TER. VS OF THIS PAPER.

Man Comprise in published every Monday morning, by HERRY J. STARLE, at $1.75 per annum if paid strictly to ADVANCE-$2 00 per annum if not paid in advance. No subscription discontined, unless at the option of the publisher, until all arrearages are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates Jon PRINTING done with neatness and dispatch, and at moderate prices.

Orrice in South Bultimore street, directly opposite Wampler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half square, from the Court House-"Complese" on the sign.

Administrator's Notice.

HESTHER SPONSELLER'S ESTATE.-Letters of administration on the estate of Hesther Spinseller, late of Mountplessant of Hesther Sponseller, late of Mountpleasant township, Adams county, deceased, having 40... YEAR. been granted to the undersigned, residing in the same town-hip, he hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them properly authenticated for settlement.

JACOB SPONSELLER, Adm'r.

Jan 25, 1858 56 Jan. 25, 1858. 6t

Administrator's Notice.

JOHN WILDESIN'S ESTATE.—Let-ters of administration on the estate of John Wildesin, late of Franklin township, fronting 29 feet on street, with Stable, &c. Adams county, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, residing in the same feet on same street, with large Coach Shop, to the undersigned, residing in the same township, he hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them properly suthenticated for settlement.

Admin Shop, &c.

No. 5.—Lot west of the Foundry, with cated for settlement.
HENRY WILDESIN, Adm'r.

Jan. 11, 1858. Gip

Administrator's Notice. LOUISA HEMLER'S ESTATE.-Letters of administration, with the will annexed, on the estate of Louisa Hemler, (wife of Mat- Dwelling, &c. thias Hemier,) lace of Oxford township, Adams co., dec'd., having been granted to the under- about 41 Acres. by gives notice to all persons indebted to said township, lying on Marsh creek, containing estate to make immediate payment, and those 51 Acres, part cleared and part in first-rate having claims against the same to present timber.

No. 11.—Coach Establishment in Shep-Adm'r with the will annexed.

Dec. 28, 1857. Gt

Executor's Notice.

TACOB MYERS'S ESTATE, -Letters teslate of Reading township, Alams county, deceased, having been granted to the un-dersigned, residing in the same township, he hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having chains against the same to present them properly authenticated for settlement. ISRAEL MYERS, Ex'r.

Mountage to make immediate payment, and those having chains against the same to present them properly authenticated for settlement. ISRAEL MYERS, Ex'r.

Mountage to make immediate payment, and those said at Fublic Sale, at his residence, in Mountage township. Adams county, three Jan. 25, 1858. 6t Money Lost.

WAS lost, by the subscriber, on Wednesrewarded by lowing the money and purse at The Compiler office, in Gettysburg.

ADOLPHE KLOEPPER.

Jan. 25, 1858. 3t

Dog Lost.

last, a yellow Dog, about six months old, of and terms made known by heavy build, and had a leather band, with a MOSES SCHWARTZ. heavy build, and had a leather band, with a black ring in it, around his neck. A suitable reward will be given for the return of the dog, or information of his whereabouts.

JOHN L. HOLTZWORTH.

Jan. 25, 1858.

Pay Up!

As the accounts are already of sufficiently of April next. long standing, prompt payment is earnestly urged. If not paid before the let of March. the accounts will be placed in the hands of an the property will show it. officer for collection. JOHN HARTMAN.

Jan. 25, 1858. 3t

WM. GILLESPIE. HENRY THOMAS.

ed from the city with a general assortment of tors, Winnowing Mill, 2 Grind Stones, Cow GROCERIES, PROVISIONS and VEGETA- Chains, Rakes, Forks, &c. Also, Household BLES, which they are prepared to sell as low and Kitchen Furniture, such as Tables, as the lowest. FLOUR and FEED always on Chairs, Bureau, Stoves, Bedsteads and Bedhand, and sold at small profits.

Gettysburg, Aug. 3, 1857.

Great Excitement! BRINGMAN & AUGHINBAUGH STILL AHRAD!

