39TH YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.: MONDAY, JUNE, 29, 1857.

TERMS OF THIS PAPER.

The Republican Compiler in published every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STABLE, at $1,75 per annum if paid in advance $2,00 per annum if not paid in advance. No subsption discontinued, unless at the option of the publisher, until all arresrages are paid. Advertisements inserted at the usual rates. Job Printing done, neatly, cheaply, and with dispatch.

Office in South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wampler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half squares from the Courthouse, "Courties" on the sign.

Andependence Aay.

To the American Flag.

When Freedom from her mountain height, Unfarled her standard to the sir, She tore the store robe of night,
Add set the stars of glory there?
She mingled with its gorgoous dyes? The milky baldric of the skies, And striped its pure celestial white, With streakings from the morning light! Then, from her mansion in the sun, She called hor eagle bearer down, And gare into his mighty hand. The symbol of her chosen land!

Majestic monarch of the cloud! Who rear'st aloft thy regal form, To hear the tempest trumping loud, And see the lightning lances driven, When strides the warrior of the storm,

And rolls the thunder-drum of heaven! Child of the sun! to thee 'tis given To guard the banner of the free-To hover in the sulphur smoke. To ward away the lattle-stroke, And bid its blendings shine afar, Like rainhows on the cloud of war,

The harbinger of victory !

Flag of the brave! thy folds shall fly, The signs of hope and triumph high! When speaks the signal trumpet's tone, And the long line comes gleaming on, Ere yet the life-blood, warm and wet, Has dimm'd the glistening bayonet-Each soldier's eye shall brightly turn, To where the meteor glories burn, And as his springing steps advance, Catch war and vengeance from the glance! And when the cannon's mouthing | loud Heave in wild wreaths the battle shroud. And gory sabres rise and fall! Like shoots of flame on midnight pall! These shall thy victor glances glow,

And cowering foce shall fall beneath Each gallant arm that strikes below That lovely messenger of death! Flag of the sear! on ocean's wave, iny star shall glitter o'er the brave. When death careering on the gale. Sweeps darkly round the bellied sail, And frighted waves rush wildly back. Before the broadside's reeling rack; The dying wanderer of the sea Shall look at once to heaven and thes, And smile to see thy splenders fly, In triumph o'er the closing eye.

Fing of the free heart's only home By angel hands to valor given! Thy stars have lit the welkin dome, And all thy bues were born in heaven; Forever finat that standard sheet!
Where breathes the fue but falls before us.

With freedom's soil beneath our feet, And freedom's banner streaming o'er us DRAKE AND HALLECK.

Declaration of Independence. IN CONGRESS.

Philadelphia, July 4, 1776. When, in the course of human events. it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have opinions of mankind requires that they of a civilized nation. should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that their hands, among these, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure amongst us, and has endeavored to these rights, governments are instituted | bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, aniong men, deriving their just powers the merciless Indian savages, whose from the consent of the governed; that, known rule of warfare is an undistinwhenever any form of government be- guished destruction, of all ages, sexes, comes destructive of these ends, it is the and conditions. right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, we have petitioned for redress, in the and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effeet their safety and happiness. Pru- acter is thus marked by every act which ments long established, should not be ruler of a free people. changed for light and transient causes; Nor have we been wanting in attenand, accordingly, all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed warned them, from time to time, of atto saffer, while evils are sufferable, than | tempts made by their legislature to exto right themselves by abolishing the tend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over systems of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is tions, all having, in direct object, the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world:

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. He has forbidden his Governors to nass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and, when so suspended, he has uttern neglected to attend to them. the decommodation of large districts of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, total- its own spirit."

people, unless those people would re-linquish the right of representation in DEPENDENT STATES, they have full power of Independence. finquish the right of representation in DEPENDENT STATES, they have full power the legislature; a right inestimable to to levy war, conclude peace, contract bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, PENDENT STATES may of right do. and distant from the depository of their And, for the support of this declaration, public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his Divine Providence, we mutually pledge

