his track, he resolved to go in themance in this wise the men in the have, who performs all this!—There is person and surrender himself to Jack- chargegation, turning around and lookno noise no uscless display. the ere-tson, and thus thwart the treacherous ator therein teaches modesty to his creadesigns of the recreant of his own ruce. tures. His goodnes is also visible the Mounting the noble horse which had blossome mon-perish, but their hue and horne him over the bluff at the Holy fractures are the breathing of a benev- Ground, he rode within a few miles of olentamind. Look at the multitude of Fort Jackson, when a fine deer crossing sweet singers of largel took up the re- rade cabin to try his lack in the hunt of religion there is a vast difference belittle heaps of sand that lie in the paths his path; and stopping within rife dir thin, and answering, sungand suffer your eye to rest for a mo- tance, he fired at and killed it. (Reload) a fe feath a man; man, mentingon the busy and apparently ing his rifle with two balls, for the pur impentamen, man, man, itestation of thy grace!" happy insect that brings out his grain pose of shooting "Big Warrior," a reneof sand. Nothing seems too minute gade of his own tribe, then in Jackson's and insignificant for the Almightly to enum, should be offer him any insult, on a put his head upon and invest with faculties of interest in the deer, across his horse's tien a comfortable map in his chair, and week he at length found a shelter of bark, wards, one of his neighbors met him shoulders, and advanced to the Americal dispersed his amiable helpmate mend, hastily constructed by a former adventisement.

Tribut. Own Up the Corn.

liberal statement of facts, one of the cir. Weatherford contemptuously turned his caue," said he, " while the husbandinan than awanty five pards from him a large the earth, and in consequence of its shrank under his keen glance, and exgreat weight sunk to a considerable [claimed, in a determined voice, "You depth. It having been found impossi-ble to extricate it by ardinary means, a stout yoke of oxen were attached to cowardly heart!" General Jackson. it, and after incredible exertions on the hearing the altercation and the name of part of said oxen, assisted liberally by Weatherford, rushed out of his tent, the "gad" of the driver, the out was and is a furious and threatening manner drawn out clean, leaving a well sixty cried out, "How dare you, sir, ride up feet deep, completely walled in the to my tent after having murdered the Making Use of Good Credit .- A shahwere flush with the rhino.

"Mr. J. " said he, "I believe about a year ago."

"Yes, sir," said the tradesman. smacking his lips and holding out his hand to your people, who have driven them to requive the ready. "I am glad you the woods without an ear of corn. I have come for I had almost forgotten it hope you will send parties to relieve bring makind!

myself."

Oh! I never forget these things, square; so I want you to lend me just The Red Sticks are nearly all killed. If brought to with soup of water from the old man will give him credit for truthmake it even money."

of Peru and Mexico.

General Jackson and Bloody Bill. ly opposite Wampler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half squares from the Courties "Bloody Bill." This chief was truly ment, one and a half squares from the Courties "Bloody Bill." This chief was truly and they were ever afterwards good fore, and he knew the offender must be in the room.

Was proposed to pay the quantum parties friends.

Was proposed to pay the quantum parties fore, and he knew the offender must be eight who were either present, or repeting the counties of the grant of the g intellect, great magnanimity of soul. clouded, but not obscured by his savage education and habits. He moved with a dignified, graceful and courtly bearing, not only in his favorite home, the His remains a household word in Virginia. His proportions were symmetrical, get and was a wagoner in the French war.

His proportions were symmetrical, get Tall, muscalar, and inneed to all hardpowerful, sinewy and agile. He pos-sessed those virtues which would have His vices were those of his ruce, vindictive ferocity, unsparing and undying hate of the whites.

Wentherford led a thousand warriors against Fort Miums in the summer of 1813. Falling upon the garrison, hel took it by surprise, and after a gallant resistance, slew the whole party, consisting of several families and a military force. It was this event which had drawn Jackson from his civil pursuits, into his first Indian campaign. The descriptions of that bloody massacre great-played his usual courage and address, was never known to fail, he said to him: was never known to fail, he said to him: was never known to fail, he said to him: the kettle in the dark for a few minutes.

