Ten Comminal & Comminal Monday Ten Comminal & Comminal Monday mirrainal of Minay - Statist & Minay amum if paid shrichly it / 10/18 cs - 32,00 per annum if paid shrichly it / 10/18 cs - 32,00 per annum if paid shrichly it / 10/18 cs - 32,00 per tion discontined, unless al the option of the publisher, until all strengages are paid. ABVERTIPHERTY Insariod, at the usual rates.

Jas PRINTING dome with noninger and dispatch, and at moderate prices. OFFICE in South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wimpler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half squares from the Court House-"Complian" on the sign.

The Poet's Corper.

THE PASS OF DEATH

It was a marrow pass, Watered with human team, For death had kept the outer gate

Almost six thousand years. And the ceaselnes, tread of a world's feet ... Was over in my ears---Thronging, jostling, harrying by,

As if they were only born to die. A stately king drew hear,

This narrow pass to tread, Around him hung a goergrous robe, And a crown was on Head;

But Death, with a look of withering scorn, Arrested him and said. "In humbler dress must the king draw near."

"For the crown & the purple are notions here." Next came a man of waalth,

And his eye was proud and bold, And he bere in hes band a lengthy sqrull, Telling of sums untold :

But Death, who careth nut for twak, Uareth as little for gold-"Here that scroll I cannot allow,

For the gold of the rich is powerless now." Another followed fast. And a book was in his hand.

Filled with the flashes of burning thought That are known in many a tand; But the child of genius quilled to hear

Death's pitiless demand-"Here that book cannot enter with thee, For the bright flash of genius is nothing to De." Next came a maid m fair, !

With that eye so daeply bright, That stirs within you strange sweet care. Should you shoet on a summer elight; But death, are the gentle male passed this, Seatched sway its fighted bull to. it :

"Beauty is power in the world," he sales. "But what can ff do in the Pass of Death?"

A youth of sickly migh Fallowed in thoughtful mood, Whose heart was filled with love to God And the early brotherburgd;

Denth folt he could not queach the heart ... That lives for other's good-

"I ous," sold he, the power of lest; - I mitt let'ir pedeta the renion hosel"

" MARREN AGAIN."

"You don't mean so-you don't really mean that Dors West is married again ?" cried Mrs. Mills, as she came his friend.