He has dissolved representative houses and our mered honor. repeatedly, for opposing, with manly The foregoing declaration was, by firmness, his invasions on the rights of order of Congress, engrossed, and sign-

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the mean time, exposed to all the danger of invasion. Stephen Hopkins, exposed to all the danger of invasion William Elery. from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose, obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration William Flyd, hither, and raising the conditions of Philip Livingston, new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers. He has made judges dependent on John Hart.

his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of offitheir substance. He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislature.

cers to harses our people, and eat out

He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power. He has combined, with others, to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation: For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment, for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world: For imposing taxes on us without our

the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offences: For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries. so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering, fundamentally, the powers of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures. and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us. He has plundered our seas, rivaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to comconnected them with another, and to plete the works of death, desolation, assume, and the powers of the earth, and tyranny, already begun, with cirtue separate and equal station to which the law stature and of nature's God scarcely paralleled in the most barbarentitle them, a decent respect to the

> He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by

> He has excited domestic insurrections.

In every stage of these oppressions laying a foundation on such principles, most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose chardence, indeed, will dietate that govern- may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the tion to our British brethren. We have forms to which they are accustomed .- us. We have reminded them of the But, when a long train of abuses and circumstances of our emigration and set. they yet live, and live forever. They tion. Here the Christian forgetful of a fresh cuticle of white gum pine bark. usurpations, pursuing invariably the tlement here. We have appealed to live in all that perpetuates the remem- the present, and absorbed in the past, same object, evinces a design to reduce their native justice and magnanimity, brance of men on earth; in the record- can resign himself to sad, yet soothing them under absolute despotism, it is and we have conjured them, by the ties ed proofs of their own great actions, in meditation. The few purple and crimtheir duty, to throw off such govern- of our common kindred, to disavow the offspring of their intellect, in the son flowers growing, about the roots of ment, and to provide new guards for these usurpations, which would inevitadeep engraved lines of public gratitude, the trees, will give ample food for contheir future security. Such has been by interrupt our connections and corand in the respect and homage of mantemplation, for they tell of the suffering the patient sufferance of these colonies, respondence. They, too, have been kind. They live in their examples; and ensanguined death of the Reand such is now the necessity which dear to the voice of justice and consan- and they live, and will live, in the in- deemer." constrains them to alter their former guinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce fluence which their lives and efforts, nhistory of repeated injuries and usurpa- the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in the affairs of men, not only in their Black Republicans will pounce upon peace, friends. Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the World for the is not a temporary flame, burning bright Walker's exploits, in feeding an army rectitude of our intentions, do, in the for a while, and then expiring, giving on dogs and jackasses. name, and by the authority of the good place to returning darkness. It is rathpeople of these colonies, solemnly publer a spark of fervent heat, as well as Colonies are, and of right ought to be, the common mass of human mind, so Mr. B., while alluding to the intimate fishing that for the Green Mountain that when it glimmers in its own decay, relations between the professions of the brooks.

them, and formidable to tyrants only. alliances, establish commerce, and to do
He has called together legislative all other acts and things which INDEto each other, our lives, our fortunes, ed by the following members:

JOHN HANCOCK. New Hampskire. John Adams, Robert Treat Paine. Josiah Barlett, Elbeidge Gerry.

Delaware. William Wipple, Matthew Troraton Cresar Rodney, George Read, Thomas M'Kean.

Francie Levis,

Robert Morris,

Benjamin Rush.

leorge Clyner,

James Smiti.

George Row.

George Taybr,

Samuel Adams,

Conneticut. Maryland. Samuel Chare, Roger Sheman, William Paca, Samuel Huntington. William Wlliams, Thomas Stone. Charles Carroll, of Ca Oliver Wolcott. rollum. Virginia.

