

The Compiler.

W. S. MUMMA, Editor and Proprietor.

GETTYSBURG, PA.

Monday Morning, Sept. 20, 1854.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

- WILLIAM A. FORTER, of Philadelphia.
WESLEY TRUST, of Fayette county.
DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.
WILSON REILLY, of Chambersburg.
CHARLES WILLY, of Oxford township.
ISAAC W. WHELAN, of Washington township.
DANIEL GOSSELMAN, of Union township.
ABRAHAM SPANGLER, of Cumberland sp.
JACOB KLECK, of Gettysburg township.
Dr. E. W. MUMMA, of Hamilton township.

ATTEND THE MEETINGS!

Democrats of Adams.
ONCE MORE INTO THE BATTLE-FIELD.

THE people of Adams county are invited to meetings of the Democracy, to be held at the following times and places, viz:
In GETTYSBURG, on Monday evening, Sept. 27th.
In FAIRFIELD, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 28th.
In ABBOTTSTOWN, on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 29th.
In IRISH TOWN, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 29th.
In LITTLESTOWN, on Thursday evening, Sept. 30th.
In HILLERSBERG, on Friday evening, Oct. 1st.

HON. WILSON REILLY, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this District, is expected to address all these meetings, and speeches will be made by other addresses of the "good old cause." COME ALL! Do not fail to hear the able and eloquent champion of Democracy, Mr. Reilly. By order of the Democratic Co. Com. H. J. STALLIE, Chairman. Sept. 20, 1854.

Coroner.

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, held at Wattle's hotel, in this place, on Wednesday last, the nomination of Dr. STEWART was accepted, and Dr. E. W. MUMMA, of Bendorville, was unanimously chosen for the position of Coroner upon the Democratic Ticket. Dr. Mumma is a gentleman well schooled in his profession, and eminently qualified to discharge the duties of Coroner to the entire satisfaction of the people of the county. He deserves, and will receive, the hearty support of the Democracy.

We Warned!

We forewarn our friends that the Opposition are now secretly and steadily at work, and notwithstanding the seeming indifference of many of them as to the result of the contest, every man will be found at his post when his services are wanted.

HON. WILSON REILLY, the Democratic nominee for Congress, addressed a large meeting of the Democracy of Juniata county, in the Court-house, at Millintown, on the 8th inst. The room was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the speech of Mr. Reilly is pronounced by the Register to have been thrillingly eloquent and impressive. It was rapturously applauded throughout, and when the meeting adjourned three tremendous cheers were given for Mr. Reilly.

We understand that the Opposition candidate for Congress, Mr. McPHERSON, is soliciting votes from Democrats. This is cool, to say the least of it. Why, ever since he has been old enough to take part in politics, his course towards Democrats and the Democratic party has been marked by abuse as coarse and offensive as language could make it. Every newspaper with which he ever held connection, was notorious for little else. Vituperative and heartless, therefore, as he has shown himself to be towards his political opponents, his advances for votes at the hands of any of them should be spurned with scorn and contempt.

The skies are bright in our good old Commonwealth. On all sides the undivided Democracy are making ready for the October battle, and will carry it in spite of all conditions. The majority, the Boozas and Frost may reach 40,000!

The Black Republicans have carried Maine, but by a decreased majority. The Democrats continue to increase as they have during the past year or two, they will have the State.

The Democrats have gained a member of Congress and several members of the Legislature. Well done!

The recent election for Governor in Vermont, New Hampshire and Connecticut, was a grand success. Nothing else! The two States will be frustrated.

Bold Falsification!
The Compiler mistakes the facts, when it says that Mr. Will voted against the additional pay to members. Adams Sentinel.
The Sentinel is endeavoring to exult the Star in bold falsification. A lie more naked or glaring than those which the former is guilty of in the above three lines, we have rarely seen equalled in the nearly twenty years during which we have been connected with the newspaper business. That Mr. Will voted against the additional pay to members, is as indisputable as any fact can be made by eye-witness and recorded evidence—and no one possessing a spark of truthfulness or fairness, (knowing the facts, as the editor of that paper does,) can say anything else.
Let us examine the House Journal. The Appropriation Bill, embracing something like fifty sections, as reported by the Committee of Ways and Means, contained a provision allowing members of both Houses $200 more than the regular salary—being the precise amount of additional pay which had been voted at several previous sessions. Mr. Will moved TO STRIKE OUT the provision in regard to the extra $200, and on the yeas and nays being called, the result was:
IN FAVOR OF STRIKING OUT—Messrs. Adams, Brandt, Bode, Geary, Gilliland, Glutz, Grattan, Hamel, Hay, Hayes, Hodgson, Jenkins, Kincaid, Love, McDonald, Negly, Hill, Sassaquer, Owen, Powell, Pownall, Price, Ramsdell, Ross, Roland, Rose, Rupp, Sharp, Shields, Stephens, Stewart, Turner, Veogly, Warden, Westbrook, Wharton, WILL, Wither, Wolf, Woodring, and Longaker, 31 yeas—41.

