The Law of Trees.

At a recent meeting of the New York Farmers' Club the subject of trees along line forces, overhanging the grounds of a neighbor, was discussed and the following important facts elicited:

Mr. Bergen wished to know if there wis wish to prevent injury of trees growing upon his neighbor's land and extending, the limbs over and the roots under the fence, greatly to the injury of the neighbor's land. Mr. Lawton wished to know if there was any law to brevent a person from planting trees on his! wa land, quite up to the line, where he roots and shade will both be inarious.

Another member wished to know who owned the fruit of overhanging!

Solon Robinson answered that quesion. It is now a well settled law, by order, every style of French TETE-A-TETES, everal judicial decisions, that if a tere in Plant, Hair, Cloth or Brocatelle. round of my neighbor, the fruit benigs to me, and I may enter upon his Broanteller and for the purpose of catherine it French Full Stuff Carred PARLOR and for the purpose of gathering it provided I do no damage beyond what may be necessary in carefully gathering the fruit.
At the same time, it is, equally good aw that my neighbor may cut off all overhanging limbs, and all roots that grow in his ground; but while he perniits them to grow, I am to enjoy the lumetit. Judge Livingston, the chairman, confirmed this view of the case.
