By dint of effort he had got out the intruders, and dressed for meeting. But while reading the Scriptures to the congregation, he felt a dagger from one of the enraged smallwaisted fellows, and jumped round the pulpit, elapping his thighs. But the more he stapped and danced the more they stang. The people thought him crazy, but be explained the matter by saying: "Brethern, don't be alarmed: the word of the Lord is in my mouth, but the devil is in my breeches!" Webster always told it with great glee to the ministers.