Weatherford encountered a strong force under General Claiborne, at another from grey horse?" "Yes, sir," was the "All done, gentlemen?"

Was set to so many parts that you was set to so many parts that you would hardly have known it, and it came out the next day in all the pride, before the election. On his return he from grey horse?" "Yes, sir," was the "All done, gentlemen?"

Was set to so many parts that you would hardly have known it, and it came out the next day in all the pride, before the election. On his return he found a letter enclosing a ten dollar bill the pride of the lection of the letter enclosing a ten dollar bill the pride of the lection of the lection of the letter enclosing a ten dollar bill the pride of the lection of last. Weatherford discovered that his tree, cut away the interfaced branches men had deserted him, and were pass with his hatchet, (this was a part of ing over in the boats to the other side their variegated armor) rested his rifle of the river, leaving him alone amid his in a sure place, watched his opportunity, folks." enemics. As soon as he perceived his and as soon as Gen. Praser had in his situation, he put spurs to a splendid animated movements come within a situation, he put spurs to a spicular grey charger of unsurpassed activity and flectness, which he always rode in lattle, and coursing along the bank of the Alabama, came to a ravine, where That fall decided the day. The enemy the Alabama, came to a ravine, where fifteen feet above the surface of the ammortal. But Morgan, the rough leaped the dauntless chief, and both rider and charger sunk out of sight be- ilways said it troubled him, because it neath the waves. Soon, however, they looked so much like a kind of assassinations again, the chief grasping the mane lion of a brave and noble officer, though black like those of the rest of the combut unfortunately, in marrying the laily of his horse with his left hand and firm- rallant as that officer was, he had placed pany. ming boldly forward, he gained the op-A Spring Morning.

posite bank of the river, and shouting a small way that Nelson fell on the deck.

To walk abroad among rural scenery loud defiance at his foes, plunged into a the Victory. The slave facts takes can out-posts. Some soldiers, of whom indies pantaloons. Inspired with a turer, who had likewise been engaged he politely inquired for lackson's where- lov of fan which seldom affected him, in the hunt.—This retrest was gladly A fot of backwoodsmen were assem- shouts gave him unshiftsfactory, rude re- he inquired, "Why are you, my dear, taken possession of by Felton, the hun-bled and long since, in a tavern "Out plies, which sorely tried the temper of clike the evil adversary spoken of in ter, who had not occupied it but a few West," and were relating the largest the fiery chief, when a grey-headed man Scritter?" Of course she was unable minutes, when, looking through a crevice thind of agricultural years. After a pointed to the General's marquee, and to iscover any resemblance. "Be- of his shelter, he discovered, not more cie, who had but lately returned from back upon his revilers, and rode up to skep, you soced the tares." the besutiful region, the prairies of IL the tent, where, suddenly checking his ginois; distriled the wonder, if not the borse, he discovered the treacherons credelity of his heavers, by relating the Big Warrior standing before him .most thorough manner with the kernels! women and children at Fort Mimms?" Assuming an attitude of fearless defiance, folding his arms with the resigby genteel young man entered a trades | nation of a hero, Weatherford replied. man's store the other day, with his hands | "General Jackson, I am not afraid of crammed in both pockets, as if they you. I fear no man, for I am a Creek warrior. I have nothing to ask for myself. You can kill me if you desire. I am indebted to you sixty-two and a But I came to beg you to send for the half cents, cash borrowed somewhere women and children of the war party who are starving in the woods. Their fields and cribs have been destroyed by nave come, for 1 had almost forgotten it them. I tried in vain to prevent the myself."