MAKE NOTICE that we have just received TAKE NOTICE that we have just received a new and splendidlet of HATS, CAPS, BOOTS & SHOES, which we offer to the public CHEAPER than ever, having put large stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING, large stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING, Under these arrangements we can put our goods within the reach of ALL, as to style, quality and PRICE. Our motto is quick sales and small profits. Call and examine our stock of goods before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the sign of the BOOT," Chambersburg street, below Buehder's Drug Store.

Boofs and Shoes made upon the shortest notice and by the best of workman. October 19, 1857.

Removed to Hanover.

FRANCIS J. WILSON, late of the Wash-HERSHEY'SOLD AND POPULAR STAND, Oct. 12, 1857. in Hanover, where he will be happy to enter-tain all who may patronize him. His Table is supplied with the best the market and gar-den can afford, and his Bar with the choicest friends and the public in general, that they is supplied with the best the market and garattended by careful Ostle-s. Give him a call, business, in Baltimore street, near Middle, You will always find Frank, on the spot, where they will manufacture all kinds where they will manufacture all kinds of the spot of EXTRA ACCOMMODATIONS. - The undersigned returns his thanks to the public terials, which will enable them to warrant for the encouragement heretofore extended to their work. Also, every variety of CHAIRS. tion in Worcester, Mass., a candidate has completed arrangements by which TWO DAILY LINES of Couches will run between Gettys-Philadelphia, &c. rersons destroy on information will call on the undersigned, or on exchange for work.

NORBECK & REILLEY.

Hotel; in Chambersburg street.

Decial attention given to all packages, and that his vote signed between Gettysburg and Hanover, wishes to inform the ladies of town and wishes will be promptly and carefully attend-country, that she is now prepared to execute Coaches, Stages, &c., for Funerals and other town. Please call and see. [apr. 21, '56. occasions; at moderate charges.

NICHOLAS WEAVER. Gettysburg, April 13, 1857.

Their stock is cheaper and prettier and Busines, Convers, Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Umber Chers. Their stock comprises Designations. Their stock comprises Designation of the Convers of

THE COMPILER.

Democratic, Jews and Kamily Journal.

By H. J. STAHLE.

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY, AND WILL PREVAIL."

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, FEB. 9, 1858.

No. 1 .- My late residence in Gettysburg. fronting 30 feet on Chambersburg street, with Brick Dwelling, Stable, and other improve-No. 2.-Lot adjoining above on the West,

Valuable Real Estate

Steam Saw and Grist Mill.

No. 6 .- Lot adjoining No. 5, containing about 3 Acres. No. 7 .- Three Lots fronting each 30 feet on Chambersburg street.

No. 8.-Lot in Baltimore street, with Log No. 9.-Lot northeast of town, containing

No. 10.-Tract of Land in Hamiltonban cation is an admirable one for business, and improvements in good order.

Titles good and terms to suit purcha-

ACOB MYERS'S ESTATE—Letters testamentary on the estate of Jacob Myers, ee of Reading township, Adams county, castel basing been granted to the unspectation of the state of March, the castel basing been granted to the unspectation of the state of March, the castel basing been granted to the unspectation. above properties will be for Rent. Jan. 18, 1858.

Mountjoy township, Adams county, three miles from Gettysburg, on Wednesday, the 24th day of February next, the following property, viz: 4 HORSES, 4 Milch Cowe day last, between Gettysburg and (two are expected to calve before the sale,) I Brough's Tavern, on the York Turnpike, a Leather Purse, containing upwards of $30, in narrow-trend three-horse Wagon, with Stone notes and specie. The finder will be suitably Bed, Hay Ladders, Ploughs and Cultivators, Winnowing Mill, Horse Gears, and other farming implements. Also, a Sleigh, Grindstone, de., together with Household and Kitchen Furniture, such as Cupboards, Bednumerous to mention.

Jan. 25, 1858. ta

Mill and Farm for Sale.

Pay Up!

of the Littlestown Railrond, and when the had just met my cars. They were confice is hereby given that Jacob Mickly, all probability pass close by. The farm conphan Boy" and "Cobham" during the season tains 374 Acres, more or less, 10 to 12 acres country! You are. Lay me down and GEO. ARNOLD. Jan. 25, 1858. 6t

James Stable who is in possession of Public Sale.