again?" cried Mrs. Mills, as she camp, his friend. In the front gate, both hands up-his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of our ride, we camp his friend. In the course of her unsimely end, heart-sick and sad, he turned back, as changed and better prime, file has set heart-sick and sad, he turned back, as changed and better prime, file has set heart-sick and sad, he turned back, as heart-How I pitied her, and what a loved violets, and don't you remember, fram she made at the time, I really Alice, he used to twine them in my hair. thought she never would get over Oh, to think now, he will never see vania. Ascertaining the address of her it; but she has done herself up for them any more!" and smid her guick father, they came on to Butyrus, Ohio, sobs, her head aank down on my should as fast as steam could carry they. me, now." I opened my lips to speak, and then. Words cannot paint the raptures of the on second thought, I closed them again. er. And I could only tell her there were old man as he clasped to his bosom a fairer violets in the land to which Harry daughter he had mourned as dead for There would be no use in defending my dear friend, Dora' West, to such a persix long years. Explanations were had gone. son, and yet, do not misunderstand me, made, all was forgiven, and after pass-Mr. Lee did not speak, but I, saw the pender; Mrs. Mills was a kind-hearted ing a fow weeks of analloyed happiness glauce he bent down on her a moment, and I knew that his heart was stirred as the residence of the girl's, father, with something more than pity for Dors they returned to their home in the sort of woman, and would have made almost any sacrifice for a friend or neigh-Lor who was in trouble; but she was West. West. narrow-miniled. and, of course, she was She did not. I know, suspect this for Black Vertion. guilty of all that vast burden of petty sins and little uncharitablenesses, which some time, and thought it was only for The legend concerning the color of Harry's sake that he called so often, Adam and Eve's skin, and the causes are the Indigenous fruit of this quality. showed her a thousand little nameless of the different varieties of shude and So I only replied, "Oh, Mrs. Mills, you don't understand Dora as I do; but I haven't time to discuss the matter attentions, and was so thoughtful of her | complexion now observable among men happiness. Well, the truth came out at last; themselves: The following, which takes Dora West was still in her youth, and it for granted that all the inhabitants now, Good morning." And watking slowly down that little grassy road, my she had one of those clinging, vine like of the sorth before the time of the del thoughts went back to a night two natures that need something to tean age were black, and attributes these years ago, that had burned itself into upon ; in short, love was with her "# varieties to the sons of Neah, is new to iny memory. It was evening, in the early October, great necessity; she could not walk us, and may, perhaps, smuas some of through life alone. "He says he will take Harry's place Marabouts, "was entirely black. His and the rain was fulling slow and lan-guidly outside.—The day had been a languid one, too, with a kind of wistful. to me. Shall I give it to him, Alieo?" | three sons were also quite as black as whispered Dora. 11 bluergray sky, and a slight chill in the still air which was a far off whisper of And I lifted up her face and looked knew his life would soon end, he show- ni-which compresses its egress from at it. ed his sons a pit partly filled with wathe winter. "Yes, darling, this new fore is sent ter, which he said had the wonderful off Cape Hatteras, in North Carolina, off Cape Hatteras, in North Carolina, Senator from Illinois content that the stitution of Kansas, when presented property of completely transforming where it has gained a breadth of seven-binsed and toff you only his memory." Dors and I sat sewing in the little back parlor that evening, by the round-malogany table, and there was a sort imself, and left you only his memory." any one that leaped into it. For a mo-So they were married; and the un-hent they all hesitated, but Taphet sud-three miles. On the parallel of the charitable, the narrow-minded, and the denly rose and plunged hito it, and al-New Foundland Banks, it is further reof rivalry kept up between out tongnes charitable, the narrow-minded, and the dealy rose and plunged hitoil; and al-envious talked as, God help them, they most as suddenly re-appeared from the duced to one and a half miles an hour, of these rights, or that the ropeal of it ity, is accordance with law and in-the and our fingers I cannot tell which was the nimbler. always have and will talk until INath magical water under the form of a hand- and this gradual abatement of force is concessed lays its cold hand on their lips, some young Caucasian. Shen seeing and this gradual abatement of force is enlarged them or affected them in any proper form, Kansus shall not rome in-and hushes them with its solemn "be this, engerly followed his example, but to the ourrent undergoes a sour line had referently not. The Min-still "forever! How pretty she looked that night, she, the well beloved wife of fire years, with the smiles darting among the dimto his astonishment the water had dis- similar change. The highest observed still" forever, and forever! ples of her smoot, hus, and the light of sight heart beaming out from her Manuerres. 11. Select Miscellany. these he rabbed his akin, and issued ettrershink, Alice," she murmured from the pit, not black, but of an Indian "Harry's been gone a week, and I Incerted Toe-nail .--- This painful trou- copper color. Ham then took courage, would, too, if you hadn't been with boots too short and tight; it can be re- of the pit on his hands and feet. Franthendlights would seem an age, that lieved by care in cutting the too-nail as tio at the disappearance of the water, he follows: Cut the nail as near the quick even put his kps on the ground to suck manyellbauhell be home to morrow. Oh, how glad Lahall be to see him." teabsthet insected. the bell rang, load in the centre as possible, leaving the up the few remaining drops of lemon in the contre as possible, reaving the juice; thence it happens that the palma corners long, straps the nail as thin as juice; thence it happens that the palma corners long, without him give bloghtin of the hands, the soles of the fect, and La Cinders Bage Bolody's come to can be done, without bringing, blocklin bore us to-night-lim so sary and the middle, then soak the toot in warm the lips of the hegro face, are of the The second property second proper same coppery color as the skin of Shem."

which the source of the source

But I drew Dors into my lap. laid her head on my shoulder, and then, bending down, I read the paper which she held tight in her hands.

There were but few words; the great crises of life are generally acted and told briefly. There had been a fearful collision on the railway, somewhere between New York and Buston. Several, passengers were killed. Among them her ruin was accomplished, the young

BY H. J. STAHLE.