The year forget these things," massere of the women and children at them answered tribe state of matri- may think this is a more story—a said the youngster, "I like to have all "Fort Minnes. I am now done all them youngster," The baseline when the temper fainted and was hunting years, but all who know the seven and a half more, which will I could fight your any longer I would spring of the year. most heartily do so. Send for the women and children; they never did you these words, several persons of the After the disastrous battle of the crowd that had gathered around the Horse Shoe, the broken spirited chiefs chief exclaimed, "Kill him, kill him." American Statesman, was a very humorof the Red Sticks, who had been dis- General Jackson commanded silence. persed over the country, crept singly, and in an emphatic manuar said." Any or in small squads, into Gen. Jackson's man who would kill as brave a man as charette, not far from his native town, He then invited Weatherford to slight, the village of _____. In the har-room ation, at Ghent, of that treaty of peace must stand here; that actor there—it The last to stoop to this degracation drank with him a glass of brandy, and were about twenty persons, who called to which I have just alluded, a festival was his will. was the famous half-breed Indian chief, entered into cheerful conversation with out to him to discover a thief. One of or banquet, or it may have been a ball, William Weatherford, familiarly known him under the General's marquee .- the company, it appeared, had a watch was about to take place, at which it

> Reminiscence of Gen. Morgan. The name of Daniel Morgan, the celebrated commander of the Virginia rifleby one British officer, and severely pun-lshed by another in the name of King the to ve Goorge. He vowed vengeance, and biggest cockerill you've got." kept his vow. At the opening of the Bonilace went to the barn, and soon described. They were fairly at their Revolution, he raised a battalion of riflement, and drilled them to perfection.—

Boniface went to the barn, and soon wit's ends. They had never imagined that they should have scores of this sort in soul out farther up the stage. Revolution, he raised a pattangou of rince men, and drilled them to perfection.—
They spurned the bayonet, and relied on the deadly aim of the rifle. He used the inverted kettle, and the lump blown in despair. At last they bethought them, in a happy moment, that there to say the business of his men was to kill, not to be killed. At the battle of "Now, gentlemen, I don't suppose "Now, gentlemen, I don't suppose against the Americans by reason of the against the Americans by reason of the will erow when the offender touches extraordinary skill and energy of Gen. the bottom of the kettle with his hands. scriptions of that bloody massacre great- Fraser with his Scotch division, he re- Walk around in a circle, and the cock by excited his ardent and sympathetic solved to resort to the only measure will make known the watch stenler.— Ich was solved without further delay. Iowing, which is done nature, and no doubt gave vigor and conceivable to arrest the tide of liattle. The innocent need not be afraid, you the colored boy whistled it, and before A clergyman in determination to the measures employ—that threatened to overwhelm them.— ed by him to punish such atrocities.

After several fights, in which he dismarksman in his command, whose aim and carry out the joke, walked around was set to so many parts that you but an honest, well-meaning man, was and carry out the joke, walked around would hardly have known it, and it absent from his flock for a few min. "holy ground" of the Indians, on the reply of the soldier. Morgan rejoined Alabama river, where a florce and pro- with an almost faltering voice: "Then tracted conflict cusued. Fighting to the do your duty." Murphy ascended a soon gave way, and Saratoga became soldier, was a man of tender feelings. low who hasn't held up his hands."

and he almost wept at the deed, and "who has my old hove let's tal limself there to be shot at, and was enraged in shooting others. It was in a about him-scarch him!"

his youth, was familier with the no- thief. ers in that momentum period. ing stendfastly (as in the custom) up tomirds the choir, saug-"Oh! Sale Sale Bale Sal-evation

Come down from ou high! Then the women in the choir-the vote ice verki." The whole house burst ato a rour, and not knowing what The whole house it-meat, greens asked his right hand f darneoparliamentary, rules!

After a dristening at a church in Southwerk, while the minister was maksay, "It me se, this is the thirtieth?" -"Thitieth!" xclaimed the indignant mother, indeed t is only the eleventh!" the monh.

