

GETTYSBURG, PA.

Monday Morning, Jan. 3, 1893.

Chief Clerk

The judges of St. Paul, Minn., have one... they wear thick, high boots, and they are very stout and healthy, and more comfortable. Why not adopt the pump boots?

The asserted death of Albert Pike is now positively contradicted. He was at Napoleon, Arkansas, on Friday week, in good health.

The income of the Rev. Dr. Chapin, of New York, is said to be $275 per week from lectures and preaching.

At a late election for Mayor, in the city of Manchester, New Hampshire, the Democrats elected their candidate. The Black Republicans have also been beaten for Mayor in Boston.

Last Christmas day was more generally observed in New York than on any previous occasion.

The March Chink Democrat is pleased to hear that the iron trade has very much improved within the last month. All the works on the Lehigh Valley have been shipping to the ships all the iron they had on hand and have as many orders as they can fill.

Alexander Robinson, who was arrested in Philadelphia a short time ago on a charge of rape in Delaware, having induced a young girl to leave her home on pretense that her brother was sick, and then committed violence upon her, has been tried and convicted of the offense, and sentenced to six years, it being a capital offense in Delaware. Another individual was concerned with him in the affair, who will also be tried.

George Diller, of Lancaster, well known as an auctioneer, fell down dead in market a few mornings since with apoplexy. He was 75 years old.

An effort is on foot in Knoxville, Tenn., for the erection of an asylum for drunks.

Gov. King, of New York, has given a decided opinion in favor of the removal of the New York quarantine from Staten Island.

The President's message has been favorably received by the Liberal party in Mexico.

Walter, proprietor of the "Union Hall," in Danville, on Monday week, killed four pigs, only 17 months old, which weighed collectively 2,111 lbs., making an average weight of a pig over 527 pounds.

Walter Kelly, an employe at the Washington Foundry, Baltimore, Md., was roasted alive at the furnace of that establishment on Tuesday afternoon. He had been sent into the furnace to mend something, and fell into the furnace, overcame it, is supposed, by the fumes of the charcoal.

An old man named Robert Comper, who was worth $200,000, but now is a beggar, was sent to the calaboose at Memphis, a few days ago, for being an incorrigible drunkard.

Bredice says of an editor, who said he "smelt a rat," that if he did, and the rat smelt him, the poor rat had the worst of it.

There was an "old folk's concert," for the benefit of the poor, in Terre Haute, Ind., one evening last week, at which the women all dressed in old-fashioned gowns, without hoops.

A German physician has published a medical tract, in which he maintains that ladies of weak nerves should not be permitted to sleep alone. There are many who will agree with him.

The Buffalo people have organized a skating club, hired a "lot" of land, caused it to be flooded with water, which is expected will freeze, built a retiring room for ladies, and hired a man to take care of the ice, keep it clear of snow, &c., at an expense of $1,000, for their sport this winter.

Mother, is everything we read in the Bible true? "Yes, my son." "Well, mother, I read that the hair of our head were all numbered, and I pulled a handful out of Maria's head and there wasn't a number on them."

E. M. Eason, while chopping wood near Indianapolis on Tuesday, cut his foot severely. A physician was called and found him sitting in a chair dead, his foot in a basin filled with blood. If he had been placed in a horizontal position the application of a single bandage would have saved his life, but no one present knew it.

The papers say there is a great demand for women in Oregon. Isn't there a demand for women everywhere? There are plenty of ladies—fairly creatures with soft hands and soft feet, puffed with hoops in the lower story, and nonsense in the upper—but genuine, sensible women are in demand all over creation. They are scarce; they are good gold, and as far as to the best state stocks, so says a bachelor editor.

The reports of the richness of the mines in the Allegheny region are confirmed by recent intelligence, and the current of emigration into Allegheny is becoming very strong. Six hundred and fifty men are now at work at the mines, and five hundred more are on their way.