40TH YEAR

a terrible fear had come down.

ed for the next five minutes. "He will come back, Alice I Harry will-como back ?"

aroused me; Dora was smiling and playing with my hair, Then the truth rushed over me, and I could neither more nor speak. At that moment Mr. Lee, a neighbor and friend of Harry's, burst joto the to-morrow !" and she staggered against that her home. In this house she pass-him, and he caught her in his arms, et six years of contentment. Her and the toars ran down the strong man's face, fast as they run down the face of a tired little child.

Ho laid her on the sofa, and slowly rokathe truth over the darkened mind of Flora Wast. -- What a night that was. stage drove ap. The windows of the God in his great mercy save me from such another!

mansion prepared for them on high. began to take up some of its old symptonis and interests.

I remember the first time she rollo ioi her. He and Harry had stways months after his fight from Peineylvaloved each other as brothers do and it nis, seized with remorse, he started was, not strange the young nian was back with the intention of marrying moved with much pity for the widow of hor. On the way he had picked up a newspaper, which contained an account vantageous offers of marriage.

In one of our Indian campaigns, which, years ago, lived a wealthy farmer, who not recollected, nor material to our was blessed with a family of children, story, whilst the army was on its march, the eldest of whom was a beautiful girl, still in Tennessee, on its way to the of seventeen summers. A young man seens of war in Alabama, a drafted comin the neighborhood, who was of good pany was expected daily to overtake family, feigned attachment to her. the main body of troops. This com-Young and inexperienced, she fell into pany at length reached the rear of the the snare set for her. Shortly after train.

A Democratic, News and Lamily Yournal.

Information of their approach was was yes, I looked twice, bending down man fearing the wrath of her father, immediately carried to the front, where was-yes, I looked twice, bending down my eves close to the paper; it was his when the consequences of his villainy. Jackson was at the time. As the mes-name: I hugged Dora tight to my heart. I to girl feeling her shame fiel to Har-donot remember anything that happen-ed for the next five minutes. farm, in bridge to meleorban friends be was know to the entire army before it lieve she was drowned. Shortly after reached Jackson's ears. Curiosity was These were the first words that her supposed death, her father, upon on tiptoe to know how the irrascible roused me; Dors was smiling and whose mind the event weighed Reavily, commander would act under such cirtion, wold, his : form : and : soon veil to' Soon the General was observed making Cray, furd county, Ohim, (1999) in this way rapidly to the rear, and to the In the meantime she had reached surprise of all parties, seemingly in Harrisburg, taken the cars west, and in rather a smiling mood. I a few days found herself at the only if inally he met the company. He say

Hors, sprang toward the gentleman. a kindhasrted woman, and at that pas-"Oh, Mr. Lee!" she cried, "nothing ticular time was in need of an assistant. "Oh, Mr. Lee!" she cried, "nothing ticular time was in need of an assistant. has happened to Harry, has there? She beard the story of the poor girl, off his hat, and with the selitere You know he always thought so much sympathleed with her, and liking her fact that they had no arms. Forming ed six years of contentment. Her them for rapid motion, at double quick hostess introduced her as a widow-she step, under his own lead, they marched gained friends and received many ad- on till a baggage wagen was reached, vantageous offers of marriage. One morning, about six months age, with an axe. Forward march again she was in the sitting room when the was the word.

As they passed along the line of march coach were down, and the coakt too the General's object was seen; and most of the passengers. Among them | laughter loud and uproarious with many After this, I thought for many weeks was a face that seemed familiar to her. a hearty cheer, saluted them as they that Dors would soon walk with her She looked again, and with a shriek made their way to the front. There hashand through the fine rooms of the fell fainting on the floor. It was her these axe-men were at once infinited mansion prendred for them on high, seducer 1. The landing soon barned into their campaign duties. They Thoy mansion prepared for them on high the bow matters stord; and determined cleared the roads, they bridged the that justice should be done.' She sought | crocks, or carried the wagons piece by him, and told him the facts, and maint- place, the haggage, ammunitiou, dc., ed that he should repair the injary he over on their backs; when bridges were out. It was a bright day in the early had inflicted, by making her his wife. impassible. They were ever in a post will not do to show to me that by some spring, and Mr. Leo and I accompand To this he at once consentant. Three of danger, bearing the burders of the stitutional Convention of farmers links campaign-sharing none of its honors -the laughing stock of the whole army.

Description of the Gulf Straam.