A bw day ago, a teacher asked and oft as the sentinel was killed, a little by the illowing question : "Into that state did the fall of Adam an old man. He still lives upon Briery Subjet for debating Club :-- If The potato is a well known native any hirm, but kill me if the white poed a man had a wisdy bear by the tail, the Be mild to those who are thy defer and Mexico. The want it!" At the conclusion of would it bepolity to hold fast, or let go? pendants—lie not arrogant.

Star.

A New Way to Detect a Thief. ous and Jorose personage.

As he was once journeying in Massaforest, but even among the haunts and that State 1 Lessayman by birth he great bruss kettle was placed in the mid- of course, not to be overlooked; and ships, he was fond of adventure, famed ing to take off the bristles of no critsessed those virtues which would have for intense during and hair-breadth estate of the brustles of no critical states of the brustles of no critical states of the conductor, what is that? Where the preparations looking too much like the preparations looking the preparations looking the preparations looking the preparations look "Go to your barn, and bring me the

Saratoga, seeing that the day was going the thief is here, but if he is, he rooster dle-do!

"Bring us a light." A light was brought as ordered. "Now all hold up your hands, good

One held up his hands after another -they were of course, black, from com-

"All-black?" "A-ll-don't know; here's one fel-"ih, ha, my old boy! let's take a ter. The lady herself might be "black

"You'll find your watch concealed you marry her Tribe. Little free and correspondent of the New York Jour- the trap that was set for the discovery during your lifetime, with such regular

And so it proved. This fellow, not your kinsmen keep dropping in on you, al of Commerce) were communicated to of the thief, had kept alonf from the ket lity, that you may be said to pass a large bent from Morgan himself, and who, of the rooster should proclaim him as a perating state of chronic hospitality cess has endowed you with a little army

As the hands of all the others were blackened, the whiteness of his own of black satelites and blood retainers Profine Music.-A friend of ours, of course showed that he dared not of Monongalia was bounded upon the East by Maryland-when the trusty rifle was the only defence for the " nale face "-a hunter of Monongalia left his.

> A Virginia Sketch. Many years ago, when the old county

for mame. The day was not pleasant, and after lowing anecdote sent in by a friend, strolling for hours over the rough peaks will illustrate :- Old Billy G. had at-A story is told of a grave divine caught miles from his rude home in a with many others, he was "converted" steld, A. Y. wild cat quietly lounging upon a log.

making a desperate effort to stand still, "so I did, Jeemes, and would 'a bin a good Baptis' if they hadn't a treated me so everlastin' mean at the Skell you sould the tares.

Felton, immediately primed his gun water. Didn't you never hear about to be the largest framed ox in the world, water. Didn't you never hear about to be the largest framed ox in the world, and taking deliberate sim at the superime of that Family.—A man whose afresh, and taking deliberate sim at the superime of the largest framed ox in the world, and weight, though far from fat, 4,200 and the following language.

The old rife did its I'll tell you bout it. You see, when we houldn't want to shouldn't wint to be the largest framed ox in the world, and the world, and the was stag-"Ah! Bill Weatherford," exclaimed gerig from the excessive weight of a work well, and down tumbled the cat. cum to the haptisin' place, thar was me While gathering the crop from one of Rig Warrior, "have we got you at last?" brick in his hat, being asked if he was a Felton reloaded his gun and was sur un' old Jenks, the rich old Squire, war and is 14 feet in length from stem to those relebrated thousand acre fields. The fearless chief cast a giance of inone of the ears fell point downwards to time he was more careful in taking alm, I didn't mind that much, as I thought Vin Vocc - A green member of the and when the smoke cleared away the 'twould be jest as good when I cam; so brokk Lerislature, when the elec-Nebrska Legislature, when the elected this time a futal shot. In a few der, he raised him up mitry keerful, and tion f the assistant clerk came up, manutes the rifle was reloaded, and be- wiped his face and led him out. Then calledont, "Ir. Speaker, I move we hold the wild cat occupying his usual cum my turn, and instead of lifting me place on the log! "Nomething wrong," out like he did the Squire, he gave me thought the hunter, and after examining one slosh, and left me crawlin' about man int was lot in order, adding that again." "Bang?" went the gun, the din't kniw anything about those and down tumbled the cat. "Guess and down tumbled the cat." his gun carefully, he concluded to "try ou the bottom, like a d-d mud tar- very musical and well sustained tone. you won't get up this time," said Felton, and after waiting some time to see, Fel-