George Wythe, Richard Henry Lee, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Harrison, New Jerney. Richard Suckton, Thomas Nelson, jun. Francis Lightfoot Loc Carter Braxton. Francis Horkinson, North Carolina. Abraham Oark. William Hooper, Pennagrania. Joseph Hewes, John Penn. South Carolina. Benjamin Franklin, Edward Rutledge, Thomas Heyward, just Thomas Lynch, jun. Arthur Middleton. Button Gwinnett, Lyman Hall, Mussachnetts Bay. George Walton.

> INTRACT FROM THE Speech of John Adams, fore the Amgress of 1776, on the passage of the Dolaration. Addressing John Hancock, the then Presdont, he saidthem see it, who saw their sons and eral and organized government be estheir brothers fall on the field of Bunker tablished in this province. Hill and in the streets of Lexington and Abraham Alexander, Adam Alexander, Concord, and the very walls will cry J. McKnitt Alexander, Charles Alexander, ent in its annual control of the out in its support.

"Sir, I know the uncertainty of human affairs, but I see, I see clearly James Harris, through this day's business. You and Wm. Kennon, I may not live to the time when this John Ford, Declaration, shall be made good; we may die; die colonists-die slaves-die, | it may be, ignominiously and on the scaffold: Beit so-beit so; if it be the seaffold: Beit so—be it so; if it be the John Quary, pleasure of Heaven that my country Hesekish Alexander shall require the poor offering of my life, the victim shall be ready at the appointed hour of sacrifice, come when that hour may; but while I do live. let me have a country, or at least the hope of a country, and that a free country. But whatever may be our fate, be assured, be assured that this Declaration will stand. It may cost treasure, and it may cost Hood, but it will stand, and it will richly compensate for both. Through the thick gloom of the present. | month of May, he says: I see the brightness of the future as the sun in heaven. We shall make this a bloom, and the garden in its aspects and glorious, an immortal day; when we associations, was better calculated than are in our graves our children will hon- any place I know, to soothe a troubled or it; they will celebrate it with thanksgiving, with bonfires and illuminations. On its annual return they will shed tears, copious, gushing tears, not of subection and slavery, not of agony and and of joy.

measure, and my whole heart is in it. All that I have, all that I am, and all living sentiment, and, by the blessing forever.

The Signers To the Declaration of Independence.

"They are no more—they are dead. and in the respect and homage of man- templation, for they tell of the suffering in the necessity, which denounces our their principles and opinions, now exerseparation, and hold mem, as we hold cise, and will continue to exercise, on York Atlas seems to think that the own country, but throughout the civil- Gen. WALKER for their next Presiden-We, therefore, the representatives of ized world. A superior and command- tial candidate, as FREMONT's requisites the United States of America, in General ing human intellect, a truly great man, of mule stakes and grasshopper pics, are

At the late celebration at Charlotte, Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, at which the distinguished Rev. Dr. Hawks, of New York, (born in North Carolina.) made the oration, the declaration of the 20th of May, 1775, was read. The following is a copy:

Resolved, That whosoever directly or idirectly abetted, or in any way, or manner countenance, the unchartered and dangerous invasion of our rights, as claimed by Great Britain, is an enemy to this country, America, and to the inherent and inclienable rights of trampled on our rights and liberties, and inhumanely shed the blood of American patriots at Lexington.