The general description of the Galf Stream is that of a vast, and rapid ocean ment on the other. -I look at this queethe next morning started for Pennsyl- thence, with moreasing width and diffu- feeling in the Torritory of Manses it is sion, traversing the whole breadth of possible to have any measure carried the Atlantic, with a central direction out with precision and order? Are towards the British Isles; and finally there no reasons to apparliced strift, losing itself hy still wider diffusion in and confession, and violation of precithe Bay of Biscay, on our own shores, pie there? Has he any guarnities that and on the long line of the Norwegian | whatever action Congress may take and on the long line of the forweging whatever ection denges of the interview of the interv acter is preserved throughout the viany elective tranchise there to the conventence of the times in the sum of the vian of the time of the mingle with those of the surrounding in power there will wield that mover election of delegites, mined the times see, their deep blue tint declines, their with moderation? I have long since and places, and called together a Conbigh, temperature diminishes, and the abandoned that idea, and I have, perspeed with which they press forward sunded myself that patriotism and duty total course, it well warrants the name admitted into the Union on the first al introportion without ever consulting must be allowed the President to real and its first al bates. But taking the stream in its would require that Kansas should? of a "river in the occan." This epithet lowable opportunity for the akent and the peuple of a ansay. If the Senator's amine every bill premated to him. for appear is, in truth, singularly appropriate to say and the Union. From thoring first, findings had, been awakuned at that becomes a dead lefter in this particular: and the the senator of the constitution in this first in this for the peculiar rights of the even worse, it becomes a mean of detached from the great mass of occan- nessed the same measured of compRes with propie of Kausan, he never could have. Our constituents, scoler the Pesident's appro-waters, which, while scenningly cleft tion in the affairs of thus offerentiary, manufactoristics were acculated to believe that he he could for the very accular. how- gress are induced to believe that he he could tinubus, in his course, and so strangely 1854, to this hour, he has never witasunder to give path to its first impulse, or the monacing aspect of the eninetry! nre yet ever pressing apon'it, gradually impairing its force and destroying its ator's remarks that occurred the my of that kind, bushing the goal it con- amination of congress such an ar Individuality. The maximum of velocity where the he attached to so much of "She Knokast Lion. their father. One day, when Noah stream guits the narrow channel Binu- Nebraska bill is declares that inf ponthe Gulf-is about four mile- an hour ; ty-five miles, its velocity is reduced to three miles. On the parallel of the ry institutions? Will be tell me that tion; though it may be a nonsonable appeared, and only a few rips lemons is about 85 deg. Fah. Between Cape institution of slavery only. It is that, trine of non-intervantion? I deny the retoing an appropriation bill. Former particular of the softward of the propriation bill. Former particular of the softward of the propriation bill. lessened in amount, the warmth of the stream in winter is still 25 deg. of 30 deg. above that of the ocean through of the rights of the people of that 'Terriwhich it flows.-Edinburgh Review. tory. That dangerous and agitating

SENATOR BIGLER ON THE MANSAS | wards, and I think I know some circumstances which influenced the action We subjoin from the Globe the re of the people. I know what was said marks of Senator Bigler, in the United on the one side and on the other from States Senate on Tuesday week, in rethe rostrum, for I heard it. I heard ply to the views advanced by Judge

Douglas, on the Kansas question : Mr. Bigler-It is not my intention, Mr. President, to speak to the mere proposition to print the message and ocuments, nor do I intend to-day, to address the Senate at length on the grave and difficult subject which has been unhappily precipitated upon this body. I never felt so much responsibility in my life. I never felt a greater anxiety to do my duty. Never since I this givent country. I feel my weak new, and how much L regret this siggestion I made yesterilay evening that I concurred with the President of the United States in the views he had taken and should endeator to defend those views, for I feel how much I aw unprepared. But while a shall not make a speech to day, I desire yary briefly to notice some of the proposi-tions of my friend from Illinois, which have fallen on my cars as most extraordinary:

It would be nepestary, Mr. Bereident, to a fair understanding of this question, to trace its history ; and nothing have I regretted so much as that the Senator from Illinois did not stop livithe first instance to look at this question in its true character. Stillmoneum Lasined with the remembrance that his feelings were not such as I had hoped they would be on a question so deficate and so dangenous, which be has labored so long and so and outsly to allay: Sir. I do not think ht is entirely the part of a statesman to handle this ques fuld he has simust been, that in all my tion as though each particular view which he may had can be distinctly manaremounds or he sufficie suggestion carried out ... The question slipith scour to his mind, what is best for thurcomto his mind, what is best for the cons-try under all the circumstances. It mission of the Constitution to the promission on the one hand; or that the thority' of the United Scates Gaussia.