Family Grocery and Provision on the road leading from McSherrystown to the York Turnpike, about 11 miles from the latter, on Thursday, the 25th of February next, GILLESPIE & THOMAS respectfully inthe following property, viz: 3 HORSES, tree bears, and the richer it is, the more form the people of Gettysburg and the Cows and Young Cattle, Three-horse Wugon, public generally, that they have just returnH urse Gears, Ploughs and Harrows, Cultivathe the thief. hand, and sold at small profits.

Sore on York street, one door east of Watticles, too numerous to mention.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M., on said day, when attendance will be given and terms made known by EMANUEL GOLDEN.

Jan. 18, 1858. ts

Cheap Clothing.

all of our own getting up, made out of our own cloths, and warranted to be made in the very best manner and style, among which are Dress Coats of every variety, Over-coats, Pan-taloons, Vests, Monkey Jackets, &c., also Black, Blue, Olive, Brown, Claret, Drab and Green Cloths, for Over-coats, with trimmings to suit, sold cheap; also cheap Cassimeres, Cassinets, Jeans, Cords and men's wear generally. We have just received the fall fashions, and have hands constantly employed cutting out and making up, and if we cannot please you in a garment ready made, we will take your measure and make you a suit on short notice. Call and see us. The above

Cabinet Ware & Chairs. ready and willing to make everybody comfortable.

[April 27, 1857.] and Common Bureaus. Tables of va rious descriptions, Bedsteads. Wardrobes, tion was unfavorable to that. Stands, and every other article in their line-ALL of the best workingnship and good ma-

Gettysburg, Feb. 23, 1857. 1y country, that she is now prepared to execute Millinery in all its branches, in West Middle The undersigned has also effected artistreet, a few doors below Mr. George Little's reassuments by which he will be able to supply store. Work done cheaper than elsewhere in

A SPLENDID lot of Buffalo Robes, Buffalo Gum and Calf-Skin Overshoes, selling very cheap, at SAMSON'S,

SHIRTS, Colars and Bosoms, wool and cotton Under-Shirts and Drawers, Hosiery

In the Chairs French Merinos, Alpaca Me. Quanty of prior. Can as Sales Merinos, Prench Merinos, Alpaca Me. Superior Can as Sales Merinos, Alpaca M

The Poet's Corner.

WHAT I LOST BY KISSING KATE.

There was Lizzie, Kate and Mary, All three beautiful and young; But the name of Mary ever Lingered longest on my tongue. And I hopes in secret cherished Of a home where she was queen, But one day those sweet hopes perished, And left life a desert scene.

They and I were once together, Frolicing beneath the moon, In the midst of mildest weather-In the odorous month of June. And sweet Mary said, "Since kisses In the moonlight time are due, I would take this best of blisses From Kate's lips, if I were you."

Scarcely had the thought been spoken, Ere, with heart and eve elate. I had claimed the honied token From the rosy lips of Kate. But, alack! in thus obeying, I had made a sad mistake; For in heart the girl was saying, "Kate will lose what I shall take."

"Kiss Karn!" that is what she told me; But its meaning was-Kiss ME? Oh, vain heart! and oh! eyes silly, Thus to fail the truth to see! So we parted-I with sorrow. She with scorn, perhaps, with hate; And my heart grows sad by knowing What I lost by kissing Kate.

Select Miscellanu.

Impressive Words of Gen. Shields. A volunteer in the Mexican war, writing from Baltimore to the National Intelligencer, says:

"May I ask a small space in the columns of your paper for the purpose of steads, Iron Kettles, and other articles, too laying before its readers the few words that escaped the lips of Gen. James Mexico?-supposed at the time to be mortally wounded and dying, having been shot through the body with an 'escopet' ball. I was one of the party that assisted in conveying him from I WILL sell at Private Sale, my MILL AND that assisted in conveying him from FARM, situate in Germany township, the field, and the words are as vividly Adams county, within one mile and a half impressed upon my mind as if they duty."

The Glandered.