Resolved, That we do hereby declare ourselves a free and independent people, and, of right, ought to be a sovereign of our God and the general government of the Congress, to the maintainance of to each other our mutual co-operation, our lives, our fortunes, and our most saered honor. Resolved. That as we now acknowlaw or legal officer, civil or military, within the county, we do hereby ordain and adopt as a rule of life all and every can be considered as holding rights, membered it, when he was a lad, used privileges, and immunities or authorities to visit it. At that time it was a hillock therein. Delivered is the Hall of Independence, beseting conformably to these regulations, served to have materially increased in who had contrabandly got in under the The glover overcome with guilt, Read this Declaration at the head And that every member present of this circumference and altitude. The last canvass, stole away his orange, and shame and confusion, confessed his "Read this Declaration at the head of the army; every sword will be drawn from its scabbard and the solemn vow uttered to maintain it or perish on the bed of honor. Publish it from the pulpit; religios will approve it, and the love of religious liberty will cling around it resolved to stand with it matters of controversy, according to love of religious liberty will cling around it resolved to stand with it matters of said adopted laws, and to preserve love of religious liberty will cling around it resolved to stand with it matters of said adopted laws, and to preserve love of religious liberty will cling around it resolved to stand with it matters of controversy. it, resolved to stand with it or fall with peace, union, and harmony in said coun-five years before the fields could b it.—Send it to the public halls, proclaim ty; and to use every exertion to spread again used for the purposes of agricul-

> Hezekiah J. Balch. John Phifer. Richard Barry, Henry Down. Wm. Graham, Waightstill Avery, Benjamin Patton, Matthew McClure, Neil Morison, Robert Irvin, John Flennagin, David Reces. Richard Harris, Thomas Polk.

Gethsemane. Lieut. Lynch, of the United States Exploring Expedition to the River ordan and the Red Sea, in 1848, visited the Garden of Gethsemane about the

"The clover upon the ground was in mind. Eight venerable trees, isolated from the smaller and less imposing ones which skirt the Mount of Olives, form a conscerated grove. High above, on either hand, towers of a lofty mountain, distress, but of consolation, of gratitude, with a deep yawning chasm of Jehosaphat, between them. Crowning one of "Sir, before God, I believe the hour them is a living city; on the slope of has come; my judgment approves this the other is the great Jewish Cemetery

-City of the Dead. Each tree in the grove, cankered, and gnarled, and furthat I hope in this life, I am here ready rowed by age, yet beautiful and impresto stake upon it; and I leave off as I sive in its decay, is a living monument began, that live or die, survive or per- of the affecting scenes that have taken ish, I am for this declaration. It is my place beneath and around it. The Olive perpetuates itself from the root of of God, it shall be my dying sentiment the dying parent stem, the tree springs -independence now, and independence into existence. These are accounted one thousand years old. Under those of the preceding growth, therefore, the Savior was wont to rest; and one of the present may mark the very spot where sets without stopping. ne knelt, and prayed, and wept .- No cavilling doubt can find entrance here. But how little is there of the great and The geograpical boundaries are too disgood which can die! To their country tinet and clear for a moment's hesita-

An Available Candidate.-The New

small potatoes when compared with

Innocent Admission.—At a dinner of are absolved from all allegiance to the are absolved from all allegiance to the and finally goes out in death, no light chergy and the physician, in all serious teters, neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for next of all on fire, from the potent contract of singular fact that "when the doctor was a somewhat in playing the fool—but who had all on fire, from the potent contract of singular fact that "when the doctor was a somewhat in playing the fool—but who had all on fire, from the potent contract of singular fact that "when the doctor was a somewhat in playing the fool—but who had all on fire, from the potent contract of singular fact that "when the doctor was a somewhat in playing the fool—but who called the minister was sure to follow."