AGAINST STRIKING OUT—Messrs. Akers, Bierer, Bowler, Bruce, Calhoun, Caster, Chase, Christy, Crawford, J. H. Donnelly, Jas. Donnelly, Dunlap, Egan, Evans, Foster, Hinson, Hipple, Houtz, Inghis, Irwin, Jackson, Kirkpatrick, Lammans, Lawrence, Loyd, McClain, McClure, Smith (Berks), Smith (Chambers), Smith (York), Wagoner, Weaver, Weller, Wells, Wilcox, Williams, Williston and Yeary—44—See House Journal, pages 251 and 252.

There! Is not Mr. Will's vote recorded "against the additional pay to members"—or, which is the same thing, in favor of striking it out—as plain as black and white can make it? That the provision carried, was not Mr. Will's fault. He pursued the best possible course to defeat it by voting against it; and this was the only test had upon the section, and consequently the only occasion upon which an expression of the sentiments of members in regard to it could have been given.

Such is a simple and unvarnished statement of the facts in the case, as we have gleaned them from the Journal of the House proceedings. And yet, in the face of all, and easily established as the truth can be, the Adams Sentinel has the mendacity to declare that "The Compiler mistakes the facts, when it says that Mr. Will voted against the additional pay to members!"

Humiliating!
The Compiler attempts to get out of Mr. Will's "extra pay" business, by charging that Mr. Muselman stands upon the same footing, on the record of the previous session. We do not know that this, even if true, can help Mr. WILL. Two wrongs can never make a right.—Adams Sentinel.
To such complexion," then, must the Sentinel "come at last." Driven to the wall, hemmed in on all sides, in regard to the "extra pay business," the editor of that paper is forced to the desperate and humiliating alternative of pronouncing Major MUSSELMAN's course, in taking extra pay, WRONG! A year ago the act was all right in the eyes of the editor of that paper—but now he declares that it was "wrong;" and thus in effect acknowledges that he himself was accessory to a "wrong," because he endorsed it when the Major was a candidate for re-election!

If the acceptance of the extra pay was a "wrong" in Mr. Muselman, what shall be said of the editor of the Sentinel, who winked at it during last fall's contest? He cannot—he dare not—pled ignorance of the facts. Mr. Muselman has much reason to complain of this unlooked for stab at the hands of the editor of the Sentinel, and he may well beg to be "saved from his friends!"

We Dodged!

We asked the following question last Monday:
"Say, editors of the Star and Sentinel, did not Major MUSSELMAN, as a member of the Legislature, accept $200 'extra-pay'?" And, further, SAY, did you find fault with him for so doing? Answer!

The query is again put, because the Star would not touch it last Friday, and the Sentinel may be equally muzz in regard to it this morning. It is a plain question, and a candid answer (if the editors of the Star and Sentinel can screw themselves up to the truth-telling point,) would furnish the key to the unmanly and persecuting spirit which prompts them in their efforts to defeat CHARLES WILL. Come gentlemen, there is "black and white" for all we ask—Will you produce it? Will you "face the music?"

Democrats of Adams, pay the word along the line! The ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket.

The Democrats of Lancaster county have nominated for Congress James M. Manning, Esq., who will be supported by all the Union-loving men of that county.

The Democrats of Lancaster county have nominated for Congress James M. Manning, Esq., who will be supported by all the Union-loving men of that county.

The Atlantic Telegraph is not yet in working order. The managers are ready pelling in different directions.

Edwards, McPherson, Congress—Samsel Durbarow, Associate Judge—James Davis, Commissioner—Samuel Metzger, Director—Samuel Horbat, Auditor—John Brinkerhoff.

Opposition Platform.

