A Fortune Chasing a Pretty Woman by Telegraph.—Some two weeks ago there Correctedfrom the latest Baltimore. York & Hancorer paper arrived in our city a beautiful young widow of twenty-five, (a Hungarian by birth,) on her way to New Orleans, es route to Havana, were she intended to engage in her profession as a female physician. She was alone-an exile from Hungary, where her husband had lived and died a patriot. On Friday last an agent from the house of Rothschilds, the great bankers, also reached our city in chase of the beautiful young self-reliant widow, who is intent upon her journey to Havana. He had been dispatched from Europe to seek out the wanderer and bear to her the "glad tidings" that she has recently come into immense possessions at home, and to invite her to retrace her trip. With the aid of the telegraph he learned that she had arrived safely in New Orleans, and was stopping at the St. Louis Hotel. A second dispatch, urging her to await his arrival, was forwarded, and he has hastened on to bear to her the information that she has a fortune of cleven milions at home awaiting her disposal. -Louisville Dem.