A Mountain which Grows. The volcanic mountain called Izalco, situated in the State of San Salvador, public, is truly funny, and, withal, nota ance, in 1790, or within the memory of visit to the circus: the last generation, has been in a state of incessant activity, and has gradually the circus, yesterday. By some missing a glover's shop in the outskirts of the circus, in little over eighty years, from a take, he got into the twenty-five cent city of London, and purchased a pair of hillock but a few feet higher than the department, and in a moment he was gloves for her immediate wear, observsurrounding plain, to a peak 3,200 feet borne away from his wife and children ing at the same time, that she was on in height, and is still growing. There is, by the crowd. After a few moments her way to Burnett-that she had lest unfortunately, no written record by he regained his wife, who had just had her gloves at her friend's house where eye-witnesses to the convulsion in her pocket picked of the bureau drawer she had called, and that she was apprewhich the Izalco peak originated. The keys and her porte-monnaie, and had just dropped the youngest Sniffles beack for them. The glover fitted on tween the seats. Sniffles took the rest the gloves; and the lady, after paying their parents, who witnessed the catas- of the family into the fifty-cent depart- for them from a purse well stocked with Resolved, That we, the citizens of trophe) is this:-There was near the ment at once, and then returned after bank notes, stepped into her carriage Mecklenburg county, do hereby dissolve site of the present Izalco, an extinct vol- the missing Sniffle. After an arduous and proceeded on her journey. She the political bonds which have connected cano, called the Santa Anna. Stretch- search, he found the little Sniffle lying had searcely reached Finchly common, as to the mother country, and hereby ing away from this was a fertile plain, on its back, half-suffocated with tanabsolve ourselves from all allegiance to the British crown, and aligner all politically politically at that time a cattle farm. Toward bark, under the seat, and a large dog riage, and demanded her money. He the British crown, and aligner all politically poli cal connexion, contract, or association estate were alarmed by subterranean the Sniffle was good to eat. After driv- had no intention on her person-in the with that nation, who have wantonly noises and shocks of earthquakes. ing off the canine animal, he seized the surrendered her property, it was all he These continued, with increased violence, till the 23d of February following, whon, with a fearful report, the agony for her lost darling. He found and he was determined to remove the earth opened about half a mile from the scats for the family, but was obliged pecuniary wants or perish. The lady the love of country and fire of freedom | ture. The explosions were so heavy as | ers, who economised his time by peddling | papers, the discovery was omitted; and it there, let them hear it who, heard the first roar of the enemy's cannon, let throughout America, until a more gentle to shake the houses in the neighboring throughout America, until a more gentle to shake the houses in the neighboring throughout America, until a more gentle to shake the houses in the neighboring throughout America, until a more gentle to shake the houses in the neighboring throughout throughout throughout throughout the same throughout the shake the houses in the neighboring throughout throug villages of Izalco and Sonsonate. Since then the peak has gone on in the even drink, when a glass of it was obtained. found among the papers alluded to. tenor of its way, ejecting, mainly, ashes

This having been poured into Paragon's Even in the private memorandum, the and occasionally masses of stone, and, system, his spirits returned with the diby night, lighting up the surrounding lute cream of tartar, containing a fletion omitted; and the secret, in that parties. country to such an extent that the natives have, in consequence, called it "El Faro del San Salvador"-The Lighthouse of San Salvador. Mental Excitement .- Bad news weakmuscles spring to execute. Powerful rescued with a long pole with a hook, emotion often kills the body at a stroke. and was finally dragged out in a limp, Chilo, Diagoras and Sophocles died of dishelothy condition. joy at the Grecian games. The news of a defeat killed Philip V. The door-children insisting upon being permitted averted. keeper of Congress expired upon hearing of the surrender of Cornwallis. Eminent public speakers have often died in the midst of an impassioned burst of eloquence, or when the deep the infidelity of her children's pa; Mr. emotion that produced it suddenly subsided. Largrave, the young Parisian, died when he heard that the musical adjudged to another. A Model Certificate.—The following certificate outdoes the "Panaceas," "syrnps," and "Magnetic" nostrums. which usually work such astonishing miracles in their cares upon conceited and credulous people:

Dear Doctor; I will be 175 years old next October. For 94 years I have gale of wind just after leaving port on been an invalid, unable to stir, except the 9th of April, in which she shifted when moved by a lever; but a year ago her cargo and sprung a leak. After last Thursday I heard of the Granicular Syrup, I bought a bottle, smelt the becoming exhausted and discouraged, cork, and found myself a new man. I can now run twelve and a half miles an hour, and throw nineteen double somer- on assembled all hands. Taking out