The honorable and distinguished gentleman who presides over the sessions of the Reading Daily Times, acknowledges the receipt of a keg of beer on Christmas. Wonder what kind of a scene that office presented about an hour after its reception?

A teacher in one of the Sunday Schools, on Sunday last, was interrogating a little girl in the fourth prayer, and was expecting to hear her say, "Forgive us our trespasses, &c." The child misinterpreted the remark, and said, "Send us our Christmas gifts." Pretty good, isn't it?

"John," said Mr. B. the Saturday to his son, "John, you are lazy; what do you do with your hands on a Sunday?" "I'm thinking of how to get a new pair of trousers."

A young man, who was interrogated by a policeman, said that he had been arrested for being drunk on Christmas night. "What do you do with your hands on a Sunday?" "I'm thinking of how to get a new pair of trousers."

The late election in Kansas City, says the Harrisburg (Missouri) Democrat, of the 25th Dec., states, that on the previous Monday a band of thieves and assassins from the Territory, entered Vernon county, (Missouri) killed David Cruise, stole a lot of cattle, twenty horses and eleven negroes. About the same time two parties, under Brown and Montgomery, entered Missouri on the Little Osage river, stole a negro woman, and took Mr. Lane prisoner, carrying him into the Territory, but released him the next day.

It is also stated that Gov. Stewart, of Missouri, had been called upon for assistance to protect the lives and property of the citizens of that State. In the meantime, unless prompt action be had in Kansas, the flames of civil discord will again be seen in all portions of the Territory. This man, Montgomery, is the leader of that band of outlaws who have disturbed the peace of Kansas for years, and yet he has been defended by the Black Republican press of this section, and his acts extolled as worthy of all praise.

In the House, shortly after the meeting of Congress, Mr. DEWART, Democrat, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution instructing the Committee of Ways and Means to report a bill to raise the duties on coal and iron. Every Democrat from Pennsylvania present in the House, voted for this resolution. It is said the new member from Berks, who rode into office on the high tariff lobby, dragged when the vote was taken.

Oregon is ready for admission into the Union. She comes with a free constitution. The Democrats in Congress are in favor of admitting her, and thus adding another to the number of free States, but the Black Republicans are determined to keep her out. The reason of this conduct on the part of the latter, is that Oregon is Democratic, and if admitted, would cast her vote for the Democratic nominee in 1860.

Later from Havana—Revolution Anticipated.—The new Spanish military officers have made overtures to the French government to intervene to prevent any revolutionary movement contemplated by the inhabitants of Cuba. Concha has not been consulted in the matter, but there is good reason to believe that there is a revolutionary movement on foot among the people of Cuba, which is soon expected to break out there. A large number of Americans are now in Cuba to aid in the movement, and they are confident of success if France declines to interfere. A Cuban gentleman just arrived from the island says that the people and a part of the army are ready for a revolution, but they fear the intervention of the European powers.

General W. S. Blewett confirms the statement that strong efforts are making by the Spanish authorities of Cuba to obtain the intervention of France.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 29.—It is currently reported here that the emigration of Americans to Cuba has been going on quietly for months past, and is supposed to be invited by revolutionists. A secret agent of the government, located here, is unable to detect any illegal emigration.

At a late election in the Black Republican State of Maine, the Abolition vote was divided between a White Black Republican and a Negro? Think of it, a Negro running for office!—Pennsylvania may witness the same scene, if Black Republicanism ever gets into power in her legislature.

The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser has thrown overboard Mr. Crittenden and Gen. Scott, as candidates for the next Presidency, on the ground that they are both too old. The Commercial wants a young man and a man of muscle, but indicates no preference by name. How would Heenan or Morrissey do? They are "men of muscle." The Commercial was formerly old line Whig, but is now a sort of hard-shell Republican.

The Legislature of this State will meet to-morrow, that being the 1st Tuesday in January, the time fixed by the constitution. The most important matter to be considered is the proposed amendment of the Constitution, which will change the day of the year to the 1st of January.