A Catch for a Forfeit.-Prevail on a person to promise that he will repeat from an English house. three sentences after you exactly as you ing out the certificate, he happened to found on the opposite side from his shelter, three wild cats, weltering in their ing agreed to the proposal, say: 1. of Mr. Ellis, the old man in Henrietta, blood. Felton explains it by saying that the wild cats had found the carcass Smyrna are better. 3. That's not since April ist, when he cut his throat judgment will administer the laws with a judgment will a judgment ter, three wild cats, weltering in their mother, indeed t is only the eleventh."

of a deer near the log, and while one of right. The cutch is in the third senin an attempt to commit suicide, is bejustice and impartiality? We ask the nage. the gang was acting the sentry upon tence; instead of repeating it after you, coming of no little strangeness. Last the gang was acting the sentry upon stance; instead of repeating it actor you, the log, the rest were enjoying the feast; the party will most likely insist that he week he sat at the table with the family itleian, but as a citizen of Pennsylvania. another took his place. Felton is now those words used by yourself. Mountain, and keeps the rife as the men best? Ans.-Marry. (Mary.) when run to get out of the way. . . . self.

Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell

Introduction of Yankee Doodle into Macroady's Dying Spot. At the late Music Festival held in with stock actors. He annoyed them

Boston, Hon. Robert C, Winthrop delivexce dingly at rehearsals, by giving ered the address, in the course of which every man his particular place on the he related the following interesting his- stage, so that in the picture presented On one of the nights of his last engagement in New Orleans, when he was to play Hamlet, he was very particmusical compliment to all the sover- ular, at rehearant, in the disposition of eigns who were either present, or repetations at the full of the curtain. "Fasten all the doors of the room— resented on the occasion. The Sover- He had selected the most commanding and let no one leave it," said Mr. eign People of the United States—rep- place on the stage, well down to the Webster; "and here, landford, go and resented there, as you remember, by lights, and declared that there he intend-bring your wife's great brass kettle." Mr. Adams, Mr. Bayard, Mr. Clay, Mr. ed to die. It so happened that as Boniface did as commanded. The Jona. Russell, and Mr. Gallatin-were, the fatal moment was approaching, just after Hamlet had stabbed the king, forest, but even among the haunts and that State. A Jerseyman by birth, he in the circles of the white mun. His carly emigrated to the Virginia wilds, and sooty and smoky as the chimney the place called upon these commission on the spot selected by the philosophic ers to furnish him with our national Dane. The poison was burning in air. Our national air, said they, is Hamlet's veins; but still he found time Yankee Doodle. Yankee Doodle, said to say, sotto roce, to his step-father-"Back-back-I'm going to die there." posed? Can you supply me with the score? The perplexity of the Commissioners may be better conceived than

Smith China

The blood of outraged royalty was up, and the stabbed monarch replied: "I'm king, and I'll die where I please And Hamlet was compelled to let newspapers—all of which are supposed;

One of the Beasons.

them, in a happy moment, that there uibal chief's daughter, I am bound to say that although he might do worse

it is just possible that he might do bet perfection," and with shoes and stock-

But unfortunately, in marrying the laily easy parties of fifty or a hundred of and may chance to find that your Prin who much prefer exrousing in your no great reluctance to fighting you or your friends.-New Zealand Res

How Old Billy G. was Baptised.

