NEWS, ETC.

Resolutions have been introduced into the Senate of the State of New York, instructing the Representatives in Congress from that State, to favor the appropriation of thirty millions for the purchase of Cuba.

McComick's patent for his improvement in reaping machines expired on Monday, and the invention, therefore, becomes public property. The Commissioner of Patents overruled the application for the extension of the patent.

William H. Prescott, the historian, died on Friday week, in Boston, very suddenly, from paralysis. He had been enjoying his usual health up to the moment of his death.

Governor Hicks, of Maryland, declines to interfere in the case of Henry Gambrill, convicted of the murder of Police Officer Benton, of Baltimore, and now under sentence of death for the crime.

Mrs. Sarah E. Shaw, whose husband was killed on the Worcester Railroad, had a verdict rendered in her favor, on Saturday, in Boston, of $23,000. This sum is large enough to keep her comfortable for the remainder of her days.

Suppose the Democratic party should be obscured for a season, for some cause or other, when has it failed to recover its strength and glory, renewing its hold upon the popular heart, and deepening its impress upon passing and coming events, at the earliest possible opportunity?

The New York Legislature got into the habit one session, of passing bills by their titles, and, as a way, taking advantage of the carelessness, assisted at the enactment of the following clause in a bill incorporating an educational institution: "It shall be the duty of the faculty of said institution, on every Saturday evening, for the moral improvement of the pupils, to give them lessons in catechism and moral philosophy, to kiss all the girls and spank all the boys."

A Mr. Gerber, of Northumberland county, on a visit to Philadelphia in December, 1831, returned to Reading by the Schuylkill Canal, with skates on the ice. He left the city after breakfast, and arrived at Reading on the evening of the same day, in good health and spirits. The distance made was upwards of thirty miles. This feat attracted much attention at the time.

A Tilt in the State Senate.

On Wednesday week, when the Tariff resolutions were under consideration, Mr. SCHOFIELD, of Warren, who is one of the lesser lights of the newly made Republican converts, but claimed to be an ardent Democrat in 1856, offered an amendment of sympathy for the President because some of his Cabinet do not entertain the same views in regard to specific duties he does. Mr. S. attempted to justify this unnecessary attack upon Mr. BUCHANAN, and asked in a semi-naïve twang, "what has become of his [the President's] old friends—his old editor and others? They had deserted him." This brought Mr. WELSH, of York, to the floor, who put in the following pointed rejoinder.—We copy from the Record:

Mr. WELSH said that the Senator from Warren intimated that there was a lack of disposition, on the part of the friends of the President, to sympathize with him. He was glad to see, if any of his friends were prepared to desert him, that some of his old friends were coming back to him. He recollected sitting side by side with the Senator from Warren, in State Convention, and voting with him for delegates to the Cincinnati Convention to sustain James Buchanan. Since then the Senator had left him; but he was happy now to see, that whilst some of the friends of Mr. Buchanan were deserting him, old ones were coming back. With all respect for the views and character of the Senator from Warren, he would ask him to withdraw the amendment. What good, he asked, could be accomplished by it? As Senators, we are gathered together to legislate upon important interests to the Commonwealth, to protect her rights, and to subvert those interests, by every fair and honorable means in our power. There was a vital principle involved in these resolutions—vital to the industry, energy, and vast natural resources of the State; and when he came into the Senate chamber, to interfere in the case of Henry Gambrill, convicted of the murder of Police Officer Benton, of Baltimore, and now under sentence of death for the crime.

LEGISLATIVE.

Much of the time of the Legislature is occupied with applications for charters for Passenger Railroads in Philadelphia—as was the case last winter.

In the Senate, on Tuesday last, Mr. Brower presented a petition from citizens of York and Adams counties, praying for the re-charter of the Hanover Savings Fund Society. Mr. Welsh took of similar import. Mr. Welsh also presented a petition from citizens of York county, for the abolition of the office of County School Superintendent. Mr. Shaffer presented a petition from citizens of Lancaster county, for the repeal of the law increasing the fees of District Attorneys.

On Friday, in the Senate, Mr. Brower presented two petitions from citizens of Adams county and one from citizens of Franklin county, praying for the passage of a law for the protection of deer.