A venerable old man says: "Let the slandered take comfort-it is only at Till subscriber, intending to quit farming, fruit trees that thieves throw stones."

The old man is right. Who ever say The old man is right. Who ever saw thieves throw stones at the birch, maple, or elm-tree? The more fruit the tree bears, and the richer it is, the more | good Providence.) had for the first time > his fellows, and endoavors to live to ture; arrives at the exigent moment; bear the fruits of true religion in his a large supply of lead is immediately daily conduct, can for a moment sup-obtained; our great Commander repose that he will pass along through crosses the Delaware and saves our life without being slandered more or country.-Laus Deo." less. Such a man will of necessity have some enemies; and these enemies will try in every way to injure him, and, stirring up the polluted waters of de-tamation and slander. A man who has no enemies is merely not give three figs for such a man. He who is anything, who makes his mark in the world, who does good, will will be sure to be slandered.

Rineton Months Without Food Death .- Mrs. Hayes, of the town of Day, Saratoga county, whose case we detailed some time since, and who had lived nineteen months without food or sensible for fifteen months of the period, and up to a few days of her death, when is a very remarkable one, and it is to sy meddlers. be regretted that it was not subjected for alderman went up to vote very near various styles.

House Painting and Papering attended to, the close of the polls, and taking a to all his readers! ticket scratched his name off. His rihe was found to be elected by one vote, and that his vote, cast at the solicita-

A Tennessee paper records the manufacture of a novel beverage, in the shape of wine manufactured from tocellent. Its ingredients are the juice of forty thousand families of working the tomato and sugar. It resembles men! champagne in point of color.

green he was.

An Incident of the Revolution.

A circumstance occured during the gloomy winter of 1776-7, which has not | C. J. Rondolph, who lost his life in the | rounds of the press to the effect that a found its way into histories, but which Columbia fire several months ago, married lady of Dover, Delaware, met we copy from a late number of the Dem- quotes the following extract, of a letter a gentleman from the same place on the ocratic Review. It was one among the lately received from his native place: porch of a hotel in Smyrna, a short many during the Revolution, which ap-

of their country. "When General Washington was rowinter of 1776-7 and had crossed the Delaware, his lead and bullets had nearly failed, and he would be unable, withbrilliant and successful movements at one time made the family a visit in with an excellent wife and several inwhich recovered New Jersey, and re- remembrance of the above facts. inspired the country with new hope and confidence in their Commander-in-chief. In this darkest hour of the war, Congress had made every effort to supply the so-much-needed article. All the lead that could be found in public and private places had been obtained — Lead pipes had been melted and the plates torn from the roofs of houses; but still a small quantity only could be second in point of discipline to no regiobtained. Just then in the darkest moment of volunteers, except perhaps ment of despondency, Robert Morris, Breckinridge's Kentuckians. He was ment of despondency, Robert Morris, who had been called the "financier" of distinguished in many engagements; the Revolution and whose extensive credit and mercantile transactions in and at the close of the war, he returned Europe, and whose unflinching devotion to his home with laurels. He is now to his country, has laid that country dead. The circumstances are familiar. under never ceasing obligations, re-ceived a letter from one of his ships visiting the interior of Pennsylvania which had escaped British cruisers, in- forrecreation and change of scene. The forming him that the vessel was within | country is wild there, and sparely set the capes, and would reach Philadelphia tled. One morning he went out with at such a time, and was tallasted his servant to shoot game for his wife. with lead, amounting to a very large In handing him the gun, the servant by quantity. This letter the patriotic -received late in the day, and after and he lived but a few minutes. This Congress had adjourned. He joyously has been told before. WAS stolen or strayed away from the subSale to commence at 10 o'clock, A.M., Shields when he was being carried off informed the members he could see bescriber, in Gettysburg, on Friday night on said day, when attendance will be given the field of battle at "Cerro Gordo," fore morning.

Early the next morning, Morris and many members repaired to against touching a dead body before an the warf anxiously looking out for the inquest has set upon it. The servant giving for the relief about to be received, with her dead and with her bleeding in the hour of despair.