tween Lazarus and Dives, as the fol-

We find the following instructive was a colored servant of Mr. Clay's, revelation in a late humber of the who like so many of his race was a first | Springfield (Massachusetts) Argus: rate whistler, and who was certain to "One of the reasons for the showe know Yankoe Doodle by heart. He of Fremont sermons in the last camwas sent for accordingly, and the prob-lem was solved without further delay. lowing, which is doubtless one of scores

"All done," was the cry—"where's hautbey, of drum, trumpet and cymbal, as a compensation for a Fremont sermon your crowing—we heard no cock-a-doo- to the edification of the Allied Sover- which he was requested to preach. The hautbey, of drum, trumpet and cymbal, as a compensation for a Fremout sermon eigns of Europe, and to the glorifica- occasion had pussed the test. Unlike tion of the United Sovereigns of Amer- thousands engaged in the sham republican cause, he was too honest to pocket lightened, the tendency seems to be the money without rendering an equiva- downward. I hope that the time is not Marrying a New Zealand Native Girl, lent, and therefore returned it to the Personally, I should have no object tempter.'

tion to espousing a New Zealand belle "It would be interesting to know how ing in contact with the soot of the old with a handsome dowry of wild pigs, many ten dollar fees were paid for postream and forest; but tastes differ, and litical sermons in the campaign of do evil, and learn to do better." for the benefit of any bachelor reader 1856."

Washington's Benevolence. -- Irving gives the following extract of a letter written by Washington just after the ings on (and the pipe hidden,) might Let the hospitality of the house, do these good offices.

who, though eager enough to fight your enemics, might now and then display day (a little at a time) until the whole of Briery Mountain, our hunter was tended a great revival, and, in common in abundance. C. G. Lin North Bloom > Maggota in Sheep .- Childlings Whitmore, with a considerable brick in his but; says that common honey applied to the in revocation of this order!" Mr. News with a considerable brick in his hat; says mut common money appared in recommon or recommon of the supreme "Hello, Uncle Billy," said the friend; heids of sheep afflicted with vermin, or ton at once appealed to the Supreme "I thought you had joined the church?" to the tails of lambs when docked, will Court, and that tribunal immediately in the supremental immediately in the supremental court, and that tribunal immediately in the supremental court, and the supremental > > stern! Well fatted it would weigh in the neighborhood of 5,000 pounds.

> > Cast Steel Bell .- The Collinsville Company of Collinsville, New York, have recently hung a cast steel bell in the tower of one of their buildings, which is perhaps the only one made of similar metal in this country. It weighs some It is thought superior to most bells of ordinary manufacture. The bell itself is a present to the Collinsville Company,

Fifty Days Without Food .- The case repeated the second sentence correctly, and partook of soup, which seemed to forgetting his promise to repeat only issue from the wound in his throat, but | Will our friends give it their ariention apparently satisfied his hunger.

has quit preaching, and her church at was troubled with the toothache, de-a Judge to deprive a citizen of the rights South Butler, N. Y., has been closed. terminen to have an old offender extract- he had sequired by the hard inflored have Reason—she has been blessed with a ed; but there being no dentist near, be sewn brains and muscle? well for all the light to all the bear of the second seco fullness and integrity. - Morgantown little responsibility! Her hasband de resolved to do the joh himself: whereserves the public thanks.

Tesoived to do the jou numbers: Where upon he filled the excavation with power of Gibson' truly said that the best der, but being afraid to touch it off, he and most important part of a characteristic part a slow match to it, lighted is, and reducation' is that which he refer to the characteristic part a slow match to it, lighted is, and reducation' is that which he refer to the characteristic part of the characteristic pa