[WITHOUT THE VARIATIONS.]
In the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, I do solemnly promise and swear that I will never betray any of the secrets of this society, nor communicate them to proper candidates, except within a lawful council of the order; that I will never permit any of the secrets of this society to be written, or in any other manner to be made legible, except for the purpose of official instruction; that I will not vote, nor give my influence for any man, for any office in the gift of the people, unless he be an American born citizen, in favor of Americans ruling America, nor if he be a Roman Catholic; that I will in all political matters, so far as this order is concerned, comply with the will of the majority, though it may conflict with my personal preference.—Know Nothing Oath.

I of my own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will not, under any circumstances, disclose in any manner, nor suffer it to be done by others, in my power to prevent it, the name, sign, name words, or other secrets of this degree, except in open Council for the purpose of instruction; that I will support in all political offices, members of this order in preference to other persons; that I will, when elected or appointed to any official station conferring on me the power to do so, remove all foreigners, aliens, or Roman Catholics from office or place, and that I will in no case appoint such to any office or place in my gift. I do also promise and swear that this and all other obligations which I have previously taken in this order shall ever be kept through life, sacred and inviolate. All this I promise and declare as an American to sustain and abide by, without any hesitation or mental reservation whatever, so help me God.—Know Nothing Oath.

Too "Sharp," by Odds!

In the last Sentinel appears a correspondence, (the idea suggested by a leader out of the borough, and the letters the work of the Star managers,) between Mr. JACOB REISSER, of East Berlin, and Mr. SAMUEL DURBAROW, the Know Nothing candidate for the Legislature. Mr. R. is asked his opinion in regard to "extra $200" and the "tonnage tax."

In regard to the former, he says he would vote, if elected, (there's the rub!) to repeal the $700 law, but is very careful not to commit himself in regard to the taking of the said $700, should the bill not be repealed. This is a palpable dodging of the question.

As to the tonnage tax on the Central Railroad, it is proper to bear in mind that the Opposition in the Legislature have always shown a very warm side for that mammoth company, going even so far as to give it the Main Line of our Public Works for half price. Becoming fearful that the people would suspect them of a desire also to relieve the company of the tonnage tax which it pays into the Treasury of the State, their leaders, here and there, suggest the propriety of their candidates pledging themselves to an opposite course; but they generally leave a loop-hole for an emergency, such as the following in the letter signed by Mr. Durbarow:

"Holding these views, I shall regard it my duty, if elected, to vote against a repeal of the Tonnage tax, unless it can be satisfied, that a repeal would bring more money into the Treasury of the State."

We utilize the last two lines, because there is more in them than what occurs to the apprehension of the hasty reader. It would be a very easy matter for the Central Railroad Company to convince Mr. Durbarow that the "repeal would bring more money into the Treasury of the State." Let his partisan feelings but run with that Company, as did those of Major Muselman and all the rest of the Opposition members in 1857, and there would be little trouble in convincing Mr. Durbarow of anything. The Opposition candidate for Congress in this district, who has served the Company well, could readily be impressed into the service, and his "figures" (if as potent as Mr. R.'s,) would soon demonstrate to Mr. R. the propriety of a repeal of the tonnage tax! That dodge is equally transparent.

Mr. Durbarow's letter winds up as follows:
"Having no views of public policy to conceal from the public eye, you are, of course, at liberty to make such use of this correspondence as you may think proper."

This has a very candid look, but the honesty of it is sadly damaged by the incident which it suggests in Mr. Durbarow's Know Nothing oath of secrecy in a Council of the Order in Mountjoy township. That oath enjoined and required those subscribing to it to DECEIVE.

The "correspondence" had better be used in a Know Nothing fashion—privately. Its publication in the newspapers has served only to expose a new piece of treachery.

At the Pennsylvania Legislature Conference of Philadelphia and Falton counties, at London, on the 26th inst., the Senatorial Delegation to the next Democratic State Convention was concluded to Adams county.

The Atlantic Telegraph is not yet in working order. The managers are ready pelling in different directions.

Fraud!

THE "KANE LETTER" AND THE OPPOSITION STATE CONVENTION!

The fraud perpetrated by the celebrated "Kane letter" in 1844, by which the Democracy were made to believe that James K. Polk was a better Tariff-man than HENRY CLAY (!) has never been forgotten.—Adams Sentinel.

If the "Kane letter" was a "fraud," then is the resolution in regard to the Tariff adopted by the recent Black Republican Know Nothing ("People's") State Convention at Harrisburg—the nominees of which the Sentinel warmly supports—also a "fraud!"