The ship arrived ballasted with lead, which the Captain of his own apparent will, (but as our fathers rationally pr ously believed, by the leadings of a resolved to use for that purpose. By God's overruling providence, the ves-No man that tries to do his duty to sel escapes the perils of storm and cap gard it in the same way. He rides in Strange or Not?-We are informed that the people of the town of Bristol. among others, they will not be slow in up the Delaware, for many years refused to establish a fire engine company. and they were almost wholly exempt from casualties by fire. In an evil hour a milk-and-water nothing. We would however, such a company was at last organized, when their troubles began by almost a nightly alarm of fire. The annoyance eventually became so great od in English an equerry, and in the have enemice; and, if he have them, he that, in their indignation, the people rose and extinguished the company, and perhaps ten or twelve in numberwith it there were no more fires to ex- under the charge of an officer; the tinguish.

colored schools and force into our public show seems useless, if not ridiculous; drink, has expired. She remained in-instruction addial equality that does not; but it is not so considered by the French exist elsewhere, and which cannot be people. carried out in the schools without a disshe seemed to revive and spoke occa- ruption of the whole system, we see is sionally. After her death her body lagain before the Rhode Island General was opened and a snake five feet long Assembly. The movement, it is said, and half an inch thick was taken from idoes not come from any dissatisfaction pf liquors. His Stables are commodious, and have commenced the Cabinet and Chair-making moved, but died soon after. The case cept such as has been stirred up by buher stomach. It was alive when re- on the part of the colored people, ex-

Old King Lear, in the play, when trophe to the rain, wind, thunder and lightning:

"You owe me no subscription." Prentice, of the Louisville Journal says he wishes he could say as much

Conches will run between octives—and done in the best manner.

burg and Hanover, to connect with the trains to and from Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, all who may patronize them will acknowledge.

Philadelphia, &c. Persons desiring tickets or Lumber and country produce taken in name in the ballot box. So he scratch name in the ballot box. So he scratch privilege of saying so about five hun-We heartily unite our palms with Their prices will be as low as the lowest, as val for the office asked him why he did those of Prentice in the wish. We from a corner where she had secretname in the ballot box. So he scratch-privilege of saying so about five hun-ed his name on again. Soon afterwards dred of our subscribers now in arrears. "You owe me no subscription." Will delinquent subscribers take the > need? Who will be the first? What it costs annually to support the Royal Family of England, if propermatoes. Good judges pronounce it ex- ly expended, would provide food for The woodman who "spared that of the Raleigh Christian Advocate has tree" has run short of wood, and is almost on hand an obituary notice which fills splitting with vexation to think how fifty-six pages of foolscap paper. He yery properly says, "We have not time to read it, nor room to publish it."

Marshal Ner an American

The Tuolumue Conrier, referring to count of it from a son of Richard H. selected his officers from the bravest such a bold method of redress; but Lee, and from Francis Lightfoot Ice, men of the ranks; and as Ney's earlier a correspondent of the Philadelphia who were members of Congress, in history has never been published, it Press writing from Smyrna, Del., gives Philadelphia, at the time. These gen- may not generally be known that his the following full and interesting details tlemen were accustomed to mention it real name was Michael Rudolph. He of the "affair," which, he says, created as a providential interference in behalf | was raised in this county, (Cecil coun- a great deal of conversation, speculaty, Maryland.) He chose a life on the tion and excitement in "the little Diaseas, and was wrecked in a Spanish treating through the Jerseys in the vessel on the coast of Spain. He was picked up and conveyed to France, after which his relatives in this county unblemished integrity, a ripe scholar, received letters from him over the name and barring his occentricities, a very of Marshal Ney. The French Minister pleasant and useful citizen. He is blest out a considerable supply, to make the of Marshal Ney. The French Minister

A Devoted Wife.