The Tariff. In the United States Senate, on Monday last, Mr. BIGLER, of this State, offered the following important resolution, and asked for it as early a consideration as possible:

Resolved, That as, in the opinion of the Senate, the creation of a large public debt in a time of peace is inconsistent with the true policy of the United States, and, as the present revenues are insufficient to meet the unavoidable expenses of the government, Congress should proceed, without delay, to so adjust the revenue laws as not only to meet the deficit in the current expenses, but to pay off the present debt, so far as it may be liable to immediate cancellation.

The Louisville Journal says the New York Tribune and the Times have Republicanism on the dissecting board for a post mortem examination. The Tribune accuses the Times of having strangled it after its birth. And the Times retorts that the Tribune overdid it. Between the twain they have done it to death, and the crowners' quest are now setting on it.

A. B. HAMILTON, Esq., of Harrisburg, has again been chosen State Printer. Mr. Hamilton executed the public printing for the past three years in a highly satisfactory manner, and we are pleased that he has again proven the successful bidder.

The ultimate acquisition of Cuba may be considered as a fixed purpose of the United States—a purpose resulting from geographical necessities, which have been recognized by all parties and all administrations, and in regard to which the popular voice has been expressed with a unanimity unsurpassed on any question of public policy that has heretofore engaged the public mind.

A gathering of Anti-Slaveryites at Albany, last week, "Resolved, that the Union is a covenant with death, and ought to be annulled—an agreement with hell, which a just God cannot permit to stand—and that it is the paramount duty of all to seek its immediate overthrow. The fools are not all dead yet, nor the knaves all hung."

The Case of Marion Crop.—Sentence of Death.—Judge Price, on Saturday week, over-ruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Marion Crop, convicted of the murder of officer Rigdon. The prisoner was immediately thereupon sentenced to be hung on such day as the Governor may designate. Judge Price, in passing the awful sentence of the law upon the prisoner, delivered some appropriate and feeling remarks, but the prisoner remained unmoved throughout.

Duval, who killed Mr. Fischer, a German tavern-keeper, in Baltimore, some months since, was, on Friday last, found guilty of murder in the first degree.

Terrible Affair.—A Whole Family Burned to Death.—A shocking calamity occurred near Allegheny City, Pa., on Monday night about 1 o'clock, involving the loss of the lives of a man named Rogers, his wife, and four out of five children. The Pittsburg Journal says:

This Rogers and wife had, it seems from the evidence of the neighbors, for some time given themselves up to drinking, and though he owned the property, on which he lived, yet so worthless had he become that the family had been supported by the neighbors out of charity. He and his wife frequently had quarrels, and so common had their quarrels and noises become to the neighbors that but little attention was paid to them. Screams were heard by the neighbors in the house before the fire was discovered by them, but supposing that they were, as usual, occasioned by a drunken fight, and as they were known to have been drunk all day, nothing was thought of it till the flames were seen. But it was too late; the drunken husband and wife, father and mother, were consumed in the first story, while the cries of poor innocent children, the innocent victims of the infernal vice of their parents, went up in hopeless agony from the second story, where the merciless flames had encircled them with their fiery and fatal wreaths before human aid had reached them. The only one saved was a boy who got out on the porch. The house was dry and burned like a flash. All that human aid could do was done, but it came too late. The two cities and neighborhood are thrilled with horror at this occurrence.

Rogers was a carpenter by trade, and the eldest child that perished was not over ten years of age. The one which made its escape was eleven or twelve years old.

The orange trees of South Carolina are now in bloom.

FEBRUARY INTEREST.

The semi-annual interest on the Gettysburg Railroad Bonds due on the 1st instant, is promptly paid as called for, by Col. McCLELLAN, the Treasurer of the Company. There is no lack of funds to meet it.

These Bonds are among the very best, because entirely secure, investments of the day. That the Road will, under all circumstances, pay the working expenses, the interest on the bonds, and leave a handsome surplus, is no longer questionable.

ALMOST A FIRE.

We learn that the residence of our friend PICS FINX, in Mountjoy township, came near destruction by fire week before last. The family were up quite early in the morning, soon after which the roof was discovered to be on fire in several places, burning in a bright blaze. By prompt efforts the flames were subdued, before serious damage was done. It is supposed that the roof caught from sparks from the chimney.