Read the following extract from the "Kane letter":
"I am in favor of a tariff for revenue, such as will yield a sufficient amount to the Treasury to defray the expenses of the Government economically administered. In adjusting the details of a revenue tariff I have heretofore sanctioned such moderate discriminating duties as would produce the amount of revenue needed, and at the same time afford reasonable incidental protection to our home industry.—June 19, 1844.

Now turn to the resolution of the recent Opposition State Convention. It is these words, exactly:
"Resolved, That the revenue necessary for a judicious and economical administration of the Government should be derived by the imposition of duties upon foreign imports, and in laying them, such discriminating protection should be given as will secure the rights of free labor and American industry."

The sentiments expressed in each are like as two peas—and if there was a "fraud" in the one there must be a "fraud" in the other. Is it not so, candid reader?

This "Tariff" agitation is turning out to be an unfortunate one for the Sentinel and Star, as well as for their candidate for Congress. Both these papers were very earnest in favor of the election of "Free-trade" Wilmot to the Governorship, but a year since, whilst Mr. McPHERSON was so far in his admiration of the "traitor Davy" as to serve in the office of Secretary to the State Committee, and spent several months in that intimate capacity, at Philadelphia, immediately preceding the election. And now, to make bad worse, the Opposition Convention has placed before the people of the Commonwealth, an equally ardent old "Free-trader" for Supreme Judge, JOHN M. REPP, of Philadelphia, who was one of the signers to a letter congratulating Vice President Dallas upon his "firmness" and "patriotism" in giving the casting vote against the Tariff of 1842!!

Under such adverse circumstances, an ordinary sense of prudence would suggest danger in pronouncing the "Kane letter" a "fraud"! And it would also suggest that significant adage, that "people who live in glass houses should never throw stones!"

"Raw Head and Bloody Bones!"

The editor of the Star does not like our allusions to Know Nothingism.—Did any reader ever know a man guilty of an improper act to desire to have it afterwards "cast up" to him? Of course not. But it may still be well, occasionally, to remind such persons of the frailty of human nature, that they may be more circumspect in after life. So with the Star managers. We wish to keep them in remembrance of their "dark-lantern" folly, that they may avoid now-fangled isms in the future. We are not sure that our "remedy" will effect a permanent cure—but the physician, nauseating as may be, they must most certainly take, and in just such doses as they may choose to prescribe. Ugly faces won't abate our resolution an iota.

"Stravaganance!"

The Star says that "a lie well struck to is better than the truth." The Star ought to know. As the business is not in our line, of course we cannot be expected to say anything about it, pro or con. But if the editor of that treacherous paper is in earnest in the above declaration, we would suggest the necessity of his paying closer attention to his "P's and Q's."

A month or more ago, he declared that Mr. BUCHANAN's Administration expended $100,000,000 in a single year; but fearing that the story was too large even for the "weak-minded" to swallow, on Friday a week he came down to $80,000,000! On our twitting him for the trifling discrepancy, he last Friday took an immense leap upwards, and fixed the sum at nearly $104,000,000! This "lie" has been so bunglingly "stuck to," that we should not wonder if his readers presently believed that the Administration had not spent half what he charges it with—in which, by the way, they would arrive very nearly at the correct figures, say $50,000,000.

The War Department has just closed a contract with Snyder, of Philadelphia, to furnish sixteen thousand felt hats for the army, at $2 75 each.—The Opposition papers have not yet discovered that the contractor has ordered the hats from Scotland; but if it be necessary, to produce an effect on the coming election, they will doubtless have the news—whether true or not, is of no consequence.

Neal Dow has met the fate of Giddings. He was a candidate before the Commonwealth (Mr.) County Republican Convention for the Senatorial nomination, and was defeated by a Mr. HANFORD.

All who were present at the meeting, can find ample evidence of the treachery of the "Know Nothing" party, and the more so, because all the "Know Nothing" papers have been silent on the subject.

The Opposition in the Erie and Crawford districts are quarrelling savagely about a candidate for Congress. In the Blair, Huntingdon and Cambria districts the Opposition are also engaged in quarrelling about a candidate. The Opposition are quarrelling about a candidate for Congress.

The National men of the old Whig party in Lancaster county are up in arms against Thaddeus Stevens.

Stevens is now on the other horse.

Communication.