Crime! Crime! Crime, oh! black and damnable crime what form will you resolve yourself into next. It is not enough for mangraded man, who has descended beneath the level of brutes—to perpetrate vice of the deepest the; but icombit lovely gentle woman must sten forward and participate in these vices-use the as sassin's knife, stain her hunds with the blood of her fellow being rob, and pick the pockets of one another. In News York city there are now six women in carcerated, charged with the highest, crime in the catalogue of human guilt murder! But a short time ago, in the same city, several women were arrested. for picking the pockets of ladies, and obtaining considerable sums of money. while at the altar seeking religion, in one of the Methodist churches. These, crimes have been committed by America can born women, who have lived all their, lives under the sound of the Gornel. christian societies, schools, leetuzes and to be elevating and harmonizing influences of this bonsted age. What is the cause of this? There is, a dreadful responsibility resting somewhere. Does the pulpit reionia with political anathematizing, instead of prophetic protests against these vices? I fear they do, to some extent, his such bolities cal preachers as Theodore Parker and his Black Republican negro-worshiping!

clan. Are "christian associations". arenas of wrangling, bigotry and bitterness? Perhaps those "Free-love societies" could answer this question.

Be this as it may, there is something rotten in Denmark. Instead of increase ing in morality, as we grow more enfar distant when there will be a re-action, and when the people-especially

Wilmot as a Judge. The National Defender, a Fillmore pacommencement of the Revolution, from per published at Norristown, Ps., in-Boston, to his manager at Mount forms its readers of a certain matter. connected with the judicial career of (Mount Vernou,) with respect to the David Wilmot, which has hitherto est poor, be kept up; let no one go hungry caped our notice, but which should away. If any of this kind of people be made known to every voter in the should be in want of corn, supply their State of Pennsylvania, before he goes to necessities, provided it does not en-courage them to idleness; and I have no objection to your giving my money in cumstances, says the Defender: are charity to the amount of forty or lifty briefly these: In a case of high tradicing in pounds a year, when you think it well |Susquehanna county, Judge Wilmot sitbestowed. What I mean by having no bestowed. What I mean by having no ting as Examiner, Nahum Newton, Esq. be done. You are to consider that a practicing lawyer of that county, was a neither myself nor wife is in the way to subpæned as a witness. He aboyed the call, but alleged that he was misinform! ed as to place, and again received notice Trimming Grape Vines. For many to be present at a future day. Before years we have raised grapes by the time specified he was called to all bushel from a single vine, and our frim-the time specified he was called to an ming is done in the following manner. Indicating county on urgent professions. The first week in July we commonce business, and he informed Judge Willald and cut back to the second leuf or bad mot of the fact by note. On his return Poor people have a hard time in this of the present season's growth. Have an attachment was served upon him for Poor people have a hard time in this of the present season a growing an attuchment was served upon this little world of ours. Even in matters a sharp knife and trim a portion every contempt of Court, he was arrested, his vine has been gone over. Autumn, deposition taken, and at the April term to winter and spring pruning are avoided; of Court thereafter, Mr. Newton was but we have large, nice, smooth grapes stripped of his professional character by the following remarkable order: "The Court order that Nahum Aguton he suspended from practicing as an Attorney in de of Murshall, Calloun county, Michigan, this Court, until such time as reinstated by a

> A Rile of Lies Fat.—A live dx.about of the injured man to the rights of which as big as an elephant, is on exhibitionat this "modern Jeffries" had deprived to Springfield, Massachusetts. It is said him. In speaking of Wilmot's proand weighs, though far from fat, 4,200 ceedings in this matter, the Supremo wight, at the shoulder, girts 10 feet, RECORD SQUILL OF MISTAKES CANNOT BE to SUSTAINED IN THIS COURT,"-a rebuketob that, we venture to say, no other Company mon Pleas Judge at present on the Bench in Pennsylvania has ever receir. ha

> Is it not necessary, therefore, to warn not the peeple against supporting a mun like this a tyrant who, if he only had 700 pounds, and gives forth a heavy, the power, would rule his fellow citizens with a rod of iron? Is not this sufficient to make men stand aloof from this candidate for Governor, who could not even keep a correct Record as Judge of a Court of Common Pleas? What gnaranty have we that a man who thus onestion in sober earnest-not as a polymer and solve for themselves the question " whether they can support a minuster ; Pat's Caution.—An Irishman, who Governor who made use of his nower as a