Salve applied to a wooden leg, reduced just twelve o'clock; and the rate the a compound fracture in nineteen minutes, and is covering the limb with

A Good Remedy.—The Local editor of the Lynchburg Virginian publishes the following, and says he has tried it and found it to be a good remedy:

"To cure a pain in the breast, procure a well made silk or woolen dresswith an equally well constructed woman inside of it—and press close to the part effected. Repeat the application till the pain ceases. This receipt, when the directions are carefully observed. has rarely been known to fail to effect a cure. The medicine is found in almost every household, and may possibly cost

Trout Fishing in Vermont .- On Tuesday last nine gentlemen of Newbury "camped out," and secured six hundred lish and declare, That these United radiant light, with power to enkindle the Maine Medical Convention, the Rev. and forty-seven trout .- Pretty good get angry the moment they are told so.

A Family Visit to the Circus. The following, from the Buffalo Re-Central America, since its first appear- very incorrect picture of many a family Sniffles took his wife and children to hactenda dwellings, and great masses of himself to stand up and take a prome- gave him her purse and the desperado lava, stones and ashes, were ejected. nade seat, in consequence of the crowd. rode off. and self-government association, under the control of no power other than that creased since, and is yet annually added to buy him, and take him home for them that in the address of the highwayman, to by the masses of stones and ash- to play with-he was so funny, and she recognized the voice of the glover which independence we solemnly pledge es which are, day and night, ejected had such pretty trowsers. This Mrs. she had just before dealt with. This from the mountain. Dr. Moritz Wag- Sniffles promised to do; when Paragon conceit struck her so forcibly, that she

we are indebted for the only account of "nasty horse" too. (Paragon meant ture further over the heath. edge the existence and control of no its present appearance, as well as for aw or legal officer, civil or military, some interesting particulars of its past. Mrs. S. blandly consented, and told the knocked and gained admission, the history, obtained from some of the more children to be quiet, and when they glover himself opening the door. ancient residents of the neighborhood. wasn't looking at the interesting things, of our former laws, wherein, nevertheless, the crown of Great Britain never before Izalco came into the world—re- woman invelgled him—Mr. S. being when she exclaimed, "I am come for very susceptible.

When the beautiful little girl rode so evening on Finchly Common! of less than 500 feet in height, the cra- elegantly on horseback, the children his former command and authority, he which, it is said, the mountain was ob- tween the seats, when a dirty little boy, and trust to my humanity.

ing his pa again. The elder Sniffle, who had been standing up by a little brunette of a thing, ens the action of the heart, oppresses and confectionery, had given it to the frequently to make inquiries of the sol, the lungs, destroys the appetite, stops dark-complected young person, and, at digestion, and partially suspends all the time Paragon looked, was busy functions of the system. An emotion of chucking her under the chin, "unsight, shame flushes the face; fear blanches it; joy illuminates it; and an instant thrill electrifies a million of nerves. At this Mrs. S. looked, beheld, fainted, Surprise spurs the pulse into a gallop. and disappeared. She had dropped Lake Erie, and are going to turn it over Volition commands, and hundreds of down between the seats, and had to be

She was conveyed to the door, the to remain to see the "mu-ils," which their pa sternly refused to consent to. The family left in a wretched state of mind-Mrs. S. in a state of syncope at | with water." S. in a state of tremulous fear at the consequence of his affair; and the children glowing with indignation that they prize for which he had competed was were not permitted to remain until it was out. Altogether, the afternoon. terminated miserably; and Sniffles has forsworn circuses, except when he can attend solus.