Referring to the recent death of Col Wynkoop, by the accidental discharge correspondent of the Boston Post gives the following affecting incident: Colonel Wynkoop, of Pennsylvania led into the field of Mexico a regiment he captured General Valencia and staff; accident discharged it; the contents

An absurd superstition prevails among the ignorant inhabitants of the region, expected vessel. For some time she had been sent at once for aid to some did not appear. The members repaired distance, and in vain did Mrs. Wynkoop to the hall with saddened countenances, | endeavor to induce-by supplicationand on the assembling of the House, by promises, by offers of money—the the letter of Morris was read and the stultified neighbors to shelter and care emotion instantly succeeds and the the head of her husband; and there rehearts of these glorious beloved mon mained keeping her lonely vigil until

> If the incident be a sad one, it becomes a season set apart to lessons and pledges of affection.

The way the little son of Louis Napoleon takes his airing is a show for any one to see, though all may not rea large coupe carriage, drawn by four horses, conducted hy two postilions, and the nurse holds him up at the window, that the people may see this really finelooking baby, Two liveried servants on horseback precede the carriage about two hundred yards, and are followed by half a dozen lancers, bearing, of course, the small uniform flag upon each lance, as if to amuse the youngster. Immediately in front of the lead ing carriage horse is another mounted Bervant, and two others are seated in the roar. At the side of the carriage rides a gentleman in plain clothes, callrear is a detachment of lancerswhole cavalcade moving at a rapid pace. To one who has had several boys quite Schools.—The proposition to abolish the his ago by a single nurse, this expensive that two men, with blackened fuces had edy the evil. forced open the kitchen door, tied her, &c., and had then ransacked the house; am? he was out in the storm, said in apos- and a gold watch was missing. The girl afterwards acknowledged that, in manded, she had tied herself up, burned her clothes, and hid the watch, and concocted the story about the things;

A Singular Lake.—There is a lake covering nineteen hundred acres in Wright county, Iowa, about one hundred and fifty miles west of Dubuque, hint and hand in the "material aid" wo wall, five feet wide at the top, and in some places, where the water would be likely to overflow the prairie, ten feet high. As the pioneers found the wall there, the question arrises .fact is that the lake has no visible feeder or outlet.

> A sublime spectacle is that of two inveterate tobacco chewers driving a sharp barguin over a load of wood.

A Spirited Woman. A paragraph has been going the our favor. The writer received the ac- riety. You are aware that Napoleon was, which induced the lady to pursue mond State :"

At Dover there lives a gentleman of very considerable fortune, a man of teresting little children. Throughout called "a frolic," but which, in his case, and exhorting upon political issues of a gun, in the hands of his servant, a (as he never done anything by halves,) and his deacons and the laymen follow-his friends have had sanguine hopes ting Democrat, was called upon to offer that he had resolved to break the dev- a prayer. il's head with a bottle, and never make use of one again. It seems, however, that a fiend in the cloak of a friend, per- protecting support ever sines the great suaded him to do otherwise, and that Jeffersonian struggle. Continue to bless on various occasions lately, the tempter that party which has, under thy prosucceeded in introducing an enemy into tection and providence, brought great the gentleman's head to steal away his blessings upon this Republic. If it be

At length the gentleman's wife, mortified and distressed, called upon her bless Jas. husband's friend (!) and as nearly as I Buchanan, the tried and honest stateshave been able to obtain it, the follow- man, and guide him safely to the Presiing dialogue took-place:

Lady.—I believe, sir, you profess to be children? Friend.-I have that honor, madam.

mortify me, and disgrace my children, and make us all very unhappy? Friend.-My good madain, can you looked for supply was eagerly expected. for her hashand's body. It was a dark Under your influence, persuasion and people of this country will once more Morris was too anxious to remain in light. He still lay where he fell; and example, you have of late frequently settle down in their peaceful pursuits, his seat in the House; he returned to there, in that howling wilderness, with decoyed my husband from his home, instead of warring wickedly, section country! You are. Lay me down and the wharf, straining his eye down the the clammy dampness of midnight gath- and in your company he has become against section, interest against interest, of 1856, has transferred the accounts for ser- is heavily timbered and about 10 acres of good let me die; I might as well die here as river. At length the goodly vessel ering on her garments, did that delicate drunk, and in that condition, regardless and man against his brother. And O, heaves in sight and her owner recognized by the taken off to die. You are all heaves to be taken off to die. You are all beseech thee, especially free the store, in Gottysburg—by those more conveni- of what he owes to God, the communi- of cultivation. Lime acts well up in it, and strong, able to do nizes the stars and stripes. The news around her, that forded their petals to- ty, and his family, has done many Christian Churches from the political and stripes are already of sufficiently to family and stripes are already of sufficiently to family and stripes and bitterness which are randing things deeply painful to his friends, and stripes are already of sufficiently to family are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family and bitterness which are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family and bitterness which are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family and bitterness which are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family and bitterness which are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family and bitterness which are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family and bitterness which are randing the accounts are already of sufficiently to family and the control of the contro sober.