Another.—The house occupied by Mr. MARTIN WARREN, in West Middle street, in this place, was in imminent danger of being destroyed by fire on Friday night last, at about 10 o'clock. It seems that a partition in the house caught from a stove pipe, the flames from which communicated with a bed close by, and then to the roof. The bed was nearly consumed, but by timely assistance further damage was prevented.

RELIGIOUS APPOINTMENTS.

The Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren in Christ, held their annual meeting in Mechanicsburg, on the 19th ult. Bishop Gleason presiding, and subsequently adjourned to meet at York, in January, 1860. We find the following appointments in the York papers:

Z. A. Colestock, P. E. York station, J. C. Smith; York circuit, J. C. Wentz; Liverpool, W. Humberger; York Springs, J. G. Shoen; Paradise mission, J. B. Jones; Rev. W. D. Baber is re-appointed to Chambersburg station.

LECTURES.

The remaining Lectures of the course before the Young Men's Christian Association will be delivered in the following order: Rev. J. R. Keiser, Friday evening, Feb. 11. Rev. Prof. Jacobs, " " " 18. Rev. Chas. Horner, " " " 25. Dr. R. Krauth, " " " March 4. D. M. Conaughy, Esq., " " " 11.

The Lecture by Rev. Mr. KEISER, on Friday evening next, will be delivered in the Presbyterian Church, at 7 o'clock—subject "Power of Individual Influence."

THE WEATHER.

During the past week, has been "everything by turns, but nothing long." Sunshine, rain, and snow, have followed each other in such rapid succession, as to indicate (in the language of Commodore Griewold) "just no climate at all." Too much care cannot be taken in regard to dress these "changeable" days.

RAILROAD SURVEY.

We learn from the Hanover Spectator that JOSEPH S. GIRT, Esq., Civil Engineer, has completed an instrumental examination of the route of the proposed Railroad from New Oxford to East Berlin. The survey was commenced on Wednesday of week before last, and completed on the following Saturday. The corps consisted of some sixteen or eighteen persons, with a number of spectators. The result of the survey is not yet given.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. JOHN STORCK, who resided a few miles from this place, and near Mt. Hope, died very suddenly on the evening of the 26th ult. He was on a visit to the house of Mr. JONN A. SHANK, and in the act of mounting his horse to return home, when he fell to the ground, and in a few moments expired in the arms of Mr. S., who had raised him up.—One of his legs was broken either by the fall or the animal stepping upon it. Apoplexy was doubtless the cause of his death, as we learn he had had a previous attack. Mr. S. was advanced in life and a man much respected.—Waynesboro' Record.

FUNERAL OF MR. YOKILL.

The remains of Serg. GEORGE YOKILL, of Philadelphia, whose death in this place was noticed in our last, were interred in this city on Wednesday. The funeral cortege consisted of a delegation of the Cadwallader Greys, the Scott Legion, and the members of the Franklin Fire Company, Beck's Brass Band, and a number of citizens. His body was first conveyed to the Church of St. Philip & Neri, where an impressive funeral service was performed. The procession then moved to the Catholic Cemetery, where the body was interred with the honors of war—the Cadwallader Greys firing three salutes.

BALTIMORE ADVERTISEMENTS.

Special attention is invited to the Baltimore business cards in this issue of THE COMPILER. They embrace many of the best houses in the city, in the different trades,—such as may be implicitly relied on by all having dealings with them. Such of our readers as may visit the city will lose nothing by giving our advertisers a call.

JOBBING.

We have made still further additions to the Job Printing department of our establishment, and are better prepared than ever to execute any work in that line. Farmers and others who are about to sell at public or private sale, would do well by calling at THE COMPILER OFFICE.

At the recent election in Lexington, Kentucky, the Democrats were successful—for the first time during several years. This fact we are happy to chronicle, as we are the subsequent fact that our friend Jno. W. BITTNER, Esq., formerly of this county, (grand-son of Hon. D. STEVENS, of York Springs) has been chosen, by the Council, Clerk of the city. That he will do credit to the station we are very certain.

The Receipts and Expenditures of Adams county for 1858 will be found in subsequent columns. The statement is of a highly satisfactory character.

The operations of the Mummasburg Mutual Fire Protection Society are also given in our advertising columns, and the exhibit is a very encouraging one.