The following was omitted; for want f room, inthe publication of Provident BUCHANAN'S MOSSage in our last :

The report of the Socretary of the Interio worthy of grave considers the numerous, branches of do TE Igod work had to him by h

Just a J.

Internation Viceon

and the state of the

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

ment from a bogne Couvention."

mittod to youd Lada to as a plo; but when he will toll, """" incut a · Fran 101 april 1. public has growth and a and Turrituries. It has we tice. Already thirteen Statis torice have been carried eat of and still more than a thousand million acres remain unsold. What a boundless pect this presents to our country of fish rosperity and power l

NO. 13. We have heretofore disposed of $12.802. 64 acres of the nublic land.

Whilst the public lands as a source of revenue are of great importance, their imperiance is for greater as furnishing humes for backer and independent race of houset and independent ous citizens, who desire to ashdas datasiliti vate the soil. They ought to be administered the advocates of the Topeka movement say to the men who proposed to form a Constitution under the laws of the Ter-ritory. "We will not judge of any inthe advocates of the Topeka movement ritory. "We will not judge of any instrument you may submit; we will not consider its merits at all." Why? "Beint: money and the proceeds were already in the public treasury. To squander away this richest and noblest inheritance which any cause we are determined that the laws, people have ever enjoyed upon objects of dealthful constructionality or experimental which the President of the United would be to violate one of the most important trusts ever committed to any per ple. While I do not deny to Congress the power!! While States has said shall be carried out, shall be rendered null and void. Govornor Walker has told us that these anxiety to do may duty. Norme since I or nor welker has told us that these the tore in the proprietor. It generation the proprietor of the will thereford accept no form of governe we cannot be to cautious in its exercise as Actual settlers under existing laws are protected against offer parchasers at two par-lie sales, in their right of protectoring to a settle heard more than one of them say, that even if the Convention abould give tw them the Topeka Constitution, word extent of a quarter section, or 160 min of the lamb. The remainder may then be displaced Rie word, and letter for fettert they of at public arentered at private sales it and would transle it in the dust; because they, denied the authority of the law which the President of the United limited enautities. Speculation has at late years prevailed to a great estimate the public funds. The brand States was administering there. Howquenee: has been that large p stimme di ilima have become the property of individuals are companies, and thus the price is greatly en-hanced to those who desire to purchase for actual settlement. In order to imple the ever unwisely members of the Conven tion may have acted—and I.do not intend to defend the details of their action by any monne it will not do to area of speculation as much as possible, the say that there were no surrounding circonstances to impel them to such desion of the public sarreys unglet only to here page with the tide of emigration. tion. Probably if the Republicans had

, If Cungross should berosfler grantshuppate the newser; at thes, boar, they, would sections to States or companies, as they have have mielded it quite as unwarrantably. The doclarations to which I have re-ferred naturally begot retainstion. The answer was, IT you will not judge of mediate sections retained by the gowenines, should be subject to pre-cupijon by again app this matricement why should it to mak-It aught over to be our cardinal policy to r serve the public lands as much as they may be for sotual estilers, and this at miderate Now, sir, I will may to the Senator from Illipois, in defence of his friend, the President of the Convention, whose peiong. We shall thus ups only best pretereds the prosperity of the new States and Tarpito-ries, and the power of the Union, but shall means homes for our pusterity for many-gonintercourse with him, I nove hand prations.

