Communicated On Wednesday last, JOHN FRANCIS, only We miss thee sadly, brother, dear We never can forget thee-never ; Thy name oft calls the parting tear, 'Twas hard such ties as ours' to sever And now we're left a broken band, Our home is lone vithout thee. We may not clasp our brother's hand, His happy smile no more may see. That loving heart is cold and still, Our parents mourn their darling John. Yet feel it was the Saviour's will, Who called him hence in life's young morn. We miss thee, oft we seem to hear The foot-fall as in days gone by, And gentle voice, and smiles of cheer, We could but mourn that thou didst die. We miss thee sadly, yet we know Thy soul still lives forever blest,

We hope to meet when we're at rest. To Contractors.