For first class vegetables, always commend us to Mr. PHILIP REDDING, of Cumberland township. He presented us with other day with several "mosses" of Parsnips, that which we never ate better—large, tender and not stringy. Mr. R. has our thanks—and may his shadow never grow less.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD.

The general annual meeting of the stockholders of the Northern Central Railroad Company was held, on Wednesday last, at Calvert Station, in the city of Baltimore. After the reading of the report of the President, the election for Directors was given into which resulted in the choice of the following ticket, in favor of which what is termed the "Pennsylvania interest" threw its influence:—

Adam Denmead, Wm. T. Walters, James Frazier, Wm. Devries, J. H. Rieman, Peter Maxwell, Wm. D. Miller, W. E. Mayhew, A. M. E. Kapp, Simon Cameron, Alex. Small, William Calder, Jr. The first eight gentlemen named on this ticket are citizens of Baltimore, and the four latter citizens of Pennsylvania. Only two on the list are of the old board, viz: Messrs. Frazier and Mayhew.

At six in the evening the new Board convened, when Zenas Barnum, Esq., the late President, resigned, that the new administration might at once complete its organization. The resignation was accepted, and Jno. S. Gittings, Esq., of Baltimore, chosen President for the ensuing year.

We submit the following abstract of the annual report, bringing its affairs down to the end of the year, 31st December, 1858.—The revenue for the past year has been:

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Working expenses, Net revenue, Total, Disbursements, and Balance on hand.

Notwithstanding the depressed condition of the industrial interests of the region adjacent and tributary to the road, with almost a total failure of the crop in this section of the country, the receipts of the road show an increase of $70,068 23 as compared with the previous year. This increase is altogether attributable to the facilities offered to trade and travel, by the opening of the road to Sunbury, while the working expenses of the road for the same period are at the rate of 51-85 per cent. on the gross income, showing a decrease of 0.43 per cent. as compared with those of the past year.

BARTHOLOMEW'S WASHINGTON.

Many of our citizens have observed with the pleasure it is calculated to inspire, the elegant statue of Washington which adorns the front of the clothing establishment of Messrs. Walker & Co., on Baltimore street, between Calvert and Light streets, recently elevated to the niche reserved for its reception. It is a superb work of art, and a contribution to American genius and public taste eminently creditable to the proprietors of the building. It has a melancholy significance as the production of an American artist, who has been obliged to seek a market for his work in a foreign land, and his work remains the mementoes of his talent, energy and perseverance; his history an exemplary page in the annals of American genius.

The Washington which now adorns our city will be used as a subject of pride, and a memorial of him it represents and of the artist who produced it. As a work of art it challenges admiration. The easy grace and dignity of the man are most pleasingly expressed in the figure; and none can gaze upon the serene majesty of the face and brow without a renewed sense of the grandeur of the achievements which adorn with so much luster the early history of our country.—Bull. Sun.

Whilst in Baltimore, a few days since, our attention was arrested, in passing, by this admirable work of art—redoubting as it does the mastery skill of Mr. BARTHOLOMEW, and the open-handed liberality of Messrs. WALKER & Co. We advise our friends visiting the city to stop and take a long look at it. Some time is required in viewing the statue, in order to appreciate its many striking points.

A CHANGE.

We learn that Thomas T. Wierman, formerly Resident Engineer on the Pennsylvania Canal, at Huntingdon, has been promoted to the situation of Engineer and Superintendent of that work. Mr. De Puy, who was placed in charge of the canal department, at the present time, is the Resident Engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., has been for some time Superintendent of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, and Mr. Wierman succeeds him on the Canal. From what we can learn of the latter gentleman and from the fact of his being advanced to so important a post we judge that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has added another to its honorably able corps of employees.—Columbia Spy.

True, every word, neighbor of the S. W. Mr. WIERMAN is entirely competent for that, as he would be for any other post, requiring honesty, energy and brain, within the gift of the Company.

Mr. PHILIP DEXSON has been elected Orderly Sergeant of the Independents Blues, in place of C. X. MARTIN, resigned. This is an excellent selection, as Philip does everything well which he undertakes.

At the recent communion in St. James' (Lutheran) Church in this place, Rev. J. R. KEISER, Pastor, 21 persons were added to the membership by confirmation, 3 by certificate and 1 by baptism.