Effects of Praying and Pumping .leaky condition, met with a very severe several days of hard pumping, the crew, notified the captain that they could not his watch, he looked at it and then at P. S -A little of your Alicumstotum the men, and said, coolly: "It is now ship is now leaking, I calculate we shall be in the other world about half past two. I am going below to say my the St. Lawrence: prayers," and went into his cabin. A consultation was soon held. One old than pray, as he understood it better. In a few minutes the Captain heard the In a few minutes the Captain heard the locality. A similar, or probably the pumps going again as lively as ever, same serpent, has been seen within the and they did not cease going, except at short intervals, until the ship arrived at > annual festival in Washington City, the water, and pursued the boat till it got following were among the regular within a few rods, compelling them to toasts:

The Constitution of the United States. -Set up by wise and patriotic founders, imposed on the hearts of the people, and locked up in their best affections. The Declaration of Independence.

net. Tobacco is a native of Virginia.

A Woman Can Hosp & Secret The following authentic story will invalidate the often repeated charge against woman, that "she caunot keep secret:"---

Some years since, a woman called at

After he was gone, and her fright had somewhat subsided, the lady imagined, ner was the first European to make (in Sniffles (Paragon is the youngest) want- ordered her servant to drive buck to 1855) a personal visit to Izalco, and to him ed to know if his ma wouldn't buy the town-not choosing, she said, to ver lady desired to speak to him in private. my purse of which you robbed me this

The glover was confounded: and the Resolved. That it is further decreed ter or mouth being much more extensive | went absolutely mad with delight, and lady proceeded-"It is of no use to dethat all, each, and every military officer than now. There have been since 1780 Paragon, in endeavoring to make a ny it. I am convinced and your life is in this county is hereby reinstated in three great cruptions, after each of jump at her to kiss her, slipt down be at my mercy. Return me my property

> "ice co' lemonade" between the acts, it was not till recently that a minute acpassed by with a pannier full of the count of this singular transaction was of lemon peel, and he commenced watch. lar, rests with the lady in the grave.

> An old woman who lived near the frontier during the last war with supposed himself out of sight of his Great Britain, and possessed a marvel flock, and had purchased some oranges ous propensity to learn the news, week whom she had frequently saluted before,

"What's the news?" "Why good woman," said he "the Indians have fixed a crow-bar under and drown the world!"

"Oh, mercy, what shall I dol" and away she ran to tell her neighborhood of the danger, and inquired of the minister how such a calamity might be "Why" said he, "you need not be slarmed we have our Maker's promise that he will not again distroy the world; "I know that," returned the old lady hastily, "He's nothing to do with it, it's them plagued Indians."

A Magnanimous Husband .- Not long since, a widow one of those whom we are in the habit of calling well preserved, by name Madame R, yielding to the ardent solicitudes of one of the young literary men of Paris, married him. On returning from the church The ship Senator, which arrived at this and the mayor's office, the lady took port from Liverpool last week, in a her husband saide, and said to him. "Pardon we, my dear, for I have deceivant ed you?" "In what?" said said the young man of letters, much troubled. "Yes, I told you that I had 200,000 a francs, and-" "Well, and have not? Never minda.

it is all the same to me." "No. that is not it. exactly—I have 2.000.000.

The husband forgave her.

A Monster Serpent in the St. Lawrence: -The Brockville (Canada) Moniton, of ... Saturday, thus alludes to the scrpent of A

"Some time since we published a lett " ter from a correspondent in Mallery. fellow declared he had rather pump town, relative to an enormous water serpent seen at different times in that.14 past few days, about three miles above Brockville, by Mr. L. Parker, of Three-Mile Bay, and D. Ladd. The serpent ... Capital Sentiments .- At a printers' raised its body some six feet out of the make for the shore as rapidly as possible. They describe the serpent as being over thirty feet long, and of a lightish color. It was also seen at a distance by 14. the crew of the Protection."

Good standing matter—a proof sheet, free from errors, and first-rate copy for the setters up of Republics.

Woman.—May her virtues occupy more space than her skirts, and her faults be of a smaller type than her bon-they couldn's garrote me." Admiring red friend—"Well, I should never large had me so much presence of mind."