Whatno encomiums, nor useless puffery from the BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood de Co.:—Gentlemen:—
Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your ever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the imquities of the fathers upon their ch.ldren." nair restorative, I was induced to make ap-

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same causs.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To eleause it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and inrigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical akill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is com-bined from the most active remedial, that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of rofuls, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Encertive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Engippies, Pinries, Pustules, Blotones, Bleins and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Riply, Scald Head, Ringworm, Reservation, Strhilitic and Mesculial Dis-BASES, DROPSY, DESPETSIA, DESILITY, and, indeed, all Complaints alising from Vitia-TED OR INFURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. Th particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so command that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and rostoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is automished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formsidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