A prational. The extension of our limits, has brought within our jurisdiction many additions and populaus tribes of Indians, a large, or quarties of which are wild, untractable and difficult to pointend. Predatory and warlike in their dis-pointend and babies, to is impossible along other to restain them from anomitible accordence on the subject. He did say, and he did 441 scillional convention for managed and here judges of this," his white, word and best to restrain them from somuliting engrapsing mission on the one hand corribus the ident of the United States that if this on each other, as well as a pan our frontier citizens and those emigrating courdiant transformed and the second states that if this is the match me second states and those emigrating courdiant transformed and the second states that if the interval and the second states are the second states and the second states are the second states and the second states are the not judgo of this," his views word difto the bound to submit it. He held that under the organic act and hecord-ing to the organic act and hecord-the presents to influence then to submit it. He held that under the organic act and hecord-ing to the organic act and hecord-the the better policy to colonize that is an the held to submit it. He held that under the organic act and hecord-ing to the organic act and hecord-the the better policy to colonize that is an tone to submit the angles and the the better policy to colonize the the presents of dataution and to producing the re-the desired of dataution and to producing the re-the some has been tried it has worked with the practice, and k will doubtless prove to be been expensive than the present system. "The whole number of Indiane difference outrage anothic mornibilit approximate or and heat the producing the terms of the field for filling is being the producing the pro-expensive than the present system.

A Model Teacher.-The Pottstown Ledger tells a tough story of a teacher in one of the public schools in a neighboring district, who is in the habit of employing fistime at the noon recesses by holding "raffling matches" with the scholars, by means of which ingeoutrage apost populied wordersigner anas practiced, for a postloac of this Constiintion was put into operation, without being submitted to the propie. It's was the slife all other of "Mr. Toombe bill, which did not eminate from the people Kibias. They did The extraordinary things in the Son- in the first in the new up the a measure the is in masy cues, more motion let of the mind are these: the importance that travered the principle of non-interven- quires, has been rendered importance that travered the principle of non-interven- quires, has been rendered importance that here the Nebraska bill is declares that the peo-plo shall be perfectly five to select their time of the select of the people and the select to the President is entry own domestic institutions. Will the comes down to this shifter from Illinois, it ternative presented to the President is either Benator from Illinois sustaint that the comes down to this shifted the Con- to violate the additional dury shifted. act for their right to form their ordina- may be in it no insurmountable objection the country and individuals to grad individuals souri line had reference to the cess. Is that consistent with the does not appfive or to incur the risk of stopping the wheels of the government of the cess. and that ulone, which has agitated the right of Congress to go behind the orconstry. It is that to which we have ganic act, and inquire into all the dohad rotorenos mainly when epenking tails of how the people of Kansas have will eachibled pulies of the country and aline herself for admission at the doors of question it was which constrained the wisust men who have ever assembled in this Chamber, in 1859, to agree that the Senator from Illinois is about to say and more urgent hecessity which shall ster inthis dangerous issue should be taken to those people, you shall not come in- duce me tailepart from this rule. I deruber from Congress and given to the people. to the Union because you did not do respectfully, but samedly recumpted the Hawarer that make two houses would allow the President at However that great fact may be obthe right thing matha proper way. seared by togic, however it may be be. Sir, when the question involves the cloaded by a most of I shall not say peace of the whole country will as "I territorial limits is lockevel to be, from the best data in the Interior Department, about 125,000. "The tribes of Cherokees, Choetswa, Chiefsamws, and Grooks, settled in the territory at apart for them west of Arkansas, are capidly advancing in education and in all the arts d civilization and self-government ; and we mist

Under the federall constitution, "avery "

which shall have passed the Home of Heppe-sentatives and the Senate shall, before it be-comes a law," be approved and signed by the and places, and called together a Con- President ; and, if not approved the shall re-vention to whom the people of Kausas aren it with his objections to that house in wore to delogate their sovereignty. It which it originated." In order to perform man infortanten - very peculiar, how- gress are induced to believe that he bes actumost important husiness of each session is gen inconcentere, Desides, a practice has grown up of his years to ferilate in appropriation first, a little dat hours of the session, as new add incoments anipets. This practice constrains the Press dent either to suffer measures to become the bills were confined to specific appropriations for carrying into effect existing laws and the proceeded; but whan Kanaus presents was then required by the President for their examination.

Fur my nim part, I have deliberately ### least two days previous to the adjoint finish least two days previous to the adjoint which of each session within which no new bill shall be presented at biast for approach. I would have existing joint use one, day, in allowed, but this role has been fitherto so constantly suc pended in prediced. Thus important with the mer to be passions to suc approach to the hast moments of the session. In a long major ity of cases no great public inconvention chail arise from the want of time to examine their provisions, because the content which the define