Friend.-Really ma'am you magnisend up to Heaven their grateful thanks the breaking of the gray dawn, alone fy trifles; a harmless frolic now and Lady.-Sir, you may consider drunkfinement and education into a besotted, to victory, and sustained in the estabsenseless, irresponsible being, is not a lishment of good measures. O, turn and beloved by numerous friends for party, and let them take care of him, the kind, generous manner in which he and provide us with a true minister of dispenses the pleasant amenities of social life. I tell you, sir, your conduct state of things can be at the present has seriously impaired the happiness are to rule, I shall claim one half the of myself and children. The object of time in behalf of the Democratic party, this visit is to request you to refrain so that there may be a fair discussion from further intercourse with Mr.—; within these walls!—Amen!" you can do him no good; on the contrary, you do us all a great deal of prayer ever publicly offered in that harm.. Friend.-I regret, madam, that you have so poor an opinion of me. I doubt | dreds of prayers and exhortations had very much the propriety of even a lady been made against that party. When making such a request as you make.

me the path of daty is perfectly plain, political preaching in that church.-Proposed Analysmution in the Public as promising as this Prince, escorted at on you with the hope that I might find attended to his gospel duties, and left in your nature some redeeming trait, all political questions to be settled by and that, through its influence, you the people outside of the church. Again would be induced to aid in saving my the society prospered, and there was a excellent husband from the ill effects of betterfeeling among its members—more of Mr. Wm. Blair, of Pittsburg, Pa., ror worse than I had anticipated. I The old man's earnest prayer was apwas discovered on the return of the now inform you, sir, that if hereafter, I family from church, last Sunday, ly find you in my husband's company, Hartford Times. ing on the floor, tied hand and foot, and inducing him to drink, I will take her clothes much burned. She said the matter in my own hands, and rem-

Friend .- What would you do, mad-

Lady.-Publicly horsewhip you, sir Friend -(forcing a very queer kind handling the watch, she broke the of laugh.) You would scarcely so far crystal, and, for fear of being repri- forget what is due to the dignity and delicacy of your sex. In addition to which, public opinion—

Lady.—Public opinion! I respect and proved it by producing the watch public opinion, sir, only so far as it acts correctly. My first duty is to my husband-to protect his health and vindicate his honor. If in doing this, it becomes necessary to publicly horsewhip a pretended friend, but a real enemy, I shall not stop to consult either the dig. six million dollars. nity or delicacy of my sex.-That porwhich is surrounded by a regular stone tion of the public whose opinion is worth having will judge the act by and sixty million acres of laud have the motive. I have not the least objective also donated. tion that it shall be told to my children when I am in my grave, their father was saved by their mother publicly "Who built it?" Another remarkable horsewhipping a heartless associate who would have led him to destruction. I repeat, sir, that if I find you in the situation I have described, I will chastise vou.

The friend smiled, and the lady took her leave. Time passed on, and the next seems in this domestic drama is In some parts of Central America, next score in this domestic drama is guissed in Washington Directions of State of the "Decipies of State of · 即作 新述:"特別 的可能从下的企業的bture. funcy a large, powerful, reasonably handsome, intellectual looking woman, her eyes flashing with-indignation, and with energy collected for an unusual achievement. Her carriage was just drawn up in front of a hotel, and in less time than it takes to tell it, in she steps to the bar-room. There, seated glass in hand, was her husband, and alongside of him his "friend." Quick as lightning she springs forward, and before you could say Jack Robinson, with the "friend" twisting and writhing in her gra-p, she is seen upon the hotel porch raining stripes as thick as hail upon the doomed delinquent. The thrashing was fiered in the extreme, and continued until the enraged woman cast her victim from her, exclaiming, 'Now, sir, I've kept my word." She then moved towards her husband, and in a firm but respectful manner offered her arm, which he took, and getting into the carriage with her, accompanied