The Baggage Car was thrown from the track, and the pedestrians broken off, at noon on Wednesday last, in Weible's cut. No other damage was done.

ENIGMA.

Will Mr. F. R. B. please answer the following Enigma? I am composed of 20 letters: My 1 16 12 15 is an indefinite adjective pronoun.

2 9 16 is often used by a sick person. 3 18 6 7 is a reposition. 4 18 5 is part of a week. 6 7 12 8 is a refuge for the dead. 8 17 19 16 20 is something we eat. 10 3 4 is something chewed by animals. 11 3 6 is an adverb.

12 19 16 18 is what some people are. 14 9 16 4 is found in mines. 20 16 2 13 is a kind of fruit.

My whole is what every boy and girl should do. Answer to Enigma in last Compiler: "John Quincy Adams."

Answer to Algebraical Problem in The Compiler two weeks ago: 5.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT.

This injunction pedestrians should never forget. If in passing along crowded thoroughfares, they would "keep to the right," as the law directs, many unpleasant collisions and much annoyance and hindrance would be avoided. Nothing is more disagreeable than to come up to a stranger in the street, each going in a different direction, and find one's self brought to a stand still to prevent the appearance of rudeness—to step to the right to allow the stranger to pass, and to find that he has made the same movement, and to again step back and again find him directly in front of you—both endeavoring to be polite, and yet both confused and annoyed by failing to observe the rule of keeping to the right. However narrow the walkway the extensive crinolines move straight ahead, swerving neither to the one side nor to the other, compelling the sterner sex to take to the borders of the pavement.

Mr. PHILIP A. MYERS has been appointed Postmaster at New Chester, in this county, in place of Mrs. E. Heinard, resigned.

The Hanoverians are talking of numbering the houses in that place. Not a bad idea, and one which we hope will be agitated here.

A large Ball took place at Fisher's hotel, in Taneytown, on Tuesday night last.

Mr. HENRY SCHULTZ, of Huntingdon township, slaughtered a steer a few days ago, which weighed 1152 pounds, clean meat—hard to beat.

Our friend W. W. WRIGHT, Esq., in London, has our acknowledgments for several copies of "The Thunderer," The Times.

Lancaster Election.

The Democratic Candidate for Mayor Elected!—At the municipal election in Lancaster on Tuesday last, George Sanderson, Democrat, Editor of the Intelligencer, was elected Mayor, over the present incumbent, Thomas H. Burrows, Opposition, by seven majority.—The vote cast was a heavy one.

The London Times, the Emperor Napoleon and the Spanish Cortes are all "down" on President Buchanan's Message. A good sign, that.

Mr. McIntosh, formerly of the Howard House, Baltimore, has leased Jones's Hotel, in Calverton street, Philadelphia.

We find in an exchange paper the statement that seventy-two white females were married to black men in Massachusetts last year! If this be so it is carrying out the abolition doctrine to practical results.

The Franklin Railroad.—The Hagerstown Mail states that Franklin railroad bonds to the amount of $50,000 have been taken in that county, which renders certain the relaying of the road, at an early day.

At Dubuque Iowa, lately, an old lady kicked a boy at whom she became angry, with such force that she ruptured a blood-vessel, and died in a short time.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—It is a powerful medicine, when the vitality of the parts affected is seriously deranged. Holloway's Ointment removes the most painful Sores and Scalds, and cures the most obstinate Eruptions. While penetrating through the absorbents to the source of the disorder, it opens the pores for the exhalation of the vitiated and poisonous matter from the system, and imparts a degree of vigor to all the external vessels, which enables them to repair the corresponding discharges, with new blood. All Glanders, sore, boils, glandular swellings, etc. are rapidly cured in this way, the cure being assisted and expedited by the internal operation of the Pills.

"ALL RIGHT: DE SAUTY."—De Saity, the great mysterious De Saity, still remains at the City Station of the Atlantic Telegraph, with several assistants, who, by night and day, are watching for "signals" and "messages" of a mysterious transmission, and all that sort of thing. About the best thing De Saity can do is to drop his infernal wire-working and come to Philadelphia where he can be free from anxiety, and enjoy the luxury of reading each elegant parchment as it comes in the great De Sa
