Exciting Scene in Frederick Court-house.—A gentleman from Frederick, Md., informs us that quite an exciting scene occurred in Court, in that city, day before yesterday. During the investigation of an alleged charge of forgery against a third party, the evidence of his crime, in the form of a note, it seems, was traced to the possession of Col. Wm. P. Maulsby, a well known lawyer, who was immediately cited but in contempt of the Court refused to appear before the Grand Jury. Judge Nelson, upon hearing of the matter, had the Colonel arraigned, fined him five hundred dollars, and, in addition, sentenced him to be sent to prison. The friends of Mr. M. were greatly excited. —Clipper.

The Sickles' Case.—Mr. Sickles Indicted for Murder.—WASHINGTON, March 17.—The grand jury to-day, after a patient investigation, indicted Hon. Daniel E. Sickles for the wilful murder of Philip Barton Key, of this city. Against Mr. Butterworth, who was present at the killing, they found no bill whatever, in view of what was developed before them.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.—ST. LOUIS, March 17.—A man named Hamilton, residing in this city, shot his wife and then shot himself last night. He has been married but three months. The cause of the rash act is attributed to jealousy. Hamilton is mortally wounded, but it is supposed that his wife will recover.

Death of Mike Walsh, an Ex-Member of Congress.—New York, March 17.—The dead body of Mike Walsh, an ex-member of Congress, was found this morning in an area of a building on the Eighth avenue. The unfortunate man, it was thought, had been robbed and murdered.

Another version of the affair, however, and which is probably correct, says that Mike fell down the steps of the area whilst intoxicated, and broke his neck. His friends are mourning over the event.

Election of U. S. Senator.—TRENTON, N. J., March 17.—The Legislature of this State went into an election for United States Senator to-day, and chose John C. Ten Eyck, (opposition,) over the Democratic candidate. This result was brought about by the combination of the "Americans" with the Republicans.

Special Notices.

☞Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in the wolves of equal worth. Th is happy mingling exists in that of medicine known as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affections, and Incipient Consumption is in stimable.

"Combination and a form indeed"

Important letter from Rev. Jacob Sechler, well known, and highly respected throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

HANOVER, PA., Feb. 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston—Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefit from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefitted by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry afloat throughout the country.

JACOB SECHLER.

☞Beware of vile and worthless counterfeits! The only Genuine, Pure, and Medicinal Balsam has the name of "I. BUTTS" written with a pen, and the printed name of the proprietors, "S. W. FOWLE & Co.," on the outer wrapper.

Prepared by Seth W Fowle & Co., Boston, and for sale by A. D. Buehler, Gettysburg; Jacob Fulweiler, Mennmasburg; M. Staster, New Oxford; D. E. Hollinger, Abbottstown; William Wolf, East Berlin, Peter Bobbits, Hampton; Wm. B. Metcalf, York Springs; and by all dealers in medicines. [Mar. 21. 4mo

BALDNESS CURED.—For real worth, Wood's Hair Restorative is undoubtedly the best preparation now in use, for restoring hair on bald heads, changing gray hair to its original color, and as a cosmetic or cure for pimples, it is fast taking the place of other preparations. No toilet now-a-days is complete without it.

CAUTION.—Beware of worthless imitations, as several are already in the market, called by different names. Use none unless the words (Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, Depot St. Louis, Mo., and New York,) are blown on the bottle. Sold by all Druggists and Patent Medicine dealers, also by all Fancy and Toilet Goods dealers in the United States and Canada.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—A most erroneous idea prevails in this country in relation to hemorrhoids, or piles. They are suffered to drain the system of its life-blood, because, forsooth! it is deemed dangerous to meddle with them. Now we undertake to say that every form of the disease can be expeditiously cured (not suppressed) by the simultaneous use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The former expel the acrid irritating matter which produces the hemorrhage, while the Ointment, acting as a balsamic styptic, closes the mouths of the relaxed blood-vessels near the terminus of the intestinal canal, and thus a safe, complete, and permanent cure is achieved.

THE GRAND BALL TO LORD NAPIER.—This splendid affair, which came off at Washington, on Thursday night, was a decided success. All the magnates of the land were present, and all enjoyed themselves exceedingly. Lady Napier was dressed in the most becoming style, while "my lord" looked pretty fresh a Noblemen and a gentleman in the right sort, which he pronounced expressly for the festive occasion, from the Brewer Store Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street above Sixth, Phila. Mrs. M. was, for many years, a consistent and faithful member of the Ger. Ref. Church. On account of bodily infirmity, for the last few years of her life, she was deprived of the public worship of God; but this did not prevent her from attending to her spiritual interests. In all her trials she looked to God for support: and now she has gone to receive her reward. In her death her children have lost an affectionate mother: and the poor, a friend who never sent the hungry empty away. Her funeral was largely attended. The text selected for the funeral sermon was: 2 Tim., 4 chap., 7 and 8 vs.

The Only Article

UNRIVALLED IN MARKET, WITH IMMENSE HOME & EUROPEAN DEMAND.—The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fail or become gray; then, readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.: Gentlemen:—Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as far as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration. I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy. You can publish this if you think proper. Yours, &c.,

S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact bald. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,

No. 464 Vine street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Country produce taken in exchange for goods.

J. ALEX. HARPER.

The undersigned also carries on the CARRIAGE-MAKING business at the same place, and offers rare inducements to purchasers. He will warrant his work good, whilst his charges are among the most moderate. Repairing done on short notice. J. ALEX. HARPER.