An affair so extraordinary, and bappening among persons of high respectability, has naturally created a great deal of talk, and has called forth a vapeared to be providential allotments in tive of Marshal Ney, of Waterloo noto- It was not stated what the provocation riety of opinions -- some of the sterner sex think it really awful, and a few of wishywashy, sentimental Lydia Languishes of the neighborhood, simper out a severe condemnation of the lady: the better and more wholesome opinion, however, appeared to be, that a few such wives would redeem many husbands and save the temperance societies a great deal of trouble and expense. If a jury were summoned the vordict would be "served him right."

> How a Church was Cared of Pressontian. A Congregational Church in a neighboring State got so completely culisted in the Presidential contest, for Fremont this gentleman's life, it has been his and Jessie, that little attention was misfortune, greatly to the regret of his given to religious questions. The minnumerous friends, to get on what is lister was constantly preaching, praying may more properly, though perhaps ed suit at the prayer and conference loss elegantly, be styled "a regular bust." meetings. Finally a worthy old farm-Of late years his delinquencies in this | er, one of the staunchest and best memrespect have been less frequent, and bers of the church, and a firm undevia-"O Lord," said he, "uphoid the Democratic party, which has received thy thy pleasure, and I believe it will be. O carry that party through this strugdontial chair. Bless John C. Breckenridge, the young and zealous Democrat, Morris—for such we delight to call him took effect in his leg, severed the artery. a friend of my husband, myself, and my and open to him the path of daty as well as that which leads straight to tho Vice Presidency. Give them victory. Lady.—How then, sir, does it hap-O, bless the opponents of Democracy personally, but utterly destroy their fanatical and injurious schemes, if it be pen that you take pains to ruin him, thy will to do, as I verily believe it is. Be on the side of the Democracy, O for a moment suppose that I could be Lord, as thou hast been for the past guilty of such an enormity?

Lord, as thou hast been for the past fifty-six years, and on the 4th of March Lady.—I suppose nothing. I know, next we shall witness the inauguration sir, that you are guilty as I charge you of Pennsylvania's favorite son, and the sake lay me down and go and do your reaches Congress, a scene of joyful on the chill turk supporting on her knee a source of humiliation to him when asunder, destroying their usefulness, and turning them unhappily into mere political associations. Let us hear fy trifles; a harmless frolic now and something of the word and mercy on then scarcely deserves such severe rethe Sabbath. We have already been plied to fullness with political fanaticism, and our minister has become a enness and its attendant depravities as stump orator against the good old partrifles; I think very differently—an ty which thou in thy wisdom hast uptrific. My husband, outside of your in-fluence and association, is true to him-self and the community, admired for his learning, honored for his integrity, the hands of the Federal or Abolition

> This was a stumper. It was the first church for the success of the Democratic party and its nominees though hunthe old man had finished there was a si-Lady.—On that question, sir, I have lence for half an hour, and the meeting no doubt. My mind is made up; to then adjourned. And thus ended the swered in more respects than one .-

> > Hon. S. S. Cox, of Ohio, has the listinction of making the first speech in the new Hall of the House of Repre> > sentatives. Benedict Arnold's silver watch has been presented to the Connecticat

> > Historical Society. Three thousand three hundred and sixty-four newspapers are published in the United States and Territories.

It is estimated that about thirty. four million pounds of maple sugar are made annually in the Northern States. The wool crop for 1857 exceeded that of the previous year by three million pounds. The estimated value is

Sixty million dollars has thus far been paid for revolutionary pensions,

Brigham Young has increased his harem of seventy-five waite wives by adding to it fifteen young and lovely Indian squaws.

It is montioned as a singu that all the Judges of the Suprement Court of Illinois, were born and suppose the Ondida county, New York, A new religious see has