Mr. STALLIE.—The nomination of our excellent Democratic ticket, I perceive, has set the Star clique nearly mad. They cannot find the slightest pretext for saying anything against any man on the ticket except Mr. Will, and his consistent and straight-forward course last Winter in the Legislature, prevents them from saying anything in truth that he or "the rest of mankind" need care to have published to the four corners of the world. I understood the Star clique and the leaders of the Republican portion of the moiety faction that we have to contend with on caucus recently, at which it was resolved that the Star clique should refrain from indulging in their favorite, and, in fact, for the last few years past, their only mode of warfare, that of assailing and abusing one portion of their fellow citizens because they happen to differ with other portion on account of their religious and political opinions, and the place of their birth. The Republicans could indeed that expediency, at least, if no higher consideration, should induce them to forego for a period the indulgence of their predominant passion; especially since this indulgence in the eyes of some of their own party, had contributed largely to bring about the present political complexion of the county.

At these allusions the Star clique seemed to look mysterious, and were about to ask for an explanation, through their Attorney-general, when one of the more prudent members of the said clique whispered a word of advice to the aforesaid Attorney, which induced him to resume his seat and hold his peace, and bear the rub in silence.

The Star clique know they had a hard road to travel, in consequence of their antecedents, and they also know that in case they prolonged the discussion as we were led a few years ago, through the columns of the Star and Sentinel, would be stirred up again, which might serve to distract and disturb the harmony of the party, composed as it is of all sorts and sizes of isms.

The Star clique, it seems, had indulged in the hope that since there had been some nominal changes made in their officers and discipline, such as the sticking out a new name at the head of their official organ, and the observance of a more moderate tone on a certain subject, (as we were led a few years ago, through the columns of the Star and Sentinel,) would be stirred up again, which might serve to distract and disturb the harmony of the party, composed as it is of all sorts and sizes of isms.

Notwithstanding all this, the Star clique can scarcely keep their bounds, as is evidenced by the sectarian incursions thrown out last week through the columns of the Star in regard to the religion of Chas. Will. If they dare not bite, they cannot refrain from showing their ivory; and it seems that they would spare a part of their very nose, if they could with profit or interest be permitted to follow the bent of their narrow bigoted and morbid inclinations. The comments they make in regard to the votes of Mr. Will on the extra-pay bill are truly ridiculous and desperate. They know that he voted against it on every occasion and in every shape, and this galls them to the core. They feign to be surprised that Mr. Will did not call the yeas and nays after the bill had actually passed. In this the clique again show their teeth, as well as their ignorance, if they possibly can discern it. They can find nothing in Mr. Will's course last Winter calculated to console them, and they are forced thus to grapple with shadows, and resort to stratagem and fiction.

Judge Smyser, once upon a time, voted against, and took extra-pay, and the Star subscribed to the legality and propriety of the act. John Muselman, more recently dodged an extra-pay bill, (at least his vote cannot be shown,) and pocketed the proceeds, yet it was regular and patriotic in the eyes of the Star. Mr. Will did as the Hon. D. M. Smyser had done,—did better than Major Muselman had done, yet he is blamed, and they applauded by catching at such subtleties as this, and then sink even in their own estimation.

They are to be pitied, poor fellows, because they can find nothing plausible to urge against our men. Mr. Will's vote on the License question embarrassed them not a little. They cannot make any capital out of this without interfering with and contradicting their past positions and expressions on the subject.

Besides, their man, Durbarow, they say, is so great a stickler on the temperance question, and for total abstinence, that he would not assist his neighbors, even of his own "political complexion," in obtaining tavern license by simply signing their petitions. Under these and similar circumstances, it is no wonder that men of such impulses and passions as those that conduct and control the columns of the Star should become desperate and despotic. So while we are in duty bound to make allowance for what has passed, we must be surprised at nothing on their part in the future.

Kansas.—The following is an extract from a letter, dated August 27th, 1856, from a gentleman of high character residing in the Territory:
"Here is but little of interest in the Territory. Everything is quiet, and there is not the slightest probability of any further disturbance. Now and then some one proposes a new constitution, but it meets with no favor."

The National men of the old Whig party in Lancaster county are up in arms against Thaddeus Stevens.

Stevens is now on the other horse.

THE "WELL" OF THE "STAR."

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.

The yellow fever has scourged the South-Western States in large numbers, and went to France river and returning to San Francisco.