Fire at Hagerstown. - On Friday night wook, a fire broke out at Hagerstown. Md., in the stabling of Wright's Hotel. Before the flames could be suppressed the entire stabling was consumed, together with the stables of Mrs. R. Biershing and Thomas A. Boullt, and the stables of the Washington House.—At one time, in consequence of the high wind, the roofs of six or eight houses on Potomac street were on fire, creating quite a panic among the occupants, mayeral of whom moved out. Fortupately, however, the devouring element was arrested without serious damage.

The hotel and dwelling of Mr. Protsman, both of which were slightly damaged, are also insured. A new buggy belonging to Mr. E. H. Bentley, of this place, was destroyed with Wright's stabling.

Rissing on the Ice.—The Bostonians are famous, not only for making queer bets, but paying them, as witness the wheelbarrow feats a la Ben Perley Poore. While a party of Boston ladies and gentlemen were skating one day last week at Jamacia Pond, a young hady promised any man who could best young lady was rather pretty, all start-ed of, and at the end of the journey it was found that a young "darkey" was the winner. The lad says the lady gave the "buss" as though she was used to the business.
